Publicity

YEAH! That was my response when looking at the cover of the your latest issue. Shortly after stripping off the cellophane wrapper, I found myself stripping off my jeans. Really, I was so taken by not only Dwayne, Seth, Dan and Randy, but even the ads were at their best (specifically, Bill Adams getting serviced on page 30).

I was sitting in the parking lot of the bookstore and was looking for the dildo I usually keep behind the seat (for emergencies). It wasn't there. I thumbed through your mag a little more and found myself throwing a rubber on the stickshift of my Toyota truck. Let me tell you, with your men in one hand, my cock in the other, a noseful of poppers, and my ass riding in second gear... the inspired load that hit the carpeting is my confirmation that issue #48 can easily be re-issued as "The Best of BEAR." Thanks!

Connecticut

Cool. That'll save me lotsa work on BEAR Classic 4. Good story, by the way. Was that you gettin' busted on COPS last week?

Personalities Plus

I am 34 years old and seldom do I bother with nudes, let alone nude magazines. By chance I came across Classic BEAR 3. I saw Bela and Ray and said, "Wow!" I like the personalities behind these men and their photos. Do these two have mailing addresses where they can be contacted, or maybe a telephone number? BEAR is it! I am going to subscribe. J.B.

New York

I gotta agree—Bela's personality is fretty hard to miss. Hey, in BEAR 49, in "Write to Papa," I made a not-so-fancy little diagram called "How to Write to a BEAR Model." Follow those simple instructions. With some of the earlier issues of BEAR, however, it's harder for us to get a hold of the models, especially if they haven't kept in touch with us. So, here's another cattle call for all past BEAR models who may have moved on up: Fellas, you've still got fans out there, and they're anxious to get a hold of you. We're holdin' your fan mail. Drop us a line and let us know where to put it!

The Wittke Wire

I d been trying to think up something thrilling to cover (or uncover) for my column for this, the 50th smash ish of BEAR magazine. Something manly, hairy, media-related, sexually exciting, new and somewhat different. You know, like a "Very Special Episode." Then some cool real-life events happened and now I'm pleased to bring you "The Wittke Wire: Stalking the Stars So You Don't Have To."

I was in New York, New York, the city so nice, they named it twice. I snagged a hard-to-get single ticket to see the great Anthony LaPaglia live and in-person in Arthur Miller's A View from the Bridge. Perhaps you remember LaPaglia from the second and last season of ABC's Murder One as head lawyer in charge Jimmy Wyler. Maybe you've caught one of his many films, most of which haven't been huge hits, but have hinted at his talents and displayed his handsome, regular guy charms. Among them: Commandments, Empire Records, Trees Lounge, Bulletproof Heart, and The Client, in which he played the bad guy. In fact, in films, he usually plays a cop or a bad guy or both. Sometimes he shows some body hair (yea!), sometimes he's had it removed (boo!), but he always brings an intense masculinity to his performances. This was certainly true of View from the Bridge.

Seated in the theater as the house lights dimmed and the cast assembled in the aisles for the opening scene, I thought to myself, "Jeez, what if Anthony LaPaglia is somewhere close to me when the lights come up? Will I suddenly channel the ghost of Lucy Ricardo and try to grab him or something?" As luck would have it, his entrance was right near my seat, and there was Anthony, sleeves rolled up, furry forearms exposed, reading a newspaper and talking in a Brooklyn accent just a few feet away. His pugilistic, potbellied frame was the physical and metaphorical anchor of Miller's tale of a Brooklyn longshoreman and the forbidden desires that smolder beneath his surface. And what a surface! There's lots of yelling and punching and the occasional grabbing and kissing in View, and LaPaglia brought a beefy physicality to his performance that was far superior to any he has committed to film.

So after the show, I'm hanging in the lobby assuming there's an outdoor exit for the stars to use. But no. Right through the theater doors strolls Mr. LaPaglia, clad in black jeans, black turtleneck and black leather coat. It's a frigid winter's day; he has a cold and is sucking on a lozenge. Realizing this, I pounce on him like the weak member of the herd that he is. Some other Stage Door Johnny asks for about a million autographs, but not me. I want to be different. I step up, grab him by his left elbow and say, "Thanks for an incredible

I have never written to a magazine before, but with every issue of BEAR, the desire has grown stronger. You have an exceptionally fine magazine that serves the bear community and its admirers well. The models in every issue just keep getting better. I can hardly wait to get from the post office to home before tearing into the package to see what delights await. I have even managed to enjoy the issue while driving home (however, I don't really recommend this since your mind is certainly not on your driving). I want you to know in south central Florida we certainly enjoy all that you offer from the magazine, from it's hunks, to the products you offer to let the world know I am a bear. I am enclosing a picture of where I would like to invite you and yours to dive into any time. Hope youenjoy, and keep up the good work!

Thanks for the kind words, buddy, and thanks for the er... invitation. Looks tempting, doesn't it guys?

Wrong Material

Just received issue 48—really disappointed in the photos of Seth and Randy. If this is BEAR material, then my definition of a bear must be all wrong. Dwayne and Dan are great! With all of the beautiful bears roaming out there, I cannot believe you can't do better.

Hope to see improvement. R.L. Oregon

Hey, what yanks yer crank may not work for another guy, and vice versa. We're trying to fill the pages of BEAR with all types of bearmen young, old, big, little, naughty, nice. Your definition of a bear isn't necessarily wrong, but bears do come in lots of shapes and sizes, colors and flavors.

Out of curiosity, which part of big, bearded, hairy, woodsman Randy didn't fit yer definition of a bear?

Bloody Lucky Scott

performance, it was really something to see." He looks me right in the eyes and says something along the lines of, "Thanks, thanks a lot, that's really nice of you to say," but all I can really hear is my own internal monologue saying, "I might catch Anthony LaPaglia's cold!" and, "Look at that five o'clock shadow (and it's only 4:30!)," and, "I'm touching his elbow, and it's in leather!"

Two months later, I was back in the Big Apple in the lobby of Joseph Papp's Public Theatre hoping my name would be called from the waiting list for a single ticket to see Alec Baldwin and Angela Bassett in MacBeth. I didn't want to get my hopes up too high that I would actually get in, but regular readers of this column will know I was trembling at the thought of seeing Mr. Baldwin perform live. As luck would have it, I got in. I was in the back row, but it was a tiny theater.

The reviews for MacBeth weren't very kind, but I really enjoyed the show. Alec wore a stubble beard, and director George C. Wolfe wisely had him deliver a couple of soliloquies at the lip of the stage, lit from the front by a bright white light—in a plunging neckline. What's not to love? The fur that I had written about so many times was mere feet away. Also in the cast was up-and-coming furball Liev Schreiber, who shocked me by being taller than the rather strapping Mr. Baldwin, and much more handsome in real life.

For me, the highlight of the experience was the fact that every time Alec made an exit from Stage Left that was followed by an entrance from Stage Right, he would run around the audience, hidden from sight by black curtains. I could still hear him, and feel the floor and my chair shake when he did this, so I can honestly say that my ass has been vibrated by Alec Baldwin. And speaking of asses, he's got a big, round, beefy one that he doesn't show off very much in his films, but looked great in the Mad Max-like leather outfits the MacBeth of this production wore.

After the curtain calls, I tried to repeat my jovial Anthony LaPaglia interaction, and even had a brand new Sharpie in my pocket to get Alec's signature. But I just couldn't do it. He swaggered out of the theater, all brash bravado and giant unlit cigar, and while a couple of people did approach him, I just couldn't. There was some force field that kept me from getting closer than about six feet, but I could see the chest hair poking above his collar! The thought of speaking to him was just too intimidating, which leads me to the conclusion that Anthony La Paglia is an approachable, regular guy. Alec Baldwin? Some other divine being. Maybe I'll catch him next time.

You can reach Chris Wittke at wittkewire@writeme.com to tell him anything at all. & you know this. I've got to say this, but your art director Scott is a bloody lucky chap. His partner's a fine-looking fellow. Is he in any videos or modeling in any issues of BEAR? I, as many other readers, would love to see what's in those leather jeans. G.R.

Hey, stop thinkin' about him that way! He is a dream though, isn't he? I had to twist his arm to mode! that once, so chances are slim to none that you'll see him modeling again.

Mooning

I wrote to you last year about sending me a mooning photograph from your magazine.

Do you have any more photos of groups, duos or single, big, hairy guys showing off their big hairy cracks and asses?

Smooth Operator

I've been a subscriber since issue 1, but lately, I've received far too many magazines that don't have any bears, instead, men without hair, and, I'm sorry, but bears are men with hair. I've never seen a bear that didn't have hair/fur.

If later on I see a copy of BEAR magazine, and I see you've made an adjustment, then I may resubscribe. FW

Bears of the human variety aren't always covered with fur, but I don't wanna get into that whole discussion again... right now, anyway. But, since you're stuck on that, check out issue 49. It's a veritable fur fest.

If you were still a subscriber, you'd have it already, and we wouldn't be having this discussion.

Let It Be

I wish I could be enthusiastic about renewing my subscription. Part of my frustration is your apparent lack of enthusiasm for improvement; you seem content to just let it be. You refuse to invest in coated printing stock and color (Look at Advocate Men for guidance, and raise your subscription price to cover the cost).

KM

Philadelphia, PA

BEAR lookin' like Advocate Men? Um... yeah, sure. That'll happen. Like a snowball in hell. Read on for another perspective.

Wrong way

I like BEAR magazine, but I have let my subscription expire. You have gone the way of Drummer and become a slick, expensive magazine. If I am wrong about this, please let me know! I appreciate the contacts I have made through BEAR over the years and wish you success in publishing.

Portland

We make BEAR to look like BEAR—not Advocate Men, not Drummer. Any technical improvements we've made over the years have been made so you can see the model's fur & boners better. In fact, it's been our resistance to looking "slick" and "expensive" that's gotten us more flack than anything (see "Let it be" above).

No other magazine looks like BEAR. So, to recap: Yeah, you're wrong.

Love Story

I recently purchased BEAR Classic #3, and ever since, I have been fantasizing and wanting every single man in that issue. All I do is daydream and drool over their hot, manly, hairy bodies. I'm so glad that I bought this issue! The story entitled "The Bikers" is so hot that I found myself reading it over and over again. I hope that one day I would be driving and I would run out of gas in a place where a whole bunch of big bikers are gathered, but so far, I haven't had the pleasure.

The next thing I want to compliment you on is the photo spread of AJ. He is really one hot Daddy Bear! Hove everything about this man, from his beer belly to his hot salt and pepper beard, not to mention his hot and hairy body. I want to lick and suck every single inch of AJ. To me, he is what a true man should look like. I look at his photos and dream of being held in his arms and having him hold me and kiss me deep and strong, telling me that I am his little boy and that he will always take care of me. I even go so far as to put a romantic record on my stereo and look at his photo while I sing to him. On a scale of 1 to 10, he is a 10+!

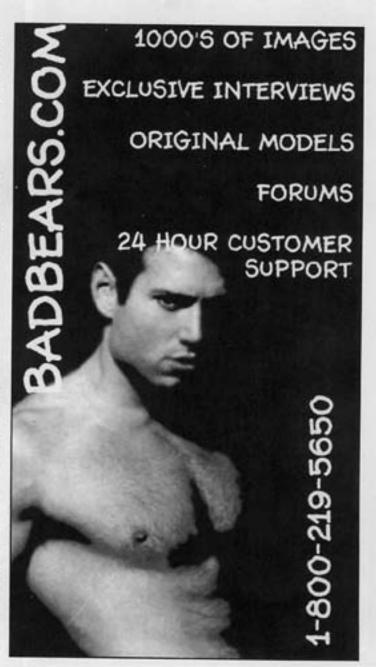

Also, Bela is the hottest looking man I have ever laid my eyes on. When I saw him, the first thing my beart did was skip a beat. I'm totally in love with this man. I would do anything for him.

I always will be a faithful and loving reader of your magazine David-

NY

To quote my other half... "in a word... wow." Thanks. BEAR Classic 3 was alot of fun to put together; rediscovering those old photo shoots, seeing the new pictures of a couple of the guys, plus Luke Mauerman's unique perspective of the early days in the hole mines. Oh, yeah—and the interview with cartoonist Frisch. See, you got me stumbling down memory lane already, and the damn thing's only been on the stands for a couple of months!

If you haven't picked one up yet, guys... get it while the gettin's good! Give us a call at 800-234-3877 and we'll take care of you.

AND OTHER COOL THINGS YOU SHOULDN'T LIVE WITHOUT (ORDER FORM ON PAGE 80)

As a teenager, I was very shy and reclusive. I didn't have many friends, and the few I did have were all girls. I just couldn't get into "boy things" like hunting, playing football, or talking about which girl had the biggest fits. I'd rather stay home and play my flute or just curl up with a good book. Although my mother was always supportive, my father was less than thrilled about these "sissy" activities. For those growing up in Wisconsin, the only things that mattered were football and the Green Bay Packers. In my father's eyes, I was a failure because refused to try out for the high school football team. To make matters worse, his co-workers on the loading dock were convinced that he was raising a "goddamned faggot." It didn't matter that I graduated first in my class and earned a full scholarship to San Francisco State. If it wasn't a football scholarship, "it didn't mean shit."

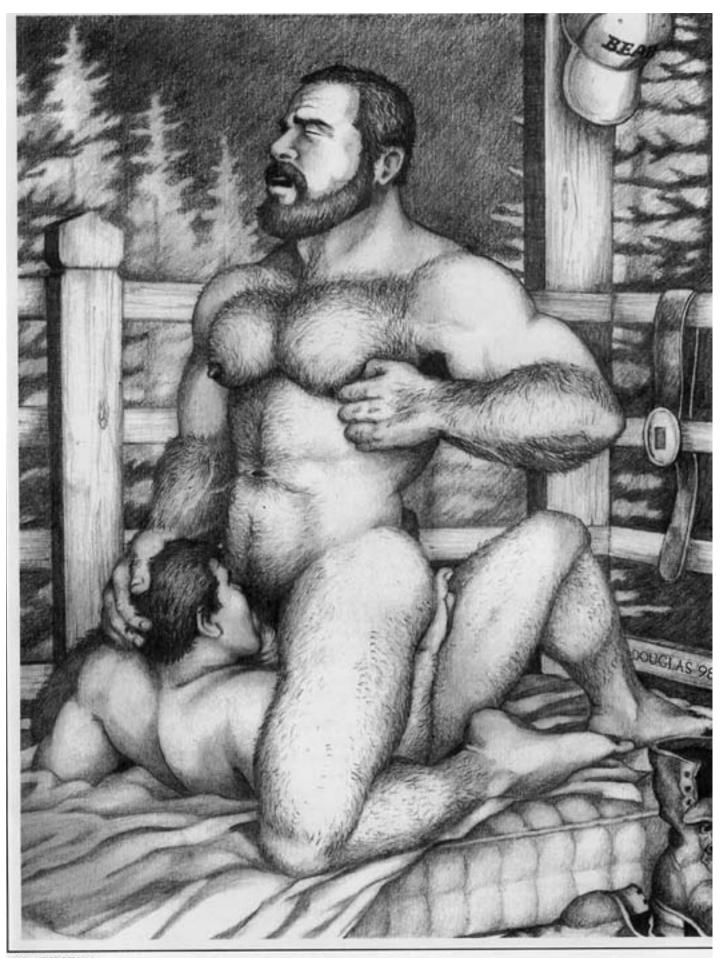

In a last-ditch effort to make a man out of me, my father sent me to visit my Uncle Bob on the way to college. Since Uncle Bob lived in the Santa Cruz Mountains near San Francisco, it seemed like a logical place to stay before I checked into my dorm room. Although Uncle Bob wasn't into football, my father still respected him because of his sheer size and strength. As foreman of a lumbering crew, Uncle Bob was able to maintain his imposing physique with a minimum amount of effort. According to my father, Uncle Bob was the epitome of masculinity and the yardstick by which all men should be measured. My father always said that if I could act a little more like Uncle Bob, and less like a "cocksucking faggot," the family would be a lot better off.

Despite all this talk of Uncle Bob, nothing could prepare me for meeting him in the flesh. When I walked off the plane in San Francisco, I almost dropped dead in my tracks. There he was in all his glory—6'4" and 250 pounds of muscle. His skintight 501's and tank top seemed to accentuate all of his best features. I never thought anyone resembling my father could be so handsome! As soon as he saw me, Uncle Bob threw his arms around me, lifted me into the air, and hugged me for what seemed to be an eternity. His musky scent and hard body were almost too much for me to handle. At age 18, it didn't take too much to get me aroused, and by the time he set me down, I had a raging hard-on. If he hadn't put me down when he did, I would have certainly cum in my pants. For the first time in my life, I was attracted to a man, and it had to be my uncle!

While we waited at the baggage claim, it seemed that all eyes were on Uncle Bob. People couldn't help but notice his bulging muscles, hairy body, and face of a Greek god. His dark wavy hair and perfectly trimmed beard were a perfect compliment to his big brown eyes. Uncle Bob attracted so much attention that it was actually embarrassing. He apologized to me and explained that his flannel shirts were just too uncomfortable to wear during a summer heat wave. I said that I'd go naked all the time if I looked half as good as he did. He laughed and said that he planned on doing just that once we got home. At that point, I turned beet red and realized that I was in for a long, hard night.

During the hour and a half drive back to Uncle Bob's cabin, I tried to regain my composure and get to know him on a personal level. Much to my surprise, he actually listened to what I had to say and was very considerate of my feelings. Unlike my father, Uncle Bob seemed interested in my college plans and was proud of the fact that I earned a full scholarship. The more we talked, the more I became attracted to him. Before I knew it, we were driving up the dirt road to the cabin.

Uncle Bob's cabin sat on a hill surrounded by virgin redwoods, completely isolated from its neighbors. From the huge front deck, you could get a good view of the Pacific Ocean 15 miles away. Uncle Bob said that I should enjoy the view while I could since the hillside was usually shrouded in fog. Despite the spectacular surroundings, the cabin was rustic to say the least. Aside from a small bathroom in the back, the cabin consisted of one big room containing a small kitchen area, two chairs, and a large platform bed. The musky smell inside the cabin was intoxicating. When I closed my eyes and sniffed, I could have sworn that I was in the Green Bay Packers' locker room.

After I unpacked, Uncle Bob suggested that we go out to the deck to get more comfortable. He asked if I would mind if he got naked. I blushed slightly and said, "No, go right ahead." He slowly pulled off his tank top and gave me an unobstructed view of his hairy chest and tight washboard stomach. With great care, he took off his boots and socks and undid his 501's, one button at a time. Although I caught a glimpse of his massive mule meat, I forced myself to look away knowing that it wasn't polite to stare. By that time, my cock was rock hard with no relief in sight.

Uncle Bob said that I was welcome to get naked as well, but I told him that I was afraid of getting sunburned. He assured me that he had plenty of sunscreen, so I reluctantly took off everything except for my denim shorts sporting a huge bulge. Uncle Bob could see my predicament and let out a hearty laugh. He said that a hard cock is nothing to be ashamed of and that I'd probably feel more comfortable with my shorts off. As embarrassing as it was, I pulled off my shorts and exposed the biggest hard-on of my life!

Uncle Bob brought out the sunscreen and said that he'd do me if I did him. That sounded good to me, so I spread out a towel and laid face down on the chaise lounge. Starting with my neck, he worked lower and lower until he reached my virgin ass. His firm hands and cool lotion felt like heaven on my creamy-white asscheeks. Much to my surprise, he asked me to turn over and spread my legs. Without hesitation, Uncle Bob proceeded to work on my chest, stomach, and inner thighs. He said that he'd steer clear of my throbbing member since it looked like I was ready to shoot. We both laughed and I started to blush once again. At that point, I got up from the chaise lounge so we could change positions.

With Uncle Bob face down, I was able to check out his backside in detail. His broad shoulders and muscular back would be the envy of any Green Bay linebacker. I couldn't help but stare at his hairy bubble butt, which looked particularly inviting. I pictured myself burying my face in it and letting my tongue go wild. For a minute there, I was so entranced that I forgot what I was suppose to be doing. After precum dripped from my cock onto his back, I hastily squirted out half a bottle of lotion. With my hands trembling in anticipation, I began the task at hand.

Following Uncle Bob's lead, I started with the neck and shoulders and slowly worked my way down. Before I knew it, I was giving him a full-blown massage. Uncle Bob moaned with pleasure and begged me not to hold back. By the time I got to his hairy bubble butt, my heart was pounding, and I prayed to God that I wouldn't shoot my load all over him. With my fate in God's hands, I grabbed his hairy ass and began to rub in the lotion. Despite a slight separation between the cheeks, his rockhard muscles prevented me from exploring his nether regions. As I worked his inner thighs, I accidentally grazed his low-hanging balls, which caused him to jump. After finishing up with the calves, I asked him to turn over.

Much to my surprise, Uncle Bob was fully erect and dripping. Trying not to look at the obvious, I squirted lotion onto his hairy chest and continued with my slow massage. His rock-hard pecs and abs were truly a work of art. When I touched his erect nipples, he started to shudder in ecstasy. He said that I found his "hot buttons" and that I should proceed with caution. He explained to me that the nipples can be very sensitive and "the touch of a tongue can make you cum." As much as I wanted to test this theory, I hastily moved down to his hairy stomach. Although I came dangerously close to his dripping cock, I decided not to tempt fate. After I finished with his legs, he got up and offered me the chaise lounge. I gladly accepted and began to lay face down. As soon as my throbbing cock hit the towel, I shot my load like I had never done before.

After we basked in the sun for a couple of hours, Uncle Bob fired up the grill and threw on a couple of steaks. While he was barbecuing, he offered me a cold beer and I gladly accepted. Although I wasn't used to drinking, the beer really hit the spot. By the time dinner was ready, I had a pretty good buzz going, and a raging hardon once again.

After finishing dinner and downing several more beers, I was ready for some action. Uncle Bob suggested that we cool off in his outdoor shower before we go to bed. With the sun setting over the Pacific, I watched Uncle Bob lather himself up and scour every inch of his body. I was dying to join him, but I reluctantly waited my turn.

He shuddered and shot his hot jism down my throat. Judging from the size of his load, he hadn't cum in quite a while. At that point, I swallowed the last drop of Uncle Bob's cum, tightened my asshole, and shot...

By the time I finished showering and drying off, Uncle Bob had pulled his mattress onto the deck and had fitted it with clean sheets. He said that it was just too damn hot to sleep inside. I warned him that I've been known to snore, but he said not to worry. According to Uncle Bob, not even a herd of stampeding elephants could wake him once he's fallen asleep. Within minutes, he was out like a light and breathing heavily.

With Uncle Bob asleep, I could examine his entire body with him noticing. As it got darker and darker, I had to rely more on my senses of touch, smell, and taste. Although we had just showered, beads of sweat were forming all over our bodies. I discovered that each part of the body has its own unique smell and taste. Starting with the balls, I explored his body with my virgin tongue. As I darted my tongue between his hairy balls and asshole, his cock began to creep up his stomach until it reached a full nine inches. I couldn't believe how hard it got.

At age 18, I had never seen or smelled an uncut cock before. As I touched the moist tip, Uncle Bob wiggled around and began to moan. Without further adieu, I put my tongue on the cock slit and savored his manly essence. As I pulled back his foreskin and sucked the head, I tasted a hint of cheese that made we want more. At that point, I realized that there was no going back. I slowly took his cock into my mouth and began to work it back and forth. The longer I went, the more I could take in. When I finally came up for air, I coated my finger with spit and started fingering his tight asshole.

As I worked my finger in deeper and deeper, Uncle Bob's moans got louder and louder. Without slowing down, I decided to test Uncle Bob's nipple theory. While running my tongue over his left nipple, I gently tickled the right one. As I increased the intensity, Uncle Bob started thrusting his hips like a bucking bronco. Although I wanted to ride him, I knew that my virgin ass couldn't take it, especially without lubricant. After working us both into a frenzy, I decided to take it to the limit.

While continuing my anal action, I miraculously took his entire cock down my throat. Although I started to gag, I retreated slightly until I could overcome the reflex. It took several tries, but I could eventually swallow the whole thing without gagging. The trick is to relax, establish a rhythm, and keep on breathing. Before long, I was grabbing Uncle Bob's cock with my throat muscles and sucking cock like a pro.

With Uncle Bob all loosened up, I decided that two fingers were better than one. When I came up for air, I spit on my fingers and slid them all the way in. Uncle Bob's moans continued to get louder and louder. After several minutes of throat and finger action, Uncle Bob was ready to cum. As I massaged his prostate, he shuddered in ecstasy and shot his hot jism down my throat. Judging from the size of his load, he hadn't cum in quite a while. At that point, I swallowed the last drop of Uncle Bob's cum, tightened my asshole, and shot my load all over his hairy chest. After collapsing from exhaustion, I wrapped my arms around Uncle Bob and quickly fell asleep.

When I awoke at dawn, the mountain was shrouded in fog and I found myself covered with blankets. Uncle Bob was already up cooking eggs and bacon and said that we'd have to hurry to get to San Francisco by 8:00 a.m. After a hasty breakfast, we threw my bags in the back of the pickup and headed for San Francisco. I actually had tears in my eyes when we approached the dorm. Uncle Bob unloaded my bogs, lifted me in the air, and gave me one of his worldfamous hugs. After I thanked him for his hospitality, he said that I was welcome to visit anytime. I told him that as much as I enjoyed my visit, I didn't get much sleep. He grinned and said, "Don't worry kid, I didn't either." We both laughed, turned bright red, and agreed to see each other soon. Uncle Bob may not have made a man out of me the way my father had intended, but he did prepare me for four years at San Francisco State! 🎉

A FILTHY LITTLE MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR.

Yeah, yeah, this is me. My name is Scott and I'm the new editor of BEAR (see page 2 for the correct spelling of my last name because it's a big one, and I'm not gonna go over it with you right now.).

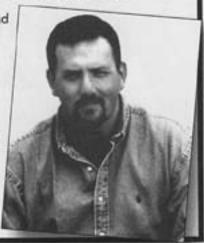

I realize I've got some pretty damned big shoes to fill, coming into the ball game after the likes of Luke and Rich and the guys before them who did what they did to make BEAR what it is today—actually, I don't know if BEARs founding fathers had this in mind, but that's another discussion altogether. So, I hope you all will give me a chance to share with you what I seem to do best.

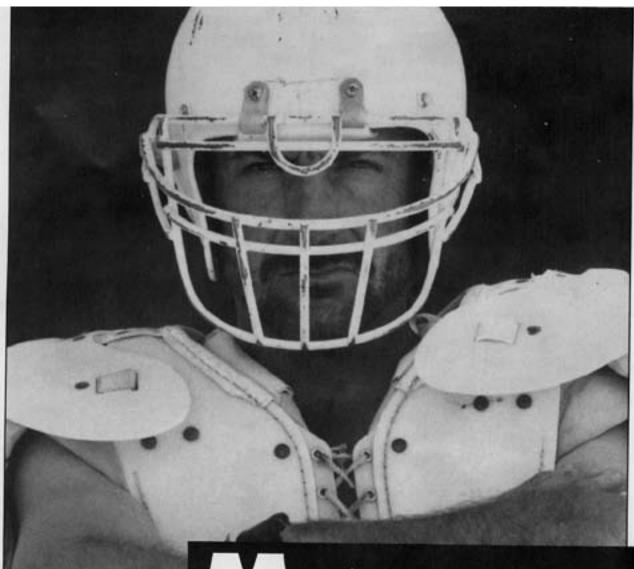

I've got some definite ideas for BEAR... most of 'em are big and hairy, and some of 'em might actually be dirtier than we're allowed to publish. But, we'll see what we can get away with and take it from there.

There were plenty who thought BEAR wouldn't last. So, this is pretty cool for me, stepping up to the plate right before BEAR 50, and gettin' to do all of this color and shit. Hope the color doesn't piss off too many of you. I welcome your comments—good and bad.

I guess I could get all emotional and gush about BEAR and what it's meant to me and how cool it was to discover other guys who shared my... um... passion, yeah—that's the word, for big, hairy, no-bullshit men. No time to stop and ponder, though. I've got a magazine to put together.

Thanks for your support. It's gonna be a great ride.

MANKUSSO

BEAR 50 . 23

International Bear Rendezvous here in San Francisco brings lots of good things to town. In this case, it brought an incredible new talent from south of the border to our doorstep.

Francisco de Verona brought in a portfolio of pictures to show us—mostly guys from Mexico who he had approached on the street and simply asked if he could photograph them.

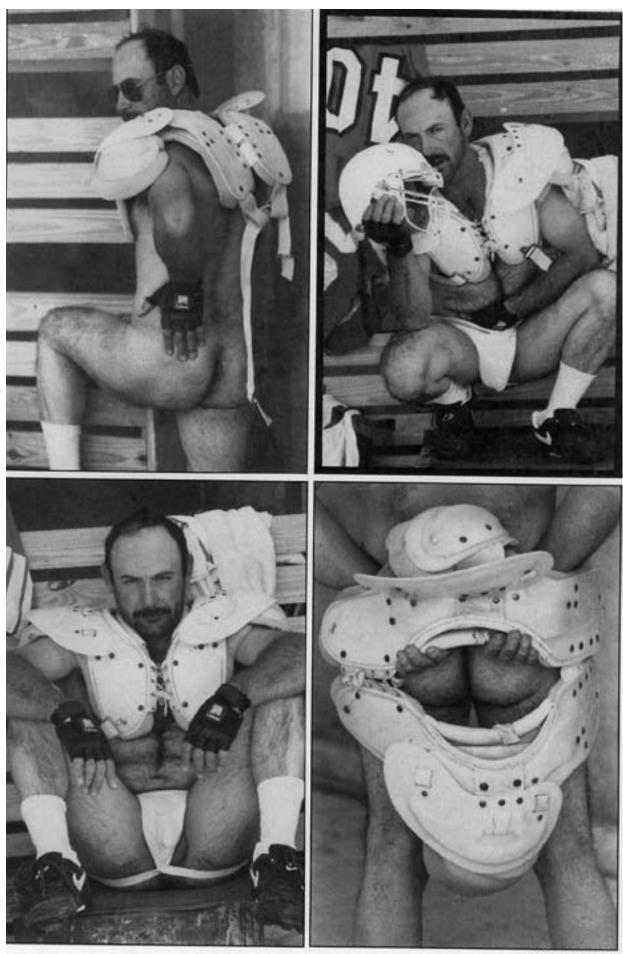

Before looking at his work, Mexico wasn't exactly tops on my list of travel destinations. But after a peek at what Francisco's been finding in his home town, half the guys in the shop were waggin' their tongues and calling their travel agents for weekend rates.

The man featured on these pages, Mankusso Demontt, is one of the men Francisco shot in Mexico. We were able to round him up, take care of the legal bullshit, and get him to agree to let us put his hairy ass in BEAR.

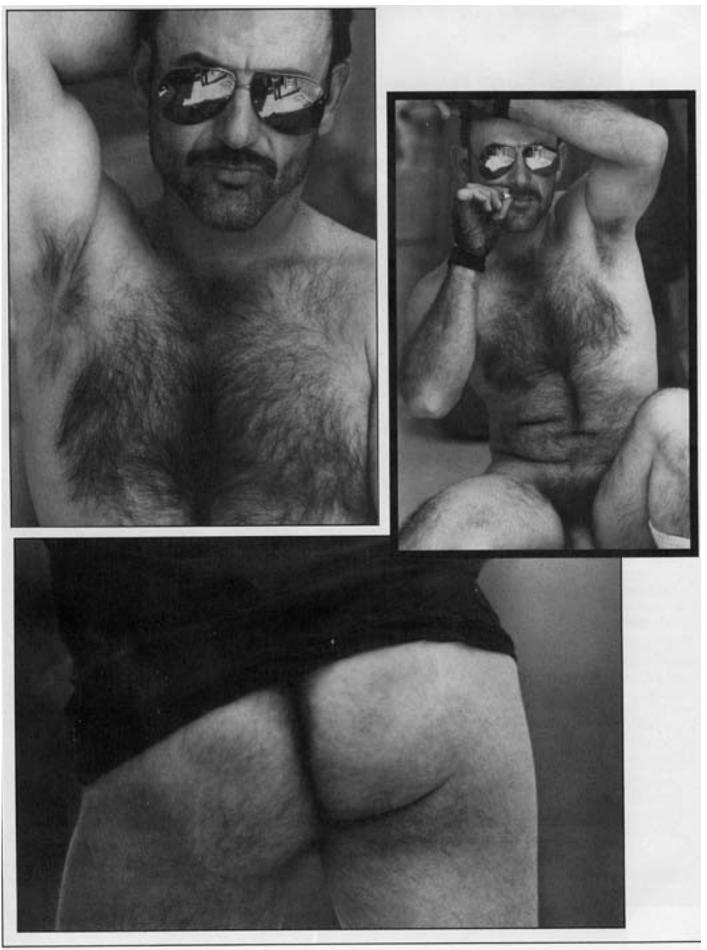

Francisco de Verona has agreed to do future work for BEAR, so we're lookin' forward to seeing more of the hot, hairy, workin'-class guys he finds on the streets of his town.

... and what a town that must be!

They Smoke Fags, Don't They?

So, how much time do you spend being a fag?

I just accidentally bought a Victorian house in the Castro District of San Francisco, not necessarily ground zero anymore, but it's right up there in the fabulous fag top five, and it was something I certainly didn't mean to do, but I did, and now I spend my days sanding and painting and trying to install drywall, and that's precisely the kind of work that makes me get heavy, deep and real because I have nothing else to think about but the meaning of the universe while my hands do dumb things and the radio plays in the corner.

It's an ego boost. I get to get dirty, have tools like my dad did in the garage way back when. But I'm doing these things with the larger picture in mind: friends; parties; partners; sconces (cut glass wall ones with dangly crystals); burnished gold moldings; French doors; a rim seat.

I planted begonias and pansies.

I use any butch hormones in my body to do the dirty work so I can feel like a man. So I can decorate a Victorian house and hopefully still feel like a man. But hopefully a man with taste? Is there such a thing?

You know where this is going. Yours truly is about to go off on one of his pseudo-existentialist benders about the nature of human identity. The answer, as you also already suspect, is just to be yourself and enjoy what life has to offer. My only hope is that you enjoy reading anyway, knowing what the outcome will be.

I've been volunteering down on "the docks," too. San Francisco had a passing flirtation with shipping-boats used to be real big here. They have five big old ones down on the wharf, part of a maritime historical museum. I've been going in to scrape rust, haul halyards, wear coveralls and smoke cigarettes with the guys. Total testosterone. Total history, Have you ever been left alone for half a day in the boiler room of an 1890's steamship with only some oil rags to keep you company? Each boiler is bigger than my house; they're three-million dollars and eight years away from ever working again. They're also older than the oldest golden retriever you know plus Bob Dole combined. That's scary.

I get beefy and get a fuckin' scrape on my arm 'cuz o' that damn chafing gear on the port spring line. I helped strip the mast of a 297-foot, 1887 square-rigger. Yeah. Fuckin'-A.

But I'm a fag. I try to shoot the shit with the shipwrights and rap with the riggers, but the truth is, I'm an urban gay man who's also a flight attendant and who now has a V-v...victorian (it's got the prissy, fiddly bits along the outside of the winderz, and some asshole painted it pink about thirty years ago and I can't afford to paint it ecru—yet).

Real butch; masculine men are some kind of light that draws gay men to flutter in around 'em. For a lot of us, a dirty trucker who farts, assuming he's real, is worth a dozen well-gym'd, big-dicked city queers who can quote the good lines from Jeffrey. But that's just the opening statement. A real trucker who farts, a cop who likes football and a ditch digger straight out of a beer commercial would be real boring after awhile. I know, I've tried. Masculinity sometimes just seems to be linked with neanderthal urges and the emotional wherewithall of a six-yearold. For years I knew all I needed to be happy was a professional football player who could do Shakespeare and make a fabulous crème brûlée.

Right. I'll let you know when I find him. Meanwhile, here we are all dating and meeting doz—OK, hundreds—of men and the smarter and more worldly and interesting they are, the less masculine they seem. Even a straight truck driver seems less masculine after you get him on all fours and fuck his butthole till he bleeds. I've done that one, too. They kind of tremble and whimper, and afterwards you've never seen someone pout so bad (even though he started it).

Masculinity is just another one of those fleeting things you'll never catch. Like having enough money. It's not going to happen.

So the other day I'm on the Internet having the online chat thing with all the guys, and one fella starts talking to me and wants to meet to see if we can't get some sex. While we're typing back and forth at each other, I said something like, "Atta girl!" or something, I don't even remember now. Well, that set him off. "I don't like talk like that. I like masculine guys. If you're effeminate, we probably shouldn't get together."

Guess we shouldn't. He might have found out I read a Jane Austen novel one time.

"Fag" is a pretty strong word. Some of you are squirming just reading this, and you should ask yourself why. We homosexuals have to fill all the roles for ourselves—mom, dad, wife, husband, straight cop and interior decorator. Some do it better than others. Some get stuck and freak out on the Internet when someone else doesn't play by the rules.

The farting truck driver (I just love my analogies) has his appeal, but what eventually carries the day is a wellrounded person who can get butch—for real—but who still knows how to give a heap of loving and cook polenta besides.

Gay humor is really funny. Farting truck drivers aren't funny. This magazine has always tried to be masculinity without the trappings—but when do you get trapped by your lack of trappings? If everyone was butch and no one was funny, I'd probably go somewhere else.

Gonna go to Home Despot now; gotta pick up some insulation. Probably check out the contractors wandering the aisles—I feel it in my stomach when I see an impossibly handsome straight man in his dangly tool belt, splattered with spackle. I know that, like a cloud, I'll never catch one and keep him the way he was when I found him looking at tubafours. And I have to be OK with that.

But goddamned if I'm going to cook dinner every night of the week. ©

MY CONVERSI

FICTION BY GRANT MORGAN ILLUSTRATION BY BILL WARD

ON TO BEARS

ntil I met Bill Hurley, the only way I would pay any attention to a man was if he was a young, athletic jock. He had to be a well-built model-type, and under twenty-five, before I'd give him the time of day. I guess you'd say I was a snob, but I felt I had the right to be. I was your typical, young, stuck-up Gen-Xer. I felt that my blond, blue-eyed good looks entitled me to some kind of elite status. I was downright rude to men who didn't fit my parameters. When some older guy would suggest that I was a fool to pick youth over experience, and that I shouldn't knock older men until I'd tried one, I'd tell him to piss off: I didn't need to try one! I was young, firm and full of sperm, and I would "try" whomever the hell I wanted to and nobody else! Why should I? They could just go screw themselves and I would tell them that exactly!

I preferred blonds with smooth, hard chests, although a small, well-trimmed patch across the pecs was permissible. I did not like tattoos or piercings, except for maybe a navel ring on a washboard stomach. Oh, and pubic hair needed to be cut short, and the shaft and balls shaved smooth. I never licked furry nuts, or rimmed hairy assholes. No way! And, if you wanted me to pay much attention to your cock, it had better be at least seven inches long. Plus, you needed to be showered and well-doused in antiperspirant, deodorant and cologne, or you could just forget having sex with me! In other words, I was a prissy queen!

Thank God for Bill and a faulty alternator belt.

I was on vacation when my car broke down on a little road in the exact center of fucking nowhere. Somehow, I had gotten off the main road and was lost. I had not seen a car pass by in either direction for at least half an hour. It was almost spooky how deserted it was, and horror stories I'd read began to surface in my mind. The sky was even clouding up, and it was getting dark fast. At any minute, it was going to start pouring rain, and I had no idea what to do. I couldn't remember how long it had been since I'd seen I'd last passed anyplace that might have a phone, so I didn't even want to think about walking!

Around this time, a huge semi roared out of nowhere and came to a stop with a screech of airbrakes. I couldn't believe my good luck, and quickly scrambled up into the cab.

"Thanks," I said happily.

The driver nodded, tugged the bill of his ball cap, and started down the road just as the first raindrops hit the windshield. No sooner had the man introduced himself—"I'm Bill! Bill Hurley"—than we were caught in a tremendous downpour.

"Isn't this something?" he asked enthusiastically. "You're lucky I came along when I did! What's your name?"

"I'm Jason," I said, "and yes, I sure am lucky."

I looked at my savior. He was a stocky man with a thick waist. Rolled-up sleeves revealed bulging, harry, tattooed arms. I wasn't sure how old he was for his years of squinting into the sun had darkened his skin and put deep lines around his dark-brown eyes. He could have been anywhere from 35 to 45. He had a dense, dark beard and thick hair billowed from the open collar of his red-flannel shirt. A cigar was clenched between his teeth, and the smoke filled the cab. I had to be careful not to cough. In short, he could not have been any less my type.

We drove in silence for about fifteen minutes when he suddenly said, "Oh! By the way, although I'm sure you know this already, it's cash, grass or ass. No one rides for free."

My mouth fell open in surprise. Had I heard him correctly? "Huh?"
He repeated himself and I stared at him dumbfounded. Cash, grass or ass? Was the son of a bitch serious?!

He smiled and nodded his head just like some good of boy from a hillbilly movie, and I knew he was totally serious. With a sick feeling, I realized I didn't have so much as a joint on me, and a quick search of my pockets revealed only about three dollars in change. I'd stupidly left my wallet in the car. I quickly explained my predicament.

He shrugged. "That's okay," he said good-naturedly. "It was that sweet young ass I was wanting anyway."

I looked at him, shocked that he had the balls to suggest that someone like him had the slightest chance of having sex with me! "You are not fucking me!" I spat.

His brows furrowed, and he shrugged again, "Okie dokie," And with that, he braked and pulled over, "Out," he said quietly.

I just stared at him a moment and then looked at the downpour outside. "You can't put me out in that storm," I said incredulously.

"Sure I can," he replied as matter-of-factly as if he were telling me the time, "It's my cab. Now get the fuck out."

I just gaped at him.

"Get out," he repeated a little more forcefully.

"You can't be serious," I cried. "I can't go out there! I am not having sex with a fat, hairy, pig like you!"

"Bear," he said with just a slight hostile tone entering his voice. "Fat, hairy bear." He put his smelly eigar down and turned in his seat to face me. "If you want to stay in this truck, you will have sex with me right now."

I looked at him, looked out through the windshield that the wipers were now furiously trying to keep clear, and back at the truck driver. I swallowed hard. Good God. What could I do? I didn't really have a choice. I took a deep breath and reached up to my collar to unbutton my shirt.

"Nah," he said with a leer, "I'll do that. You come here."

I swallowed again and scooted over to the edge of my seat. He grabbed my shirt and jerked me to my knees in front of him, sending my buttons flying. "Hey," I protested, having narrowly missed getting my asshole impaled on the gearshift.

"Shut up!" he barked and reached out and cupped one of my pees. "Nice chest," he said and pinched one of my nipples hard.

"Argh!" I cried.

"I told you to shut up!" He pinched harder, and I whimpered in pain. He reached into my open shirt with his other hand and ran them up and down my torso. "Nice. No hair though!.." He suddenly froze, a puzzled expression on his bearded face. "Wait a minute... is that stubble?"

"Y ... yes," I stammered.

"You shave your chest?!" He looked at me like I was totally insane.

"Uh-buh."

"Why in the fuck would you do a dumb-ass thing like that?!"

He shook his head. "Here. Look at this!" He quickly opened his shirt to reveal a forest of abundant, dark hair that covered his heavy, round belly and chest, through which I saw the shine of a thick tit ring in his left nipple. "That's what a man is supposed to look like, you little faggot!" He put a big hand behind my head and pulled my face into his thick fur. "Lick that stuff!" he ordered. "Find my nipples. I like 'em chewed!"

I couldn't believe what was happening to me. My face was buried in coarse chest hair, my nostrils awash in his sweaty odor. All I could do was be thankful it wasn't that stale or sour smell.

Actually, it wasn't bad at all. Sorta fresh and... well... masculine. Not allowing myself to dwell on that, I rooted around, licking the hair, surprised at how the texture pleased my tongue, found his tit, and nipped at it with my teeth.

"Harder!" he snapped.

I nipped the nub of flesh again.

"Harder! That's a man's nipple, not a sissy boy's!"

I bit harder, then harder, and when he still didn't object, even harder.

"Chew on it!"

I opened my mouth wide so I could really chow down on his nipple, and was soon marveling at how much he could take. But it was more than that. He was grunting and sighing. I realized he was enjoying it.

"Now the other one!" he ordered.

I spat out his nipple and brushed my face through the forest of hair on his chest in search of the other and was startled when my lips and tongue encountered metal. I had forgotten about his nipple ring and wasn't sure what to do. Wouldn't it hurt him if I chewed on this one? What kind of man had been able to bear the pain of getting his nipple pierced? Cautiously, I nibbled around the ring of metal, and his low groan told me I had nothing to fear. The feel of the steel against my teeth, along with the tough flesh, was unfamiliar to my mouth, but not unpleasant. In fact, it was rather sexy! If I thought I needed to be more cautious with this nipple, I was wrong! The second one took even more torture than the other did. The man was tough, shaking and crying out in pleasure the rougher I got!

Abruptly, he grabbed the sides of my head and pulled my face up to his, kissing me aggressively. Shoving his smoky-tasting tongue past my lips, he swirled it around and around, starting sensual, tingling sensations in my mouth. His beard was much softer than his chest hair, and felt nice and sexy against my face. His mustache reeked of cigar smoke, but somehow it seemed sweet and ... well ... masculine!

He bit my lips harder, and I whimpered, feeling a shock right down to my dick. It began to stir in my pants. Something strange was happening to me. This trucker, the absolute antithesis of everything I did not like in a man, was turning me on! His manhandling of me was causing goosebumps to shiver across my flesh. I bit back, and he moaned his enjoyment. He shoved my face back to his chest, and I found myself eagerly grabbing his tit ring in my teeth and pulling on it, then chewing on the metalimpaled nipple!

"Yeah! Yeah, baby! That's how! Not like with your faggot boyfriends! I wanna feel this!" To illustrate, he started pinching my nipples again, but much rougher than before. I knew my objections would fall on deaf ears so I endured the pain. After a few minutes, the torture of my nipples began to feel exciting, both numb and ultra-sensitive at the same time! My dick lengthened!

My hands felt suddenly drawn to his torso, my fingers tangling in the astonishing amount of hair. What had the man called himself? A bear? Yes... what a great word! Bear: primal, rugged, masculine. As I ran my hands down his hairy body, I reached his large belly and was surprised that my cock grew even harder! Why, when all I'd ever been hot for was washboard stomachs, was this solid gut turning me on? What was happening to me?

I decided not to question my feelings, but to just go with them. I ran my mouth down his chest to his firm belly and covered it with bites and sloppy kisses. I stuck my tongue into his deep, wide navel and gave it a thorough spit bath.

"Yeah, that's it, pretty boy."

I cringed at the term. Pretty boy? Is that what I was? The name sounded so... effeminate. Not at all manly. Wasn't I a man?

"Yeah, man," he said as if sensing my feelings, "that's how it's done! That's how a man makes love to another man!"

I felt a thrill at his words, and renewed my attack on his stomach and belly fur as he unbuckled his belt and opened his pants. The strong, musky smell of male crotch hit me and my mouth began to water. What was this heavy, hirsute man doing to me?

"OH, YEAH! YEAH!" HE SHOUTED. "GOOD COCKSUCKER! DAMN GOOD COCKSUCKER!" HIS WORDS URGED ME ON, AND I GRABBED THE ROOT OF HIS ROD AND FELT A DENSE MOUND OF HAIR AT ITS BASE. I PULLED BACK FOR A MOMENT AND BEHELD THE HAIRIEST BALLS I HAD EVER SEEN. THEY WERE VIRTUALLY COVERED IN A BLACK PELT!

I felt something hit my chin, and looked to see the blunt end of his hard-on, a tear of precum bubbling from the open eye that stared up at me. It wasn't the biggest cock I had ever seen, but it was thick and veiny, and like the rest of him, dark and hairy. Before I even knew what I was doing, I had lapped up the shiny pearl, then started sucking his sticky glans. Unlike the scrubbed, sanitized and nearly tasteless dickheads I was used to, this one flooded my tongue with a wild and sexy tangyness. Hungrily, I began to deep throat him, trying to get as much of his pulsing dick and it's flavors in my mouth.

"Oh, yeah! Yeah!" he shouted. "Good cocksucker! Damn good cocksucker!" His words urged me on, and I grabbed the root of his rod and felt a dense mound of hair at its base. I pulled back for a moment and beheld the hairiest balls I had ever seen. They were virtually covered in a black pelt!

Without any qualms or hesitation, I started licking and sucking on them, amazed at how erotic they felt. Bald balls had never felt so sensual against my tongue!

"Oh, good! That's it! Wet them down! Suck my hairy nuts!"

This man, this fat, hairy... bear, had me more sexually stimulated than I had ever been in my life. How had a man who embodied everything I wasn't attracted to, get me so aroused? What had he awakened in me?

"Stand up!" he commanded, pushing me back. In a heated daze, I stood on wobbly legs, and in a flash, he pulled out my titanium-hard cock, and sucked it into his mouth.

"Christ!" I shouted, electrified by the pleasure that rocked through me. "Stop, or I'm gonna cum!"

He didn't stop-and I came!

Boy, did I cum! I'm surprised I didn't blast the back of his head off! It wasn't just my level of sexual excitement. This man knew how to suck cock!

As I collapsed onto him, I wondered if young, inexperienced cocksuckers' attentions would ever appease me again—but we weren't done vet!

"Turn around," he gasped, "and bend over!"

Still groggy from my sensational orgasm, I turned and bent over the passenger seat. Immediately, he grabbed the globes of my ass, spread them, and buried his face in my crack. I screamed in pleasure. He slobbered all up and down the crevice between my buttcheeks and tongued my tightly puckered hole. The feel of his soft, wet beard rubbing up and down and in between my buttocks, was exquisite. His talented and experienced tongue licked and jabbed, slowly relaxing the folds of my hole, and soon, his mouth probe was as deep as some fingers have been inside me! He was actually licking the inside of my ass! In no time at all, my asshole was gaping wide. I knew I could have taken an arm up there, and I found myself actually entertaining the idea of being fisted!

But that was not what my ass was destined for that day. He stood, and with one shove, buried his thick, hairy dick up to the hilt in my shitter. Without hesitation, he began to ride me, fucking me, as I had never even thought possible. He rammed me hard, then slowed down to smooth gliding movements. He'd give me short, gentle pokes, then move onto jackhammering thrusts. He fucked up, down and sideways, making sure my insides all received his amazing attentions. He leaned into me, his chest and belly hair sensuously brushing my back, and his pubic bush and hairy balls first tingling, then scouring my tender, willing manhole. Never had I felt anything equal to what he was doing to me. I humped back, shoving my butt onto his virile invader, reveling in his potent maleness. I squirmed lasciviously onto his steely shaft, pushing back to meet his thrusts, luxuriating in the mind-blowing sensations.

Soon, we were drenched in sweat, the cabin filled with our manly odors. The windows were steamed up and I could no longer see outside, nor did I care about the rain. All that mattered to me was this man, this wild, sexy, he-man, his iron-hard fuck rod, my asshole, and our screwing. I wanted it to go on forever.

But alas, that was not to be. Suddenly, he started to thrust into me so hard, my teeth were rattling in my skull. My head was banging into the passenger door, and we were both bellowing our pleasure so loud, I was sure we could be heard miles away. Then, he screamed, and his cock grow even harder, and I felt his hot jism flood my ass chamber.

For the first time in my life, I began to cum without ever touching myself. My spunk blasted out of me in thick, arching ropes that first coated, and then soaked into my seat. Never had I cum in such a deluge, especially when it was my second orgasm! But then, I had never had such an intense and wondrous climax in my life! We collapsed into my seat in a tangle of smooth and shaggy limbs, the rain stopped, as if on cue.

Needless to say, I did not leave Bill that day. He took me to the nearest town, which turned out to be only a mile away, and I arranged to have my car taken care of. I rode with Bill all the way to California and back, where I reluctantly claimed my car, and parted company with the most masculine, exciting man I had ever known. A real man. Not a fake, effeminate boy.

My friends didn't know me when I got home. I had thrown away my silk shirts, and replaced them with flannel. My designer jeans were gone, and I now wore Levi's. I had grown a goatee and let my chest hair grow.

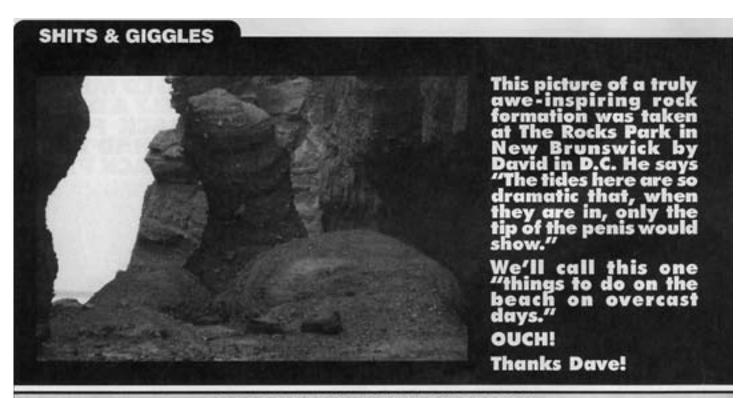

What they couldn't see was that my ass and balls were also now nice and furry, too. Sadly, not as hairy as Bill's, but I didn't let it get me down. Ironically, it was probably all my shaving that had trained my hair to grow as thickly as it did. He told me I was what was known as a "cub." A hairy manboy.

Cub

I liked it. It fit me. Just the word made me hot. I liked it better than pretty boy!

When I got back to my old stomping grounds, I discovered in just one evening that the faggy dance bar I used to frequent with my friends now bored me and I dragged them to the local leather bar. They paled, the queens, and quickly left me to my own devices. In no time at all, I found me a man with a hairy chest, and graying beard, and he took me home and fucked me the way the sissy I would have hooked up with in my old days could never have fucked!

Bill Hurley had converted me to bears; happily, there was no looking back! ①

YOUR BEAR PERSONAL AD... HERE'S HOW IT WORKS.

PLACING AN AD

Deadline for BEAR 51 personal ads is June 23. Deadline for BEAR 52 ads (which comes out the beginning of November) is August 23. These dates are subject to change as our publishing schedule varies slightly sometimes. Blame it on El Niño.

Text. Talk about yourself and be real clear as to whom you'd like to meet. Avoid negative shit, like "no fats, fems or Republicans." It doesn't work, and we'll probably change it anyway.

Names. We can't run ads addressed to Occupant or Boxholder. Use your initials or a name your postal carrier knows.

Phone Numbers. We won't print 'em. That's it. Period.

Photo Ads. We'll run a shot of your face or dick, but only once. Your photo must have a signed model release (see "Show Yourself In BEAR," page 59) AND a photocopy of your picture ID. Don't bother sending us photos without this stuff. We can't legally print 'em. Each photo sent to BEAR must be signed with your name and phone number on the back. Photos are not returnable.

BEAR Postal Box Numbers. If you wish, we'll assign a BEAR Postal Box Number to your ad, collect your responses and forward them to your address. A word to the wise: your own address will get you more responses. For U.S. subscribers only. Free for BEAR Buddies, $5 for everyone else.

Voice Mail Box Codes. We assign a voice mail box to every domestic ad. Guys can leave phone messages in your box after reading your ad, and only you can retrieve them. Cost is $1.98 per minute for both parties.

Common Courtesy. If a guy gets in touch with you, write back. Even if it's just to say, "No thanks," he deserves to know you got his message.

Cost and Duration. Personal ads are free if you're a BEAR Buddy (an $85, two-year subscription). Otherwise, they're $.25 a word, per issue. BEAR Buddy ads are discontinued when the subscription runs out. You'll have to submit a new ad when you renew your subscription. Wanna discontinue your ad? Write in, and we'll pull it. You'll have to pay to have a pulled ad put back in, though.

Ad Changes. It's cool, but will cost you five bucks, and must be in writing. Hint: you'll get more responses by revising your ad from time to time.

Edits. We reserve the right to edit ads for editorial consistency and clarity. We also reserve the right to refuse any ad. Submitting your ad. Compose your ad on a separate piece of paper, and for God's sake, write or print clearly so we can read the thing. Remember, no telephone numbers or "Boxholder/Occupant" addresses will be printed in ads! Photocopy this form, or copy it by hand, but we need all of this info!

RESPONDING TO AN AD

Voice mail box number. To respond to a voice mail box number, see details under "Voice Mail Explained," If the ad says "No voice mail," it's a good bet the fella won't be checkin' his phone messages. Respond via written letter, or e-mail if it's listed.

BEAR Box Number. To respond to an ad with a BEAR Box number, seal your letter in an envelope. On this envelope, put the fella's box number in pencil where the stamp normally goes. Send this with $1 in a larger envelope to us.

Common Courtesy. Respond only to the ads looking for your type, and don't be pullin' the old form letter routine. If you don't fit the specifications listed in the ad, don't come whining to us if you don't get a response.

Prisons. Not a great place to send money, or pictures of your hairy ass. By all means, correspond and make friends. But know the potential for trouble to you as well as the guy on the inside.

VOICE MAIL EXPLAINED

Our BEAR voice mail system is designed to give you access to new friends, true love, or just a good fuck. It works. Record your own personal greeting, answer someone else's ad, or pick up your messages.

If you have an ad in BEAR:

When dialing in for the first time, you must already have your pass code from us. We will mail you this code before the issue of BEAR in which your ad first appears hits the stands. Write us here at the shop if you don't receive your code for some reason.

To record an outgoing message to correspond to your ad in BEAR, or to collect your messages:

Once at the voice mail main menu, immediately hit the "star" or "*" key. The system will tell you that you are picking up your mail and ask you to enter your four-digit mailbox number. Don't let this confuse you.
Most of our mailbox numbers are five digits in length and, yeah, the recording's all fucked up. Go ahead and check for your mail.
The system will then give you four options.
Choose option #3 to record an outgoing announcement to match your ad. This way, guys will be able to hear the voice that's attached to your hot ad. Messages will stay in the system for two weeks.

Remember, if you are advertising in BEAR, you automatically have a BEAR voice mail box. However, our 900 system allows you to set up additional boxes if you want to. This can be done by choosing command #3 from the main menu, which is different from option #3 which appears at the message retrieval area.

Still have questions about BEAR voice mail? Call 1-800-234-3877 (415-552-1506 outside of the U.S.) and ask to speak with our answer guy, Mike Eades. He's usually here until 4:00pm, Pacific Time.

Credit card holders call 1-800-347-BEAR

> To charge the call to your home phone, dial 1-900-HOT-BEAR

Cost for both lines is $1.98 a minute.

f you missed the Southern California Bear Club Alliance's weekend in Los Angeles in April, then you missed out on a fun 'n' fur-filled weekend! The alliance, which consists of Beach Cities Bears, Bears LA, Bears San Diego, Bears Ventura, and Blackjack Bears of Las Vegas.

The kick-off beer 'n' soda bust at Piston's in Long Beach was a winner, with bears and beers everywhere you looked.

Bears LA did a great job of organizing Saturday night's Mr. Southern California Bear contest, under difficult circumstances, as they had to change the location of the contest just nine days before the date of the event. This year's contest was held at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel in the Grand Ballroom where the first Oscars (and, now, the first "Boscars") were awarded!

Hunky Jeff Boone (International Bear Cub 1998 and Mr. Southern California Bear 1997) handed Rocky Thompson, from Lake Isabella, the Mr. Southern California Bear title, with Clark Tylee and Dr. Buddy Green snatching up first and secand runner-up honors, respectively.

Michael Rasky, the evening's emcee, kept the crowd (and the contestants) in stitches!

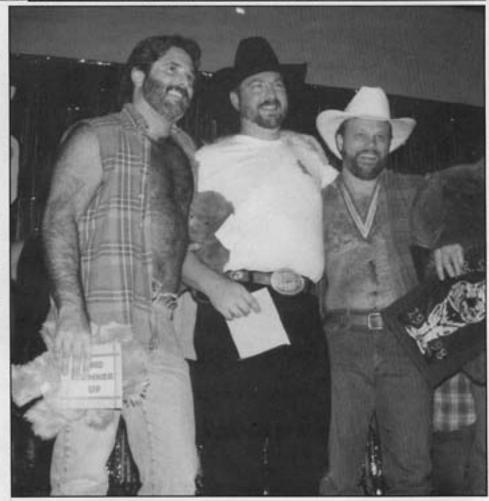

Sunday, Bears Ventura hosted a beer bust/auction at the Faultline, serving up lotsa beer and soda to lotsa thirsty bears!

Think ahead for next year. It's a great weekend with some great lookin' bears!

RAVEN GALLERY

Through the lens of photographer Vince Gabrielly, eroficised portraits become art. In this feature, BEAR takes a peek at his artistic vision of natural hairy men, some of which have been displayed at Gabrielly's successful Roven Gallery in San Francisco.

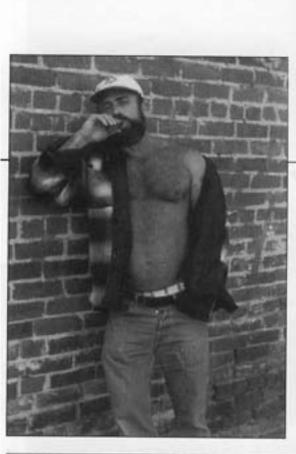

As you can see, Gabrielly's style is natural, casual. He looks for reality in both his photographic composition and in those he selects to photograph.

No bullshit. No fancy lighting or flattering camera angles.

Just natural, hairy, masculine men. The way we like 'em. @

My intention is to capture the Man as he really is.

I don't like putting men in situations or poses that don't feel natural to them.

Spring Thaw '98

April 17-19

Seattle, Washington

After a briefflight and a good night's sleep, I awoke in beautiful Downtown Seattle for the beginning of a great weekend. Spring Thaw, hosted by the Northwest Bears, would fill the next three days with shopping, mochas, touring, lanes, carousing, espressos, and lots of good bear hunting. Along with 150 other winter-weary bruies, I was looking forward to a festive awakening from hibernation, and the Northwest Bears really came through.

Kicking off the weekend on Friday night was a meet and greet bar and buffer where the early arrivals ate, drank, and shopped merely. It was a great chance to say goodbye to day jobs, and hello to blowiobs—potential ones, that is.

Saturday was a lazy day for me as most of my fellow participants were lead about the Greater Seattle area by hospitable locals. Falls, locks, the Space Needle, and some bedrooms, Um sure, were sights that rainy afternoon. That sight, we dined and were entertained by the ceremonial Bears, Bellies & Buns contest judged not by speeches and growls, but by the cash you got stuffed in your can and the shock of the wateresses at the banquet—who are all these incestious humberjacks anyway?

Surday wound down the weekend with the signature Spring Thuw cruise. This year, we took a threehour cruise around Puget Sound—without the professor and Mary Ann, but it was still great. With a great bunch of gays, spectacular scenery, and the scrumpMORE HINDSIGHTS tions delights of Chef Roy's catering prowess, it was a pleasure. After mcking and rolling on the sunny Sound, some headed home, while a few got their last chance at a private tea dance. I danced, but had beer instead of tea. What can I say? It's the 90's.

Seanle is a great sening for our kind, where there's a bear at every coffee stand! Go next year, grab a latté, and "Thaw" out.

Texas Bear Round-Up III March 26-29

Dallas, Texas

"Southern hospitality at it's best," is the only way to describe Texas Bear Round-Up, which was held in Dallas March 26 through 29. Hosted by the Dallas Bears for the third year in a row, the weekend proved to be a great time for all that attended. From the opening party Friday night at the Dallas Hagle, to the aweseme Saturday afterneon pool party (picture 400 gays letting it all hang out at the host hotel's indoor pool), to the Saturday night American Bear Contest, the Dallas Bears sare know how to throw a party.

The committee does a great job in keeping things organized and making sure everyone has a good time. The event is limited to 400 people, which makes it just the right size to feel intimate, but big enough to find that special bear or cub for the weekend.

A special thanks to Matt and Mark of the Dallas Eagle. These two gays have to be the sexiest, houest and nicest bar owners in the country! Also, a big thanks from BEAR to Bruce and the rest of the Dallas Round-Up committee for their hard work and hospitality. Our sincerest and best wishes to David Ellis (a.k.a. Miss Ellie)!

See ya guys next year!
