LETTERS TO BEAR

Wild in the Streets

I have always liked big guys who are more laid back, but I do not look like the "bear" or "cub" type. I am a born blond and have an average build. I know I should be thick-skinned when it comes to opinions, but there always seems to be (letters in BEAR from) someone who is tired of seeing skinny, zit-butted blond boys. That doesn't make me feel I'd be appealing to a bear. (Not that I have zits on my ass!) I wanted to show another side of your readers in case you didn't know we existed.

Although I have visited San Francisco several times, I haven't been to the Folsom Street Fair. I hear it's crazy. Could you give me an idea of what the celebration is about?

M.M., South Carolina

To answer your first point, these letters are expressing a frustration that almost all gay erotica depicts young, smooth-bodied muscleboys. Their authors are relieved that BEAR provides an alternative to that, 'cause that's not their type o' man. Sounds like it's not yours either. Fear not, however. There are plenty of big, hairy men who would love to delight you in the nastiest of ways!

As for Folsom Street—well, clinically speaking, it's a week of leather pride events culminating with a Sunday street fair where a certain uninhibitedness reflective of that lifestyle abounds. Add to that equation thousands of out-of-towners looking to get off and lotsa cheap beer and use your imagination. See you there.

Sits Through the Credits

It was nice meeting you folks at Bear Bust '96 in Orlando. I just wanted to let you know what I thought of your latest video, Bear Sex Party, which I purchased at your booth. I thought the movie was great, especially the fucking sequence with the big, uncut bruiser toward the end (Mike Brandon, coverman BEAR 40). Two items that I think could make future

The Wittke Wire

One day several years ago, a panhandler asked me for some change and, because I was in a foul mood, I just ignored him rather than acknowledging his humanity, which is something I generally like to do. The guy muttered, "Yeah... ya fuckin'... Grizzly Adams." I had been doing the BEAR mag gig for a while at that point and had long held Grizzly Adams in high esteem, so I was kind of confused if the guy meant his comment as a compliment, or what. It is still true to this day that, of all the columns I've done and of all the furry guys in assorted media I have discussed, the one name that comes up most in correspondence and discussions with readers and friends alike is Dan Haggerty, the original Grizzly Adams. Most comprehensive of my reader/researchers is Jeffrey S. from Sydney, Australia, who sent me a mighty impressive package. He included a complete listing of episodes from the TV series The Life and Times of Grizzly Adams; a tasty pencil drawing of a naked Grizzly/Haggerty in the woods; a filmography of Mr. H's cinematic output; and, most impressive/obsessive of all, a homemade videocassette box cover designed by Jeffrey S. for his very own Best of Grizzly Adams compilation. What a Wittke Wire-ian thing to do! Way to go, Jeffrey S.!

Which brings me to the topic of this column: The Unseen Films of Dan Haggerty. Perhaps, like me, you figured that, somewhere out there, you could get your hands on the original Grizzly Adams family film on videocassette, the movie from 1975 that inspired the 1977 TV series. And maybe you thought some or all of the two seasons' worth of episodes were available on cassette, too. And maybe you already own the other famous Haggerty film, The Adventures of Frontier Fremont, which was notable for the fact that it was exactly like Grizzly Adams only the lead character was Frontier Fremont. The role wasn't exactly what you would call "a stretch" for Haggerty. Other than these, the only other memorable bit of Haggerty trivia would be the fact that he served three months in jail after being convicted of selling cocaine in 1984. I wonder who his cellmate was? Other than that, you might be forgiven for thinking that this just about sums up the filmography of Dan Haggerty.

But no.

Would you believe that Dan Haggerty has appeared in over 30 films? It's the truth, I swear. And some of the films, according to reliable Internet sources, are available somewhere on the planet on videocassette. Most of these would be from the substantial number of movies that never seemed to actually play in a theater and that Haggerty appeared in post-Grizzly/post-jail time. But there were quite a few interesting appearances in films even before then.

When he was in his early 20s, Dan Haggerty provided local color as a musclemann in 1964's Muscle Beach Party. It's true, efforts even better would be background music and better credits. I really missed music in the film. To me that adds something to the atmosphere. The other thing is if you could show a picture of the actors with their names at the beginning or end of the video, it would be helpful. Although I've purchased BEAR for about two years now, I don't remember all the model's names and would like to look out for my favorites in future productions.

T.S., Delaware

Your letter made the rounds to the appropriate people here at the shop. Thank you for the constructive feedback. As you may know, Brush Creek videos have always been pretty "homemade" affairs, and we're learning more with each video production. Sorta like John Waters! Except that you won't be seeing Kathleen Turner in our videos. Not until we're really big, anyway.

Sharp Dressed Man

I have a request. Sometime when you have a hairy, humpy hulk doing a spread, put him in a business suit. Yeah, of course we all dig the flannel shirts-and-jeans thing. But I work in NYC, and when I see the above-described man packed into a business suit, it makes me totally twisted. Simply because it looks like he wants to be out of that damned suit! When I see the swirls of dark wrist hair against the white French cuffs, or the neck fur creeping above the collar, it gets the old imagination working on what's lurking beneath the pinstripes. I'd like to see a bearish businessman getting out of his suit, starting with his equipment popping out of the fly. I know I sound like a slob, but I can't believe I'm the only commuter with such a fantasy.

BEAR Staff Takes Group Vacation

I was in a club in Athens and started talking to a guy. This was not a leather place; they really don't exist in Athens. I asked the guy about places to go. There are not that many. There is one called Lambda which he said was very nasty. I asked why it was nasty. His reply: "It is where all the straight men go to fuck gay men. It is very dark, and they just grab a guy to fuck. Big hairy Greek hands all over you. They are bus drivers, butchers, jobs like that—and they smell. When they finish, they just throw you aside and leave, someone else then takes their place and grabs you again."

I did not visit the bar as I was on the other side of town so I'm afraid I can not confirm if the place is really like this.

M., e-mail

Oh, there are plenty of places like that here in the States as well. Rikers, for instance.

Unsatisfied Customer

I have had a subscription with you for some time. Over this time, I have become very disappointed with your magazine. It's not the bear image I seek. As such, I will be ending my subscription.

D.B., Ontario

Hey, we can't be all things to all people, but I am sorry to lose you. I would love to know what you do want to see in BEAR, and how you think we've blown it. We can take the criticism, but it helps to know specifics.

By Chris Wittke

Haggerty's co-stars are not limited to Nakoma, Mad Jack or Ben the bear. They even include Frankie and Annette.

In 1971, he starred in a biker movie called Bury Me An Angel, which was notable in the genre because it was told from a woman biker's point of view and directed by a woman named Barbara Peters. I haven't been able to dig up a copy of this one, but I am salivating at the very idea of Dan as biker and the kooky (for its era) p.o.v. That same year, he appeared in a children's film called The Tender Angel. In '73, Haggerty filmed a horror/suspense movie called The Shrieking, which was also known as Hex.

Even more surprising to me than all of these little factoids was the sheer volume of work that Haggerty has done in the years after Grizzly, right up to and including 1996. Most of them were probably direct-to-video/cable/USA Up All Night, and several of them sound as if they would be well worth excavating.

For example, in 1989, he appeared in a horror movie called The Chilling with one of my all-time favorite actresses, Linda Blair. Also in The Chilling was ex-idol Troy Donahue, and, let's face it, if Troy Donahue could be a movie star, then Dan Haggerty could be a movie star. In '78, he appeared in Desperate Women, a woman-in-prison film (my favorite genre) starring Susan Saint James (!) and Ronee Blakley. In '81, there was something called King of the Mountain that is notable if only because his co-stars were Harry "Making Love"

Hamlin, Joseph Bottoms, Dennis Hopper and Cassandra Peterson. He starred in 1986's Abducted (also known as The Abduction) and a sequel, Abducted II: The Reunion, which was released in 1994 and co-starred direct-to-video king Jan Michael Vincent.

Haggerty has continued to work steadily in the '90s, making movies with such intriguing titles as Repo Jake (1990), Ice Puen (1990), Macon County War ("Sometimes You Have to Cross the Line"—1990), Elves (1990), Soldier's Fortune (1992—with P.J. Soles!), Cheyenne Warrior (1994), The Little Patriot (1995—our smooth-skinned readers and admirers will be amused to know that this movie is also known as Sign of the Otter), and the one I'm probably most excited of all to find, 1995's Grizzly Mountain, a sci-fi/horror movie that co-stars one of my other all-time favorites, Cagney & Lacey's Martin Kove.

So there you have it, a rather impressive collection that isn't even a complete listing of everything Haggerty has done. Who knew that the man so many of us admire had produced such a body of work? It's definitely a body that many of us would love to explore, am I right? And now news comes to us that, in that great mid-'90s Hollywood tradition, the release of a remake of The Life and Times of Grizzly Adams starring a fellow named Tom Tayback is imminent. Is another generation of Hairy Man Fans about to be inspired? ☺

Social Climbing

Just finished slobbering over issue 40. Models Steve and Mike Brandon left me oozing. Kudos to Gregor too—I really enjoyed "The Biker Next Door." Very hot.

Enclosed are a couple of pictures for your edification and delight. The one of me on rappel (about 200 dead vertical feet off the deck) from Seneca Rocks, West Virginia, is to show you that not all bears were meant to stay on the ground. It was taken during a drill that our rope rescue team held there. (I'm one of the officers.) The other is from Jones Pond Campground in western New York. When I called the owners to request a campsite, I mentioned I wanted to be as far away from civilization as possible. So they put me wayyyyyy back in the back of the 122-acre campground, near this sign (it must have been fate). It's one of the friendliest, best-equipped gay campgrounds on the East Coast, and there are usually a fair number of bears there, too—equally "well-equipped."

You guys keep safe, I want you around for a long time.

S.J., Pennsylvania

Now you've done it. The mere mention of Seneca Rocks has me all misty-eyed for Dolly Sodds, Parsons, Grafton, Elkins and Spruce Knob. Used to be my secret camping getaway. Stop me before I break into a John Denver song.

Southern Unhospitality

I recently wrote a letter to the Southern Bears club who are listed in your magazine. I enclosed an addressed envelope and two international reply coupons, and asked if they could send me some details of pubs and clubs to visit in Atlanta, as I am having holiday there in March '97. This is the second time I have written to the above club and not received a reply.

Is there a way you could contact the Southern Bears and ask why they haven't bothered to reply? More importantly, could they send me the details I was inquiring about?

Southern Bears, how 'bout it?

Hooked

Wanted to write and tell you how great your magazine is. I've really gotten hooked in the last year or so. I look forward to every issue. Not only do you have the hottest hairy men, but I like your attitude. Kind of friendly, kind of horny, sense of humor, you know. Here are some pics you might like. Keep cranking out those issues.

M.H., Louisiana

It helps to keep well-oiled when cranking out. Thanks for the visual aids.

ISO Montana Bears

I have always been attracted to hairy masculine men, however, being younger I also have an attraction to daddies. I'm talking Alan Thicke-type men over 30, who are kind and gentle in and out of bed. But in the personals I don't see many "older daddy bear in search of younger bear son." So what other magazines would you suggest for a son-type bear looking for a daddy bear?

And because I live in the far regions of the gay universe, I rarely see any personals from Montana at all. So this is a call for all the bears in Montana: Let's get a bear club going so we can be recognized in BEAR. Big Sky Bears or something.

T.E., Montana

Before I go plugging other magazines, have you tried placing an ad for a daddy in BEAR? (It's my corporate obligation to ask.) That said, there are several magazines which feature daddy-type men. Handjobs, Daddy, Chiron Rising, Mentor, and Daddy Bear (if it's still being published) come to mind right away. If you can't find them in Montana, try calling A Different Light in San Francisco or Giovanni's Room in Philadelphia, they both take phone orders.

Likes it from Behind

Thought I'd drop you a line to let you know how much I enjoy your magazine, BEAR 40 especially. The men in there were definitely my kind of guys. Besides the naked men, I always enjoy The Wittke Wire. It seems Mr. Wittke and I are on the same wavelength most of the time. I also watched most of the Olympics just to catch occasional glance of Bruce Baumgartner.

Chris, have you seen the movie The Crossing Guard? The movie itself is forgettable, but the guy playing opposite Jack Nicholson is enough to set your pants on fire. 'Specially when he just gets out of prison and his friend asks if he got fucked a lot. He replies, "Yeah, but it only hurt the first time," with a smile.

Just one small complaint, please give us more and better butt shots. A couple of times we never even get a peek at a guy's ass. There's nuthin' I like better than a nice round butt properly displayed. I like the "spread" shots, but I also like the natural shots like page 38 in BEAR 40.

Thanks for finding these hot men for me to lust after, and thanks for being there. J.C., Illinois

We don't always get to direct the photoshoots ourselves, so sometimes there are no butt shots. Other times, there are no good butt shots.

But there's nothing I like better than a guy's ass. Our designer Mike is more of a dick man himself. And both of us are suckers for a sexy face. The photos chosen for BEAR are a collaboration between the two of us. Sometimes we argue (and sometimes I win—see page 10), but ultimately I think we provide a good balance. Thanks for your comments.

Just Do It

I don't consider myself a bear, meaning I'm 5-foot-10, full bearded, 190 pounds. But not very hairy I am, though, a huge admirer. Without trying to sound too much like Kathy Bates, I am a bear's biggest fan. Which leads me to my point. I would very much like to get involved with the bear community, with bear gatherings, etc. Would I be shunned at these events or welcomed? Your ads for various bear events and clubs leave me curious about them.

S.H., Ohio

Many of the clubs advertise themselves "for bears and their admirers," so consider that your official invitation. By all means, go to these events—you'll be surprised at the variety of shapes, sizes and degrees of fuzziness there. You'll also find that it's a pretty inclusive group of guys. And what better way to snag the type of guy you like than to put yourself smack in the middle of a bunch of them?

Eight is Enough

I'm in love with Nick! I just got BEAR 40, and surprisingly enough, after jerking off eight times, I have the strength to write you. He is my absolute fantasy man. Give him to me now. I mean it now. There's only one question I have to ask him: What would you like for breakfast?

Ever thought about selling real photo prints of the models in your mag? I have a frame already picked out for those pictures of Nick.

C.W., Ohio

Back in the early days of BEAR, you could order photo sets of BEARmen from Brahma Studios. But we haven't done that for years. The magazine has a much larger audience now, and we'd be spending all our time making prints! And even though BEAR images pop up in cyberspace and bear club newsletters frequently, a lot of our models don't want their images showing up in other magazines. That's more likely to happen if people had prints to work with.

Correction

In BEAR 41 we provided contact information for photographer Mark I. Chester. Mark also wanted to share his e-mail and phone numbers for those who might want to contact him. They are: phone (415) 621-6294 and e-mail mchester@best.com.

STEVE

It was Steve's ex who recommended he send some pictures in to BEAR. (Thanks, Rob!) Says he was shocked when we called and wanted to see more. Aw, humble too. Actually, we couldn't wait to show him off for you guys. Even used one of his initial snapshots on the contents page of BEAR 39. Ever seen a furrer butt? And if you have, did it come along with a face this sweet?

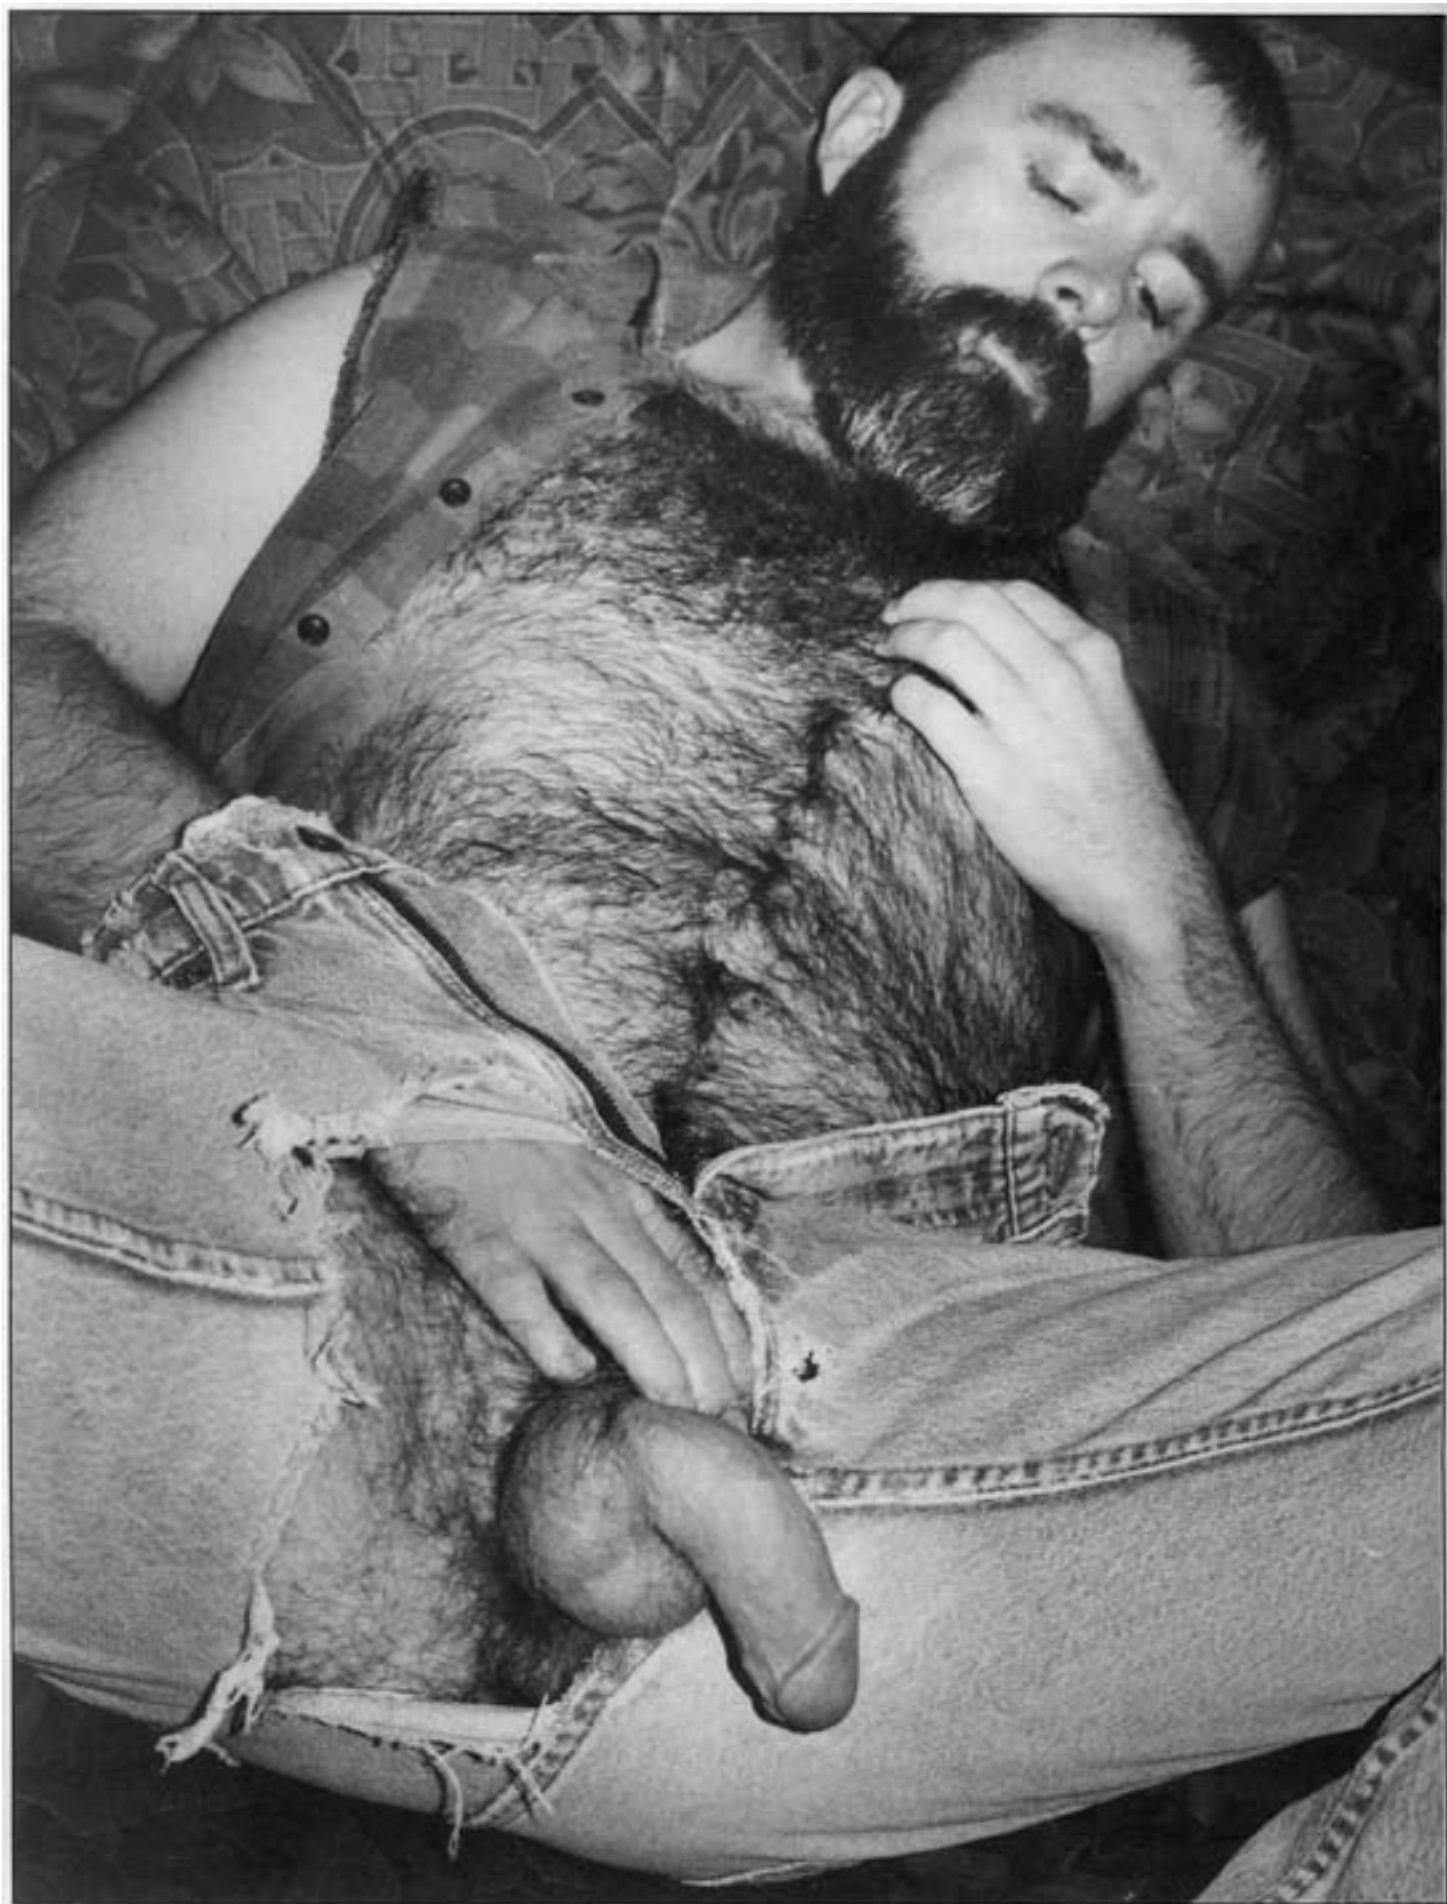

Steve has lived in North Carolina his whole life and calls Charlotte his home. Gay life there is pretty dull, so he supplements his time at the local leather/Levi bar with flea markets, Country-Western dancing and exploring the mountains near Asheville.

Cover Your Ass

Legal Perspectives
by Jeff Kilpatrick

Take Good Care of Yourself...

Lately, I've been feeling reflective about the past year and watchful for the new one. The beginning of a new year is a wonderful time for looking forward into the future and also for looking back and taking stock of the year just past. This column focuses on what I hope are a few useful suggestions for the new year.

When you're my client, I try to make sure your ass is covered. Is yours covered? You should be concentrating on three major areas: your health, your wealth and your safety.

First, let's talk about your health. I urge my clients to review their legal position at least once a year. You should also do this on a medical basis as well. You should have a complete physical examination at least once a year. If you are over 35, you should be sure to have a prostate exam. Think of you body as your house. You examine your house periodically so you can fix minor problems before they become major. It's the same for your body. It's the only one you'll ever have, so take care of it.

Good mental health can best be defined as feeling good about yourself and also feeling good about other people. It's important to interact with other people for good mental health. One of the most important things you can do for yourself to ensure a good mental attitude is to do volunteer work to benefit others. Organize a benefit, read to an AIDS patient who no longer can see, write a check for your favorite charity—the important thing is to give of yourself to others. The rewards are immense: a sense of self-worth, a feeling of accomplishment and the knowledge that you've aided your fellow human beings. Not a bad return on a little volunteer work, is it?

Good legal health is also essential. First, let's talk about your wealth. I hope most of you have at least looked at Peter Berkery's book Personal Financial Planning for Gays and Lesbians which I reviewed in this column in BEAR 41. I don't plan to mention it again, but I also can't praise it highly enough. Let me make it plain: A rich elderly gay man is eccentric; a poor elderly gay man is a troll. Resolve to be eccentric—it's more fun, and the options are greater. Whatever your age, you should focus on three aspects of wealth accretion and maintenance: health insurance, home ownership and retirement.

Health insurance in this country is undergoing a shift away from comprehensive hospital/doctor-oriented schemes to managed-care schemes which derive their profit from their approach to your healthcare. Is your HMO gay-friendly? Does it have an absurdly low cap for diseases like AIDS? Are its doctors gay-sensitive? Can you opt into a more gay-friendly HMO, or must you take the one offered by your employer? These are all legal questions you should be asking now.

Home ownership is probably the biggest investment most of us will ever make, and it is surely one of the best. You receive favorable tax treatment during the process of paying off the mortgage, and it is almost always cheaper to pay taxes than to pay rent. At the end of a specified period of time, you own a home from which no homophobic landlord can evict you. And with the mortgage paid off, the house provides security for your later years. Should you need it someday, the house can be sold to give you the money to enter a retirement community.

Next, let's consider retirement. There has been a shift away from the annuity concept, where you work for a number of years, retire and then receive an annuity. Today, workers are expected to save for their retirement either by outright saving or investment. The retiree of the future will have a mix of Social Security, pension or annuity funds, and possibly income from a part-time job if they are well enough. What have you done to guarantee your streams of income? It's a good idea to check with Social Security to make sure you're receiving credit for the number of quarters you've worked. You can do this by mailing a request to them for this information. What about your pension plan? Can you increase your contributions? Can you invest in the stock market? The stock market may be a risk, but few can deny that it has performed very well in the past 10 years. Do you have skills or a hobby that could be a moneymaker for you? Develop them now so they are ready when you retire.

Another thing you should review periodically is your credit report. We live in a credit-driven society, and even if you rarely use credit cards, you want to avoid the consequences of a credit card company foul-up or an overly ambitious trick who got ahold of a plastic card he never should have. Request a credit report once a year to make certain that all information contained therein is current and accurate.

All right, here we go into the home stretch. Let's talk about your legal safety. Do I have to remind you that you are a gay man functioning in a system that does not particularly like you—a system that won't validate you? Every year, you should review your will to see if it still reflects your wishes and desires. Beneficiaries sometimes die before the will-maker. There is a concept known as anti-lapse. Rather than see a bequest fail because of the death of a beneficiary, the bequest will then go to a beneficiary's nearest heirs. If they happen to be homophobic fundamentalists in the Kentucky hills, one could reasonably suppose that the will-maker did not intend for them to be the objects of his bounty. You can amend your will by making a codicil; this must be signed and witnessed just as a will is done. You may also specify that your beneficiaries must survive you in order to receive the bequest, or that the bequest is specific to them alone. But the message here is clear: Review your will!

He'll have to drive back

Down

by Randy Archibald

I don't give a flip what ya thinka me—or what the people down the road think or anyone else. I'm a sleazebucket and don't have many friends, and people think I'm gross—and I just don't give a damn. People avoid me, and that's what I want, and maybe I've made myself into a slimeball 'cause it keeps people outta my way and I like that, or maybe I just like the way my trashy life feels.

My place is out in the Texas hills—no, not the pretty green “hill country” where normal people go on vacation. The brown hills far out southwest of Fort Worth. I got a few hundred acres my uncle left me 'cause I was the only other manfucker in the family 'sides him. It's mostly grassland and ravines and canyons and a few rocky outcroppings—I run cattle and a few emu, and the rest of what I do for a living ain't none of your fuckin' business. No one wants to come here for nothin'. And my brain is in my dick and that's where I live and that's that.

Well, sometimes some candyass'll show up here and try to get something going with me—guess I've asked for it 'cause there's a rest area on the interstate close by and sometimes I cruise it and make the mistake of bringing some fucker home with me. The fucker thinks I'm hot just 'cause I'm gross and have a fat dick and you just know I don't give a flip about him.

Once in awhile I meet up with some trucker there who's a slimeball like me and I get to fuck with some real bear meat. But most times they're faggots who think this big hairy sleaze with the fat dick is a turn-on, but they ain't worth it, and I'm lucky if I can keep my horsemeat hard long enough for them to give me a quick headjob when we get back to my place. But then the asshole knows where my place is and thinks he has the right to bother me—guess I'm going to have to start carryin' my rifle around with a boner

time, and I

times a

real obvious in the rear window of my truck so I can show 'em I don't want 'em around.

Here at my place, I run around naked—almost always—'cept for heavy socks and work boots and a long, heavy fur-lined slicker in winter. I'm 45 and I got loads of thick brown hair all over my body, and I weigh 230 powerful pounds and I'm 6-foot-3, and I got balls that hang way down in a hairy sac below my fat cheesy dick and thick overgrown skin sheath, and I hardly ever take a bath except for a daily dip in the watering hole I dug for my stock.

I walk around with a boner most of the time, and I beat off three or four times a day, and I got a couple favorite ravines and canyons where I go and hog out and do wild stuff to myself. I hear some wimp talk on the T and V about being a sex addict, and I just laugh 'cause they don't know what they're talking about. I mostly don't walk where anyone can see my dick from the road—I know the law, and if they have to come on to my land to see me it's tough shit—even if I surprise them with a boner and they think it's gross.

But I carry a pair of powerful field glasses in my truck, and you'd be surprised how many guys—delivering shit to other ranches—get outta their trucks 'cause they think no one can see them and take a piss and end up beating their meat there on the road 'cause it feels so good out there in the sun—I bet they wouldn't admit it turns them on to do it in a public place. Mostly I just watch from a distance, but if the fucker looks worth it I might sneak up on him with a hard-on and surprise him and we might beat off together or sometimes more.

There's a couple of truckers though—one's a Fort Worth feed company driver, and the other is the package delivery company driver for this route—and they deliver to the big ranch down the road a lot, and I want to fuck 'em. The feed driver is a big dark-haired pig—almost my size, I guess—and several times I seen him stop and pull out his long hose and piss on my road. But every time I get close, he stuffs it back into his pants and drives off.

So one day I order some stuff from his store. But wouldn't you know he drives up without so much as a hint of a boner under his pants? And when he honks, I come outta the barn naked, and he's just all business. Don't so much as rub his crotch or even make it obvious that he's noticed my dick flapping there in the breeze. He drives off, and I think, "Well screw you, asshole. Don't ever stop and piss on my road again!"

The very next day, the package delivery guy drives his panel truck up the main road with both side doors open and, from what I can see through the field glasses, he's a big brawny blond. And he must be oversexed like me 'cause he's driving down the road with his brown uniform shorts around his ankles, pulling on this whanger—I think it's longer than, but not as fat as, mine.

I gotta think this thing through. If he goes up the road, he'll have to drive back down this way pretty quick and it's definitely worth a try. So I take my truck and drive to a hill where the main road cuts my land and I can see traffic from either direction, and I pull my truck off the road and get out and pretend I'm fixing the fence.

It's not long before the brown truck is coming up the road from the other direction, and I bend over with my muscle-bound furry butt toward him and my legs a little apart so my heavy sinkers swing in the breeze. I hear him stop, and I turn around. He's sitting there facing me with his brown shorts around his ankles and his shirt unbuttoned and—let me tell you—he's pretty much like I figured looking at him through the field glasses.

He's big. Like me. Looks younger than me, but he ain't no pretty boy. I watch him, and he flips them shorts in the back of the truck and jumps down and comes toward me with his shirt-tail flapping around his thickly muscled torso and thighs. As he gets closer, I see he's got a pelt wrapped around him that's thick and sexy but so light-colored you can't see it till you're up close, and I wonder if he's a California golden bear.

I stare at the long tube dangling from the bottom of his hairy, heavy gut—he ain't got no paunch, but he ain't got no phony washboard belly neither—and the tube swings free 'cause his legs are shapely and big but not thick. His balls are pulled close to his groin in a tight pouch so his tube has to lay out over them before it can bend down. He gives one quick jump, and that hose flops from side to side then he's across the ditch and standing right beside me. I feel my dick start to get hard 'cause I can smell his sweat, and precum starts oozing around inside my thick skinflap.

"Bill Frame," I say. "Own this property." I stick out my grimy hand for him to shake. As he shakes it, I feel this jolt go up my arm, and I chomp down on my cigar.

"Don Mallard," he says. "Drive this route. Mind if I use your latrine?"

I ain't sure what he has in mind, but he's said one of my favorite words. Latrine. And I say, "Be my guest."

He takes a hold of that hose with his thumb and middle finger, shakes it and pulls down on it to start the flow when I see what I ain't noticed before. He's got a whole pile of extra skin pushed up behind the head. The white skin of his hose looks almost transparent 'cause he's real blond, and I love it 'cause mine is so dark. When the stream starts, I can't hold myself back.

I step in front of him so the stream splatters on the head of my dick, and I pull back my long skinflap so the hot piss hits my spongy dickhead square. I feel the warmth creep up my whanger as it gets hard. I hope it don't gross him out, but I gotta have that liquid gold, so I kneel in the dirt in front of him and beat my meat furious and open my mouth in front of the stream. He bends his knees to get closer and takes the back of my head and sticks his pink mushroom directly into my mouth, giving me his piss right down my throat.

The salty liquid dribbles out the sides of my mouth 'cause he's a gusher. I know young Mr. Mallard is worth the weeks I've been waiting for him, and I say, "Want to come on up to my place?" I give his long dick a friendly yank 'cause it's beginning to get hard now that he's done pissing.

He says, "Been waiting for an invite for a long time."

I tell him to follow me, and we get into our trucks. I drive right up to the old brown barn; by the time we get there, I've got one big fat woody oozing with precum—sweat soaks my furry pits and chest, making my hairy ass stick to the seat, and it isn't from the temperature outside.

Young Mallard pulls up beside me, and he jumps outta his truck before I get out of mine. He's naked now except for his boots, his big floppy hose has turned into this ramrod not quite as thick as mine but long and shaped real nice, sticking rigid up from his balls and tight against his gut. Now that he's got his shirt off, I see he's packed with muscles. Worth every minute I've waited for him. Biceps must be 24 inches. Chest built to match and wrapped in a thick blond pelt.

I hope it

"Ain't allergic to hay, are ya?" I ask.

And he laughs, "Not if it's covered with cum."

I lead him into the barn—I can't wait any longer, and I'm down in a crouch in front of him with my nutpouch dragging in the hay. I drive my nose up under his crinkly-skinned nutbag, and he sits back on a bale and spreads his blond-furred legs wide so I can get my face clear up into his asscrack and smell his brown musclering while I lick behind his huge loveapples. I feel him pound away on his joystick; I give my sexflap a beating back and forth over the purple knob of my dick. He don't give me no warning and flips over and leans an elbow on the bale and shoves his muscle-mounded rump up and pulls his cleavage apart so I don't just smell the brown ring, but see it nestled among the thick blond hair dripping with sweat.

"Oh, man, I need your tongue," he moans. I don't need no map. I dive into the hairy canyon and stretch my tongue out to that puckered bull's eye, burying my face in his hairy ravine. I get the musky residue down the length of my tongue, and it tastes like candy to me. He moans and wriggles, and we both pull on our sexclubs; I think I've died and gone to hog heaven.

My bullballs begin to churn and pull up toward my crotch. I gotta let go of my horsemeat 'cause I'm about to shoot. I think about just what position I want to be in when I let go my surge of cum, but instead I pull away from him and say, "You got an ass that needs some whacking, big boy." He grunts as I start slapping his square-muscle butt on each side. I stick first one, then two, then three fingers into his asshole; with each whack, his brown love-ring squeezes my fingers, and he moans with relish as I drive farther into his hole.

I feel him giving up control second by second. I ain't really into being a sex master, but I know how to drive us both wild. So I pull back from his gorgeous muscled ass, and I pull him from the haybale then push him to his knees. I swing my leg over his head and straddle him with one foot on the dirt floor and one on the haybale. I watch him stretch his neck to try to tongue my eggs in their velvet pouch as they swing by his face. I lean over the bale with my heavy dark-pelted asscrack just inches from his nose. I'm imagining what's going on in his head, and what his tongue'll feel like up my hole.

"You want it, big man?" I ask. "You wanna eat me out?" I push my puckerhole in and out real gross just above his face and I hold him down by the shoulders so he can't quite reach my brown sleaze hole with his tongue. He begins to struggle wildly to get his face into my crack.

"Gimme your crack," he says and flips his tongue around. I lower my ass toward his face and let go of his shoulders. His tongue makes instant contact with my love-ring, and I shudder. Chills go up and down my sex-canyon, my whanger jumps with a surge of hot blood, and I think I'm gonna pass out.

I let Mallard have at my brown bung-hole till he's moaning and groaning. I'm so hot, I think I can't hold back my jism anymore. I pull my hairy ravine away from him and swing my joyboilers in his face and tell him to suck 'em. He gulps, and I can't believe he slurps both of 'em into his stretched-out cheeks at the same time.

I'm thinking I ain't got much time before I shoot, and I want my dick where my tongue was a few minutes ago. "Gotta fuck your sleazehole, man," I say and flip over onto my back on the bale with my legs bent back to brace myself on the floor. My thick club's standing upright. "Climb aboard."

He stands up and bends over my dick then swallows the whole fat thing. He pulls the skin back with his lips and slathers spit over my throbbing mushroom. Then he jumps up onto the bale—straddles my gut on his knees—and, in one wild move, drives himself back and down onto my monolith. A wild "Aargh!" rumbles in his throat as his butt muscles spread and his love-riding grabs my cock.

I feel his sphincter grab my skin and pull it down so the ridge of my dick flares out, and the juicy softness of his fankhole massages my pulsing lustknob. I pull his hairy chest to my hairy chest in a great big bear hug, and sweat slathers between us. I bury my nose in his armpit and lick his salty skin. I got all my senses going, and he begins to ride up and down, holding my shaft tight with his sphincter.

I wallow in the feel of his shitmuscle tight around my shaft and the sweet slurpy massage of my dickcrown up inside him about to make me climax. "I'm gonna give your manhole a load of manjuice," I growl into his ear. I raise my hefty butt off the bale so every muscle of my body strains to drive the jism into him.

He sinks his butt down one final time, hard onto my groin. He clinches my whanger with his lovemuscle, pushes himself up from my chest and grabs my tits hard at the exact right moment—almost like I'd told him to or something. The tiny sharp twinge and the firm clasp around my shaft make me explode. I feel blood bounding through my dick as it drives spurt after spurt of my slime into his shitchute. My dick is so sensitive, I can hardly keep from pulling out.

But I know he's about ready to shoot. He raises up, and it makes my joystick twinge, but I know he'll have to drive back down. I grab his long dick and pull it away from his belly and pump it hard while he holds himself raised over the slimy brown hair at my groin. Then he drives his ass down my shaft, and I feel his lovemuscle spasm. He shoots a mess of white slime into the hair on my chest.

He bends over and licks his own jism off me then finds my mouth with his mouth. I taste his cum as it dribbles into my mouth, and I stick my tongue into his mouth and flip it around to slurp as much of the sweet salty goo as I can.

"Yeah, man," I say when I can finally stop panting and talk. "This sure was worth the wait."

"You're one sexy slimeball," he says.

"You gonna get yer ass back here soon?"

"You want it?" he says.

"You know I do—if you can stand my sleazy ways," I say.

"Tell you what. I think I can match you sleaze for sleaze. Whenever I have to drive back down this road, I'll give you a holler."

And we don't give a flip what the people down the road or his boss or anyone else thinks about it. They all just better stay outta our way. Two rutting sleazeballs can be mighty dangerous stuff.

Raising The Cone

When I was a boy, I thought about being a writer when I grew up. Now that I'm a writer, am I grown up?

These and other questions presented themselves on a recent vacation me and Crusher took. Got some tattoo work done and visited Lassen National Volcanic Park in California.

Beginning at the beginning, there was a horoscope we read which mentioned an upcoming eclipse. Thing is, the moon and Saturn were gonna be in a particular aspect, and this aspect highlighted hidden knowledge and lots of fucking. Kismet smiled, for there are few things I enjoy better than a good quest. Thus, the first thing we did upon arrival at Lassen was climb Cinder Cone.

Cinder Cone is as you'd expect it, an extinct cinder cone. Well, it last erupted some 200 to 300 years ago. Extinct enough for climbing. Off we set: me, Crusher, Bird and Bird's beau, Ash.

Climbing the sucker was like climbing sand; the trail's at a 15 percent grade, the cinders are very loose, your feet sink in a bit, and you have to very conscientiously maneuver otherwise you start sliding. Ash and Crusher had got up ahead, leaving me and Bird to talk.

"I have this kinda psychic friend question, Bird," I said. Bird panted, "Uh-huh."

"For a long time I've had this feeling of relentless anticipation."

Bird looked at me, puzzled and indulgent. "Could you be a little more specific?"

So I explained: For a long time I've had this gut feeling that something major is headed our way, but nothing specific comes to mind. "It's like standing in a river and feeling the current flowing stronger and stronger, only I don't know the source or destination of the water." Bird panted, "Uh-huh."

"Well?" I asked. Bird stood for a few moments and said, "Fasting is good. Are you sure you want an answer?" We continued the climb.

Lassen Peak stands some 10,457 feet, and you get a good view of it from Cinder Cone. Last major activity hit in 1915, but there was little piddly stuff going on until 1921 or so. Lassen grew relatively fast; the guidebook said a few decades. Blink of an eye geologically speaking, just been sitting there since the last eruption, though the temps recorded at some of the park's boiling springs and fumaroles have been getting hotter.

"The other thing is," I said to Bird, "I'm not sure if it's just shit. Just ego somehow, like I'm just excited about my life as a writer and seeing it as something bigger. So is there something really building up or what?"

Bird paused a moment. "Fasting is good."

We continued our climb, our feet sinking deep into the volcanic cinders. I was getting excited because we were nearing the top. I looked at the dunes in the lava field below, dusted red, brown, gray-green and yellow with oxidized minerals, unable to shake the feeling that ash and lava were still flowing in some parallel present time, leaving pockets of memory and influence on the land, and we were poking into those pockets, fishing for who-knows-what, very aware of the enormous forces that shaped this place.

I raced ahead of everyone, seeing the top in reach at last. Running those few steps and shouting, "Dear god!" at the sight of what can only be described as the world's largest butthole. There it was, abiding deep between the sensuous, rounded berms of the volcano's rim. Now, we all had studied volcanoes to some extent; I was having fun sharing what I picked up in a college geology course, but none of us was prepared for the natural reality of the crater. I wanted to hike down there.

Happily, there was a trail. Even though there was a trail, hiking into the former fiery pit of molten doom was highly counter-intuitive. The trail was very steep, and I surfed more than hiked down.

Once at the bottom, Crusher waxed poetic. "It feels like I'm hanging over a hole or a tube. The ground doesn't really feel dense here; it's like it's not there... like we're just floating on a raft of foam, and we could drop into the magma chamber at any minute."

After snapping a few photos, we climbed out.

We frolicked about the edge of the crater for a while longer, eating lunch and letting each second of the 360-degree view reinforce the clash of the ancient and the modern, the profoundly and exquisitely brutal and torn landscape and us. And here again was the anticipation, the movement, the swelling, the desire of something to thrust itself into... what? Into being? Into a butthole?

Seeing as how we ascended Cinder Cone by the northern trail, we opted for the southern trail down. It's a little longer, substantially steeper, but it takes you close to the dunes and lava beds, affording many Kodak moments. "Cinder Cone," said Ash, between mouthfuls of Skittles, emphasizing the last word. "Cone without compassion," I said. "Mound without mercy. Pile without, uh, pity."

Ash spoke. "Y'know, last week we watched this documentary about Mt. Everest and some yuppie woman who wanted to climb it. She's climbed every other mountain in the world and wanted to add Everest to her collection. The guides dragged her to the summit when they knew a storm was approaching; didn't set up the guide ropes they usually use or anything. She got to the top and got back down, but the rest of the party got trapped by the storm. They died. And she ain't talkin'."

"The price of a hissy fit," I said.

OK, so I'm a writer. I don't know if I'm grown up. I'm not entirely sure I want to be, but if I was, I'd want to know. 'Cuz something sure as hell is afoot.

You Will Service Us

I've written a lot of words for this magazine, some of which weren't all so damn good. But the subtext I tried to keep in my mind was, "You gotta like yourself, you gotta go for the gusto, you gotta get some dick into your life."

People are better off when they keep sex in their lives as an accessory, not as a reason for being. How stunted is it to play naive when you've been dating for 23 years? Or to still be wagging your dick at every party you go to?

It's like fucking: I'm hoping you don't still fuck like you did when you first started out. Sure, the feelings and emotions probably blew you away back then, that's why you shot your wad in less than two strokes. Now you can take your time, but only because you've practiced, learned to disassociate from that burning desire to cum, and you've learned to hold your wad because your old man will pout and refuse to clean the cat box if you don't give him his full sexual due.

You can't argue that BEAR magazine has stayed the same over the years. Face it: The early men in BEAR would scare the shit out of most of you now.

Skinny, punky, hairy biker dudes who got photographed pissing into Mason jars and taking crystal up their butts. The feeling around the "shop" back in those days, even as late as 1990 when I showed up, was like being in the baddest of funky old pickup trucks about to go off a cliff, with ZZ Top blaring from stolen speakers. How cute would we be if we were still trying to maintain that image?

A magazine is the sum of its readers. It's time to sit back and check out where BEAR readers are, and where we're going.

First I command you to go out and buy a copy of Playboy. (It might make you feel butch, if nothing else). When you get right down to it, Playboy is one of the best all-around magazines you can find. First, there's the naked bits. Even though they're the wrong bits, they're well done. But Playboy is so much more. Articles. Real ones, not just me and Killer pissing and moaning. Politics, science, arts and entertainment. The cartoons alone are worth the price of admission.

But finally, Playboy isn't about style—it is about being a grownup. The Playboy of the early '70s showed men in polyester business suits, cigarettes dangling from their mouths, drinking martinis in bars with fake wood paneling. Their culture was booze, cigarettes and women who didn't have minds of their own. Just try to get away with that shit now. It wouldn't sell. Playboy kept with its roots of sex, politics, humor and pleasure. It kept up with the times.

This isn't a jab or condemnation of the people at BEAR or of BEAR readers. But it will be if another 10 years go by, and we're all still trying to be the same as we are now. What do we do when BEAR isn't cute anymore?

The trend will pass us by—that's the only certainty.

Maybe we have to focus on what brought us to the pages of BEAR in the first place: sex, masculinity, rugged maleness, no pretense. Men with dicks and dirty minds. Remember the old saw about, "It's OK to just be who you are?" When's the last time you heard that one and believed it?

I have been, and always will be, crazy about beards. And dicks. These things are likely to be around for another coupla thousand years. But I want to be more than a fad, more than a clone of the '90s.

Remember John Dibelka? Did the Bare Pause column here for years, until 1994. Then, he got over it. Didn't have anything more to say about bears and bear culture and bear whatever. He was getting on with the business of living, of finding his own road. Further, because we were going through some particularly scary political shit back then, he said he thought that American gay culture was heading for some kind of kristallnacht—that we were about to take a major beating.

Well, instead of political ruin, our fate as gay men is going to suffer a far worse form of extermination.

Prepare to be assimilated, dudes. Gay culture being swallowed up by straight culture. Being gay will be mostly tolerated, occasionally embattled, but other than that, we'll just be another marketing niche. Like being a Democrat or a Saturn owner. And it's a fucking shame.

Even now, when I read Out and the Advocate, it's a barrage of ads for prostate inhibitors, condoms, gay resorts and lube, interspersed with, "See, here's this cool Hollywood person who's not gay but who likes us and thinks it's cool to be gay, and here's our editor standing next to so-n-so who's famous and straight but has raised money for AIDS."

Will we be remembered for nothing more than oversexed poster children? If you want answers, I don't have any to give. I just want you to think about it. Play a part in making a culture that will last. To do that, you will have to use more than sex and baseball caps to be a man. I want to see all of you (well, most of you) around the bar or at the bear-bques for a long time after no one remembers what a bear was. **Ⓟ

BEAR number one.

The Sphincterian QUARTerly

The David Barton-Jay Projects
Brattleboro, VT, $6.95

It seems that every part or function of the human body is accompanied by a fetish. Balls, cock and tits are high on this list, but man's ass is close to the most envied physical quadrant in literature. David Barton-Jay has been writing about the ass and its relation to enemas for 12 years. His book The Enema As an Erotic Art and Its History has moved through respectable circles as the historical textbook for its genre. However, the darker side of Barton-Jay's fetish has been expressed for a year now in the pages of his periodical The Sphincterian QUARTerly.

Not to be confused with the similarly shaped Shit List, available only to anonymous members, I picked up a copy of The Sphincterian QUARTerly at ye local gay book shoppe and found it a stylishly nasty representation of an old and often misunderstood society. The worshipping of ass, in all its juicy and often hairy wonder, has existed for ages. The American Sphincter Society is the recent networking of men carrying on this ancient tradition. The QUARTerly is a small volume filled with poems, stories, letters, photos and messages promoting "safer sex," capped by plugs for fetish resources, international ass-dabbling fraternities and everyone's favorite section—the CLASSifieds. One upsetting note was the reservation for-subscribers-only of graphic excerpts from one of the stories. I agree with the premise, but was left with an oozing cock, half-satisfied because I was lacking the special insert finishing the hot tale of rape and anal pillaging. Oh well, I guess I'll have to send in the bucks to get the rest.

The very late fall issue of The Sphincterian QUARTerly is dedicated to enemas. Other issues deal with a variety of interests pertaining to the puckering bunghole nearest you. I suggest sniffing out this 'zine at your nearest smut stand (perhaps it's on the shelf below this issue of BEAR) or joining the American Sphincter Society so as to get the unabridged version of the QUARTerly delivered to your home. Stick a dollar and any shots of squeaky clean turd-chutes you have lying around to The David Barton-Jay Projects, PO Box 1235, Brattleboro, VT 05302-1235.

Betty & Pansy's Severe Queer Review of San Francisco

Cleis Press, $10.95

This isn't just the ultimate queer guidebook to San Francisco, it's a wickedly hilarious read. Few things are as funny as following the exploits of Betty and Pansy as they research every single, gawd-damned gay-friendly establishment in the City. Their antidotes are filled with such personal detail and scathing wit that they really stick in your brain.

And that's the problem with the fifth edition of their Severe Queer Review of San Francisco. While the entries are thoroughly updated with each edition, the amusing antidotes, largely, are not. Many of these stories are old. Old! Old! Getting older. Not only is it a drag to read about the cat on the bar licking itself for the third straight edition, it also makes me mistrust the research here. I don't think these fellas have set foot in some of these places in three years!

Of course, it was beyond the call of duty to ever set foot in some of these establishments in the first place. Witness the bravery of their visit to Old Rick's Gold lounge:

"This place truly scares the living bejesus out of us time and time again. Every time we arrive, all two to four people freeze and stare at us as if Martians were landing at the front door. Sometimes customers are sleeping, having slurred chats or are sitting by themselves, but having long conversations anyway."

But I expected more since, in Betty and Pansy's introduction, they write that having a new publisher will mean less work for them and a better product for us. So I hoped they'd continue to hop around town, having new experiences then let us in on their fun and horror. Instead it's like seeing your favorite (fading) pop star recycle the same between-song concert patter year after year. The sincerity factor goes way down.

Maybe it's not intended to be read over and over again by the people who actually live here and should know most of this shit anyway. Perhaps it's meant solely for SF tourists and the uninitiated. I wish I had known about the SQR on those visits to San Francisco before I lived here. It woulda saved some time and got me what I wanted. Which was dick.

Not only do Betty and Pansy give you addresses and listings, but frank and detail-filled descriptions too. Nothing seems to embarrass these unrepentant sex hounds. It's exactly the truthful advice you want on the City's sleazy nooks and crannies. And sometimes the truth ain't pretty.

But perhaps you're not interested in just getting your knees dirty around town. You'd like a more rounded review of Sodom. This is where SQR excels. There are listings and no-bullshit descriptions of the City's gay recovery programs, religious groups, lodgings, newspapers, neighborhoods, transportation systems, restaurants, coffee shops, gyms, dance clubs and more. There are even much-needed phone numbers for cab companies.

The best parts of this edition of SQR are the new neighborhood maps and a better organization of the material. It's easy to use. They've also added a few essential Top 10 lists, such as best pool tables and pinball hangouts.

It's probably unwise to have said anything negative about SQR at all. From what I gather, dissin' Betty and Pansy can be dangerous. They delight in their vengeful ways and probably have it in their power to make sure I never have sex in this town again.

Betty & Pansy's Severe Queer Review of San Francisco is available from any gay bookstore worth its salt, or you can contact the publisher at (415) 937-1555.

YOUR BASIC BEAR AD

Deadline for BEAR 43 personal ads is February 7. Deadline for BEAR 44 ads (which comes out in June) is April 8. These dates are subject to change as our publishing schedule varies slightly sometimes.

1. Text. Talk about yourself and be real clear as to whom you'd like to meet. Avoid negativity shit, like "no fats, ferns or Lithuanians." It doesn't work and we'll probably change it anyway.

2. Names. We can't run ads addressed to Occupant or Boxholder. Use your initials or a name your postal carrier knows.

3. Phone Numbers. We won't print 'em.

4. Photo Ads. We'll run a shot of your face or dick—but only once. Your photo must have a signed model release (see "Show Yourself in BEAR," page 35) AND a photocopy of your picture ID. Don't bother sending us photos without this stuff. We can't legally print 'em. Each photo sent to BEAR must be signed with your name and phone number on the back. Photos are not returnable.

5. BEAR Postal Box Numbers. If you wish, we'll assign a BEAR Postal Box Number to your ad, collect your responses and forward them to your address. A word to the wise: Your own address will get you more responses. For U.S. subscribers only. Free to BEAR Buddies, $5 to everyone else.

6. Voicemail Box Codes. We assign a voicemail box to every ad. Guys can leave phone messages in your box after reading your ad, and only you can retrieve them. Cost is $1.98 per minute for both parties. Full details are on page 33.

7. Common Courtesy. If a guy gets in touch with you, write back. Even if it's just to say "no thanks," he deserves to know you got his message.

8. Cost and Duration. Personal ads are free if you're a BEAR Buddy. Otherwise, they're 25¢ a word, per issue. Wanna discontinue your ad? Write in, and we'll pull it. You will have to pay to have a pulled ad put back in, though.

9. Ad Changes. It's cool, but it'll cost you 5 bucks, and must be in writing. Hint: You'll get more responses by rewriting your ad from time to time.

10. Edits. We reserve the right to edit personals for editorial consistency and clarity. We also reserve the right to refuse any ad.

The form for writing your ad and figuring the cost is on page 29.

VOICEMAIL EXPLAINED

Credit card holders call 1-800-347-BEAR. To charge the call to your home phone, dial 1-800-HOT-BEAR. Cost for both lines is $1.98 a minute.

Our BEAR Voicemail system is designed to give you immediate access to new friends, true love, or just good fuck. It works. Record your own personal greeting, answer someone else's ad, pick up your messages, or talk to whoever is jacking off on the line.

1. If you have an ad in BEAR...

When dialing in for the first time, you must already have your passcode from us. We will mail you this code before the issue of BEAR in which your ad first appears hits the stands. Write us here at the shop if you don't receive your code for some reason.

2. To record an outgoing message to correspond to your ad in BEAR or to collect your messages...

Once at the Voicemail Main Menu, immediately hit the star key. The system will tell you that you are picking up your mail and ask you to enter your four-digit mailbox number. Don't let this confuse you. Most of our mailbox numbers are five digits in length and, yeah, we're doing our best to change the recording. Go ahead and check for your mail. The system will then give you four options. Choose option #3 to record an outgoing announcement to match your ad. This way, guys will be able to hear the voice that's attached to your hot ad. Messages will stay in the system for two weeks.

Remember, if you are advertising in BEAR you automatically have a Bear Voicemail Box. However, our 900 system allows you to set up additional boxes if you want. This can be done by choosing command #3 from the main menu, which is different from option #3 that appears at the message retrieval area.

ROB

Our ace photographer in Chicago dropped these pictures on us, sensing we'd love this guy. You shoulda seen the way the guys at the shop were crowding around the proof sheets! Rob's combination of mean-motherfucker looks and casual playfulness just melts our hearts and stiffens our dicks.

Supposedly, Rob has moved to San Francisco since this shoot, but we haven't been able to sniff him out as of yet. Maybe this will bring him 'round.

DADDY BEAR is a stocky WM, mid-40's, 6', masculine, beard/moustache, absolutely monogamous, confident, stable, successful, protective, possessive and loving—a good and traditional parental counselor searching for his boy. YOU are 18-40, Gr/P and a mostly-masculine daddy's boy badly needing to find his dad. You've learned right from wrong, and what monogamy means. Along the way you've learned honesty, loyalty and humor. You are smoke/drug free, and need to share affection with someone you trust. Because you are home/relationship oriented and need a VERY dominant Gr/A father for a permanent relationship based on purpose, love, discipline and intimate masculine companionship, you are able to relocate. You are interested in at least one of these: dogs, travel, computers, music, science, art, woodworking. If this ad pulls at your heart, and you can be committed to this kind of relationship, we should talk. Your rewards for including two recent photos and phone number in your biographical first letter: a same-day response and an opportunity for secure, quiet, satisfying father/son lifestyle. ## BEAR Goes Trans-Atlantic!

Get a load of us, now printed in German! Because sex just sounds better in such a guttural language. This is the European edition of BEAR published by Thomas Schwartz Media out of Cologne, Germany. Thomas is a longtime associate of our Managing Editor, Joseph Bean, and has contributed to the U.S. edition of BEAR.

Euro Bear (as we call it) uses many of the same photos and fiction pieces that appear in BEAR, mixed in with their own models and coverage of European events. Not one pair of lederhosen however. Issue 1 hit the streets in December '96, and it'll come out quarterly from now on. For more information check out <http://www.dom.de/FreiRaum/Schwartz/BEAR.HTM> or write TSM Media GmbH, Postfach 510925, 50945 Köln, Germany.

Lick 'Em, Stick 'Em

Hey, who needs the Village People anymore (come to think of it, did we ever?) when the Postal Service has given us a new set of hyper-masculine icons? This is old news to many of you; the Paul Bunyan stamp accompanies much of our incoming mail. Maybe we should make it mandatory.

Killer Talks

If you find yourself in the Chicagoland area with a hankering for community theater, check out Pas des Deux by Karl Von Uhl, a.k.a. Killer. It's true—he can write more than just an award-neglected column! Pas des Deux, a drama about gay domestic violence, will be presented by theatre Q at a yet-to-be-determined venue in Chicago sometime in mid-March (how's that for vague?). You can get the details by calling either (773) 271-9287 or (773) 973-0529, ext. 2.

Where else can you support the arts (and a columnist) for five bucks? So git yer butt perpendicular and go!

There we were, diligently churning out the smut one day in late November when the phones started to light up and the faxes started coming in. Guys from all over were letting us know that BEAR magazine was mentioned on Live! With Regis and Kathy Lee. Seems actor Tim Allen of TV's Home Improvement was on the show when the subject of TV characters "coming out" came up. Reg joked that he was wondering if Tim's TV sidekick, Al (actor Richard Karn) would announce he was gay. Tim laughed and mentioned that Karn actually has a gay following, and that he'd been asked to appear in BEAR magazine. Reg and Kathy Lee said they hadn't heard of BEAR (imagine!) and wondered what it was all about. So we mailed them some!

Their reply must have been lost by the postal service.

Nothin' on the tube

by David Parker
illustration by DaDe/URSUS

Shit I'm bored! Nothing worthwhile on the Stube, the computer has had the dick (lucky it!), the video hasn't come back from the repair shop yet, and the regular screw is away with family. I need to get laid, bad!

I've heard the toilet block at a local park in Maroochydore is a beat, but I've never done one—seriously I haven't. I've got to get something. The latest BEAR magazine isn't due out for another two weeks, and I don't want an interlude with Mr. Palmer and his five sons again.

It's 9:45 at night when I pull into the car park. Another car is there, an old beat-up ute. There is someone standing in the shadows by the large gum tree near a barbecue—I can see the glow from his cigarette.

Locking my car, I walk toward the far corner picnic table I saw the other day as I drove through the car park trying to pluck up the courage. Well, I'm here now. Sitting on the table looking back toward the car park and lights. I can hear the crickets in the bushes and see the traffic on the road. Another vehicle just drove in, a land cruiser. The guy I saw by the tree is walking over toward the toilets—should I have gone in there? Shit, I don't know.

A tall, large figure has gotten out of the land cruiser and is walking toward the bridge joining the park to the vacant block behind me. Walking into the light of the barbecue, I see he is about 40, in dark jeans, an opened dark-red flannelette shirt. I can see a thick carpet of dark hair covering a fantastic chest. He has a bushy black beard. Shit, he's seen me, what do I do?

"G'day," I mumble as he walks behind me toward the river bank. There is no reply. I can smell his after shave mixed with body odor. He is a big guy, at least 6-foot-3 and massive.

A minute goes by, neither of us is moving or saying a thing. This is ridiculous—he doesn't even look gay. This is too dangerous, I should be at home. What if he's a cop? Shit! I get down from the table and take a few steps toward the car park.

"Don't get out much, huh?" He speaks in a baritone voice.

Shuffling in the darkness toward him I whisper, "No, first time, mate." Why am I so honest? God, how stupid!

"First time at this beat? Thought I hadn't seen the car here before. Are you from out of town?" he asks, seeing how nervous I look.

"No, first time at any beat," I reply. I can't stop shaking.

"I see." Standing a foot away from him, I try to look into this face (and stop trembling). "Nice beard, does it come with a hairy chest?" he asks. Well, that's blatant.

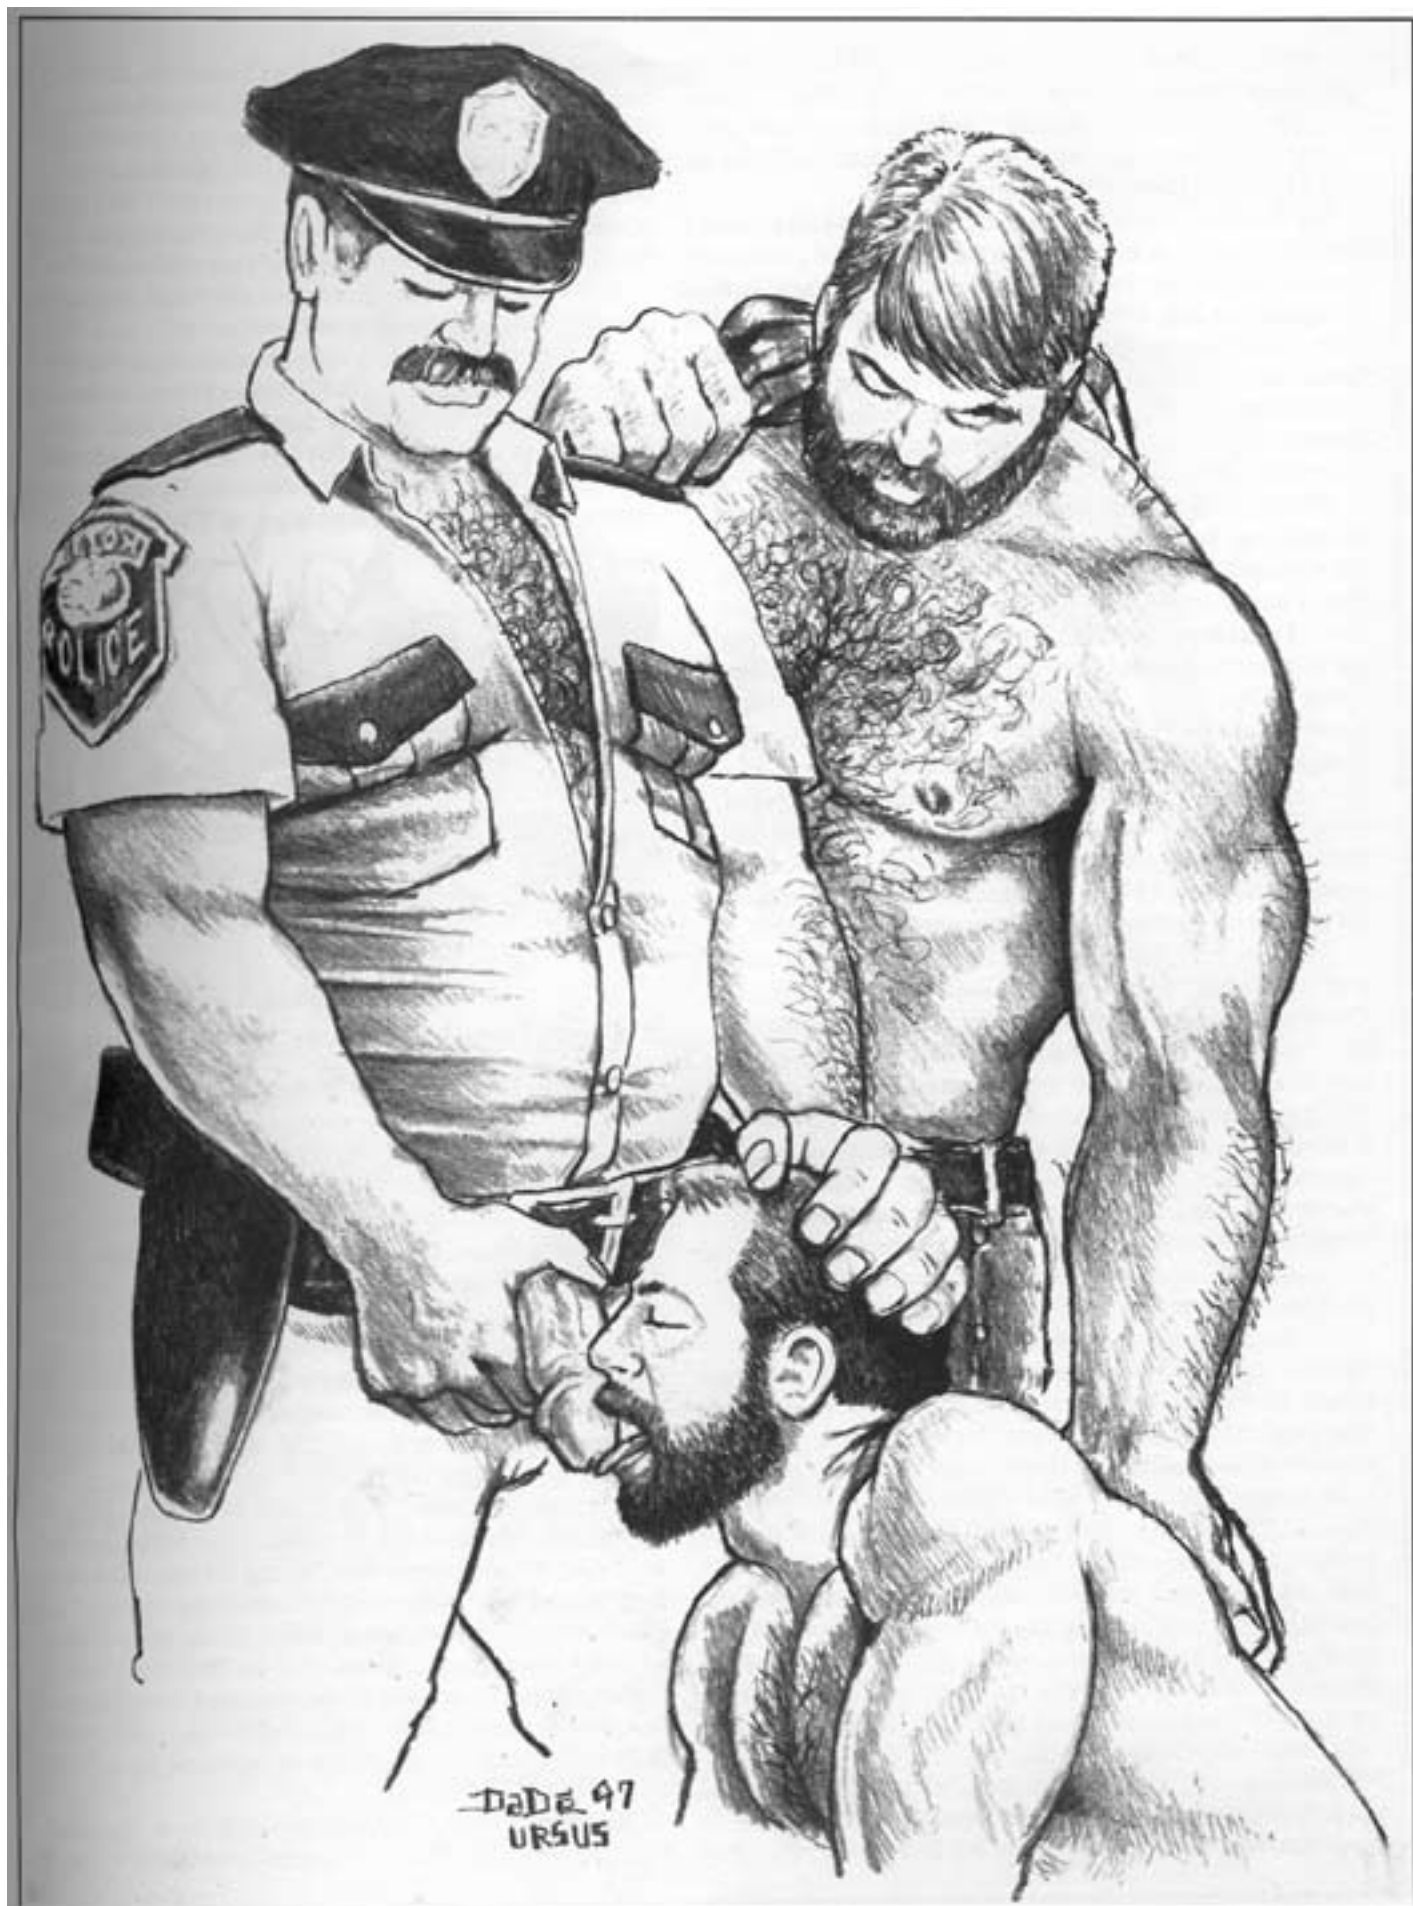

"Yeah, but not as nice as yours," I reply, regaining some steps closer. He grabs my crotch firmly with his large hand. I feel my balls move with anticipation.

"Come with me." He says, walking toward the small bridge to the other paddock. Do I have a choice? By his attitude, there doesn't seem to be.

As I stumble in the dark over uneven ground toward the river bank, I vaguely see a clump of trees and bushes. This mountain of a man walks calmly toward a opening in the bushes. Following him in, I feel a strange euphoria and strength come over me. This is the man of my dreams, here we are out in the open by the river across from a holiday resort, anyone could see us, and there are probably cops waiting ready to pounce, but I don't give a shit! I'm here, I'm queer, and I'm not going fishing!

Standing in front of me, he again gropes me with the saddle flap he euphemistically calls a hand while he unzips his fly. Feeling me tremble, he whispers, "Hey, will you relax? It's only 9 inches." He chuckles. I let out a mixture of a sigh and a moan as I take hold of his thick, hardening cock. With the other hand, I grasp his balls. They are so big. The size of eggs trapped in a fur-lined package warmly resting in my right hand.

Shuffling closer, he undoes the belt of my jeans and unbuttons my Levi's. I can smell rum on his breath as he brushes his beard against the side of my face and my beard. He pushes my jeans, then my boxer shorts, over my hips. My now-erect dick slips out, flipping up and hitting underneath his balls. Letting out a groan with a smile, he kneels down in front of me and rubs his beard over my cock and balls. His hot breath is warm on my crotch as his tongue finds the place where my cock joins my balls. Moving his head around, licking my crotch he begins bathing my balls in his hot, moist mouth. With his left hand, he is gently stroking my shaft, moving my foreskin over the engorged head of my dick while his right hand feels my asscheeks, running his fingers in the valley between them. He takes my dick into his mouth and gently swallows my 7 inches. I feel his rough tongue all over my shaft, under the tip of the head and then under my foreskin.

My fingers run through the thick, dark hair on his head as I begin fucking his face; I can't help the deep animal groans that escape from my lips. I should have done this years ago. Pulling me against his face, with my cock buried in his throat, he nibbles the pubes at the base of my cock. Using his tongue, he manages to suck my balls into his mouth as well. As I rub the broad muscular shoulders of the massive man kneeling down before me, the thought crosses my mind that surely there is no better place on the entire Earth right this minute. Time seems to stop.

With a slurp, he lets my dick and balls out of his mouth. Standing up, he once again towers over me. Although I'm 31, work out a bit and am 6-foot-1, I feel small in front of this man. I lean forward and, cuddling into his firm, muscular chest, I start kissing and nibbling on his left nipple, teasing the hair around it while running my hands through the dense forest on his chest. His hands are massaging my back haunches. Before me, at least 9 inches of the thickest, straightest, most beautifully shaped circumcised dick I could have imagined, accompanied by a one hell of a big set of balls. Grasping the back of my head, he moves his hips forward, and the head of this colossus penetrates my mouth. I move my hands quickly to the side of his crotch and around his shaft to prevent being impaled, gagging even then.

"Oh, yeah. Suck that cock, man," he groans. Well, I certainly wasn't intending to let it go! Being used to my lover's ample 7½ inches, I find it difficult to get even half of this monstrous dong down my throat. I start gagging. "Easy there, mate," he says reassuringly, "not many people can take it all." Well I'm sure going to give it one hell of a go. Just then we hear the noise of a twig breaking over to the side, by the opening of the trees. Someone else is walking toward us. I can hear the sound of starched trouser legs rubbing together as the man is walking toward us. This guy is in uniform. Oh shit, how am I going to get out of this one? Me on my knees, trousers round my ankles and a guy's massive dick shoved halfway down my fucking throat.

"G'day, Steve, how's it goin'?" says the stranger. "Thought that was your truck out there." Sopping his dick out of my mouth, I try to stand up, only to be shoved back down on my knees and to have the dick jammed back into my mouth. What the fuck is going on? I hear the stranger's fly being unzipped as he moves closer to us. "What's this one like?" the stranger inquires. "Seems to be doing well on that monster of yours." Looking up at him, past the chest of my massive man, I'm sure I can see a blue shirt and dark blue jacket. I suddenly feel the heat of another dick burning into the side of my face. Before I know what the hell is happening, one dick is slipped from my lips and another slightly smaller one—about 7 inches—takes its place. I try to protest, trying to back my head away, but two sets of hands keep me in place.

"Relax, buddy," the stranger says. "I'm off duty, and I just want to get my rocks off before I go home." With that, he sets up a nice regular rhythm, fucking my face as the other guy holds us all close, feeling the officer's ass as the officer jacks him off. I can't believe this is happening. As I suck and slurp on the new dick, I feel his sizable balls, then run my hands around to the back of his trousers to feel his firm, tight buns. I reach out with my left hand and run my hand up the back of the leg of my big man and feel his large beefy ass, then around to take hold of his balls while massaging the officer's ass with my right hand.

The officer's thrusting increases speed and, noticing the officer's breathing becoming shallower and more rapid, I ready myself for my reward, which comes soon afterward, warmly filling my mouth and smoothly sliding down my throat. No sooner is the deed done than the officer pats me on the head, slips his dick out of my mouth, zips up and says, "See you at work tomorrow, Steve." He goes off into the darkness. My mind is swimming in a sea of images as I start to get up. What did he just say?

"Get back down there, son.
You haven't finished yet..."

"Get back down there, son. You haven't finished yet," my man mutters with an obvious smile on his face as he jabs his long, fat dick back into my mouth and down my throat. Holding his balls in my hand, I can feel them rising toward his body and his dick grow even thicker. He is getting close. Holding the back of my head, he lunges forward, sinking the whole 9 inches down my throat and pushing my nose into his soft pubic hair. Oh shit, here we go! Jabbing wildly into my face, he lets out a low growl as he fills my stomach and mouth with his thick, creamy ejaculate. It spills out the corners of my mouth and over my beard, there is so much of it.

"Oh yeah," he pants. "We'll have to do this again, for sure." I barely get the time to lick the residue from the tip of his dick when he hoists me to my feet. Seeing the expression on my face, he says, "You just never know who you are going to bump into down here, huh?" And with that, he is gone, leaving me standing there dumbfounded with my trousers around my ankles and my mouth and throat stretched beyond anything before, with cum dripping from my whiskers. Looking down, I see a rather large puddle of cum spilled on my jeans. I'd cum and not even know about it.

"Oh, what a mess," I think to myself as my world suddenly starts turning again. I'll definitely need to do this again, soon.

JACK KELLER

Guys have been telling Jack for years that he'd be great for BEAR. He finally acted on their recommendations so he could "share his endowment with others." Hmm. For the record, it's 6 inches around and 8 or 9 inches long. And gets hard easily. What really gets him hard are heavy guys with beards, especially if they're roughly 10 years younger.

Jack's a 43-year-old native to the Bay Area, who works as a construction manager. While he primarily stays in the office, he still has the opportunity to get his boots dirty on field visits.

March 21-23, Montreal, Quebec, Our Montreal Bears

This is the second time around for this annual event, and Our Montreal Bears say it'll be bigger and better than last year. Come on up and say bonjour! Call Robert at (514) 527-6419 for more information. Now, what the hell is a sugar shack?

Las Vegas Bear Hunt

The bars stay open all night, the food is cheap, and they're staying at the Debbie Reynolds Hotel! Rooms are $79 each night, call 1 (800) 633-1777 for reservations.

Texas Bear Round-Up

April 3-6, Dallas, Dallas Bears

If last year's Round-Up is any indication, there's big fun to be had with the Dallas Bears again this year. Your $59 registration ($75 after March 1) includes admission to all the Round-Up activities, Saturday brunch, pool party, Sunday Bear-B-Q, and entry into the Mr. American Bear contest. Registration is $79 before March 15 and $95 thereafter. Hotel rates are $89 per night.

Bears on Break

May 2-4, Ft. Lauderdale, FL, South Florida Bears/Goldcoast Bears of South Florida

Get a jump on your summer tan. (Comment not intended for Florida natives.) Sounds like a great lazy weekend of beach and pool games and barbecues around the pool. There will also be a couple of bar crawls and the Bears on Break Bear Contest. They're calling the Sunday festivity a Survivor's Party, which is an apt description after a weekend of debauchery. Registration is $65, plus hotel fees. Host hotel is the Blue Dolphin.

Bears A-Float

April 25-28, Los Angeles, CA

California's Golden State Bears, Fresno Valley Bears and South Bay Bears have pooled their efforts to sponsor this "fun ship" holiday cruise from Los Angeles to Ensenada, Mexico. A Carnival cruise! Hmm... isn't that the company Kathy Lee hawks for? I wonder if the ship is carrying raw materials destined for sweat shops in Mexico? I dunno. It will definitely be carrying a load of bear-friendly fellas. Contact the clubs or call (209) 265-3248 or e-mail gsbears@cybergate.com

East Coast Conference '97

April 25-27, Arlington, Virginia, Girth and Mirth of Washington D.C.

Late night pool parties, lots of buffets, and a little shopping at the vendor fair. Sounds like the idea here is to keep it simple, so there's plenty of time to hang out and socialize.

Bears in Paradise

May 9-11, Madeira Beach, FL, West Florida Growlers

A new-and-improved fourth annual Paradise, promise the Growlers! This year it being held on the Gulf of Mexico at the Madeira Beach Holiday Inn. The $40 run price includes a welcome party, bear breakfast Saturday and Sunday, a lunch buffet, and a barbecue at the Back Room Bar. Oh yeah, and lots of shirtless guys having fun on the beach.

Bear Pride '97

May 23-30, Chicago, Great Lakes Bears

One of the "big three" annual bear events. And getting bigger. This year they've expanded the size of everything from the contest and dance venue to optional dinner cruise boat. They're expecting 1,200 guys this year and have allotted space for 1,600! Don't blow this off if you're thinking this will be the same old Bear Pride. There's a new host hotel, the Hotel Inter-Continental on Michigan Avenue (with indoor pool!). And so you won't have to brave the stiff lakeside winds again, they've moved the annual picnic to the Lincoln Park Zoo. (I'll be hangin' out at the otter pond.) Lots of optional day trips, as well as the traditional Nuts to Butts party, vendor market and Mr. Bear Pride contest. Registration is $60, hotel rate is $90 per night. Contact BP1997@aol.com.

Bears at Busch Gardens (tentative)

May 24-25, Williamsburg, VA, Tidewater Bears of Southeastern Virginia

HIND-SIGHTS

It all comes out in the end.

Hi-Bear-Nation '96

I shoulda known the Show-Me Bears would be a hospitable lot after meeting Keith and John during Rendezvous last year. Turns out the whole club is just as friendly. We had heard so many good things about this event that I just had to brave the St. Louis cold to check it out myself.

Was it very different from all the other bear events? Not really. Face it, the itineraries for most of these weekends follow a similar blueprint: bar hopping, a vendor fair, after-hours parties and some type of show. (The absence of a contest at this event was refreshing.) But what made Hi-Bear-Nation such a great time was the ability of the host club to host well. They made sure their guests felt welcomed and were taken care of. And that was even before any sex started.

It also helped that St. Louis is in such a central location. The just-under-400 guys who came to party drove in from all over the Midwest: from Milwaukee to Omaha to Oklahoma City to Nashville. And having spent my whole life on either coast, I'm not used to these corn-fed heartland types. (Actually, the corn-fed part is bullshit—these guys live on biscuits and gravy!)

Things got going Friday evening at the Riverfront Holiday Inn with registration in the hospitality suite. Free cocktails and a casual spaghetti supper started things off before everyone headed over to the Outpost bar, which served as home base for much of the weekend. The shuttle buses to the bars all weekend were a nice touch, guys. The Outpost/Eagle back room was a touch I enjoyed even more. If you didn't get your itch scratched there, the after-hours party back at the hotel was nice and huggy. Mood lighting was provided by a killer view of the illuminated Gateway Arch.

Saturday featured more bar hopping, an on-line party, a vendor's market and the Show-Me Bears' own live version of the Family Feud. The game show was one of the highlights of Hi-Bear-Nation despite (or maybe because of) an elaborately built but mechanically temperamental set piece. Due to technical difficulties, the show ran two hours, but that added some spontaneous hilarity, and I was content to get out of the bar for a while. Later on, the hospitality suite back at the hotel was hopping until early morning.

I dragged myself out to Magnolia's Niner Diner the next morning for the Blue Max CC's pancake feed. I'm glad I did. By that point in the weekend, everyone was better acquainted, and it was fun to leisurely table hop as there were no other events planned for the day.

Hi-Bear-Nation continues to grow a bit each year, but I'm kinda hoping it stays near its current size. Just enough guys to feel like a big party, intimate enough to meet most of them.

I brought home other great memories from Hi-Bear-Nation, but these are the only ones I'm willin' to share.

Mr. Edmonton Bear Contest

The boys in Edmonton got together this past December to hold their first bear contest at the Boots 'N' Saddle bar. This was an experimental event since Edmonton doesn't really have an organized bear community.

Weren't they surprised when more than 70 people showed up! Including a number of guys they'd never seen before. Which is what these contests are really great for: providing a place for like-minded guys to get together at the same place and time. And in this case, just to find each other!

Unlike a conventional contest, there were no rules for this one or any expectations put on the winner. It was just about having fun and raising funds for the Metropolitan Community Church Christmas Hamper campaign. In keeping with the Christmas spirit, the judges made it clear they could be "bribed." Even more unconventionally, the winner of the contest was from Vancouver! Lance Lirette was declared the first Mr. Edmonton Bear and the hometown boys will definitely be inviting him back!

It is the hope of the Bears of Edmonton to build a strong and vibrant bear community in their city, and this was a good first step toward that goal. Thanks to Jim Alexander for providing the details for this write-up.

Mr. Empire State Bear

MARK

Photographer Jim Monroe showed us some pictures of Mark and asked if we were interested in an outdoor shoot of him. We wanted more than that from Mark, but we settled for these pictures, taken in the hills of New Mexico.

Just looking at that big ol', straight-as-an-arrow dick conjures up thoughts of what might be done with it. By the look in Mark's eyes here, he has some ideas of this own.

Fuckin' Around

Below are the safe-sex basics for staying alive in the Angry '90s. Read them and follow them.

Sucking dick is one of those Risk Management deals. HIV has been found in precum, and people have contracted AIDS just from sucking dick. Know that. But also know that not everyone who sucks dick gets AIDS. You have to decide. If it came with, say, a 15 percent chance of infection, would you still do it? Don't take cum in you. Don't suck cock with bleeding gums or pizza burns on the roof of your mouth. • Butt-fucking should be done with a condom. Without one, the opening of your dick smears right up against tissues that transmit the virus. That's how straight men get AIDS from women. Taking a dick up your butt without a condom, even for a minute, goes under the heading of A Really Bad Idea. Your shit-chute's a sponge for viruses. In fact, your body actually wants to pull viruses into your bloodstream so it can learn more about them. HIV's a Rubik's Cube that your warm, fuzzy little body'll never learn to crack. So when fucking, make sure you're using a latex rubber (not an animal-product condom). Oil-based lubes such as Vaseline, Crisco, Wesson or hand lotion'll melt a regular rubber. Use a water-based lube. They now sell polyurethane condoms that can be used with oil, but they haven't yet been officially rated for blocking HIV. • If you're cumming inside someone with a rubber on, do a final safety check before you shoot. Make sure the hummer's on right and in one piece. Afterward, back out carefully while holding the rubber tight at the base of your dick shaft. Wash your dick and pubes before taking the condom off. • Eating butt is a lot like sucking cock. The risk is there, but is not absolute. Shit can contain the virus, in various strengths, depending on your partner's health. There again, you have to decide. Blood and tiny scrapes will be present—tasty, but perhaps dangerous. • Fist with gloves on: your hand can get scraped in ways you won't necessarily see or feel. • Cum has the highest concentration of HIV. So let him shoot on the furniture instead of in your eyes, across your buttock or on your peeling hangnails. • Don't force the other guy to take care of you. Sorry, dude. It's your job. • People fib: protect yourself anyway. • Getting shit-faced makes lots of things sound like real good ideas that maybe aren't. Keep sex and drugs in separate bedrooms (rock-n-roll, though, is always cool). • Whether you're HIV-positive or not, have you decided you're going to stay healthy? It's kind of easy to fall into the "we're all going to get sick eventually" shit-hole. Lemme tell you something: You get what you settle for. So take care of yourself out there.
