LETTERS TO BEAR

HE LIKES 'EM HAIRY & WET

I have lived with my parents all my life. I've known I like guys now for ten years. The only contacts I've had with gay men have been through letters, and then only two people. Both of them lived too far away from me; one was only interested in me joining his church and the other wrote me once and I haven't heard from him since.

I have always been turned on by men with large muscles, hairy chests, hairy stomachs, hairy thighs, hairy butts and a hairless back. Finding men like that is hard to do. Something else that has always turned me on, for as long as I can remember, is sweat and urine.

After a lot of urging on my part for something that had anything about gay sex in it, the person from the church finally gave me an order form for Advocate Men and some cutouts from other magazines. Shortly after he did he quit writing me.

I thought for a while before I ordered Advocate Men. Except for the few bears in it, I still felt like I was some kind of pervert because I liked what I liked. When I saw the ad for BEAR I felt some hope that finally I would get at least part of what I was looking for. It wasn't until I read "Down 'n Dirty" by Furr that I knew I wasn't alone anymore. When looking through the ads, however, I still haven't found any XXX-rated videos, magazines or clubs that offer bears getting down 'n dirty. If you know somebody that does offer what I'm looking for I'm sure there are others out there like me who would really be interested.

Your sweaty, pissy, bear watcher...
N. O., Freeburg, MO

Get out of the house, boy! Do not pass GO. Do not collect $100. Just get your ass outta there and live this thing called life! And if circumstances prevent it, write letters. Christ, write a letter to Furr: his address is in the Bears In Heat section and I bet he'd take a moment and tell you a thing or two about his adventures in Pee Pee Land, real or imagined. Write to the other advertisers who have the initials WS in their come-and-get-me's. That means water sports. That's means piss. And a look at ourads reveals that you're no where near alone in your carnal desires. Stay away from the church goes for a spell. You're looking for lust, not salvation. Take the initiative. You've got nothing to lose save the two-bits for the stamp.

I personally don't know of any specific clubs, run by WSers, catering to guys into it. San Franciscans used to get together and have pee parties, but I think they stopped for lack of an appropriate party space. Best bet: contact individuals who are interested in piss and get a solid referral. As for videos, well...have you seen our Big Bad Bears video? There's four WS scenes in it, but they're solo. Duo and group scenes are featured in the works of some underground filmmakers. Check out the ads in The Advocate.

HOT SHOT WALT

BEAR Magazine, Issue 10 is Fantastic!! I am writing to request information on the illustrator Walt Henry. The illustration on page 51 is unbelievable!! I'll bet that the original was larger because the subject is obviously "holding" something in his right hand. Why was it cropped?

Walt Henry's detail to HAIR is painstakingly fantastic!! I have done illustrating before and know the time it takes to do hair.

Does Walt Henry offer prints from this illustration? Would he offer the original illustration? Does he offer a catalog of his illustrations?

I certainly would appreciate any info regarding this great artist.

D.B., Worthing, OH

Isn't Walt something else, huh? We're gonna be featuring some more of his fine work in future issues. I don't think he's got a catalog or any type of sales tool for his erotic drawings, but I'm gonna push him and give him a free ad if he gets one together.

The drawing you're referring to wasn't cropped. We printed it full frame. And I don't know what the fellow in the drawing could have been holding. Think of it like the Mona Lisa. We don't know what the ol' gal was smiling at, but she sure looks happy.

SALIVATING AT STURGIS

Congratulations on a real neat mag. It's such a relief to have a magazine that shows it as we like it and not these prissy glossy fashion pictures you see everywhere else.

You showed in an old issue a map with the distribution of subscribers per state with none in South Dakota. Well, let me tell you that every second week of August, there are 80,000+ Harley bikers in Sturgis and talk about bears... Have you ever been in the middle of 80,000 men almost each of them with long, bushy beards and beerguts and etc.? Anyway, the attached picture was taken alongside the highway in the middle of nowhere, South Dakota last year. Thought you might like!

J.C., Delaware, NJ

Well you're right J.C. I do like. And you know what? We've grown a lot since that map was published, and I STILL don't have a subscriber in South Dakota.

JACK'S FIRST FAN LETTER

I am writing this letter to ask that you forward the enclosed correspondence to Jack Radcliffe. I received your confirmation of my BEAR magazine renewal last week and in it was a photo of Jack. I know that beauty is in the eye of the beholder, but from my subjective viewpoint, I believe that Jack is the hottest bear that I have seen.

Normally I would never think of writing to a model, but in Issue No. 9 you make mention of the fact that the Men in BEAR do like to receive correspondence.

I was so turned on that I decided to write to Jack Radcliffe. I hope that he will think enough of my letter to respond. I would send him on a trip that he wouldn't quickly forget. I'd love to hear him growl and growl. Well, I have left my letter unsealed in case you might want to read it. I don't think that I've said anything out of line for one bear to write to another. In regard to your comment about dropping telephone numbers if people make complaints about late night calls, I would just like to say that I have dropped my address from my listing because questions have been asked why I was using only my first name. That's probably because I was too cheap to rent a P.O. box and had mail sent to my apartment. Be that as it may, having the phone number forces people to either call or not pursue the ad. I prefer a phone number. I have an answering machine and usually do not answer my phone after 11 p.m. If I receive a J/O call, which I do not usually care for, especially in the middle of the night, I simply do not answer the phone. It's amazing how fast they get off the line once they hear the recording! It works like a charm.

Keep up the good work with BEAR magazine. It's the greatest thing around. Don't tell my older friend Tony DeBlase (Fledermaus), but I think that you have Drummer beat by a mile. Good luck in

J.W., Chicago, IL

I agree that Jack's a real beauty—a natural man. And he was a joy to work with. He stopped by the shop and I gave him your note. In fact most of the boys in BEAR come 'round now and then so if anyone out there wants to send a fan letter, we'll do what we can to get it into their hands.

Haven't heard any recent complaints about phone abuse so we'll continue to allow folks to use them in their ads. My home phone's got a machine attached to it, but any call after bedtime wakes me up and generates anxiety or irritation. I don't think I'm alone in my feelings. So guys, don't call a potential friend at an ungodly hour. Shoot a load and calm yourself down.

As for your comments about us and our friends at Drummer, well, all I can say is that our focuses and approaches are different. Maybe the kind of man you are and the lifestyle you enjoy ties in a little closer to what we deliver. I do appreciate your comment though; I respect the subculture which Drummer has documented over the years and applaud the vehicle it provided for writers, photographers and illustrators.

MR. ED GETS SOME NOOKIE

In the latest issue of BEAR, F.H. in Houston, Texas, wrote about the replies he got from his ad in BEAR. I am writing this to say I concur with him, second the statement in agreement, another satisfied BEAR reader! Even though #10 just came out, I've gotten a number of replies to my ad already. True, there are a lot of great looking bears out there.

I have met a couple Bear Buddies and had great fun filled fur frolics. Last week, New Year's, a buddy I contacted through the personal ads in Atlanta months ago, T.P., flew down to Miami and we drove down to Key West for the holiday weekend. We had a terrific, excellent, great time exploring Key West and each other, taking photos, letting our fantasies run wild and cum true.

So there you have it, another testimonial. I want to tell fellow BEAR readers, Key West is a great place to cruise for Bears: at the bar, Duvall Street or the beach.

What was it like meeting pen pals? Great! You exchange letters, photos, get an idea what each other are like, get acquainted that way, exchange photos, and when the time comes or cums, you meet, it's like old friends missing or long lost relatives. Head back to your cave with your out of town guest, shut the door, rip each other's clothes off (or slowly undress, depending on the person) and have your own Bear Fuck Party; better than a pick up at a bar, you know each other already. T.P. from Atlanta and I look so much alike, people thought we were brothers. My golden retriever was confused. I wish I could meet all my pen pals.

Enclosed is a photo from our New Year's End of the Decade Fun Frolic. Please feel free to publish it along with my above statement. Bears really do meet through BEAR personal ads! Go fur it! And as you've been told a thousand times before, I'll tell you again, thanks for putting out a great magazine.

E.M., Miami, FL

BEAR CORRUPTS ANOTHER VIRGIN

First off, I have to say that I used to be crazy about Drummer, but when I read the ads I got the impression that all any of them wanted was some slim, trim dude that was either into posing or some really sadistic shit! Then a friend showed me a copy of BEAR. Wow! I've always liked big men, but never wanted anything but muscle. When I think of it, that sounds pretty hypocritical since I myself am 6'1" and 240 lbs. After reading BEAR, I have to tell you that you've changed my whole concept of what a stud should look like! The great thing about your men is that they're real - no phony names and no bullshit hype. I even saw an ad from one of your cover-men.

I can tell you that there's plenty of great looking bears in Portland. The trouble is, just when my eyes have latched onto a perfect specimen of bruin excellence, some bitch walks into the picture and ruins the view. I don't know where the right bears are yet, but I'll keep looking.

I myself am a 24 year old virgin (that's right - a genuine VIRGIN!), CW chubby-cubby who's fairly hairy (especially the legs and ass). I'm not the most masculine guy in the world, but so far no one's called me a faggot either. I've always been very shy and had a really negative view of myself because of my size but, thanks to you, it's starting to get through my thick skull that there might actually be someone out there who's going to like me that way. As for being a virgin, I want to take things slow, but not this slow, for Chrissake!

Anyway, I just wanted to thank you for showing that someone can be considered hot even if they're not a blond, teeny-bopper, hairless wonder. (Not to mention thanking you for all the great looking guys you feature!) You've definitely won me over. As soon as I'm finished with school and get back into the job market (about 2 - 3 months), the first thing I plan on doing is becoming a Bear Buddy and placing an ad to see if I can find myself a Daddy-Bear.
K.F., Fairview, OR

RECIPIENT OF UNSOLICITED

My concern regards my personal ad featured in the magazine. I am unsure of how it came to be, but in today's mail I received a letter of solicitation from another publication within the San Francisco area which included a copy of my BEAR ad in its solicitation. I know it is common practice for magazines, organizations of various types which feature personals and companies to sell mailing lists for profit. I would hope that such a practice is not being done by BEAR or anyone working for the publication.

I have received several interesting phone calls and letters from sincere people who have taken interest in my ad. Likewise, I have written and have met a few interesting people through the magazine who I would now consider good friends. I would wonder how anyone else would appreciate a "personal" classified intended for BEAR readership to be sold, if that is the case, without consent.
P.H., Laurel, MD

BEAR has never sold, rented, or given away its mailing list of subscribers. People who place ads open themselves up not only to fellow appreciators but also to anyone who has something to sell or say. Remember this when you use your home address or your home phone number and remember that your ad is your responsibility.

The company that solicited you has been soliciting business in the gay media for 12 years by clipping out advertisers' ads, sending the clipping back to the advertiser and stating how much the same ad would cost in their publication. Apparently they got their hands on an issue of BEAR, grabbed their scissors and went to town. Your letter was not the only one I received regarding this matter.

I contacted the company in response to your complaints...along with a few of my own concerning this practice...and they've agreed to stop using BEAR ads for their marketing. In fact they stated that most of our ads were too distasteful and obscene for their publication. Keep it up boys!

BUY STOCK IN KLEENEX

Do you quiver at the sight of Dan Haggerty? Do you catch yourself watching WWF wrestling, not for the thrill of competition, but for the thrill of imagining thrusting your hand down the front of Hillbilly Jim's overalls, or handling Hacksaw Jim Duggan's 2x4? Do your friends wonder why you never miss a Brian Dennehy movie? Have you actually sat through all of "Six Pack" just because Kenny Rogers does sit-ups with his shirt off?

I have!

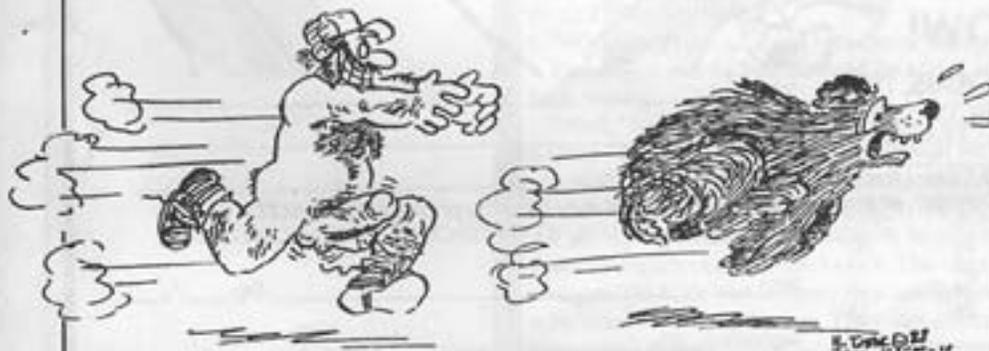

Needless to say, the discovery of BEAR #9 on a New York newsstand the other day has put a strain on my Kleenex budget. Coverman John Perry set my heart aflutter (beautiful eyes!). He combines two of my favorite things in a man: he's bearded and naked! You have everything I never found in the mainstream porn rags. I love men with natural bodies, older men, men with beer guts; you've got it all! The artwork and even the personals get me hard. I'm so horny right now I could whack off on the masthead or the page numbers!

If I ask nicely, do you think you could cater to my secret fantasy? Bear police! S.G., Fanwood, NJ

Your letter reassures me that we're doing something right. I happen to share your secret fantasy. Guess it's not much of a secret anymore. But my actual run-ins with them haven't been altogether fantasy material. I think the event that pissed me off the most was when a big ol' beautiful bear of a cop-a-cock-suckin' cop at that-cruised the hell out of me in San Francisco's Castro District while writing me up a ticket for double parking.

I'd like to get some cop dick into the rag. Here's hopin'.

Greetings from a world-class procrastinator.

I sent for a sample of your mag way back when (No. 6), liked what I saw, but the subscription form got jammed in some odd nook or cranny. Then the day after I find it again, deciding to sit down and fill out a check, what do I see at my local everything-under-the-sun mag store? The new and improved BEAR. Praise God and sign me up now before I put it off again for several months. Not only are your models attractive, sexy, masculine and most importantly approachable (Jim D. and Karl, especially - be still my loins, until later at least), your smut-lit is engaging (oh, to get a tow from Copper) but also your down-to-earth, there's-a-real-world-out-there-guys angle (DesiderBEARata, John Dibelka's "Bare Pause" - my personal Poochism is "Oh, bother") gives me strength.

By next year I'll probably be ready to sign as a Bear Buddy, but not quite yet. Hey, I've been out only a little over two years now (I'm 33 - told you I'm a world class procrastinator), putting it off since I kept thinking the type of man I found myself attracted to would not be gay. That type being bearded, bulky and burly. Needless to say, I have discovered the joys of hugging, cuddling, snuggling, kissing, licking, sucking, fucking, etc. ad infinitum, but not ad nauseam. It may be against the cliché (and aren't we?), but my first deliberate sexual encounter was warm and furry and everything I hoped it would be.

And as time goes on, I find myself gravitating to boots, flannel shirts, and 50's even with a 29" waist (hey, it's my metabolism), and telling directors, no, I'm not willing to shave off my beard. And even though I don't have a hairy torso to call my own, I do enjoy petting someone else's.

So keep up the good work and whatever else needs to be kept up.

Gotta go. Karl is beckoning.
R.A., Portland, OR

LOADS UP ON ISSUE 10

Holy shit-fucking whaa! When I saw your return address on an envelope yesterday, I knew I was good and well set for the night. I quickly got the stove stuffed with wood, checked and filled the wood box, then opened the envelope, opened a beer and stuck my paw in and pulled out BEAR 10. The cover got things started, i.e. me pawing and pulling through my jeans. By the time I got to Karl I was guzzling my beer and got a good growl at page 11. Another beer and page 13 had me going. Needless to say by the time I got to Cal Driver my bear pole was dripping that honey that bears all love. Oh yeah, it was going to be a good night. Two loads later, four hours, not being quick on the draw and being a bear who know how to enjoy winter, I started to stuff my face—a major feeding, with bears in my mind and your mag propped up for the feast my eyes needed.

It's noon now and I've got to get this to the mail box and down the path to your den. Yeah, I stayed in my nest until now. Needless to say, I used more bear grease after eating last night. More this morning too, and will; be thinking of all those hairy holes and treats for my bear appetite.

But first I've got to get my chores done. Wish a nice bear would stumble by my den. A few do, but once my bear tail is stirring I need lots of stimulation. Yeah, all right. So I played in my toy box and played with ALL my toys last night and this A.M. Just wish there were another growler in my lair for this afternoon's playtime. Oh fuck, just to rub my fur against another bear today would be great. Bear dreams....

J.J., Skanee, MI

BEAR BUILDS SELF-ESTEEM

A friend of mine had to move home with mom and sent me all his porn. Three issues of BEAR magazine were enclosed and I have to say that I've not been so turned on for quite some time.

Please find enclosed my $26.00 for the next 6 issues of BEAR. Up till now I always thought of myself as a very average guy who was very hairy. I now have a better opinion of myself and hope to meet a special bear of my own.

FALSE ADVERTISING

I am a sucker for good-looking men. That's not a joke. It's not a line off a T-shirt. I will go out of my way to watch a man who turns me on. Since an awful lot of men turn me on, I spend a lot of my time going out of my way. What can I say? I'm a pig. It's the truth. I am also a sucker for the truth. Wonderful stuff: I use it whenever I can and I like a man who understands why. A real man is honest. Solid. Dependable. Sounds sort of corny, but it's the way I feel. My heroes have always been firemen. They care.

Lots of days I go out of my way past the park. Every morning it's full of firemen showing off their equipment and working on their bodies. Two or three companies, looks like: big red pumpers; hook-and-ladders; support trucks all rumble up and park side by side, noses out, ready to run. Then a couple of dozen hot men jump out.

One stays behind with each engine, polishing and watching and standing by in case of calls. All of the rest stretch and jump and run off across the grass in twos and threes, too many to watch all at once. They are all dressed in running shoes and dark blue shorts and shirts, and I've never seen one without a mustache. As a uniform, it looks great. One or two from each group carry portable radios. Otherwise, they look like they don't have a care in the world. They're doing what they love to do, it looks like, and I love to watch them do it.

Sometimes they take their shirts off, running. It's a great way to start a day. It's the way I've decided I'm going to start this one.

I'm driving to the park when a pickup flashes by so fast I hardly get to take a look. What I do see is well worth my time. The truck is big. It's black. Its driver's big and in a hurry. He's shirtless and he's got tattoos. He's also got a bumper sticker.

"Wanna Blow Me?" it wants to know. I speed up to try to find out.

I shift lanes to catch up. The guy is young. He's tanned and he's blond, with a crew cut and a neat mustache and that wiry golden body hair that sparkles in the sun growing all over his forearms and his chest. A couple of scars from old acne. An interesting face. His skin art all came from overseas. This man is in the Navy.

He also has attitude out the ass. I'm being cool, playing tag and looking sideways, but he's being cooler. Too cool. I see another sticker in his window and back off again. National Rifle Association; Lifetime Member.

I don't like to judge anyone without talking to him, but I don't have the time to take chances, right now.

He's in the parking lot, watching the firemen, stretched out on his elbows with his butt on the grass by the time I drive up. The man is cool.

"The answer to your sticker," I yell out the window as I park next to his truck, "is 'yes'." I am not so cool.

He looks startled at first, then he throws back his head and laughs. I get out of the car and I sit down beside him. I ask him a whole bunch of questions.

He tells me the sticker gets all kinds of reactions. "Old folks," he says, "turn up their noses and get pissed." Straight women chase him sometimes. Once, he had a carful flag him down to tell him yes. I tell him I can see why. He is one good-looking man.

He put the sticker on the truck, he tells me when I ask, because "it was the most balls-out arrogant thing" he could think of to do. All his friends tell him he is arrogant. I can believe it. He is doing a great job of acting that way now. I stop short of asking if he's ever been kissed. Or if he has ever sucked anyone else's cock. Somehow I know that's not his style. I catch myself staring at one passing fireman, who catches me staring too, and smiles.

I ask the guy next to me how many men try to take him up on his offer. "Not too many," he tells me. I point out that the NRA patch is intimidating. "That's fine," he says, "all I want's a guy with balls anyway." I think about that for a while. Usually I like self-confidence. This time around it's wearing thin. One more question and I think I'll know why.

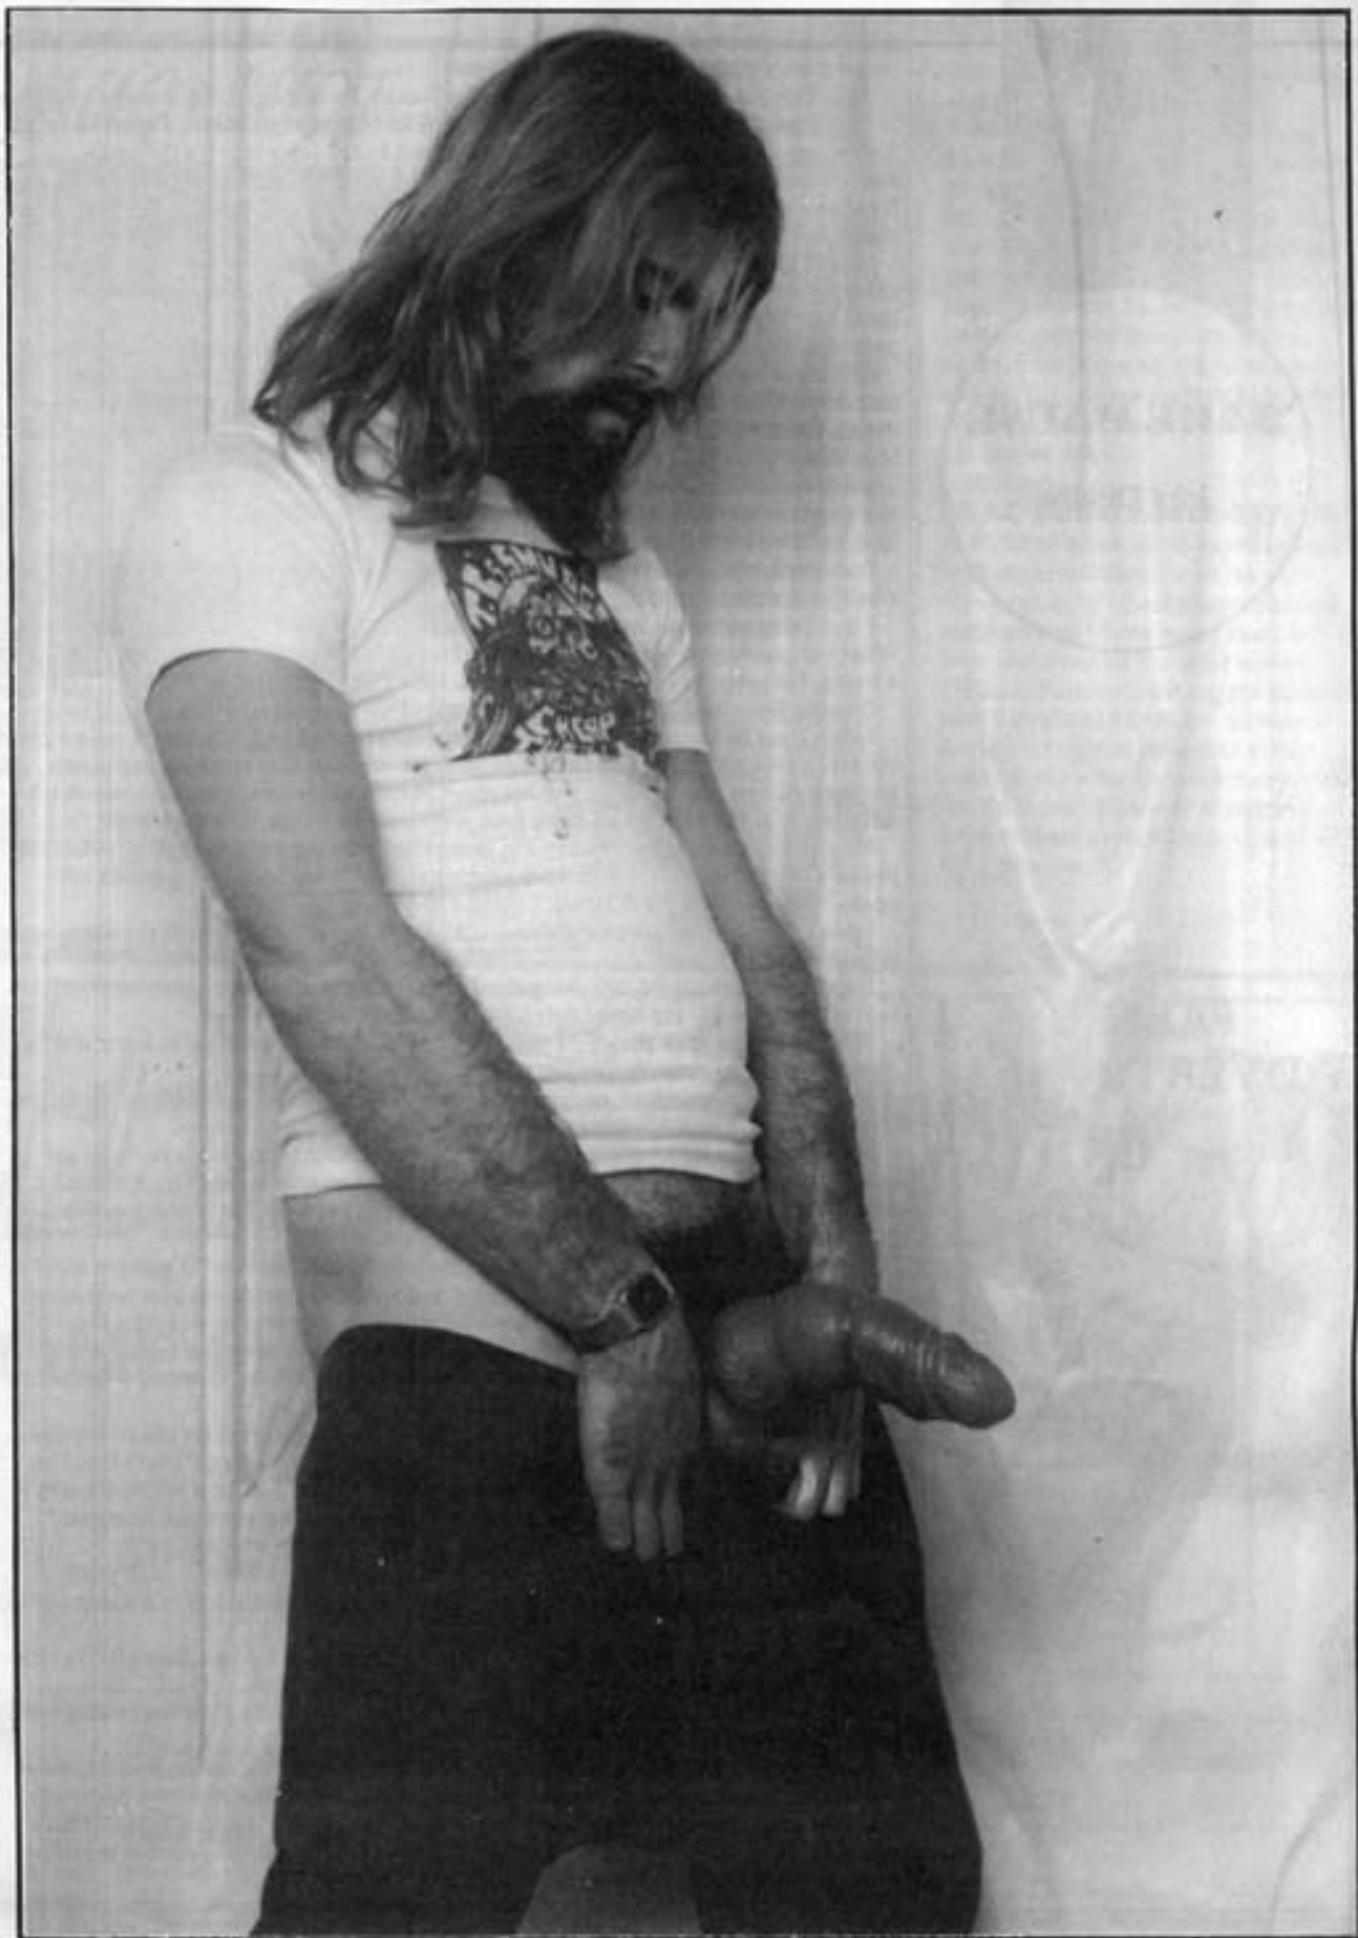

"What do you do," I ask him now, "when a hot guy you want too, says 'yes'?"

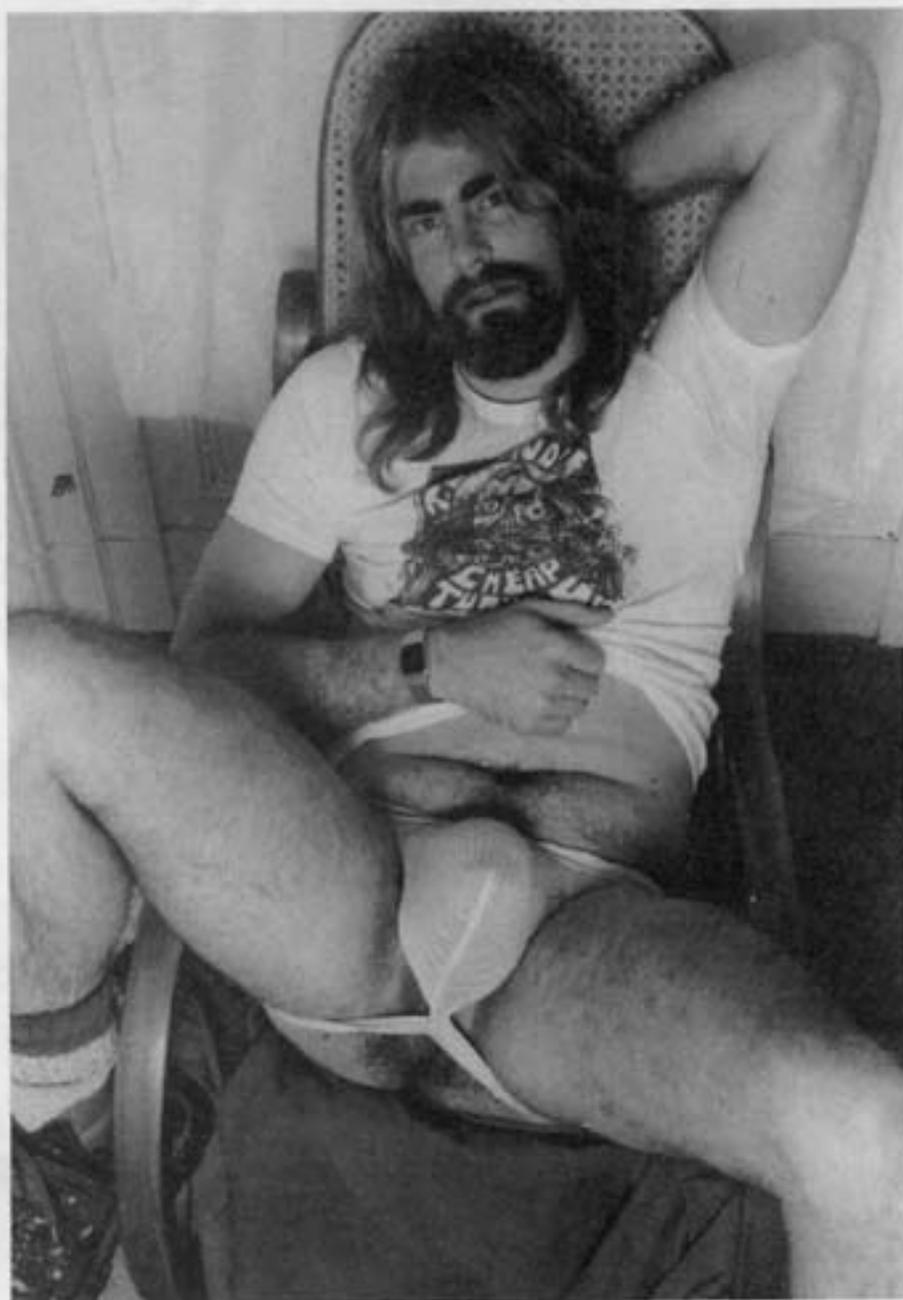

He scowls and he blushes and he stares at the grass. If he thinks I'm making a pass, he is wrong.

"Well," he says at last, "I usually just take their numbers, I guess. Basically, I'm just a tease." I'm only surprised he admits it.

I smile and stand and shake his hand and tell him it's been a pleasure talking with him. It has. I get back in my car to drive on.

I am trying to envision a "Wanna Blow Me?" bumper sticker on the back of one of these fire trucks beside me. I can't. The idea just doesn't fit. You look at a fire truck and you get balls-out honesty, not arrogance. All it says is, "We Save Lives." That's why firemen are my heroes. They can afford to smile. They don't promise anything they won't deliver.

BIG MEAT BELA

PHOTOGRAPHY BY BRAHMA STUDIO

---

Bela (pronounced BAY-la) called us up here at BEAR one day. "Hi, I like your magazine. I've always wanted to be in it, but I think my dick's too big."

"Well, we don't print people life-size and could probably handle this complication. Why don't you come on over and let's take a look at you." This had to be a crank call I thought.

A half hour later, Bela walked in, barely contained in his pair of shorts. My gawd! He stripped down for me and...ah...well...I just couldn't believe it. You won't either. And he swears it's 100% natural. And I believe him.

This man's a sure bet for a 4-H First Prize at any county fair in the country.

BELA

Bela's originally from Seattle but his roots are Hungarian. In fact, his father's from the Old Country and was a gypsy. Bela told me that his dad had a bigger dick than his.

"You're shittin' me," I said, "I can't imagine a pecker much bigger than yours. Maybe you just thought it was bigger 'cause you were a kid when you saw it."

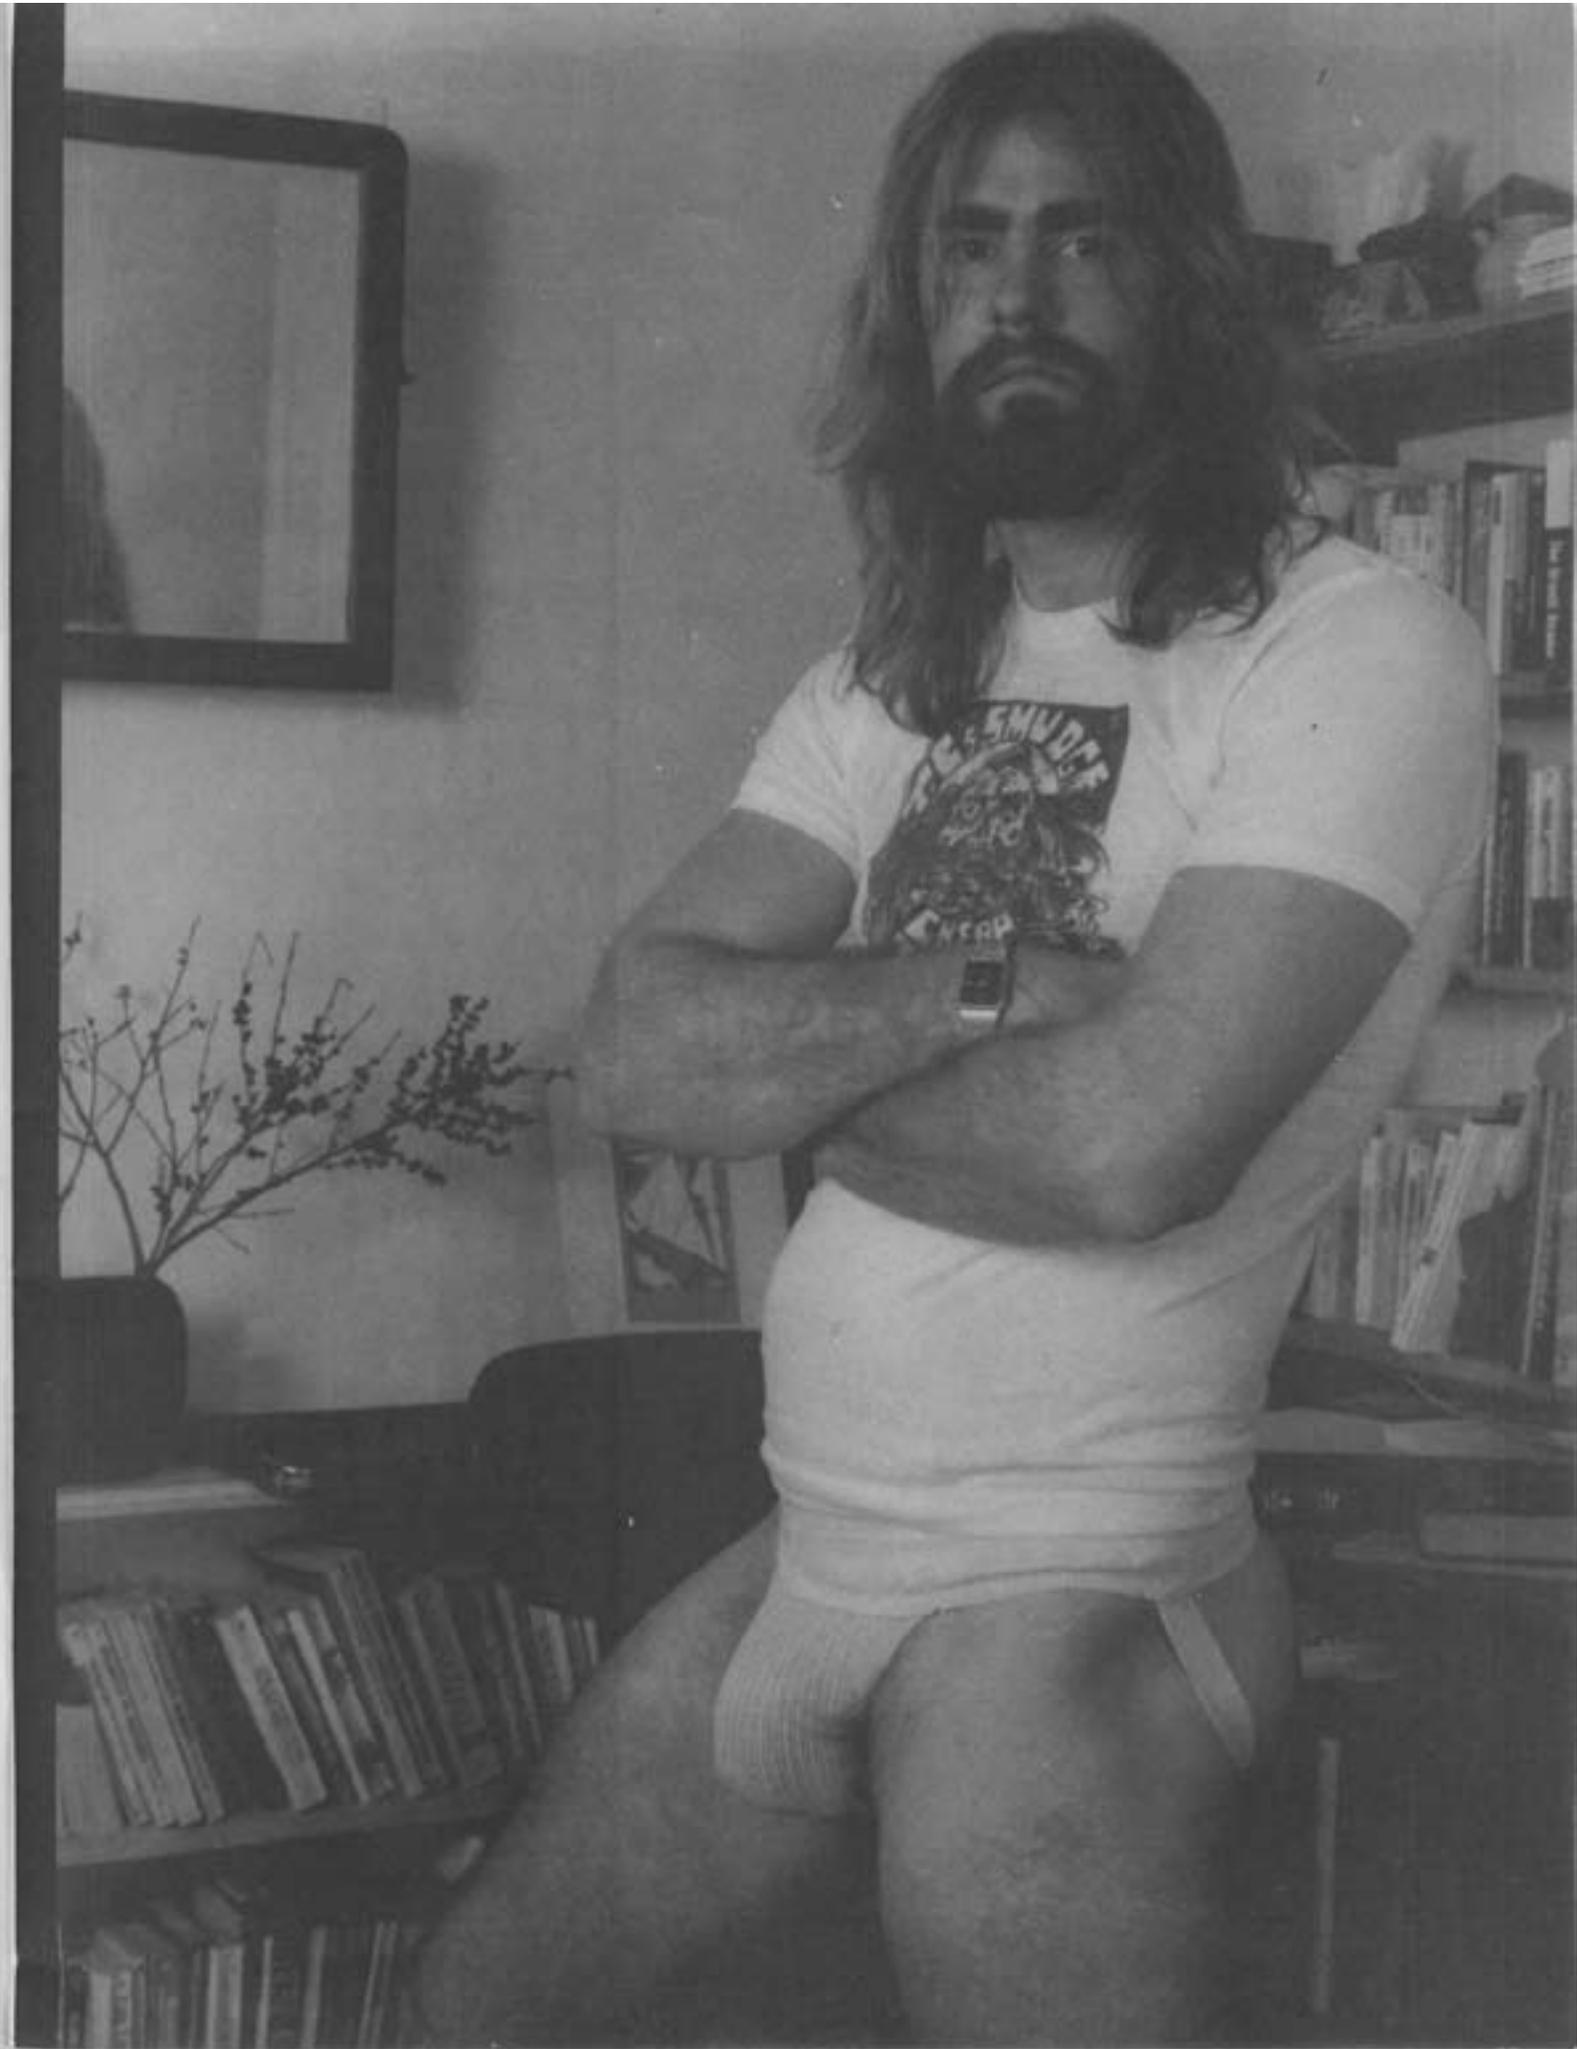

"No. I saw it lots as a teenager. Hard too. He called himself a nudist and walked around the house all the time naked. Usually he had an erection. And sometimes he'd jerk off in places where I could see him. He smelled. A great manly smell. Sweaty. Musky. I still get turned on by this smell."

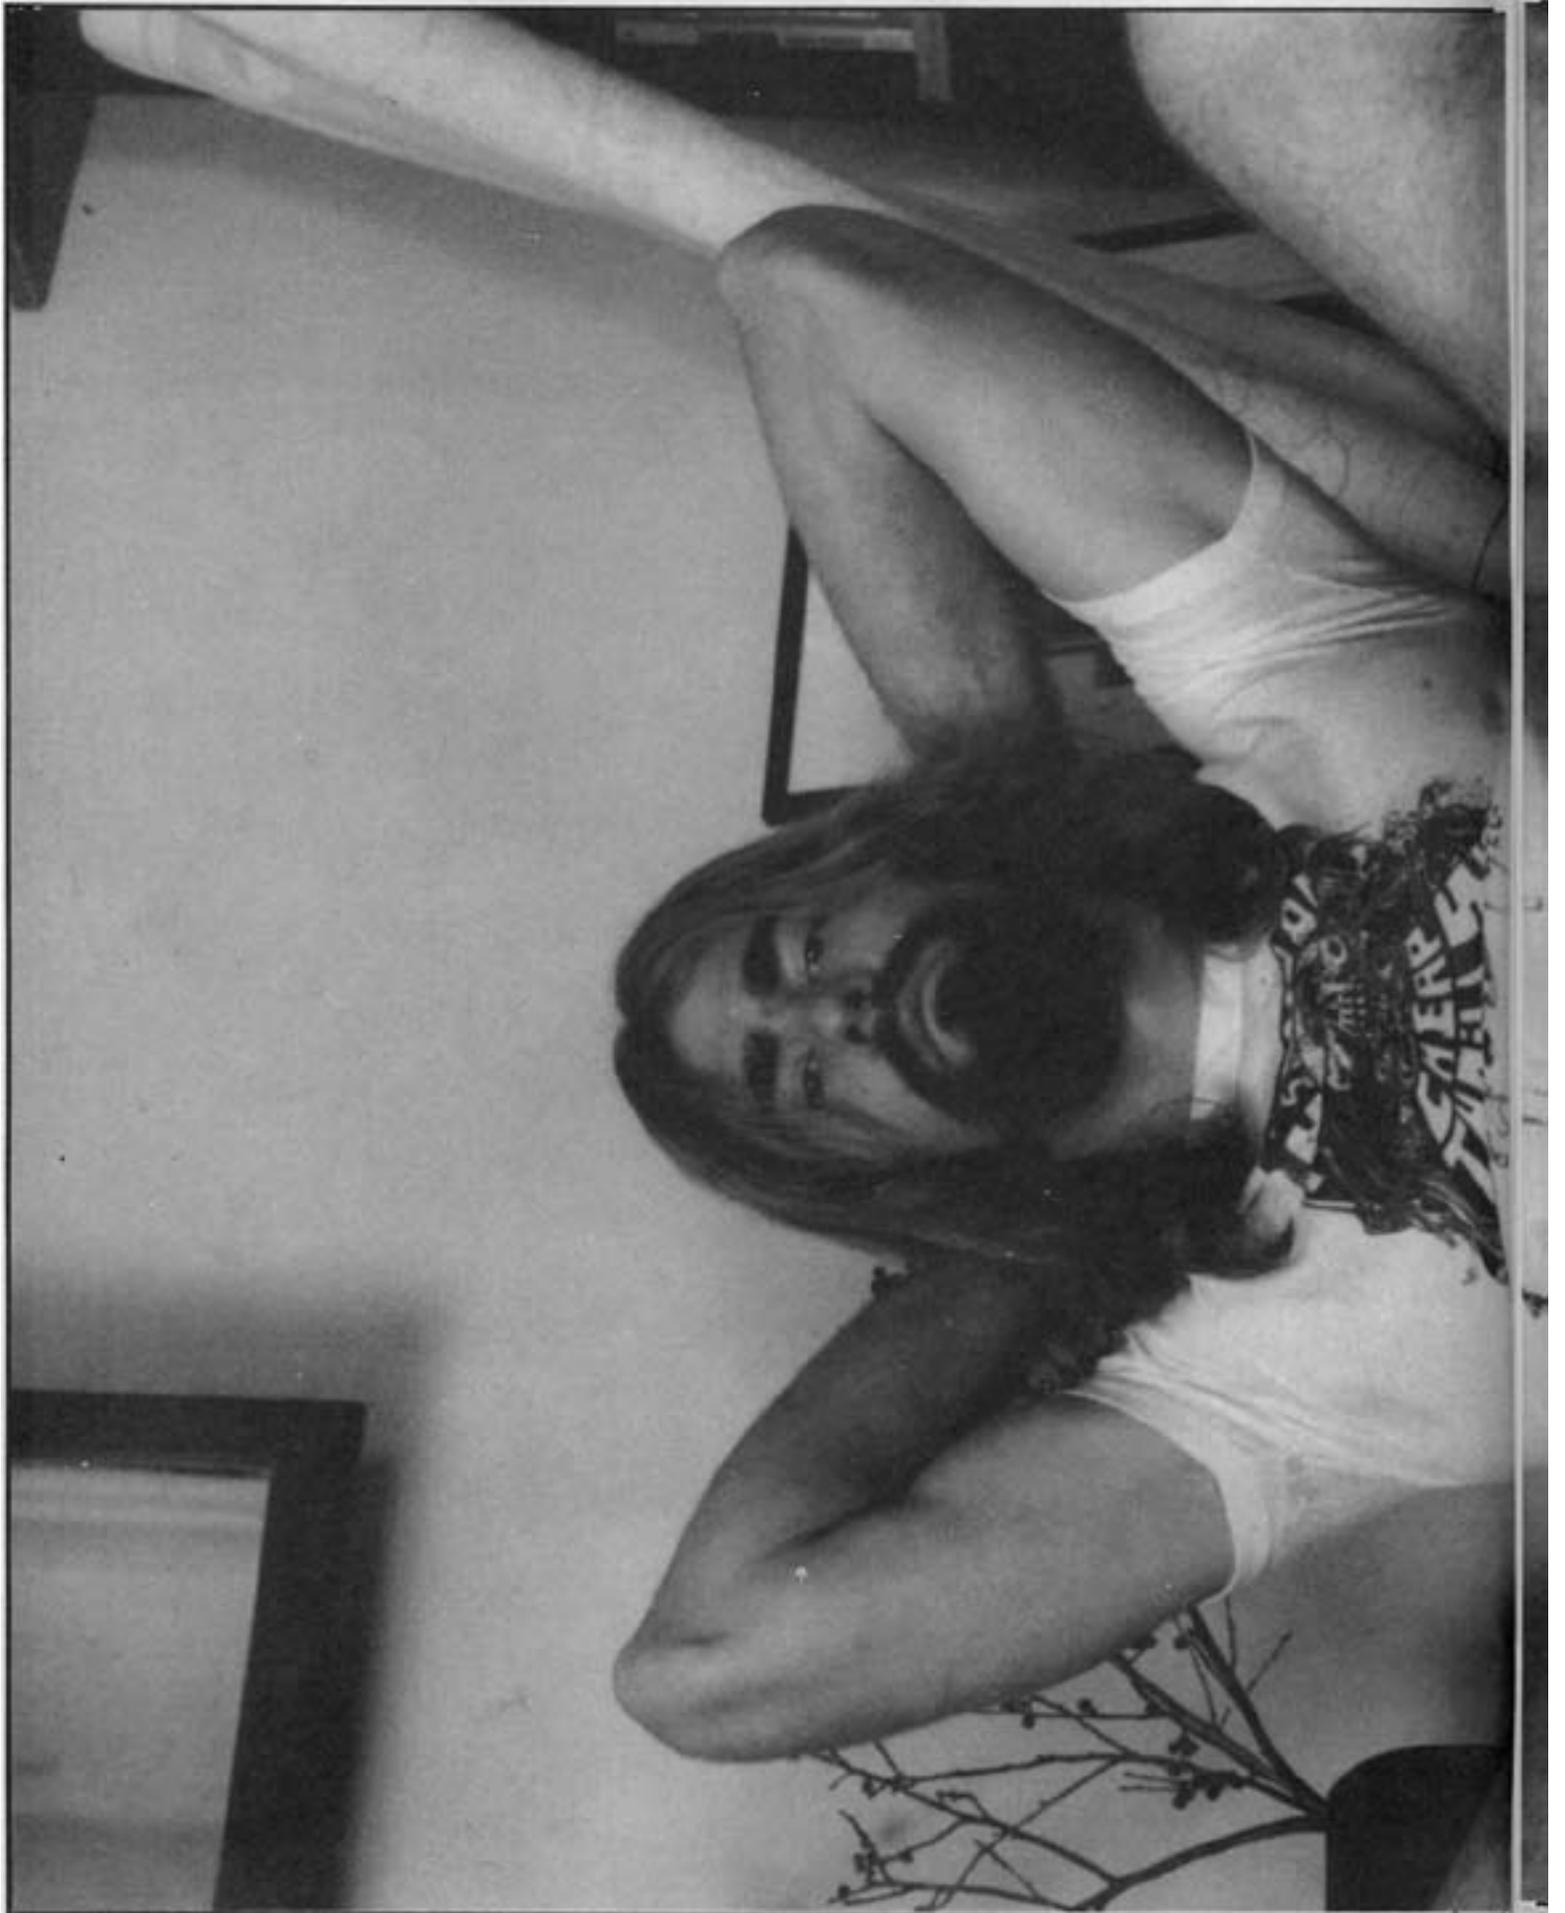

"His dick smelled?"

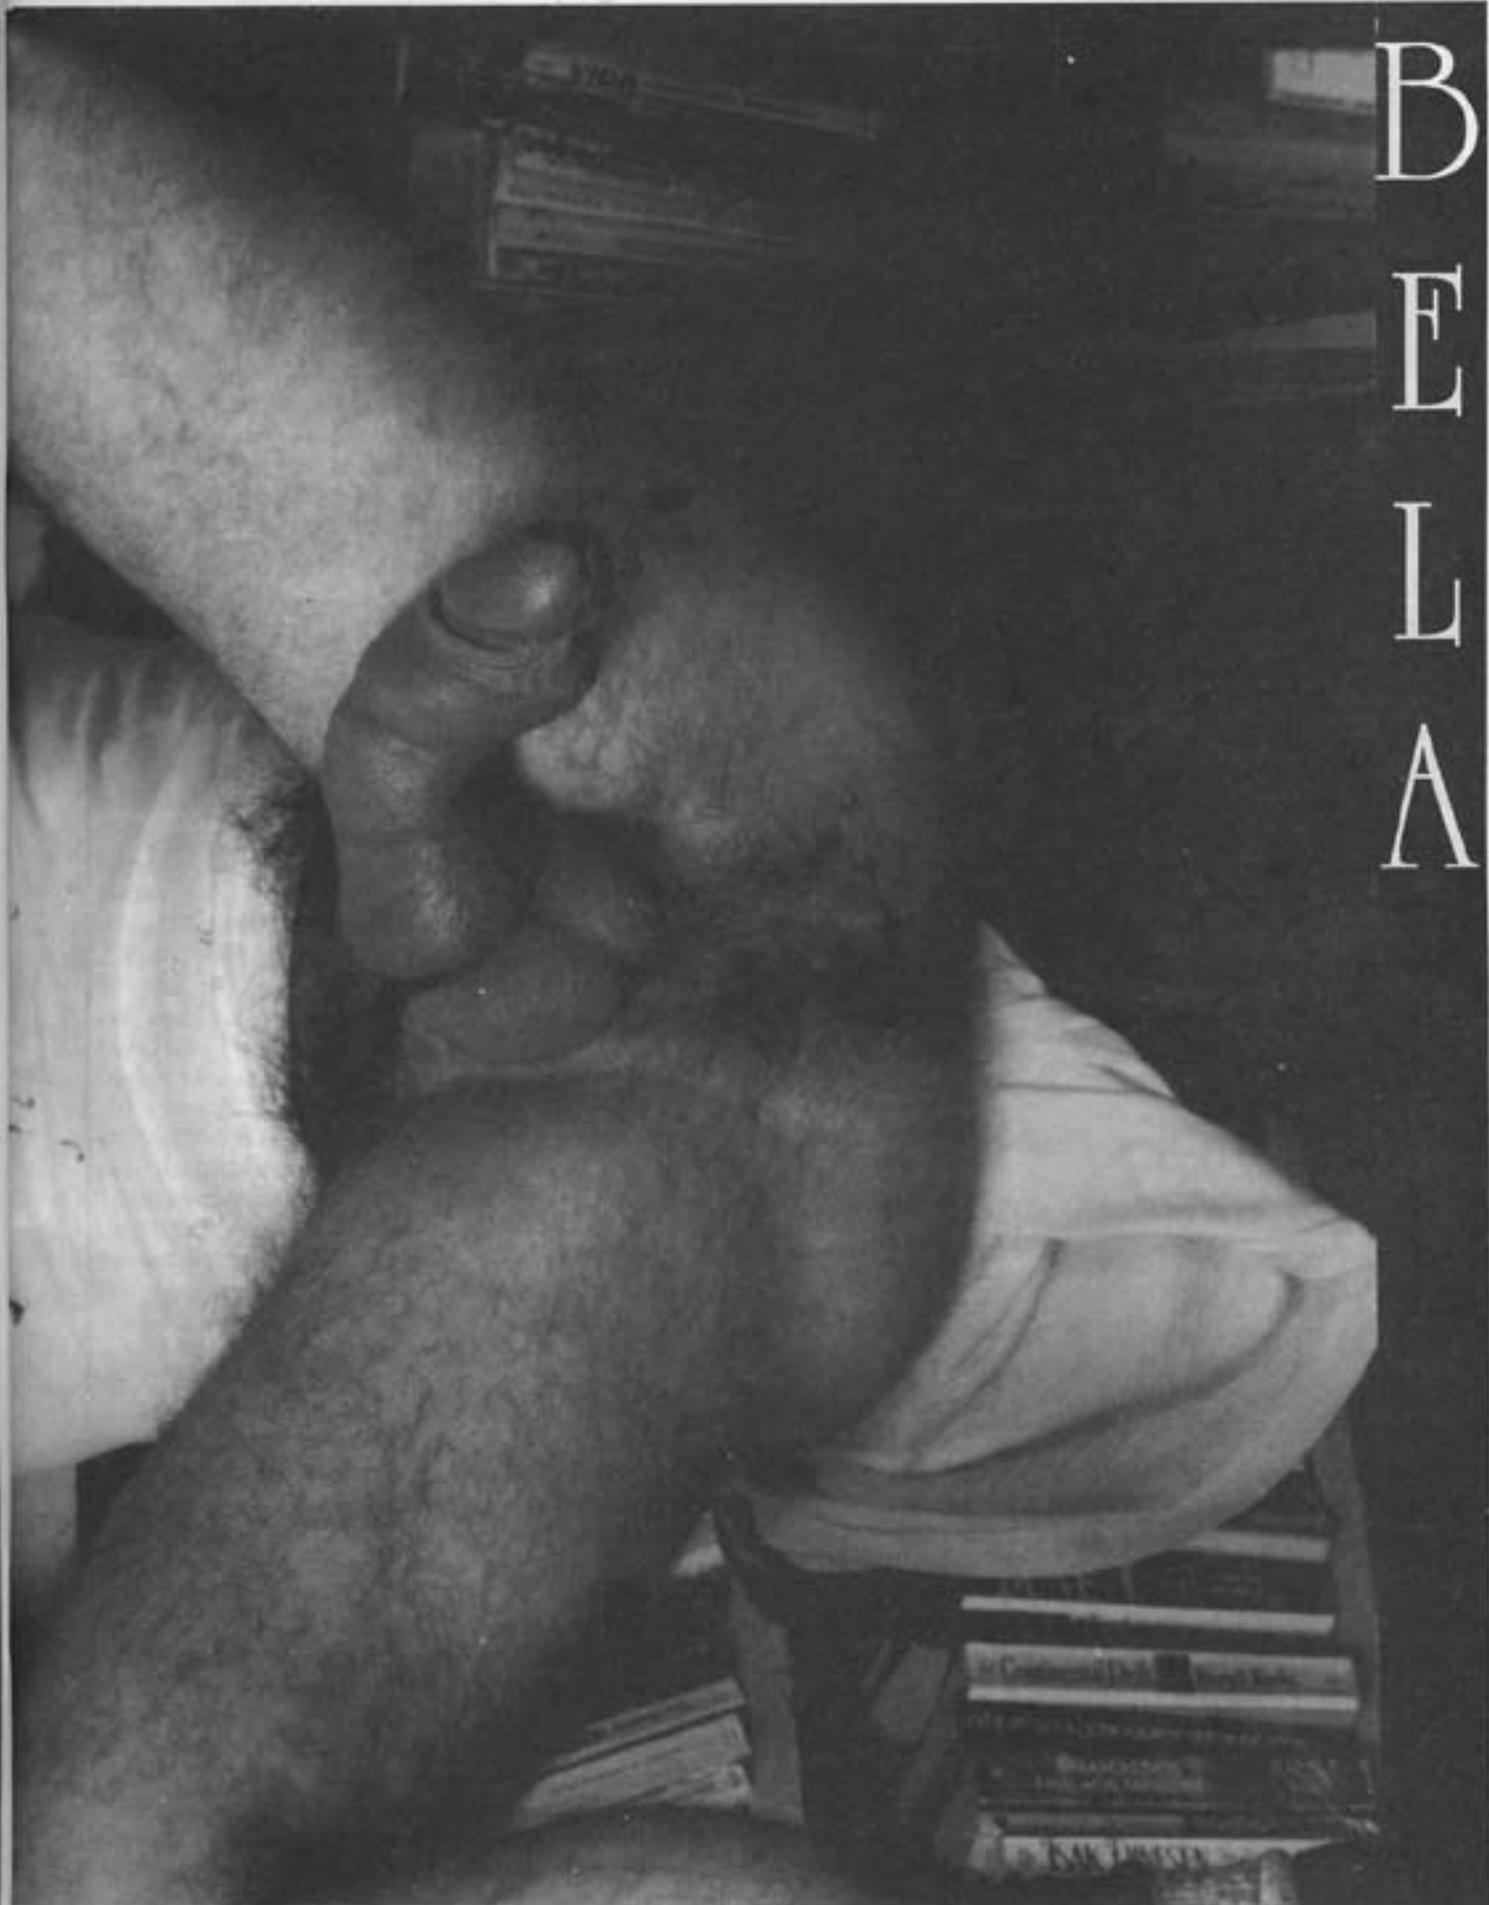

"Well, probably that too, but his ass stunk real good."

We talked more. Things were getting nasty. I took out the video camera, Bela had his pants off and was tuggin' on his honker with his legs thrown in the air, showing off a beautiful butthole while discussing incest, smells, ass eating and other tawdry topics. A good time was had by all. Look for the interview in a future BEAR VideoZine.

A GEORGIA BOY NAMED RUSTY WHO WASN'T RUSTY AT LOVE by J.D.

The following is from T*R*A*S*H* MAGAZINE (sample can be had for a lousy $3.00 in stamps or greenbacks...NO CHECKS, PLEASE! to D & W Enterprises, Box 292, East Rutherford, NJ 07073. This story is from HOT TRICKS Vol. 5 of the anthologies from T*R*A*S*H MAGAZINE and THE 18 WHEELER by Leyland Publications, Box 40397, San Francisco, CA 94140) T*R*A*S*H* caters to the readers who prefer un-vanilla reading and BEAR like partners. Remember: bears never eat anything they can't smell.

(While in Nashville, Tennessee a few years ago, the author was on a "Tattoo Mission" in the Trashmobile. Rusty was one of the several men needing tat work done.)

One Georgia drifter, Fred "Rusty" Walsh, just shy of forty, won the "Best of Nashville" prize. I took him off the corner near the liquor store to have fun with, caught up by his rugged looks. His nickname, Rusty, came from his auburn hair.

He was more than willing, hopped in the van at first invitation. He wanted a tattoo re-colored and I said I'd do the "infamous" Pegasus on his other arm if he wanted to pay for it by "relaxing" in the back.

He just grinned and said that one of his buddies had showed up with his tattoo done over the day before and he had hoped that I would show up again. He knew the score, but he didn't want to just "relax."

Rusty's from Georgia south of Chattanooga, had come north looking for work like Bill, another guy who had gotten work done on him the day before and who had enjoyed the comforts of the Trashmobile's bunk, had.

He'd been married and split.

He's been in Nashville a few months. Worked off and on with a steel fabricating company as yard worker, but they only hired him for a couple days a week. He'd stayed at missions too, bouncing from one to the other as they can only stay a few days at a time, or at the welfare hotel.

Rusty admitted he liked to give head, but that he was not what he thought was gay; he said he was probably bisexual, and just liked to suck dick when he didn't have pussy to eat and just never got around to wondering what he was, other than just a horny sex fiend.

Rusty took his shirt off, then after some heavy kissing, I took the rest of his clothes off, his old Frye boots, everything, right down to his socks.

Rusty was a salt lick, and his body was still solid. Even though he was a tall "stud" telephone pole. He was anything but skinny, just tall and lean, beefy with a slight pot gut. He stretched out enjoying the treatment, sighing and moving this way and that to let me get to all the parts that turned me on.

After being soothed almost into a stupor, Rusty sat up and announced he wanted to chow down on some meat. He was "cock starved." I don't know what you'd call him, but he sure did like to give head, and he was very good at it.

What fascinated me about Rusty was his thick beard and long hair, both were straight and silky, not curly as Bill's beard had been. It was not as long as Bill's Smith Brothers style, but his hair was worn tied back in a long, thick pony tail that reached the middle of his back.

Rusty was a lover! His aim was to please. He knew the right things to say and do to get what he wanted.

What a cocksucker he was, for "not being gay."

He was really getting to it, and feeling all that wet fur around your balls is a turn-on. I remember when I had mine they always commented that it felt good. I know it was great for absorbing the flavor of last night's trick. Like a built-in popper! Let's face it, a beard is a "doggie bag for sex!"

I saw him looking up at me. He let my cock pop from his mouth and asked if he was doing it right.

I said yes, but asked a favor, there was one more thing I wanted him to take off.

He smiled and said that he was naked. True, I could see his lean build and admire the deep ruddy color of his body. He had almost no hair on his body, just a little on his arms and legs, but there was one more thing I wanted him to remove.

I asked him if it would be too much trouble to take the tie off his hair and let it loose.

He grinned and said it wasn't as he had to give it a brushing later, anyway. He carried a brush in his pocket.

Rusty paused cocksucking and reached behind and unfastened the elastic band on his pony tail. He shook his head and the long auburn hair fell around his shoulders. He shook his head several times to loosen it.

"You like that, huh? Make you think of your wife?" he asked.

"There's nothing feminine about you, you're more like gentle Tarzan!" I said hugging him, kissing him again then pushed my face up under his chin and nibbled at his bearded throat. It excited both of us.

Rusty got back in a kneeling position and started sucking cock again. As he did, the feel of his hair contacting my naked flesh as his head bobbed up and down gave an incredible sensation. I reached down to stroke his hair and hairy face as he worshiped cock. He would look up at me now and then as he sucked and go back to business with gusto after pausing to do my balls and mop my belly and thighs with his hairy face.

"Whatcha thinking?" he asked, taking a break from his cocksucking. "I'm good, ain't I? Why you looking at me like that?"

"I was just thinking how much you look like Jesus kneeling down there. What a trip! It was sort of turning me on."

"Maybe you'll go to heaven if you let me swallow your cum," he said and resumed cock worship. "Give me some cum!"

He sucked and sucked and really got into it. I stared into his face and watched his every move, then asked him to get on top of me on all fours. He obliged and we sixty-nined; now and then I worked on his balls and licked right up behind them into his asshole making Rusty really hot.

"You keep doing that and Jesus will be coming for sure," he said as he sat back, wiggled his ass and then leaned down and cocksucked in earnest.

The end came fast for both of us. When he got his first taste of cum he went off, too.

We put some clothes on and started to do the work. He told me about himself.

Rusty said he liked to go under the bridge at night when he hadn't a place to flop and give head because lots of the guys stay down there to sleep (in their sleeping bags). It's level and dry and most of them like getting head, and it's the place to go when they want it where no one knows who's who. He had his regular "herd" of horny studs with cum in their nuts waiting for relief.

I didn't get there as I had to get back to the friend's place before night. Maybe next time I'll bring a sleeping bag and camp out and see, like I did in San Francisco that time under the freeway... the T*R*A*S*H* Memorial Freeway Hobo Jungle of the Summer of '81.

Some guys see others making it and before you know it they want some too. When they drink they get relaxed enough so they don't care who knows about it. When you unzip a sleeping bag with a guy inside it's like opening up a banquet! Each one's a different course, a different flavor.

Under the freeway in San Francisco those many years ago during one of the early 18 Wheeler Conventions, I met Johnny Tollard, the head honcho of the hobo jungle, and his boys Gabby, Tiny and One-Eyed Tex. They had traveled up and down the coast together. In the old Wild West days they would have probably been called the Tollard Gang. I had them all three nights in a row (and one afternoon). I wonder if any of the outlaw gangs of old had a camp follower that went around at night licking the saddle soreness out of their behinds, taking down the swellings of their basic needs, massaging their tired muscles, etc.?

Of course, it's a historical fact that Ma Barker encouraged her sons to have incestuous brotherly relations so they wouldn't run off with some female, leaving Momma alone.

At night going from one sleeping bag to the next was like playing the old shell game with a pea under every shell...pee?

One can imagine that the gangs of old, like the gangs in Hobo Jungles, are basically willing to do anything that feels good when female companionship is lacking. Just doin' what comes naturally when nothing else is around. It's all quite normal.

I admit, Rusty tired me out. He could take his store-bought uppers out and attack with that hairy face that he said some men thought was better than sticking a dick in a really hairy pussy. He's an expert cocksucker, even though he says he was married three times and still likes women best to screw.

He said he just likes to give head to older guys because the young ones are apt to give you "something" from the way they fuck with the drugs and whores. He claimed most of the older men are careful and would rather get head from another guy.

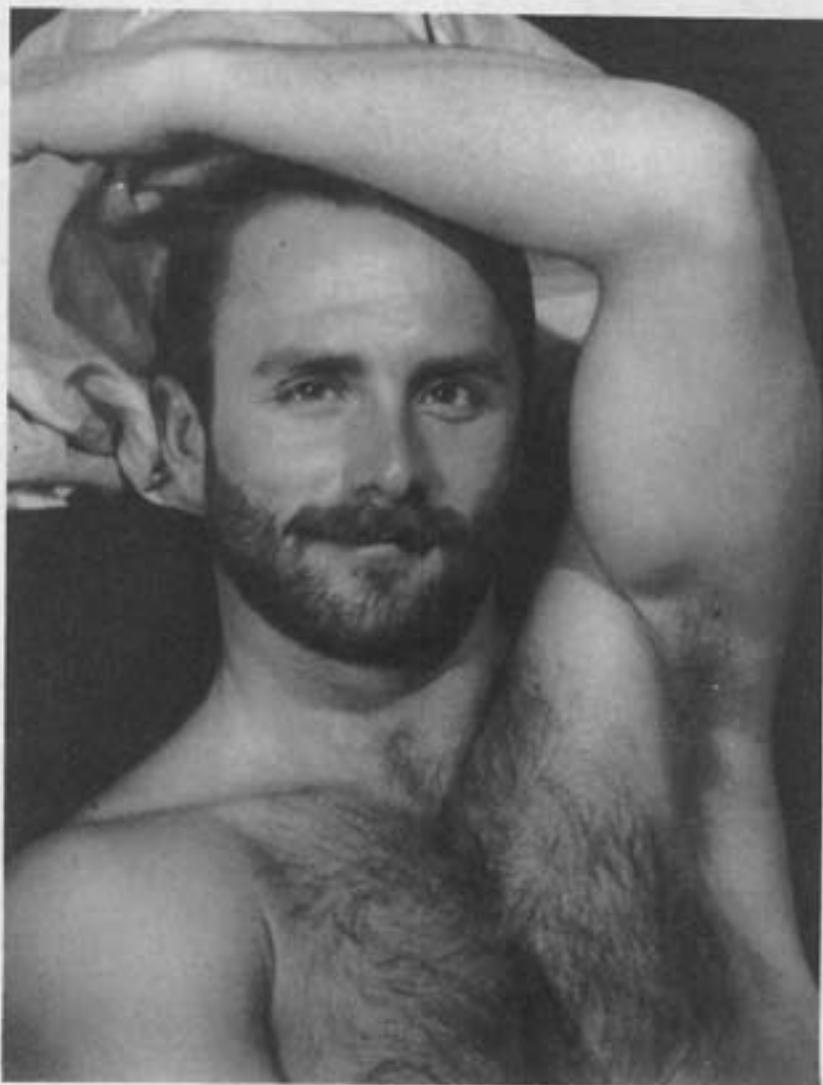

Also because they often drink to excess, I suppose they can't keep it hard to fuck. But, doesn't everyone know that head feels good, even when it's "soft as a rock"!

You'd be surprised how many of these drifter types like to suck cock. I guess they know it gets them transportation, food, booze and sometimes a bed. I've met a few pretty hot ones that you'd look at and never guess what they liked to do. Nothing seems to phase them either when you want them to get a little kinky.

Try that at the local bar.... Can't you imagine if you announced to so-and-so that "I'd love to take your boots off and suck your toes or sniff your jock! (or for us Bears, ask to stick your snot in his beard and whack off!)"—they'd be so shocked and gossip about you forever.

Not these guys. They might say, "No." If you offer them a drink or food they usually give in. After all, they like to let you think they don't usually do those things.

Next thing you know they are screwed, blewed and tattooed -- and probably end up as covermen on T*R*A*S*H Magazine, as Rusty was on #101.

GARRISON HAPSBURG

Photography by Fred Bisontes

Maybe some of you have heard of the European Hapsburg family. Blue bloods all. Garrison here is a member of the clan. The Prince Albert piercing? Done at birth. A male tradition. And at the base of his spine is a tattoo: the family coat of arms, also done at birth. He must have been a beautiful baby, 'cause baby, look at him now!

TATTOO YOU...TEMPORARILY

Time heals all wounds—except those made by the tattooist's needle. Yup, ink injected into your skin is there for keeps and any competent body artist is going to let you know about the ramifications of applying his craft to your body.

Let's say that you just want to "try out" a skull on your upper arm or a battleship on your chest. Why not? You don't permanently put on a shirt or a pair of boots. But you also don't want the thing to rub off during a sweaty or otherwise wet session.

Creative Fantasies (311 Gruenther Avenue, Rockville, MD 30851) has a selection of temporary tattoos which'll stay put despite washings. For five bucks you can get a bat, a rose, or a little red devil. Ten'll get you more impressive items like snakes, skulls and eagles.

CATCH OF THE DAY

Legal Sea Food's, one of the best seafood restaurants in Boston—if not America, has this fella here in its advertising promo for shore-to-door lobsters. Dialing 1-800-333-3797 and having $65.99 available on your credit card gets two of Maine's finest to your kitchen table.

Had fantasies about being strip-searched by a man of authority? By a real cop, maybe? At the Holland Tunnel in full view of motorists are passing by???

Michael Mocuiski, formerly an officer with the of the Port Authority security force, pulled over two cars last June and strip-searched a male driver without "cause." Cause, in Port Authority terms, is after the arrest and with approval from the commander. The driver had not been arrested. Poor Mike was suspended for jumping the gun, as well as for seven other incidents—including other additional alleged public strip searches.

Dear Bear Readers,

I am the secretary of the recently formed BEARS CLUB U.K. The club is based in the United Kingdom and caters to hairy bears and their admirers. The club was set up in August 1989 and we now have 120 members. We have had several well attended meetings and through these and contact ads in our quarterly newsletters, bears are getting together for picnics and much more!

I am visiting my American furry friends this summer and would like to meet as many of you as possible in that time. I think I shall be flying into New York and then touring for three or four weeks before ending up in San Francisco.

If you would like to meet or better still could offer accommodations to a bear away from home, then please write soon!

Also if you are thinking of visiting the U.K. I am sure that I could let club members know and we would be able to give you a warm reception here. A sort of "bears across the sea" is what I envision.

Anyway do get in touch.

BEAR BANNED IN CANADA

On the way to the BEAR offices the other morning I stopped in my neighborhood Mom and Pop grocery to pick up a bit of pastry. I waited patiently at the counter while the old immigrant woman proprietor hobbled to the counter, leaving her labor of unpacking a bulky carton of magazines.

I was half way through the door, tearing into my plastic-wrapped bear claw when reality slapped me into doing a double-take.

Stooped and bent, her ancient fingers dutched and sorted through one of the largest shipments of pornography I ever saw.

She had soft-core porn, hard-core and everything in between carelessly spilled about her feet.

Jugs, printed in day-glo yellow, was unmistakable under one painted cellophane wrapper. Atop another bundle was a magazine called Milkin' Mamma. And this is my corner grocery, not a peep show.

With all the excitement of stacking cans of creamed corn she listlessly unpacked her shipment of porn. Hustler, The Advocate, Blueboy, Penthouse, She-Hogs, (no BEAR yet) and scores more. Her unflinching hand placed the magazines in the rack alongside a garish collection of tabloids.

I made my way to the office, forgetting what I just witnessed until I heard the following disturbing news from our Canadian neighbors.

In October of last year, fifty copies of BEAR Magazine were seized by Canadian Customs officials. They deemed BEAR obscene! OBSCENE!!! Hell, we have gobs more taste 'n class than Milkin' Mamma's any day of the week.

It's outrageous. They confiscated BEAR. They prohibited us from reaching our friends at Glad Day Bookstore in Toronto.

Maybe here in the good ol' USofA we take our right to free speech and freedom of the press too much for granted. Sure, we may have to place plain brown wrappers over nasty mags in 7-11's, and we put big black dots on smut photos so clit, titty, and cocks don't show. But all and all nobody's craning behind your armchair enforcing edicts over what adults can and cannot read. (Yeah, Helms and his up tight a-holes and the NEA make a big stink over what funds go to who's art. But they don't politically poke yours and the artist eyes out.)

Hey, if you thought our far-right-fascist feminist-Bible-thumping censorship mongrels were bad, dig this; Canadian LAW forbids any magazine and book to enter the country that does not reflect "the homogeneous concept of 'Community Standards'". And you know that communities standards are easily nauseated over images of non-missionary position cock and cunt. No wonder getting our subs up north is like playing 52 pick-up in a wind tunnel.

And that's just a spoonful of this poison. In Canada "sex-police" are a frightening reality. They loom at the borders as Customs Agents who'll rip open innocuous parcels, not just for contraband but for anything vaguely resembling smut.

And like a gaggle of snarling ol' biddies, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police confiscate and ban books that have been available to the public for decades. These bad folks had The Joy of Gay Sex pulled off every bookshelf throughout the country in 1986. (Glad Day won the court case but unfortunately the book went out-of-print).

And Project P; The joint Metro Toronto-Ontario Provincial Police project; the heavy-duty heavies that come knock-knock-knocking on your front door after getting a tip from the Attorney-General.

Not only are books and periodicals confiscated, videos and films are snatched from the viewer too (The wind tunnel analogy changes to a whipping tornado when we ship Bear videos north).

In Canada the censors play to win. Arrest warrants are issued, police raids are made, and the owner of a literary outlet may find his business collapsing under the financial duress of withheld inventory and the burden of lengthy appeals and litigation.

Glad Day books in Toronto sadly has had enough material confiscated since they opened in 1974 that the complete list would easily overflow off this page. In 1986, the Canadian authorities denied entry of 2,000 copies of The Advocate due to its explicit personal ads. That's just one obvious example.

So now our magazine, BEAR Magazine, draws dust in an Ontario governmental vault. We are charged with "sex with violence", "anal penetration" and "degradation." Of course we could grovel beneath the Ontario Advisory Committee on Contemporary Literature and pay them to snip out and dot all offending words and pictures from our magazine's lay-out. But then there'd barely be a BEAR left that's fit to print.

Ignorance and intolerance are the labels on this toxic bottle. Jeald Moldenhauer, the owner of Glad Day, told us that the conservative Canadian government has their big guns aimed at gays in particular. Their tactical harassment is an equation whose sum equals the halt or slowing to a trickle of any and all gay literature that crosses Canada's borders, thereby discouraging the populi from purchasing the shameful filth.

If what happens there happened here, most Americans would gladly ignite the protest fires.

Our Northerly friends need as much help as possible. Drop a note to your nearby Canadian Consulate expressing your views.

UPDATE

LONE STAR
SALOON

Many of you local boys—as well as recent visitors to San Francisco—will recognize the building on this issue's back cover as the remains of The Lone Star Saloon which was destroyed in the quake of '89. This establishment (let alone the men who frequented it) was one of our fair city's finer assets.

Rick Redewell, with the support of his friends and his old man Ken, is working like hell to cut through the federal, state and city relief paperwork and to get the new Lone Star off the ground.

No promises, but it looks like an end of March '90 opening at a South of Market location. And guess which magazine and video production company might just have a corner of the bar for retail sales?

ATTENTION FOREIGN SMUT LOVERS

We in the U. S. of A. are an elitist bunch of folks. Decades ago our scientists developed a television display system called NTSC. The detail in the transmission wasn't great, but, hey, this was the beginning of TV.

In time, Europeans, South Americans and Asians created two far superior systems—PAL and SECAM—but the US refused to upgrade. Too much money invested in inferior technology.

Today's result: incompatible video. Image Translator from Instant Replay (2951 S. Bayshore, Ste. 8E, Miami, FL 33133 USA) is this country's first multi-standard VCR, allowing anyone, anywhere, to view a video duped on any VHS machine. Neat...and expensive.

9/10/20

The Sunday morning air was heavy and steam was rising off the grass. It started to cool, but just before noon, I had to start peelin' off my shirt.

I can't wear too much in the heat. It's been that way since I was about seventeen or so. The temperature rises and I got to take my shoes off and peel my socks off over my hairy instep to get cool.

Most of the time when I'm home I'm barefooted and barechested; I wear a big blue bib overall without a stitch of clothes underneath. Lets my body breathe, lets the cooling air ruffle my fur.

Wearin' any kind of shirt or shoes is a pain in the ass to me. Shirts grab some of the thick peit on my back and pull it hard. I go 'round most days being nipped and pricked by my clothes, so I just take 'em off.

I can see myself standing here lookin' in the mirror. The sun is hitting me on the back and it feels warm against my furry shoukderblades: my whole body has a gold halo around it.

I turn profile and the long hair on my deep thick chest stands out like fire; the hair on my shoulders flares out in the back.

I'm a fuckin' gorilla.

A bear.

I take my big ham fist and unroll my fingers down the generous curve of my belly; with my other hand I unbutton one of the shoulder straps of my overalls to get a better look at all of it.

I close my eyes, feel my hands movin' up and down my thickly furred belly, down further into my crotch where my monster is growin' hard.

When he gets up there he slaps his heavy head up against my belly button, matting the long fur together with his juice- "C'mon son, time to get down!"

The overalls drop around my ankles; I don't have to kick them off. I gotta see this man's body workin' hard now, my big hand squeezin' up and down the thick shaft of my cock.

I hunch my shoulders down tight and stare hard at that pumpin' machine - the head of my cock slamming up into my hand like a piston, going from pink to purple as I work my hips harder into my fist.

"I'm a fuckin' man," I snort to my cock. "I'm a bear." I begin to roar louder now. Sweat is pourin' off of my brown fur, drippin' down my body. My sides are wet with sweat, and I move my left hand all over my chest, pulling at the hair, pulling under my arms to smell the scent of a real bear, lickin' it up. There's a little tickle way down deep inside me that begins to struggle to the surface.

With the light behind me I can see my broad male back now shiny with sweat; I'm blowin' off steam from my lips as I work, feeling that tickle grow wider, inching up that shaft.

My thick brow is knit together. I'm a mean lookin' bearfuckin' now. My eyes are closed and my hand is slurpin' in that juice I made. "Yeah!" I bark at myself, lookin' great.

My fingers are clamped onto my wide tits now, pullin' on 'em and now gettin' a fistful of chest fur. "Give it to me, son!" I'm shoutin', "Yeah! YEAH! YEAH!"

I can feel the hard muscle underneath my balls pull right and it shoots my warmest regards all over the mirror three feet away. And again, and my whole body is frozen with exhaustion and pleasure, and it shoots again, and then gets soft, and I stand there, swaying back and forth, almost asleep on my feet, eyes closed.

And again, we pump out our juice onto my heavily veined feet where the warm blobs of me mat down the fur on my wide toes.

I wipe up the cooling slurps of semen up my thighs and rough it into my fur. Nobody's comin' by. And if they do they just catch a whiff of me, that's all. They can see the dried crust of jism frosting my chest hair and they can just accept it. "T' hell with 'em!" I snort. "They probably love it anyway."

It's one of those days when I don't want to work, don't want to shuffle those papers. I want to walk in the cool sand and feel the water between my big thick male feet, get some sand gritted under my toenails like a kid.

Before I realize it, my hands have buttoned up one side of my bib overalls. I let one side flap down loose, exposing my chest. "If they haven't seen a man's hairy tit before they're gonna see one now," I think to myself as I look around.

I'm down the street and down onto the beach sand at the end of my block. It's still hot up the bluff where I live, but it's cooler down here right at the edge of the water, and I stand there alone for a minute, letting the water lick softly between my toes, feeling the cool sand sink away under my feet.

I'm tugged by a daydream: it reminds me of a tongue slipping between my toes, licking down the hard sole of my tanned foot. I remember some nice white teeth pulling at the long fur on the back of my feet, working its way down the hard sole of my tanned foot. I remember some nice white teeth pulling at the long fur on the back of my feet, working its way up to my stocky calves...

"Damn!" I wake up enough to look around. I can see some people down the beach against the sunset, but I'm still alone and I move out into the water, being pulled back and forth in the warm waves, the ocean pushing up against this hard tent in my overalls.

"I can't fuck myself again..." I tell my pulsing cock. "This is out in public. Somebody might see me..."

"Hey!"

I open my eyes and look around, startled. Just on the sand I can make out my neighbor and his girlfriend.

"So-what you doin' out here at this time of afternoon?" he asks, trying not to look below my waist.

I couldn't answer.

"Havin' some kinda fun anyway," said his girl. She was lookin' at my crotch all right, even if her face was turned up to me. I could feel her.

I'm not sure I should be feeling this. I like her. She's not one of those fancy sissy girls. But it's been a long time. I thought I'd passed through my time with women and moved on. I often spent time feeling my chest and thinkin' about her boyfriend. And he knew it.

He is a big 'un. Six foot five and weighs every bit of 275 pounds. He had enough power in his bear belly to bench press his own weight without a sweat.

This was a massive, furry Viking bear: a straw colored beard growing in dense soft waves down to his chest, and his skin tanned a dark gold while the hair on his back and his shoulders was sunbleached out a brassy blond. This hulking Viking could scrub pots clean with the hair on his chest.

It was getting dark.

The sun was below the horizon and the western sky was deep salmon orange and purple grey now. The waves were lashing up around our feet, up my ankles.

Wait a minute!

It was her. The woman's busy tongue was going up my thighs, pulling the long fur in her teeth like a wild animal. This was no sweet little woman. This was a man's woman, and she was doin' what came naturally.

I almost pulled away. "Hey!" my friend said, puttin' his big arm around my shoulder and running his nails in my fur. "Let 'er go. You can't stop her now, anyway."

"Shouldn't we go, uh, inside?"

"What for?" He looked around the deserted beach. It was dinner time and people wouldn't come out again until after seven o'clock now. He wrapped his massive arms round my chest, cradling my big belly in his thickly veined hands. "I always wanted to do this with you," he whispered in my ear. I could feel his flat wet tongue wetting down the hair in the middle of my back. "So has she. We talk about it in bed sometimes and it gets us off."

By this time, she had pulled off her T-shirt. This was a strong lady. Her belly was hard and solid and not sweet or petite. Her tits were firm and set over a well developed chest and I could see the light and shadow of her biceps.

She stood there, chest taut and ready like an athlete, hands reaching for the buttons of my overalls. I could see a beautiful course of blond down on her arms moving up her shoulders. As she turned in the light I could see her belly had a whisper of pale hair swirling down into her massive bush.

This woman had hair growing from just beneath her navel, down under her crotch and up into her tight hard asshole. I trace the fur with my tongue as we went down in the sand.

I licked my way between her lips, holding them open for a long inhale of the perfume. I could taste a little piss in her pussy hairs, and that deep funky jiterbug perfume steaming up between her legs.

The three of us lay in the wet sand, the water washing up against us, over us, the sounds drowning out our animal grunts. I had my face buried between her legs, searching for her stiff little clitoris, and gently pulling back the hood for a tickle that made her jerk uncontrollably and arch her back, slamming her pussy up into my face.

Meanwhile, the Viking boy had parted my legs and lay his face up under me as if I were a low hanging car. He took my cock into his mouth, holding it by the base and began to swallow me deeply and hard. He reached up, digging his massive furry hands into my hips, urging me to fuck his mouth.

He wrapped his arms around my thighs and I could feel his fingernails going up and down my ass, his hands reaching down to run along the leathery soles of my feet and I got chills up and down my spine.

"Eat me," she barked, "eat me hard!" and I plunged my tongue far into her, licking everything I could find, my face now wet with her juice. I reached up and washed my hand in it, spreading it all over the deep fur on my shoulders.

We rolled over, with her on top, grinding that funky deep blond fur into my face, her head thrown back. I reached up and pulled the down on her belly and she rode my harder. From behind, I could feel the Viking boy trying something new.

He pulled my legs up onto his massive shoulders and he pushed his was into my asshole with his cock. This was bigger than I could have imagined and it seared my fuckhole with pain.

My eyes bulged with surprise, and the veins on my neck stood out in thick bluish cords. "Fuck the shit outta me!" I shouted over the swirling ocean waves.

He went into me hard; he wasn't even human now. He was truly a massive polar bear out of control. I saw why he needed this big woman now; any smaller lady would have been ripped apart.

"Now!" she said, gasping, "I'm coming now!" She repeated several times in growing rhythm, "Give it to me! Give it to me!"

I could hear the kid roaring behind her, his balls flapping deeply into me. I could feel his breath snorting against my thighs as he began to stiffen and his strokes became furious.

"Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!"

And then she scrambled off and turned herself around. I slid my tongue into her open puss, parting the fur with my fingers and she took my cock into her mouth. She squeezed his cock as it slammed into my asshole and in another ten strokes, she began to shudder and moan.

I could feel myself building up to a huge load to shoot. The boy finished first, shouting like a huge animal as he slammed that massive monster into me.

Semen dribbled out of her mouth in long thick strings onto my belly. She rubbed it in, smeared it around, swallowed it because she liked it.

The kid was kissing my asshole, almost apologizing for being so huge and in a minute, the three of us lay there laughing a little.

I wrapped my thick arms around my brother bear and he dug his big hands into my fur. We both slipped our hands between her legs for safekeeping and we just lay there in the dark on the beach, the water smoothing over us and sucking around us.

MAIL ORDER AND THE SINGLE MALE

Most companies that sell gay porn (which in this context includes magazines, videos, books and tapes) are reputable, especially if they have been operating for any length of time. The gay porn market is small and specialized enough that getting a bad reputation will usually put one out of business in a short period of time. The magazines that carry their ads are usually happy to know if a company is cheating people, if for no other reason because dropping the ads of dishonest businesses is good for their own reputation. Unfortunately, however, there are a certain number of goniffs (that's Yiddish for crook) out there that it is well to know what one's rights are when dealing with them.

The sale of goods (as opposed to services) is governed by something called the Uniform Commercial Code. The UCC has been enacted into law by all 50 states and the District of Columbia, with the exception of Louisiana which has only enacted a portion of it. The portion that pertains to this subject is the law in Louisiana as well.

Suppose you order a video that is advertised as being Jeff Stryker's hottest movie. Suppose that when it arrives you play the tape, and discover that it is in fact a rather bad pirated copy of The Sound of Music. Or, suppose that you order a collection of photographs advertised as being the Oakland Raiders in the shower room after a game, and when they arrive you can tell by the background that the photos were, in fact, taken in the locker room of the local YMCA on a day on which not even a mother could love the faces of the people present. What are your rights?

The UCC terms these "nonconforming goods." In other words, you ordered something very specific, and something very different was delivered. Your order was based on express representations of the seller that the goods were of a certain type. Your rights are simple: You have up to 30 days to return the goods with a notice that you are refusing them, as nonconforming goods, and that you are demanding repayment. You might try using a few magic words like "fraud", "consumer protection laws" and "attorney general's office" if they do not refund your money within a reasonable time. Every state has a consumer protection division, usually located within the state attorney general's office, that will only be too happy to take a complaint against a business that is practicing in a fraudulent manner.

The above is based on outright fraud. What happens if the distributor didn't exactly tell an outright lie, just didn't tell the whole truth? "Puffing", which means exaggerating the good qualities of what you are trying to sell while whitewashing the bad qualities, is generally permitted as long as the seller doesn't tell an outright fib. In other words, as long as the seller can show that nothing he said was a flat lie, he is probably in the clear. However, if you think that the sales pitch you got in the advertisement was close enough to a fib, send back the merchandise and demand a refund anyway; in close cases courts are frequently siding with consumers.

There is a problem you need to be aware of, however. Even though the law is as I have spelled it out above, judges and juries tend to be a pretty conservative group of people for the most part, and it is by no means certain that a gay man seeking justice over a piece of what the court might consider smut will get it. Judges aren't supposed to allow their prejudices to enter into their decisions; unfortunately, many do. That, however, can work to your favor.

Many producers of pornography are terrified of legal proceedings for just that reason, and so a threat to sue a seller of gay porn is probably a more effective threat than it is against any other group of people on earth. No gay video distributor wants to hear that somebody is getting ready to complain to the attorney general's office about him. Since your first step is to return the merchandise with a letter explaining your dissatisfaction and demanding repayment, say a few words about consumer protection laws and see what happens.

There is something else you need to factor in. Is it worth the aggravation? Everyone who is contemplating kicking up a fuss over something needs to remember that the process is aggravating, slow, and unpleasant. If you only lost a few dollars, you may decide it isn't worth the bother. On the other hand, if the principle is important to you, you may decide to raise a fuss. That is a non-legal question that only the consumer can answer for himself. I think if it were me, I would take the first step of returning the merchandise with a stiff letter explaining that I wanted my money back, but I would not go to the bother of filing a lawsuit over a relatively small amount. I might write a letter to the attorney general since it only costs 25 cents. But that is me; you, dear reader, may feel differently.

Finally, I have heard some disturbing stories about video producers who talk people into doing it for the camera "just for fun" and then market the tapes. Taking someone's picture for commercial purposes, especially in this context, without their knowledge and consent, is, in a word, a no-no. If that ever happens to any of my readers, do not walk, run, to your attorney's office. You can get, probably within 24 hours, a court order forbidding the distribution of the offending video. You can also collect huge damages.

Again, most distributors are reputable business people who are honest and honorable. It is unfortunate that there are a few bad ones in the bunch. As with any other merchandise, your best defense is to check out somebody's reputation before you do business with them.

RIGHT TO LIFERS ARE A STRANGE BUNCH

Missouri, the Show Me state, decided to grant full rights to the unborn. That's correct. The unborn.

However, it looks like they didn't quite consider the full consequences of this action. The lawyer for a pregnant Missouri inmate filed a Federal lawsuit charging that this woman's unborn child had been imprisoned without having been charged with a crime.

And to top it off the fetus had not been allowed an attorney and had been convicted without due process.

Go for it, lady!

"What Homosexuals Do"

submitted by William Dannemeyer, CA

The average homosexual's favorite activities include: receiving oral sodomy that is putting one man's penis in another man's mouth; performing anal penetration; and participating in mutual oral sodomy.

"Other activities peculiar to homosexuality include: rimming or one man using his tongue to lick the rectum of another man; golden showers, having one man or men urinate on another man or men; fisting or handballing, which has one man insert his hand and/or part of his arm into another man's rectum; and using what are euphemistically termed 'toys' such as one man inserting dikkos, certain vegetables or light bulbs up another man's rectum."

This inclusion was protested to the House Ethics Committee by Representative Andy Jacobs of Indiana, stating that the language was hardly parliamentary. However Dannemeyer won.

A NEW CRIME FOR THE BOOKS: AUTO EROTICISM

Last Thanksgiving a man was arrested for for auto eroticism in East Palo Alto, California. His action? Standing on a pedestrian island and flashing motorists as they passed.

When asked by the cops why he did it he stated he was "giving thanks in his own special way."

OUR PENPAL IN FOLSOM PRISON

We recently received the following letter and picture from Mr. Kidd, an inmate in Folsom Prison and a BEAR subscriber. This is his true accounting of his first experience behind bars. We have edited out the several sociological references in deference to distributors, censors and those readers who have stated that BEAR is getting too "dirty." For those of you who are too dirty and would like a full copy of this accounting send us an SASE.

Mr. Kidd has also written a treatise on urine therapy.

I am interested in corresponding with you. Having spent many years in prison, after military career and due, in part, to misguided values and a society unwilling to acknowledge my existence, I find it difficult to relate to new friends. I do not feel it in my best interests to be patronized and feel that a lot can be gained from an honest interchange of thoughts, good or not, normal or not normal, even queer, as I am. Folsom Prison is difficult to bear, due in part to the current population overcrowding, negative attitudes of the prison guards and inmates toward the world outside, and the self priorities of the prisoner himself.

I would like to know what your feelings are toward the incarcerated prisoner; what you do for a living? perhaps discussing hobbies and experiences? I have no family, no mail, no visits, ever.

Of priority to me, at this point in my life, is continued existence in a mentally positive way, even though I am partially mentally disordered, especially to some, who believe I am the San Francisco "Flasher."

I am 39 years young, Caucasian, 5'9", 150 lbs., chestnut hair and green eyes. Very fair skin and smooth body. No beard or mustache. No long hair, marks or tattoos. In prison for a self-defense reaction to three skid row junkies who attempted to rob me in a dangerous section of the city in Fresno, California. This was even reported to the police by the security guards, but the judge ignored this. I am a decorated US Veteran and a former prisoner of war, D.S.C.

In the county jail, in a cell with 14 others, mostly Hispanic and young Black males, I was observed orally copulating myself, as I have a nine inch uncut penis. The next morning I was knocked out, then again, choked out, stripped, tied up, on my back, arms under my knees, my moist anus and other sexual parts in full view to all of the 14 young Hispanics and Black prisoners. After being fingered then slowly fist-fucked by a small Mexican boy, also with a small hand, until I had an erection, and was very sexually aroused, as all could see. I was mounted by the first prisoner, a young, light-skinned Black kid, who began to push and forcibly slide his great hardened penis into my now moist and opened anus opening. Then, moving up to my mouth to ejaculate his great load upon load of thick sperm into my mouth and down my throat as I swallowed, over and over. When his penis began to soften, a heavy, strong stream of urine gushed out of his penis, as it splashed and gorged down my swallowing urinal throat. Then, still out of breath, he turned around on his knees, ass over my face, and his asshole, spreading open and bulged out, I began to lick and suck on the protruding anus. All were watching, some masturbating onto my face. My body suddenly stiffened and convulsed into great spasms of long, thick ejaculations of sperm.

I was not due for court for 45 days, and was not missed by any of the guards, as I was kept in a cell in back of the tank, as the sexual slave and human toilet for all who needed to urinate, defecate, etc.

Sincerely,

s/ Richard Joe Kidd

GUILTY

Produced and Directed by J.D. Slater
 IZZAT Productions
 584 Castro Street Ste. 328
 San Francisco, CA 94114-2588
 $69.95

I encourage entrepreneurship and creative product development in the male adult entertainment industry. There's a lot of ways to look at male sexuality; the payroll producers, women without a cause, and bored-with-life pimps have had their say—we've been looking at (and continue to look at) what they've come up with for over ten years now. I support new stuff developed by innovative guys who care about man-to-man fuckin' around.

J.D. Slater stopped by the office a few months ago with his new video, entitled Guilty, tucked under his arm. I've always enjoyed J.D. as a performer. In Studbusters he shares a scene with Jason Steele where they passionately fuck, lick, suck and even kiss each other—one of the most sexually erotic and energetic scenes I've ever viewed. It was real. And Christopher Rage has had J.D. dancing on the fringe of what is considered appropriate human sexual behavior—and I've always liked the fringe.

I knew J.D. had done some work as a producer/director for Le Salon. I was delighted when he said, "Guilty is all mine." This might be a treat.

It was. The flick starts with a little mumbo-jumbo artsy talk about not having to feel guilty for feeling nasty. Bring out the men! He does. Well, one man, but he's a looker. Painter's cap with blond hair sticking out. Deep blues. Big blond moustache growing down the sides of his mouth to his chin. A man with at least one score and ten tucked under his belt. He goes by the name of Buck Ford and he jacks off for us while sucking on a stogey with an intensity which I haven't seen in a solo for a long time. This man's fine looks and energetic cum-siphoning make up for some unnecessary special effects and a few awkwardly framed shots. Buck shoots his load and we're on to Scene Two.

This has Richard Derreck and Jack Lofton going to town. Derreck, a man of 40 or so years, has a big, fat, long dick—and Lofton can't wait to gobble it down and stick it in his ass. Some of you may have seen Jack in Falcon's Spokes 2 or maybe in his In-Hand solo, Jack It Up. He's sort of doney looking (moustache; short dark hair; defined, relatively hairless chest), but he's handsome, not cute, and is an uninhibited performer. Richard Derreck has easy-to-look-at mature features, and as previously mentioned, one helluva schlong to swing on. This scene shares the same intensity as the first sequence. These boys are having a good time! Again, more careful attention to the camera work and the lighting would have improved an already well-done romp.

Lofton is paired with little, blond Cory Monroe in the third and final scene. We don't see much of Monroe's face; it's his ass that's featured. Lofton is wearing leather; he looks neither complete nor comfortable in it. And Lofton is playing 100% aggressive and almost mean top to Cory's pig bottom role. Monroe does a spectacular job. Lofton has a problem or two. Maybe he's had little real-life experience. He's stiff where he shouldn't be and not stiff where we'd like to see it. However, they go at it and the sexual intensity is there.

I've got a big problem with Guilty. It was done in 1989. In San Francisco. There is some serious butt fucking going down. In fact the final scene has Lofton stuffing a heavy-gauge chain up Monroe's asshole, followed by Lofton sticking his cock in the hole. A rubber is not in sight. Ditto for the BLANKI/Lofton scene. This scares me. This pisses me off. I'm reminded of the Brazilian snuff films of the 70's. Enough said. For now.

In Guilty, J.D. captured the animal in man. Very few directors in male erotica have done this. The film could use a technician on the set, but this distraction can be easily overlooked. Although the cast is small and the scenes few, Guilty outshines the majority of new releases on the market. I welcome J.D. Slater and IZZAT Productions to this industry with one reservation—please have more respect for the health of your actors and the education of the viewers of your products.

FUCKIN' AROUND

We've got a pretty serious health crisis goin' on right now. Many of my friends and yours have died. And it's been proven that certain types of sexual activity have played a large role in the transmission of AIDS.

No one knows all the do's and don'ts regarding sane sexual activities in these times. However I'm going to lay out my personal feelings regarding fucking around. How valid are they? Who knows. But I am alive, sexually active in San Francisco, and probably do not have antibodies in my system fighting HIV exposure.

1. Lead a healthy life. Get plenty of rest and an adequate amount of exercise. See a doctor regularly for physicals.
2. Keep your teeth in good shape! Floss regularly (but several hours before cock sucking). Make certain that you're free of gum disease.
3. Assume that your sex partner(s) is carrying a life-threatening, sexually contracted disease. And if you're sexually active, assume the possibility exists for yourself. The selection of your sex partner and the activities that you engage in are YOUR choices and YOUR responsibility.
4. Don't be afraid to say no. It's your life, guy. And conversely, don't be afraid to go for it if you've got a clear mind and conscience.
5. Kiss, hug and spit to your heart's content.
6. If your gums are in good shape and your partner's dick is in good shape, stick it in your mouth, if this sort of thing appeals to you. I don't recommend taking someone's load in your mouth or in your ass, protected or not.
7. If you're a butt eater, you're probably not going to get a life-threatening disease by doing it if your immune system is up and running well. However you could come away with hepatitis, amoebas and other nasties. Weigh these possibilities before you make the lunge.
8. Butt fucking should be done with condoms and a water-soluble lube such as KY, spit, or Probe. Trojans have been found to leak like sieves. Just look at all the Trojan babies women have hatched. Try Gold Coin. And cum outside.
9. Number One and Number Two may be in the same category as spit as far as transmission is concerned.
10. Watch your substance use. If you think you're too fucked up to be making decisions, don't fuck around. Remember, there's no Morning After Pill.
11. If you or someone else jabs needles into you, make certain that no blood or only your blood has come in contact with the needle(s) since it was last sterilized.

THE RULES OF THE GAME

1. Replying to a COA Box Number. Write your letter, put it in an envelope and seal it. On this envelope, put the fella's box number IN PENCIL where you'd normally put a stamp. Put this letter along with $1 in a larger envelope and mail to us. That's COA, 2215R Market #148, SF, CA 94114. We always forward letters if you've done what's called for here. If you mess up—and particularly if (a) you don't put your note inside another envelope, and/or (b) you don't include a buck—we throw your handiwork away.

2. Constructing your ad. When you write out your ad, keep this in mind: talk a bit about yourself and be real clear about the type of folks you'd like to meet through your ad. As much as possible, avoid telling us who you don't want to meet. No more of this "no fats, no fems, no Lithuanians" shit. How would you feel if you were a Lithuanian and you ran across this? Do a little thinking. Be positive. And if you aren't, I'll edit the fuck out of the ad and turn you in to more of a Pollyanna than you'd care to be.

3. Using the phone. If you're calling someone, keep in mind (a) time zone differences—if you don't know them look in the front of the White Pages in a phone book, and (b) that the guy on the other end may not be able to or may not want to talk to you at the time of your call. One of the first things out of your mouth might be "Is this a good time to talk?" This seems like common sense to me, but I wouldn't be bringing it up if we hadn't run into this problem.

4. Abusing the phone. Speaking of phone numbers, I hate 'em in ads because there's been so much abuse of the phone. But there've been lots of romances, friendships and good times initiated through bear contacts by phone. Any more abuse that I hear of and they're gone for good, so please be considerate. And if YOU have a phone number in your ad and you change your number, get in touch with us immediately. Of course the same goes for addresses too.

5. Cost and duration. Personal ads are free if you're a BEAR BUDDY for the duration of your sub. Otherwise, they're 25¢/word/issue. Wanna change your ad? Send in $5. Wanna discontinue your ad? Write in and we'll pull it. Regardless of the duration though, if we pull your ad you will have to pay to reinsert a new ad.

6. Deadlines for classifieds. For issue #12 it's April 16.

7. COA Box Numbers. Available to US subscribers. Free to Bear Buddies, including foreign Buddy's. Otherwise, tack on $5 to your ad. Let me tell you, the number of responses you receive using our address will probably be less than those you would get if you used your own address.

8. Personals vs. commercial ads. The personals (and their rate) can only be used for personal ads. If you are selling a product, offering a service, informing others of a club, organization or what-have-you, whether for profit or not-for-profit, the ad is considered commercial. You know as well as I do what a personal ad is and isn't.

9. We reserve the right to edit personals. This right is exercised for editorial consistency and for clarity almost exclusively.

10. We reserve the right to refuse any ad for any reason whatsoever.
