"We actually met online," John told us.
"Charlie had seen my pic on a website long before we actually ran across each other online."

"Actually, I think his ex pointed me out to him."

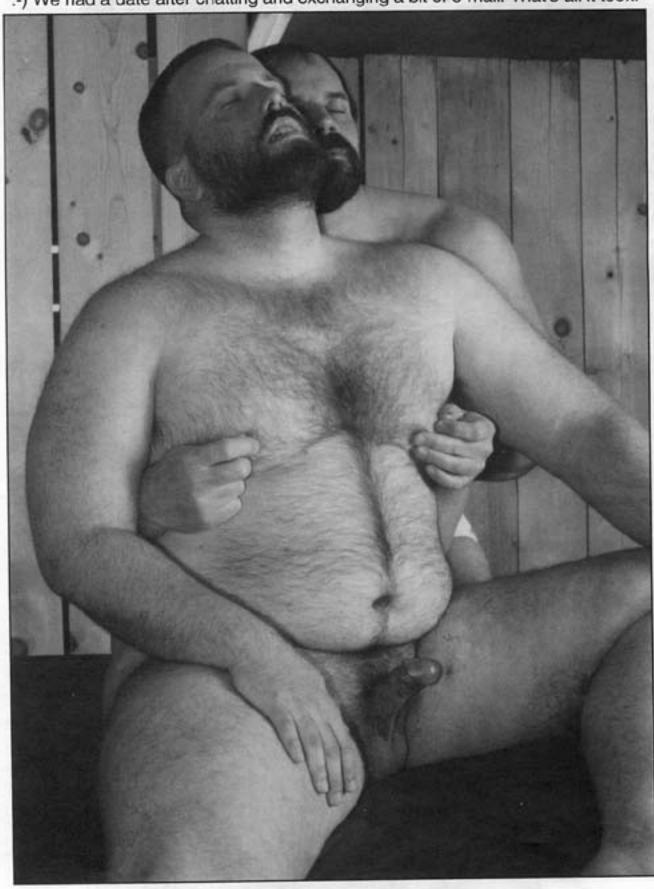

"His profile mentioned how huge his arms were, and I was hooked!"

":-) We had a date after chatting and exchanging a bit of e-mail. That's all it took!"

"We've set up a website for muscle bears, and we always enjoy E-mail from other muscle bears."

"Stop by, say hi, and see us and our buddies, at http://www.musclebearz.com."

Bearfolk have long held a strong presence on the Internet, and naked, hairy men have been as much a part of the smut floating around out there as anything else. So I figured it was high time I grabbed my mouse in one hand (and whatever keeps me comfortable in the other) and showed you guys around a little bit. It doesn't take many trips to Yahoo! to find a huge list of fur-friendly sites, so I hope I can show you the best of the best, and steer you clear of those monumental wastes of bandwidth and time.

One of the first sites I thought to let you folks in on is a personal favorite of mine: Cruising For Sex (ununcrusingforsex.com). This site is for the man who likes his sex on the prowl. It lists places all over the USA, as well as Canada, Australia and the UK. Providing both useful information on the area being described and places to go for sex, this site depends on its users to keep it upto-date on the hottest places to cruise for man-meat. Stop by this remarkable site. You may be surprised where men are gathering these days!

Far be it from me to turn my nose up at any good smut site, but lately there have been more and more sites signing up for adult verification services. Since this pretty much goes against the whole Internet-as-free-exchange thing, I'm going to focus on steering you guys to the free sites. Many free sites run off such services as Angell'ire or Geocities; and in many cases, they don't like for you to show the dangly bits. But just because they don't show dick doesn't mean it's necessarily a bad site. Check out The Hairy Men Site (www.geocites.com/West Hollywood/Village/3757), if you don't believe me. The background on the opening page is nothing but fur! Followed by an extensive gallery or fur fotos from a variety of sources, this is one hot site! If it were thumbnailed, it would be perfect, but it's damn good just the way it is.

For a quick porn fix, be sure and look check out a couple of the newsgroups, like alt.binaries.pictures.erotica.bears, or alt.sex.bears. Or, point your mouse to The Leather Navigator's links page (www.leathernavigator.com) and I'm sure you'll find enough homepages to keep you busy and horny for several hours.

And, for proof that sometimes the best stuff is no further away than your own back yard, check out our very own Brush Creek Media, Inc, website. We're at www.brushcreek.com. Take your pick of any or our hot magazine or video titles. You may even get a sneak peek at the hot guys in the current issues!

That's all I have for ya this issue, and that's plenty to keep you pumped & primed until next time. Now I want to ask all you porn-surfers out there to send me your favorite hairy man site! It can be a personal homepage, a studio's homepage, or a porn depot, just so long as it's fun, free and full o' fur!

WRITE TO PAPA

Hail Harry

I got my copy of BEAR 51 the other day, and it prompted me to write. Stapled inside was the new 1999 BCM catalog. Upon flipping through it, I found a photo of the most unbelievably handsome man that you've ever printed. That same man was in BEAR 35 and 36, although only a facial shot. What a facel t've also seen him in BEAR 40 wearing only a pair of boxers. Also in the '97 calendar and now in the mentioned catalog, wrappod in a towel. Please tell Harry that I am an admiring fan who would love the appartunity to communicate with him. Either by letter or phone. Yes, BEAR... perfection has graced your pages... and his name is Harry.

Also, is there any way to reach Fran Frisch so I could see if he has a collection of his work that I might be able to purchase? It would have to be a mailing address, as I don't own a computer.

Thanks again for all you've done for me. You'll never know how much y'all mean to me. BEAR rules!

James Illinois

Yeah, Harry's pretty easy on the of eyes, isn't he? I remember the first time I met him, way back when. He welked up and said, "Hi, I'm Harry." And there he stood, shirtless with a denim jacket open, revealing that dark, dense, carpet of fur. And I giggled to my lustful self, and thought, "His name is Hairy?" Anyhow, Harry's been a good friend to BEAR over the years, and now his own company, CastroBear Presents... produces the ever-growing Lazy Bear Weekend overy summer (third weekend in July... mark yer calendars!). I'll forward your note along to him.

Regarding writing to Frisch or Harry, drop them a note here at Brush Creek Media (address on page 2), and I'll get it to them.

Island Spice

I'm writing in response to Raul's letter in BEAR 51. It appears that this tropical bear did not like the story "Boar Island" and wonted a reader response to it. Well, here is mine.

First off, although the story was not one of my favorites, I enjoyed it precisely because it was different from the usual bear-meets-bear-and-does-himin-a-pickup story. Variety is the spice of life, and I enjoy seeing different approaches on occassion in what a friend of mine cells "One-Handed" epics. The writer did his best to try to present the same old sex scenario from a new angle, and I appreciate his writing it, and BEAR publishing it. My only additional comment is to please keep a broad base of selection for the one-handed epics you publish. To put it another way, when it comes to sec, I anjoy bear meat as well as the next guy, but I don't want to be limited to just champing on dick. I also want to eat and fuck bear butt, too! Such is the variety I also enjoy in my reading. Granted, there are only so many variations one can do on a theme, but when it becomes narrow and formulaic... well, it becomes a little trite, tired and unstimulating (been-there-donehim). So, I vote to keep the basis broad, not narrow, for your one-handed epic hot bear fiction!

Charles Eldridge Maryland

That's pretty much what former editor Rich tremanger was lookin' for, trying to show you hat bearsex in a new and different fictional light. I, for one, applaud him for that.

This just goes to show that there are definitely two sides to every coin. Thanks for showing us the other one.

In this issue, we're featuring a story called "Santa Drives a Tow Truck." How's that for broad-based?

Unpleasantville

The color issue (BEAR 50) was great. I was very dissuppointed when I received issue 51 and it was back in black and white. Please bring the color back!

Brian Ohio

We're workin' on it, buddy. The color was added as a special bonus because it was our fiftieth issue and we wanted to celebrate that by doing something special.

But the response has been so everwhelming, we're looking into the possibility of adding it on a permanent basis.

Super Booper

I am enclosing a picture with hopes that you enjoy it enough to put it in BEAR. I am on the road in the Midwest for my company, and thought that I should finally try to submit something.

Booper Iowa

Wow... thanks, Booper! Which road are you on, and how do we get there?

We think you'd look great in BEAR, and we'll be in touch.

Bitter Bear

I'm not renewing. You went from bears to bizarre. I like bears, not freaks? I'm not impressed with how many metal balls, or how long a metal rod can be shoved up a guys dick hole.

You lost me!

You should stick with what works—handsome, hairy men with big dicks. We buy magazines to see fantasy men, not the same tired things out at the bars.

It's just too bod your "competition" is a pretty lame magazine. Now I've got no bear source to look forward to.

Steve California

Remember, not so long ago, when people used to say that men with hair on their backs were freakish?

The Sperminator (BEAR 46) was one model within the context of a whole magazine, within the context of your whole subscription. He's masculine, hairy, hung like a horse, and real comfortable with his sexuality. Besides that, he can shove everything short of a plunger handle down his dick.

Just outta curiosity, do you cancel your cable service when a single episode of Seinfeld sucks? Do you cancel your subscription to Time when they publish an article about Martha Washington rather than Martha Stewert? Did you throw your Out of Time CD away just because of "Shiny Happy People?"

As far as our competitors, I don't know which ones you're talking about, but I think the "other" bear magazine kicks but!

In a mytshell... lighten up, and come on back.

Follicle Follow-Up

In response to "regrowth" ("Write to Papa" BEAR 51), Tom from Illinois asked, "If I shave my chest, will it grow back hairier?" The answer, sadly, is no. You can only grow as many bairs as there are follides. I am an avid reader of BEAR. and I am a smoothie. I am extremely envious of those with the gift of fur, but no matter how much you shave your chest, it will not grow back thicker.

However, in my salam, and in others throughout the U.S., we carry a line of products called Nioxin, designed to regrow lost hair, and have had aumerous claims from clients that their body hair has thickened, as well, so check it out!

Also, congratulations on issue 50. Wherever did you find such a fine specimen of hot, hairy man like Jack Radcliffe? Now I know there is a god!

Chuck Missouri

the wittke wire

It's getting harder than ever to get a handle on television programming nowadays; what with fake networks like UPN and WB springing up and demanding attention, as well as countless new shows in syndication and original cable series clogging up the coaxial. The fact that many ratings-losers vanish after two episodes makes the task even more slippery. It's getting so you don't want to recommend a show either because it's a piece of crap (even though it features a furry actor or two), or because you have no idea if it'll be canceled before you can fmish the sentence, "Hey, Dan Lauria is on that new show Costello on Fox." But still, I try. Lemme throw some shows at ya and see if any of them are still around by the time this column is printed.

From the five episodes I have seen of the CBS romance/drama To Have and to Hold, I can say without fear of contradiction that Jason Beghe has simply the most beautiful chest of any leading actor on a television series today. The great news is that the producers of the show aren't afraid to eroticize his body at all, pretty much getting him to appear shirtless just about every week. Beghe's been discussed in this column in the past, back when he was on the HBO football series First & 10, and of course, we drooted over his epic ass-revealing performance in George Romero's haunting film Monkeyshines. Well, he's only grown better with age, and his chemistry with the gifted Moira Kelly, his co-star in this relentlessly hetero show, brings out some of the best acting I've ever seen him do. Beghe plays a police detective, so he gets to do that butch thing he does so well. His character has three brothers, one of which is a very ursine fireman, with the other two being cops. Throw in a Native American, and I think we have the makings of a disco group.

The UPN comedy DiResta has actually kind of won me over. Based around the stand-up comedy of former New York subway cop John DiResta, it stars John DiResta as New York subway cop John DiResta. Obviously, the network was working on the Roseanne model here, but the show actually comes across as the offspring of that great old show, and the even older Honeymooners.

The beer-gutted DiResta is quite charming in that way that stand-up comics who suddenly find themselves the center of attention in a half-hour situation comedy often are. Plus, he's cute and cuddly and has lightly furry forearms. True to the wannabe-network tradition, the show isn't afraid of toilet humor. One episode featured John trying to get his wife to give him an enema as a preliminary for a medical procedure, Thanks, buddy. Since you're such a Jack Radcliffe fan, get yer hands en our 1999 BEAR Jack Raddliffe Calendar, while supplies last! Order on page 80!

Palm Springs Rules

BEAR: Palm Springs Vacation is terrific! Being a big fan of Jock Raddliffe, though, I am curious: in all of Jock's Brush Creek videos, he always dimexes with a bandjob. Sure, in BEAR Sex Party, he does a little bit of dick sucking. And in Classic BEAR, the supine Jack is straddled and ridden by Mickey Squires, though we don't see penetration or Jack's climax.

My hope is to see Jack Raddiffe pumping his ass over an anxious chute, or his hirsute thighs high in the air taking a big one deep in his hole. Just picture it! Boy, I'm hard just writing this!

Jack, leave the handjobs to us as we watch you

Any thoughts on this from you or Jack?

Harry Illinois

Fantasy is a wonderful thing. Part of Jack's appeal, I think, is that he refuses to allow himself to be pigeonholed into a top/bottom/daddybear/aub role. Let's face it, you take a dick up the butt on video, and you're a bottom. You plaw somebody's poophole, and you're a top. Like a bunch of old ladies at a Tupperware' party, we can't wait to scream "Top!" or "Bottom!" and it gisses us off when somebody won't let us.

Why net fantasize about what you'd like Jack to do to you instead of agonizing over what he's not doing on film? Neanwhile, I'll pass this along to him.

Wantin' Walter

I just received my first issue since subscribing, and I have to admit that I'm already impressed. I live in Northern Ontario, and I will be starting my own Bear group in the very near future, the Northern Ontario Bears or NOBs, if you will.

I was extremely impressed with Walter in BEAR 51. Nice to see us Canadian bears getting some notice. I would love to hear from any bears from the north who enjoy your magazine as I do. And, if Walter reads this—WOOF, drop me a line sometime. Also, if there is anyone out there who has had experience of starting up Bear groups in remote locations, I could use some advice. Thanks again!

the wittke wire

and featured the only onscreen prostate exam I have ever seen on a sitcom. (Doctor: Ever had a homosexual experience? DiResta: Not before this.) And, in a probably unintentional nod to the hit French film of last year Ma Vie en Rose, the DiRestas have a two-year-old son named Dakota who dresses in princess gowns and other girlie garb. The punch line is always the same: butch dad realizes that Dakota has to be his own person and dad has to love and support him no matter what. But still, I didn't expect gender-fuck issues to be a subplot on a minor sitcom.

Jeremy Piven bounced back from the Ellen cancellation with Cupid, one of the only hour-long dramas on network television with an original premise. He doesn't play a cop, a lawyer, a private eye, or an identity-shifting time traveler. Piv' plays a former mental patient who thinks he is the God of Love, Himself, with a mandate to unite 100 couples before he can ascend back to the heavens. Luckily, he's an outpatient and has to attend regular group therapy, so there's an ever-revolving cast of potential lovers for him to unite. So far, the show hasn't taken on gay love, but I have little doubt that it will. In one episode, Piven announced to his cynical shrink. "I'm going to go to a Greek wedding or a gay bathhouse, someplace where people actually soon to fall in love." It was kind of sweet. Even though that infamous Piven chest-hair has obviously been trimmed somewhat, giving him that "New Crop Re-growth" look, he still looks mighty fine strutting around in that hormonal Chicago stage actor way of his. Oddly, both Cupid and To Have and To Hold make frequent use of Pretenders songs when things get emotional. Maybe one day, Piven and Beghe can co-star in Tattooed Love Boys.

Other channel surfing notes: Don't ask me why I've been home on several Saturdays to see The New Fanlasy Island, but every episode I have seen thus far has been populated by furry newcomers with plunging necklines (and TNFI is not even completely shitty) .... I am embarrassed to admit that I find Gomez on FoxFamily's New Addams Family kinda irresistible .... Fur dad Patrick Warburton did a guest shot on an early episode of the odd and unnecessary CBS sitcom Maggie Winters, in which he played a construction foreman. Though absolutely zero body hair was displayed, Warburton's Inner Endomorph seems to be breaking through all that muscle he exhibited so frequently on Dave's World and Seinfeld. Big belly and all, he's still the sexiest lunkhead character actor around. Take that, muscle fascists!! However, if you must have them built-up and furry, search out World Championship Wrestling superstar Bill "Just Call Him" Goldberg. He can call me, anytime. @

I hate hatred. There's so damned much of it. I hate you, you hate her, she hates everything. It's going to be remembered as the theme for the '90s, I think. I hate it. It's where war comes from. Hate gives hurt, and it probably makes money somehow, too.

If it didn't, we wouldn't have it anymore. But....

People who love everything and everybody, unconditionally—God, aren't they annoying? I hate you when you do that. Cut the crap. You're just as scared as the rest of us.

We need to face our hate. There's enough hate in our daily lives.

Let's sweat some small stuff and see if we don't feel any better.

I hate when sometimes, after you cum, the piss-lips at the end of your dick (if you even know what piss-lips is....) get stuck all puckered to your underwear so when you whip it out to pee it goes rrrrrrip and you feel like you've got syphilis for a good hour and a half.

I hate people who say "Oh, I never watch television!" True, most TV is crap, but it is the main barometer of our culture, so it's like saying "I walk around with my head shoved up my ass." I don't care if you listen to NPR, if you don't know who Marge Simpson is, what the hell good are you?

I hate the fact that, in San Francisco, you step over the smelly bodies of the homeless on the sidewalks and you completely forget to remember that it's a person there, under that tarp.

I hate when guys say WHY they don't want to go out with you anymore, especially when you give 'em every chance not to say anything at all.

I hate cities where you have to do everything by car. Do you know how isolating and polluting it is, to do everything by car?

I hate being at a party of all gorgeous men when I'm not gorgeous.

I hate that Will Riker shaved his beard.

I hate jetlag. Crossing up to 36 timezones a week, I hate the ones where you get home from Hong Kong, sit on the edge of the bed with one shoe off, staring at a pattern on the carpet thinking "Jesus, I gotta go pee...." But then you sit like that for 15 minutes, unblinking. Then you really gotta go pee. And then—and I hate it when this happens you realize you have been awake for 2 days wearing polyester and your plants have died of neglect and so you start to cry. It happens to a lot of us. Not just to me because I'm a sissy.

I hate when people fly to San Francisco from Denver and say "Oh, I just can't HANDLE this jetlag, how DO you do it?"

I hate those little half orgasms you get sometimes? You're all ready to bring it all home to Jesus, you're huffing, pumping away at whatever it is you do, and you get this little 'ermp' thing and that's it and you've been robbed. Robbed, I tell you!

I hate watching Kathie Lee Gifford on TV, it's like a road accident. You can't turn away.

I hate when guys who can't get a boner to fuck you just put more lube on their dick, like that's going to help.

I hate the beauty of a moonlit night when you actually hear the sound of the planet around you; you feel like you're maybe going to understand the big picture after all, but someone opens a door or honks a horn and you remember that you can't keep any of it. You can't stop the world from hemorrhaging to death.

I hate other people. I hate being alone. I hate it when he stinks up the bathroom and I realize I've made love to THAT.

I hate the HanShin elevated expressway through Osaka, Japan; I hate the endless endless endless gray concrete under that endless endless endless gray sky, with refineries, factories, kiddie playgrounds in between the smokestacks.

I hate the smell of other people's bedrooms. They're wrong.

I hate when some guy wants to have sex with you but you're not sure you want to have sex with him; I hate when he goes and has sex with someone else and then you decide you definitely did want to have sex with him after all.

I hate tattoos, I hate boxer shorts (they're useless), I hate teddy bears in people's back pockets instead of home between the covers.

I hate lack of "situational awareness."

Situational awareness is that little unused device that tells us, if that sign says "Wet Paint," you don't park your butt on that bench.

Some people have no clue as to how they relate to the world around them, and I truly hate that: people who don't know how to open an airplane lavatory door, people who talk out loud in movie theatres, people who sit in their cars, blithely blocking an intersection for everybody else. We all want to go home; they're just oblivious, rocking out to "Yanni at the Acropolis."

I hate "Yanni at the Acropolis."

I hate chinstraps—those ugly C. Everett Koop half beards with no mustache. They're coming back. What are you people thinking?

I hate how, when you're not even remotely in the mood for sex, men are all over you like stink on shit, woofing or what not; I hate how, when you're horny and gotta have a piece of ass, "Poof!" You're marked as intrinsically undesirable and everyone stays away. You're on your own.

I hate it when guys don't know how to suck dick. You have one of your own fer gawd's sake, so get a clue there, Bucky.

OK, that's enough. I hate preachy pedantic rhetorical styles getting beaten to death, so I'll knock it off.

Hate what you can handle and leave the rest alone.  $\Phi$

-- Earlier this year, I got an envelope with a big red "woof!" written on it in my mailbox. The guys opening the mail downstairs had seen the snapshots that Don here had sent in, and... well, I guess that was their way of telling me, "Put him in BEAR." So, I took a look for myself, and thought about it for about... 4 seconds before sicking one of our photographers onto him. Like him? He's single.

Drives a Ton Truck

"Goddamn it!" Gary's hazel eyes blazed as he glared at the flat tire on the front of his red Chevy pickup. It was just his luck to have a blowout on one of the coldest evenings of the year. Christmas Eve, no less. Ho ho ho. Normally he could have just used the spare tire, but he'd loaned it to a friend of his a month ago, and never had gotten the damned thing back.

"Great. Just fuckin' great," he muttered, scratching his blackbearded cheek and looking around in the wintry dusk, hoping to see headlights coming his way. Except for himself, Highway 321 was totally deserted. Since the roads were so icy, the only people out were those foolish enough to wait until the last minute to finish their Christmas shopping. Like him. He shivered as a frigid blast of wind swooshed into his jacket and across his chest. He could almost feel his frozen chest hairs breaking off. Grimacing, he yanked his black baseball cap down more securely over thick hair almost as dark, and hugged his arms across the puffiness of his blue jacket. Flakes of snow began to drift through the beams of his headlights.

Gary melted the lazily falling snow in front of him with fiery curses as he stalked around to the driver side of the vehicle. At least the heater still worked; he'd be warm while he figured out what to do. He slammed the door closed and sighed in frustrated relief as he began to thaw out. What a perfect way to end the day of hell he'd had. He should be at home, wrapped in a blanket with a good book. Instead, he was finishing the shopping he had been putting off for weeks. It seemed as if everyone else had waited too; despite the treacherous roads, the mall in Hickory had been packed with frantic last-minute shoppers. His side still hurt from where that old blue-haired bitch had elbowed him out of her way.

He sighed again and glanced across the seat to his pile of gifts. Against all odds, he'd managed to find something for everyone on his list; now the trick was getting all of this shit home. Maybe be should try to walk. It was only a few miles - in blistering cold, on a wet, dark, snowy night... He grouned and picked up the one gift he'd gotten for himself. He hadn't gotten it at the mall though; the bookstores there weren't open-minded enough to carry EEAR Magazine. In the rapidly dimming light, he could barely make out the hot bear on the cover, grinning sexily for the camera.

Suddenly, the picture stood out in sharp detail as headlights washed across his rearview mirror, illuminating the dark auburn hair, beard, and chest fur of the cover-bear. Gary hurriedly tossed the magazine next to the pile of boxes and bags beside him and scrambled out of his truck. Through the glare of headlights and the swirling snow, he couldn't tell what kind of car was approaching, but waved frantically at the unknown vehicle. As it pulled up behind his pickup, he saw that it was a huge red flatbed tow truck. Gary couldn't believe his good fortune when the truck rumbled to a stop a few feet away. White lettering on the truck's red door read "Callebon's Auto Repair."

The door opened and the driver climbed out into the snow. Gary couldn't help but stare; to all appearances, the driver was Santa Claus, complete with the suit, white beard, and belly! Santa walked up to him and said in a slight North Carolina accent, "Looks like you could use some help! Flat tire?"

"Lh . . ." Gary replied cleverly.

The man glanced down at his outfit and grinned. "Been playin' Santa at the mall in Hickory." he explained cheerfully. "My day job's auto repair." He hooked a thamb over his shoulder, indicating the tow truck. "I borrowed the Beast 'cause she's got 4-wheel drive. I figured the roads'd get worse. Name's Sam Callahan." Sam extended his hand, which Gary shook firmly.

"I'm Gary McIntosh, and yeah, I got a flat. Loaned the spare to a friend a while back, so I've been sittin' here tryin' to get up the nerve to hike."

Sam shivered. "In this brutal weather?! I don't think so. If you got the time, I can tow you to my shop; it's only a few miles from here. I can fix you up with some new tires."

Gary shifted from one foot to the other, trying to work some warmth back into his toes. "Man, that'd be great!"

Sam grinned. "C'mon, let's get you outta here 'fore some fool causes an accident." He clambered back into the tow truck and pulled around in front of the pickup, then tilted the bed so that the pickup could be rolled onto it. Gary moved to the side of the road as a white Ford Bronco drove slowly by. Sam hooked the cable underneath the pickup's front and then opened the door. "Gotta take off the brake and put it in neutral," Sam explained and ducked his head into the truck.

A few seconds later, he stood up again and held up the BEAR Magazine. Gary's heart shot into his throat. Oh shit...

"I see we have the same taste in reading material!" Sam smiled.

Gary realized be wasn't about to die and let out the breath he'd been holding. "You read BEAR?"

"Yup. Have for years. Nice to meet some family out here in the boonies!"
Gary leaned against his truck and laughed weakly in relief. "God, you scared me shitless when you held up that thing; I forgot to hide it."

"Sorry 'bout that; guess I'll just have to make it up to ya. How 'bout a tow, a new tire and a new spare all for free? Call it a 'Family Discount,' tonight only!"

"You're kidding!" Gary exclaimed. "Thanks! Thanks a lot!"

Sam winked, started up the winch and guided the pickup up the hed, then pulled the bed back to its horizontal position. Then he reset the brake and secured the pickup with chains. "Climb on in," he invited. "We'll be at my shop in no time."

Gary opened the passenger door and hoisted himself up into the truck as the other man slid behind the wheel. While Sam was distracted, deftly navigating the truck through the rapidly thickening snow, Gary stole a few glunces at him, wondering what he looked like behind the Santa persona. The white beard looked real, but from the little bit he could tell about Sam, he didn't seem to be old enough to have white hair. Then again, who knows, he mused to himself, fingering the small patch of white hair on the back of his head that had been the result of a childhood injury. He had to admit to himself, the idea of meeting another bear that lived in Lenoir excited him; in a town this small, compatible men were hard to find.

True to Sam's word, they pulled into Callahan's Auto Repair a few minutes later. Although the street was only a few miles away from where Gary lived, he'd never been on this road before. In fact, he had never even known about this place. After opening the garage and loading the pickup onto the hydraulic lift. Sam turned on the heater. "We'll let this place warm up a bit." He unlocked the door to the office and led the way into the waiting room. After turning on the heater in there as well, he popped some coins into a vending machine and handed Gary a paper cup of coffee. "Here ya go; best coffee east of the Pacific Ocean!" Gary took an experimental sip and raised his eyebrows in appreciation; Sam's boast seemed accurate; the coffee was delicious, the steam filling the room with its creamy, hazelnut aroma.

While they waited for the room to warm up, they made small talk. Between the coffee and the rapidly warming office, it was only a few minutes before Gary felt comfortable enough to shuck his jacket. He tossed it into a nearby chair. Now that he could see Sam better, Gary was quick to give his rescuer a surreptitious yet thorough examination. Sam looked to be about six feet tall, give or take an inch from the black boots; the white beard did indeed look real, flowing down from his face in a neatly trimmed silvery-white river that ended at the base of the neck. Because of the white beard, it was difficult to guess his age; he could have been anywhere from 35 to his early 60's. From the way that Sam moved, Gary suspected he was in his early to mid-forties. He had sparkling blue eyes that looked like the sky on a cloudless winter afternoon. His cheeks were rosy from the cold outside, and he had a bright smile that was probably on his face more often than not. He made a convincing Santa.

Gary's private examination was interrupted as Sam suddenly unzipped the Santa coat, revealing a chest carpeted with thick rust-colored fur that was slightly matted with sweat from the hot jacket. If Sam noticed Gary's awestruck expression, he pretended not to. "Don't want to get the suit dirty," he explained. "Oh, in case you haven't noticed," he added, pointing out his auburn chest fur, "I don't always have white hair! I changed the color for the occasion." He turned around to hang up the coat, giving Gary a look at his muscular back, which was almost as furry as the front. Though he was pudgy around the waistline, Sam had a powerful build; being a mechanic seemed to agree with him. He also pulled off the boots and Santa pants, revealing bright-red long underwear, which dashed Gary's secret hopes that Sam wore nothing under the suit. He whimpered quietly into his coffee; the long underwear might keep Sam warm, but it did nothing to hide the shape of what lay underneath. As he put the boots back on, Sam seemed totally unaware of the effect he was having on his new friend.

Gary bit his lip to distract himself from the swelling in his crotch as the bare-chested Santa strode into the storage rooms, coming back with two brand-new all-weather tread tires resting on his broad furry shoulders as if they weighed nothing. He made two more trips, bringing out a total of five tires.

As soon as Gary realized that Sam intended to replace not only the flat tire and the spare, but all of his tires, he protested. "You don't have to do this; at least let me pay you!"

Sam grinned and wagged a finger at him, replying, "Family Discount, remember? No charge. I got a look at your other tires earlier; they'll all need replacing soon anyway. Consider these a Christmas present." Gary started to argue, but shut up when Sam got a "no nonsense" look in his eyes. Instead, he helped Sam lug the tires out into the workshop. The heater had warmed up the temperature from freezing to luke-warm, but Sam seemed not to notice the cool air. Must be that pelt of his, Gary thought as he admired Sam's wonderfully furry chest and back. Moving with a speed and definess that must have come from years of practice, Sam had the new tires on the pickup in minutes. Gary couldn't help wondering if Sam handled all of his tools that well.

Once back into the warmth of the waiting room, Sam turned to look at Gary, smiling wickedly. "So, now that you have new Gary noticed that Sam's meat was just as hard as his own. Trembling with need, he caressed Sam's crotch, finding that the long johns left nothing to the imagination. Of Santa had a big one! Sam returned the caresses, exploring Gary's cock through his blue jeans. As Gary put every bit of his skill into exploring Sam's tongue with his own, he slipped his hand down inside the long underwear, sliding his fingers through the thick pubic hair to the thick cock. As he brushed the head, he felt the moistness of precum in the slit.

Sam's breathing quickened as he slid his own hand up the front of Gary's shirt, lightly caressing the pudgy belly, and finally brushing first one nipple, then the other. As he worked higher, he slowly pulled the shirt up with him, until finally he pulled the shirt over Gary's head, revealing Gary's own black-furred chest and back. Gary moaned softly and worked Sam's long johns down the hairy legs to his knees. His cock was indeed a nice one: about six inches long and a little over an inch wide. More precum oozed out of the slit. Gary quickly knelt down and lapped it up, then took the head into his mouth, milking it for more. Sam gasped and rested a hand on the back of Gary's head. "Oh that feels good!"

Needing little encouragement, Gary gradually slurped and sucked his way all the way to the base of the cock, tasting Sam's saltiness at the back of his throat. Cupping each of his hands around a furry butt-cheek, Gary pulled the other bear forward, taking in all of the delicious meat. Building a rhythm, he used his hands on Sam's furry ass to guide him into a steady face-fucking. Getting the hint, Sam clasped both hands behind Gary's head and pumped his cock in and out, eyes closed from the wonderful sensation of Gary's warm silky mouth. "Oh yes! Ooh, you're a naughty boy! But so nice!"

Deciding to be even more naughty, Gary used the slickness on the cock to wet his fingers, and worked his fingers between the buns to Sam's asshole. Sam's eyes opened wide and he gasped in pleasure. "Ooh, careful, or you're gonna get a sarprise!" Gary only worked harder, gradually working his index finger into the asshole as Sam continued pumped his dick in and out. As Gary's finger found the prostate, Sam's whole body shuddered. He cried out and convulsed, accidentally jerking his cock from Gary's mouth as arcs of cum crupted all over Gary's beard and chest.

Looking down at Gary's surprised expression, and the mess he had made, Sam laughed breathlessly. "Oh God, I'm sorry! I did warn you though."

Gary chuckled. "Next time, keep it in my mouth and you won't make such a mess?"

Grinning, Sam replied, "Here, lemme clean you up." Before Gary could react, Sam had knelt down beside him and was licking his seed out of Gary's beard, occasionally darting his tongue between Gary's lips in a deep salty kiss. As he finished cleaning Gary's beard, he began nibbling and nuzzling the neck, and gently pushed Gary down until he was lying on his back. Sam lay on top of him and continued the grooming, finding the spots that needed cleaning with his lips and tongue, but not neglecting the cleaner parts either. The curls of their chest fur intertwined as Gary closed his eyes and ran his fingers though Sam's back hair, shivering as he felt the hot mouth engulf his left nipple, and the flicker of tongue that followed immediately after.

After nibbling and sucking on that nipple for several seconds, Sam worked his way across Gary's furry chest to the other one, making sure to give it the same VIP treatment before he worked his way lower. Gary's body tensed in anticipation as Sam's mouth took position over the throbbing head of his cock. Sam bent down toward the cock, but at the last moment, turned his face so that instead of swallowing the dick, he rubbed his beard hard against the bottom of the shaft. Gary groaned, overwhelmed by the prickling and scratching that slowly worked its way up his penis. As the beard began prickling right under the head of his dick, a warm, wet tongue began to slowly bathe the tip of his cock. Gasping softly, Gary rested his hands on top of Sam's head. As his tongue finished its impromptu bath, Sam suddenly engulfed Gary's cock, deepthroating it in one smooth motion and causing Gary to gasp, "Oh my God!"

The hot silky mouth sheathing his meat gulped it in like there was no tomorrow, lapping at the underside as Sam took the head into the back of his throat and buried his lips in Gary's pubic hair. Gary arched his back in ecstasy, feeding Sam all he could take. Sam began to slowly work the cock in and out, hugging it tightly with his lips, and lightly grazing the tender skin with his teeth.

Gary grouned in pleasure and matched Sam's rhythm with thrusts of his own. Sam worked the cock a little faster, and reached up with both hands to play with Gary's nipples. Settling into his rhythm, Sam slurped and sucked with abandon, creating a warm, wet storm of silk around the cock. Soon, he felt the balls tighten up under his chin and knew that Gary couldn't hold out much longer. He increased the suction and let loose, using all of his skill to bring the other man over the edge. Seconds later Gary gasped and shuddered, managing to grunt breathlessly, "I'm gonna cum!" Sam wrapped his mouth around the cock more firmly and pumped faster.

"Oh God uh uh uh.....UHHHGGD!" Gary's eyes squeezed shut; his body seemed to leap off the floor as the orgasm surged up his urethra and exploded into the back of Sam's throat. Sam guiped the semen down as fast as it shot into his mouth, swallowing all Gary had to give and then continuing to milk what was left from the skit. As the last of his seed was spent, Gary's entire body seemed to crumble in upon itself. With a trembling sigh, he passed out.

An unknown time later, he felt something lightly brush his left cheek and opened his eyes to see Sam smiling fondly down at him. He broke into a wide smile and took Sam's hand into his own. "Wow! What an afterglow!"

Sam laughed and then bent down to kiss Gary gently on the lips. "You looked like you could use it!" He grinned playfully.

Gary stretched like a contented cat and stood up. "How long was I out?"

Sam got to his feet as well and shrugged. "Couple of minutes. But you look worlds better than you did when I first met you; my God, you're almost glowing!"

"Well, it's all due to you!"

"Uh, well... I guess it's time for us to get out of here. I checked the roads while you were sawing logs; I don't think you should try to drive home to-night. I live right around the corner; why don't you come home with me?"

Gary raised an eyebrow. "And of course, you're just offering to put me up for the night 'cause you're worried about the roads."

Pretending to be wounded, Sam replied, "Of course! What other motive could I possibly have? Unfortunately, I only have one bed; I hope you don't mind sharing . . ." He trailed off, a mischievous twinkle in his eyes.

After they pulled their clothes back on, Gary got into his truck and followed Sam to his house. Gary found out that Sam really did live right around the corner! If it hadn't been so blasted cold they could have walked. They pulled up to a house that looked like it had come right out of a Hallmark card. The light shining from the street lamp by the driveway gave the thick layer of snow on the lawn a silvery, otherworldly sparkle. The house itself was very rustic; with dark-stained wood for the outside walls and front porch. The frosted glass window in the front door and the windows to either side shone warmly with a soft golden light from somewhere within the house. The dark wood of the house itself seemed to soak up the light and come to life, giving off its own cinnamon glow. Both Sam and Gary stood silently by the tow truck for a moment, drinking in the sight. Then Sam said, "C'mon, let's get inside where it's warm."

The two men walked up the steps to the front door. Sam unlocked the door and with a dramatic sweep of his arm, invited Gary to enter the house.

"Why don't you get some reading material off the coffee table and make yourself comfy," Sam told Gary. "I'm gonna go take a shower and get this white out of my hair." Leaving Gary to sift through the assorted magazines on the table, Sam went down the hall and into his bedroom.

As he heard the shower turn on down the hall, Gary noticed that Sam liked a variety of magazines. He sifted through the assortment on the coffee table until one caught his eye. Whoa... Gary picked up the same issue of BEAR Magazine he had out in his truck. The bear on the cover was just his type, with dark red hair on his head, face, chest, and round belly. Gary thumbed slowly through the magazine. admiring the different men. A minute later, he heard the shower turn off and the shower curtain slide open. Ooh, there was the bear from the cover. He was posing in a variety of positions and states of undress, in what looked like a mechanic's uniform . . . Wait a minute. He looked closer at the bear, then read the description on the side of the page that he had ignored before. "Sam owns an auto repair shop in North Carolina. He loves to play with tools -"

Movement from the hallway interrapted his reading he looked up to see Sum coming back into the room wearing nothing but a pair of bright red silk boxer shorts. His damp hair and beard were now the same rust color as his chest hair. Gazy glanced again at the picture on the cover of BEAR. "Holy shit." They were definitely the same gust.

Sam grinned and assed, "So, what do you think of the guy on the cover, had?" Gary recovered his scattered was and replied, "I think he gives great head?"

"You oughta see what else he can do ... "Like make dinner! I dumo about you, but I'm starving! How do burgers sound?" Gar; 's loudly growling stomach answered the question quite well. Som laughed at his sheepish grin and said, "I'll take that as a 'yes!" Go ahead and keep reading dinner won't take but a few minutes to make." He walked into the kitchen.

Gary's eyes went back to the picture of Sam on the magazine cover. As he heard the freezer door open from the kitchen, he picked up the magazine again and thumbed through it to Sam's photo-spread. Vow. . . Gary thought to himself, granting at the strangeness of life. For him to encounter this gorgeous bear - in the guise of Santa of all things! Wow . . .

After a dimer that was punctuated by stifled yawns from both Gary and Sam, they cleared away the dishes in short order. Sam yawned again and looked at the clock. 10:54. He raised his largers through his tousled red hair and blinked at Gary sleepily. "Ready for bed?" Gary nedded and rubbed an eye absently.

They ambled down the hallway to Sam's room. Seconds later, there were two piles of clothes on the floor. Gary and Sam climbed into bed and threw the covers buck so that their budies were uncovered. The air in the room was warm enough that no covers were needed. Sam lay so that his farry chest was needed against Gary's buck and curled an arm around his bed partner's waist. He heard than sigh contentedly as he wrapped an arm around Sam's band.

Sum had had a long day, but with his rock lightly resting on one of Gary's buns, it was beginning to show signs of life again. Experimentally, he started playing with Gary's right nipple. In response, Gary's butt snuggled right into Sam's rapidly hardening cock, which was now being held right outside of Gary's asshote. Liking the results so far, Sum continued working on the nipple and began nibbling on the back of Gary's neck.

A mean escaped Gary's throat. He turned over so that he was facing Sam and began to return the inver, licking and sucking on Sam's nipples. Sam lay back and polled Gary on top of him, so that their cocks were sliding slikly against each other. Gary worked Sam's nipples, nibbling.

The hot silky mouth sheathing his meat gulped it in like there was no tomorrow, lapping at the underside as Sam took the head into the back of his throat and buried his lips in Gary's pubic hair. Gary arched his back in ecstasy, feeding Sam all he could take.

slurping as Sam reached down to play with Gary's cock. Mouning, Gary moved up to hury his tongue into Sam's mouth, kissing him passionately as Sam's free hand wandered down Gary's back to explore the outside of his asshole. Gary broke the kiss and gasped as Sam's index finger gently wormed its way in up to the first knuckle.

"Mmmm, you like that, huh?" Sam whispered.

Gary's eyes were blissfu'ly closed. "Mmm hmm! Oh yeah! But I wanna suck your cock some more too!"

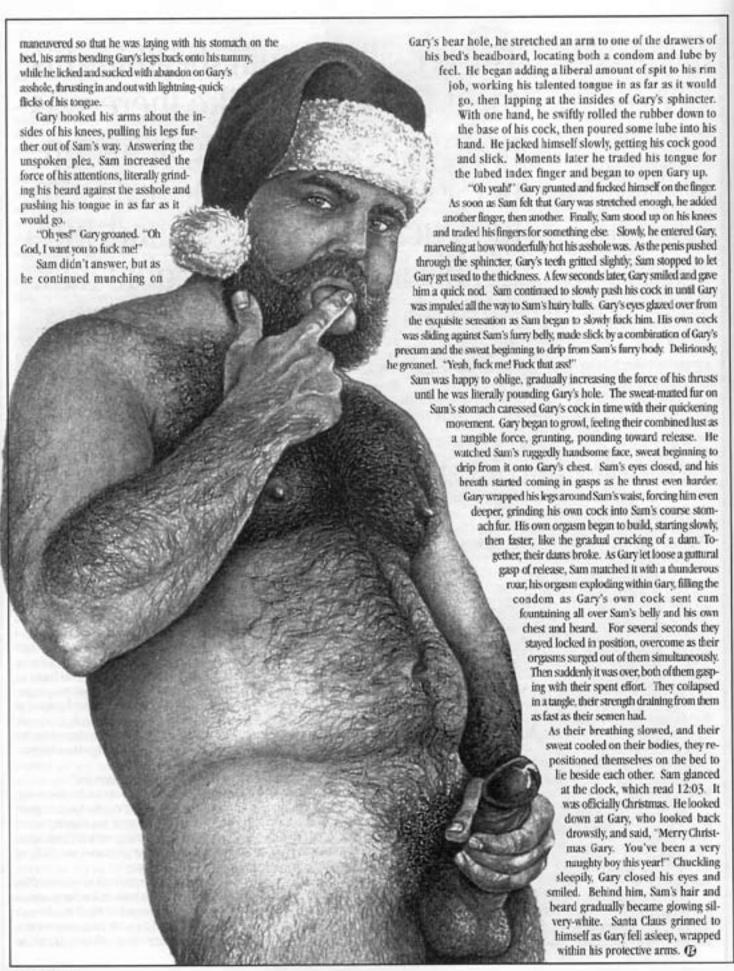

Sam's smile widened. "I think we can minuse both if the same time." Gary grinned happily and quickly repositioned himself with his mouth over Sam's gorgeous cock. Even in the dim light shining from the streetlamp outside, it was breathtaking. Gary felt Sam's hot mouth closing around the head of his dick as he lowered his own mouth down around Sam. In no time, they were face-facking each other in an enthusias ically messy sixty-nine.

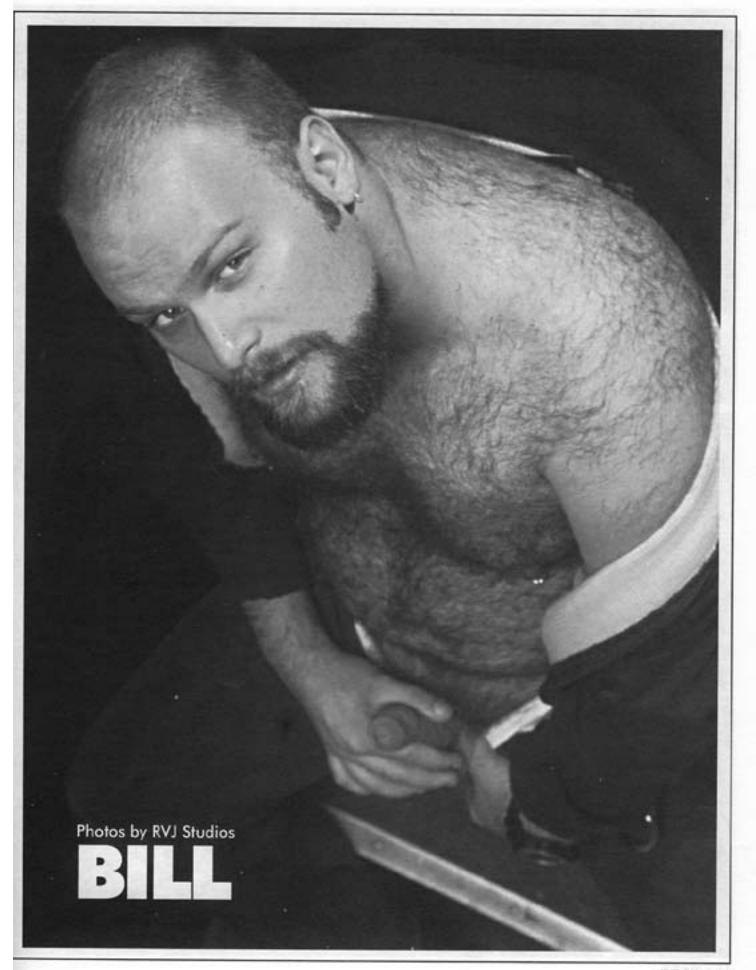

From the bottom of the pair, Sam was in ecstasy, slurping on Gary's meat for several minutes as it smoothly slid in and out of his throat. Timing it so that he caught Gary's cock coming out, he wet his finger on it and teased Gary's asshole again, getting it nice and moist before gently working his finger just inside the sphincter. Gary started gasping as Sam's finger went deeper. He began to pump faster into Sam's mouth; it was obvious he was getting closer to cumming. Sam slurped harder on Gary's thrusting manhood, beginning to get closer to the edge himself. Gary's thrusting abruptly stopped.

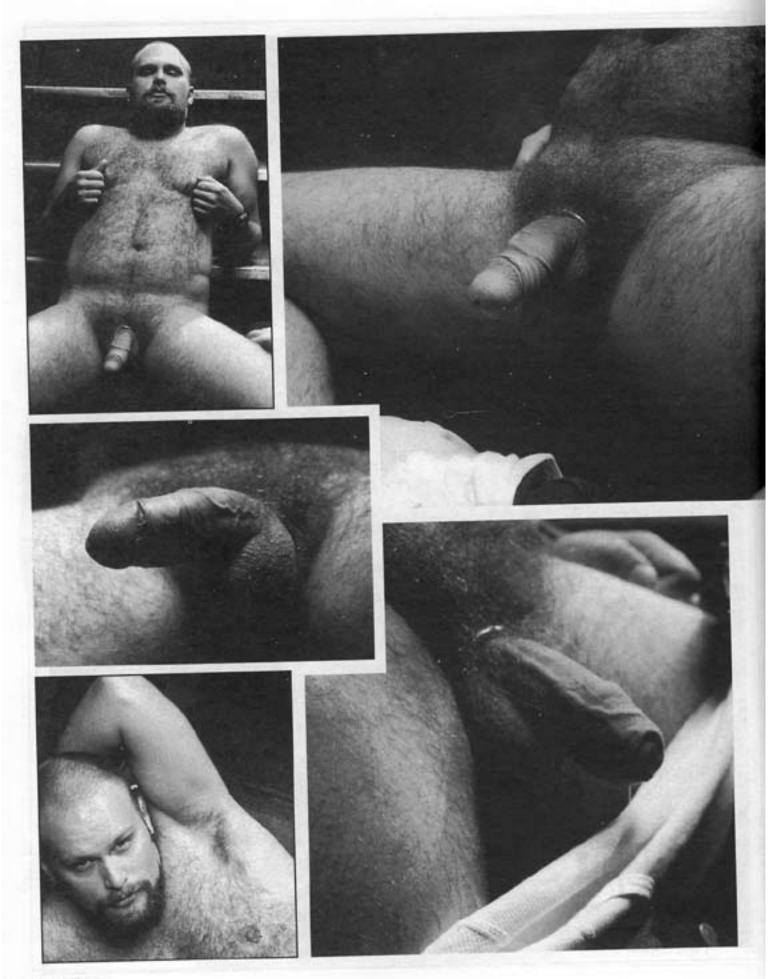

"Sorry," he gasped breathlessly. "I don't wanna cum yee"

Sam gently pushed Gary's waist until the cock wasn't in his mouth anymore. "Then let me work on something else!" Using his hands to guide Gary, he repositioned them; in moments his tongue was slarping on the outside of Gary's asshole. Gary shuddered, sucking on Sam's cock again, but losing his rhythm as Sam's wonderful tongue distracted him. Still, he had Sam right on the verge of shooting in minutes.

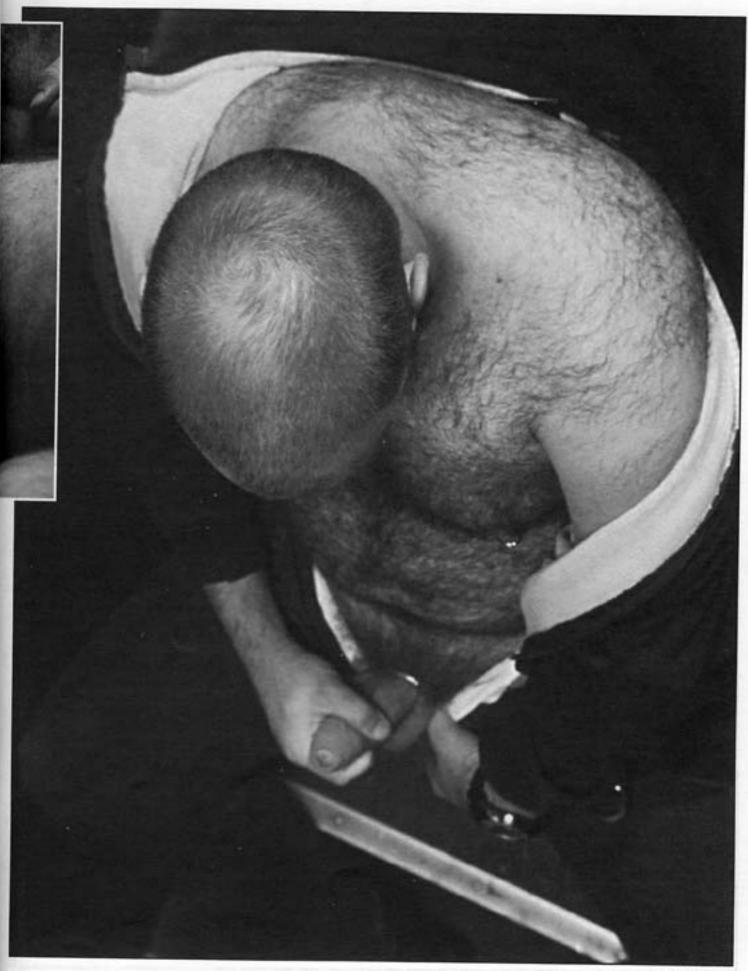

"Mramph! Better stop" Sam gasped from between Gary's but-cheeks. Obediently, Gary desisted, resting with his cheek against Sam's cock as Sam continued his rim Job. After another minute, Sam began to sweat from his effort as his neck muscles tired from the awayard position. Rocking a little bit to gain some momentum, be relled towards the right, reversing positions with Gary. Quickly, he Y'know how sometimes you see a real hot guy in a magazine, or on video, and something about them makes you think they're about eight feet tall— and then later on you find out that they're smaller than an oompa loompa, and your whole perspective changes? Well... have no fear, fellas. That's not gonna happen with our coverman, Blair.

We d'dn't exactly take a measuring tape to him, but, take my word for it... he's a big fella. And he's strong. And he gets hard at the drop of a dime... well, almost. Depends on who's bending over to pick it up, I guess.

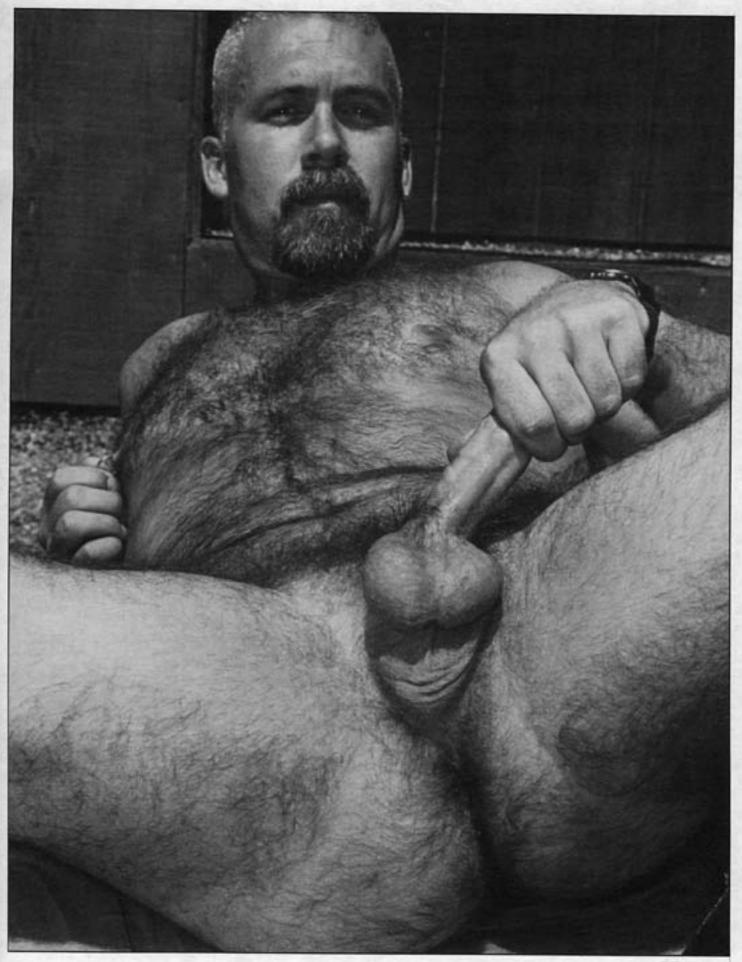

He lives in San Francisco. Don't know where he hangs out... you're going to have to find that out for yourself. Only, of course, if the idea of a big, rugged, salt & pepper haired, hairy-as-hell kinda guy turns you on.

Long ago, in a not-so-far away place. BEAR began, in the form of a nifty little black and white xeroxed 'zine. Brilliant, I can say that, because I had nothing to do with it. To the best of my knowledge, nobody pitched much of a fit that there was no color in the magazine, or even that you couldn't really see the men that well. For one thing, it was pretty much the only game in town. For another, the men were... well, dammit, they were real! In a pornographic world of chicks with dicks, here was a magazine that showed real hairy blue-collar types, Naked! Yeese-haw! Like finding water after weeks in the desert... so what if it tastes a little like carnel piss? Short of gnawin' the needles off a cactus and suckin' it dry, you really didn't have a choice, now, did you?

I wasn't reading BEAR back then. I hadn't really even discovered men, let alone sex. <insert laugh track here > Ah, hell - who am I kidding? I graduated from "Pig:101" with honors; manna cum loud. I didn't have access to BEAR, so I had to find my own live-action version

Nonetheless, BEAR started out as, and has remained, a black and white magazine. Then we had to go and get all fancy with that liftieth issue, and now pandora's box has been opened, and everybody wants color in BEAR-me included.

No longer, it seems, can we get away with "but the models actually look better in black and white," or "so as not to be confused with those glossy pretty-boy rags, we're black and white," or even "don't you know anything about art? The best photography is black and white."

COLORING BEAR

Yeah, I sow "Pleasantville." And, yeah... some people do look better in color. (For the record - the first time somebody calls in and says, "My new color BEAR just arrived, and when my lover took it into the john, the tree in my front yard burst into flames!" we're goin' right back to block & white, ok?)

The change won't happen overnight. Aesthetic issues aside, color printing costs a lot more than black and white. And the paper costs more, Some really hot guys have already been photographed in black and white, and I'm not about to call up Ted Turner to see if we can borrow his damned crayons. Besides. we'd never get the nipple colors right.

Basically, we're number crunching to figure out what it's gonna take to pay for this monumental move towards modernization

So, keep your pants on. Or better yet - take 'em off and send us a picture. While you're doing that. keep in mind that patience is a virtue. I want BEAR to be as colorful as you do, and we're working in that direction. I'll keep you posted.

As long as I have your attention, we're tabulating those stacks of surveys sent in by those of you who read BEAR 50. Thanks for your comments and (for the most part) constructive criticisms. We'll address those in an upcoming issue of BEAR.

Happy strokin'. (3)

RAM MY NUTS MAN!

FICTION BY RANDY ARCHIBALD

BRUSH CREEK MEDIA INC PHOTOS

Howdy, Fucker. So you saw my post on the Internet Fuck group? Whip out your dong. Already got myself a huge woody. Don't take me long to dial the fucking phone after I get an e-mail. Ready for some raunch? Let's trade e-mail dick pics and work up load of slime. I'm posting some fuck pictures right now. A batch I just made today.

I live alone. I'm buck-ass naked, hot and smelly, as usual. No shower for days. Dick's hard. Need ta' work, but too horny. I'm a consultant - make piles of money helping fuckers buy computer systems.

Need a computer. Come to papa. We talk about computers and work my balls. Or I work my dick up your ass, or tongue your bunghole and rasp your crack with my fucking beard. I know computers and assholes and dicks and tongues - software and hard. And balls.

Come on, dickhead, make them balls bounce. Wish you were here to work on mine while I beat my fuckstick. Whip it, man. Yeah, man, get ready to cum for Papa.

I work at home so's I can look at bear fuck pics on the net or watch raunch videos and flog my meat any time I want. Always bare-assed. Got phonefuck buddies I trade e-mail pics with all over the country - especially horny guys in isolated places like Montana or Wyoming - or Idaho like you - who can't find men to fuck in person.

My Dallas place ain't unusual. Second floor apartment. Sliding glass balcony doors face the street. Thousands like it in the city. Fucking yuppieland. But them yuppies is health nuts. Jog the streets half naked. Usually twinks, but a few real men. Got my computer at my side window so I see guys headed this way before they get next to my place. Then I scoot around and stand in my balcony window.

I give the joggers a show. Some like what they see, some don't. Some keep coming back and looking up. Some I never see again. Tough shit.

Yeah, Fucker. I'm forty-five, but in good shape. You can see that when my pics pop up on your screen. Fucking net's working slow today just when I need some raunch fast.

Work out with weights. Got piles of muscle on my furry sixtwo frame. Dick's pretty big, but it's my balls I like to show off. Balls hang so low fuckers can see 'em from the street.

Yeah, Fucker, I love my balls. They're big and floppy and hot, man. I bet when you get my post, you can tell why I love 'em so much.

Any fucker can work my jismboilers any way he wants. Kiss 'em gentle. Lick 'em, suck 'em. Or be rough. Crack them together. Yank 'em back and twist 'em so I get a sharp thrill up my gut. Slap them, tie them, stretch them, paddle them, hang weights from them. Do anything to make me feel them big floppers real intense. Give me a rush. Them Dallas Baptists talk about the "rapture", but they ain't got no fucking idea what it is. It's that jolt that goes from my fucking cumapples up into my gut, then back down and out to the head of my dick, that happens when some big fucker works my man eggs. Call my nuts what you want - ball, love apples, cum-makers, even the fancy word, testicles - I don't give a shit. Just don't ignore them.

I was born with a floppy ballsac, and it's gotten even longer from years of being pulled by weights and stretchers and trusses and ropes and other hairy fuckers hands. I ain't no wimpy cocksucker, but work my balls, and I'll do whatever you want.

Can't always just expose myself like I want. Some joggers don't wanna see me. I can tell. And I get deliveries. UPS. Gotta put something on cause I don't wanna shock them guys. So I keep a pair of gray work-out shorts ready by the door. Shorts are old and worn and don't really hide nothing. Dick and balls bulge through. And the fuckers do stare, but they can't see skin. I know at least one of them studs is interested. Someday I won't be able to resist, and I'll open the door and let my balls hang below the shorts - see what he does.

Wow, Fucker! I'm staring at your filthy fucking e-mail pics that just popped up on my screen. What a fat fucking dick. Wish you was here so I could stick my tongue under your dickskin and have a salami and cheese sandwich. Hot, man.

All day I stare out the window waiting for joggers. Usually the first time a fucker sees my dick and balls, he stares to make sure he ain't seeing things. If he runs by again, he either refuses to look or he's already looking up when he gets besides my balcony. A few guys run by regular and usually slow down-couple even rub their cocks. One hairy bearish guy always slows way down or even stops and sticks his hand inside his shorts. For him, I beat off, spread my asscheeks and show him how my ballsac swings. I think, if he's so fucking interested, why don't he come on up?

You got it up, Fucker? Gonna try showing yourself? Oh, your place is too far from the road. I forgot you're in Idaho. Sure, I'm still beating off. Stop just before you shoot, let it rest, then start over. Can keep it up for hours. Work a dildo up my ass, too. Shit, I'm hot. You too? If you was here, You could pull my nuts while we ride my double dildo together. Hot damn! You finally got my e-mail pics. See. I wasn't shittin' you about my fucking bull balls. Turn you on? Makes me hot knowing you're looking at 'em and working your dick.

So lemme tell you about it. This morning I'm working on a contract for a Montana rancher I met on a fuckgroup - traded raunchy e-mail pics and had phone JO. Found out he needed some software. I'm working out prices for him and a big guy jogs up the street wearing only green shorts. He jogs heavy. Too fucking hot to jog in Dallas. That's why I work out with weights inside. The guy ain't no twink. Dark hair on his chest/ Heavy muscled thighs and chest. Heavy muscled thighs and chest. Big fucking muscular arms. Beard and crewcut. Good looking, but no sweetie. Tough. My kind of fucker. Burly. Ain't never seen him before.

So I go around to the balcony. He turns and sees me. I grab my manglobes and yank to be sure he knows I'm here on purpose. He waves. A kinda half salute, half wave. Keeps running, though. I go back to my computer.

I try to work but now I'm horny as hell thinking about him. Log onto the Internet Sex group. Fuck pictures. Snap on a leather cockring and start working up a load of slime. Almost shoot. See the big hairy fucker pounding down the street again. I got a raging hardon, but sure as hell ain't gonna let him pass, no matter what the fuck he thinks. I scoot around to the window, boner and all. My monster eggs bounce pretty good, and precum drips down my leg.

The fucker slows down, stops, and crosses his hairy arms over his piles of hairy chest muscles. I spread my legs and rotate my butt so my balls swing. I can't tell if he's horny or pissed off. He don't give no sign. Just stares a minute or so, then jogs off. I got my dick in my hand, sorta worried. He might call the cops. I admit the danger's always a part of the turn-on. But it's stupid to stand there so long not knowing what he thinks.

What I do know is showing my balls to the big fucker's got me real hot. I pop a fuckfilm in the VCR and sit on the sofa right there and tug my balls out from my crotch and knock them against the frame of the sofa to get the rush up to my gut. I whip my dong up close to cumming.

Wouldn't you know what happens, Fucker?

I'm about to cum and there's a knock at the door UPS man, I figure. Why now? Can't hide my hard-on, but slip on the gray shorts as usual. At least he can't say I showed him no skin. Might be OK to open the door bare-assed like I was in the shower, but not like I'm in the middle of a good fistfuck. But can't do nothing about my woody except hope it goes down quick. So I open the door without looking through the peephole.

The burly guy in green shorts from the street walks in without a fucking word. I close the door and he grabs my shorts and yanks them down and steps between my legs and pushes my shorts to a pile on the floor. Don't say nothing, and his face ain't got no expression. I still can't tell if he's mad or horny. Seems like my dick should go down from surprise, but the leather ring and the turn-on of having this big fucker standing there with me bare-assed and rigid keeps it up. I feel my sac swing free.

He stares between my legs.

And I stare down. His green shorts got a huge tube bulge. No jockstrap, I look him over close. Big as I thought, Maybe an inch taller than me. Piles of muscles- sexy as hell. Thick brown hair on his chest. Full, trimmed brown beard and crewcut.

"Like to show off, huh dickhead?" He says.

"Yeah, I guess."

"Well, fucker, lemme see you work it close up," he says. I don't need no fucking engraved invitation. I take my dick in my hand and pound.

"Where's the big window, you fucking showoff?" He says. I go to the living room and he goes right over to the balcony doors. He motions to me.

Never had another guy with me in the window, and I get real nervous. I mean, standing there with my dick and balls swinging free so some fucker can see me is one thing, but putting on a fuckshow with another stud is another. I say, "Maybe we should be careful."

"You wanna put on a show, dickhead, we put on a show." Feels like I got no choice, so I go over beside him and wrap my hand around my dick to work it.

He don't say nothing. Puts his hands on my shoulders and shit, he's strong - pushes me to my knees. I usually ain't submissive unless a guy's got my nuts in traction, but I'm so hot I go down. I yank his green shorts down and push my face under his manglobes. They're big - not as big as mine - and not lowswingers, but they taste great. The piles of hair and rank jogging sweat make me wild. His manapples churn and pull up, and I tug them into my mouth with my lips. His fleshy uncut dick's beginning to get stiff. I grab it and work the thick skin back and forth over his wide knob with one hand and pull on my fuckpole with the other.

I lean back about a foot, ready to swallow his raging boner, but he pushes me away, slips his hand under my sweaty pits and pulls me up. "Hands behind your head," He orders. I ain't sure why I let him tell me what to do, but I raise my arms. He grabs my bullballs and starts pulling them in a steady beat, gentle at first, then harder, and out further each time he yanks. "Real proud of them friggin' nuts and floppy bag, ain't you?"

"Wouldn't you be?" I say, and quick he whacks me across the face with the back of his hand. I'm so stunned I can't say nothing, and I realize the sting zips right from my cheek, down my spine and out the end of my dick, and it bounces up harder and more excited than it already was.

"Don't be smart, dickhead."

"Sorry," I say, and almost add 'Sir', but it just ain't my style. Yet.

"Want 'em worked hard?" he says.

"Oh yeah." And this time, from somewhere in the back of my head, I add, "Yes Sir, please."

He reaches around behind me under my asscrack and between my legs and circles my ballbag with his huge fingers and slides his hand down the silky skin to my globes, then pulls hard. That ecstasy of pain/pleasure - that rapture of feeling a hot stud getting his nuts boiling by taking charge of mine shoots up my gut. My dick bounces up again, and I'm about to shoot. But he stops and shrugs towards the street, and there's a jogger. I panic, because we both have raging boners, and putting on a show is even more than I bargained for.

But then I relax, cause it's the guy who usually sticks his hands inside his shorts. He does. But there's a difference. He's wearing white lycra instead of baggy running shorts, and I can see his hardon sticking straight up under the stretchy cloth.

Then, Fucker, you know I do?

I gave the jogger a real show. Drop on my knees and take the big guy's fat uncut dick in my mouth. Being on my knees in front of this massive dick with the fucker watching from the street turns me on. Can't touch my dick or I'll shoot. I open my throat and the stud rams his fuckclub into me so I get a pile of his dick hair up my nose. I dribble spit on his balls, and I think I'm gonna cheke on his powerful manhood. I fist my own dick furiously, and he seems to know I'm about to cum and yanks his dick outta my mouth and reaches down and grabs one of my tits in each hand and pulls me up. This manhandling is making me hotter by the minute for some reason, and seeing the guy down on the street rubbing his dick inside his shorts just adds to the intensity. And my big guys says, "Don't believe in putting on a show with a fucker unless I know his name. I'm Rob."

"I'm Dave."

"Dave and Rob Fuck Show," He laughs and waves his half salute like the first time I saw him, and the guy in white shorts turns and jogs off. Rob pushes me onto the sofa, and I just sorta let him take charge. And he knows exactly what makes me hot.

The show's over, and it's just us now, and Rob changes - like he was playacting before, but now he's hot for real sex. He pushes me back and spreads my legs and kneels between them. He works my nuts in his hand and lifts them to his mouth and sucks both at once. Not many fuckers can do that. He pushes my knees up and over his shoulders and rams a finger up my bunghole and pulls my balls out farther with his mouth. Sharp pain/ pleasure shoots up clear to my chest, and I gasp for air. I push my ass up and spread my legs as wide as I can. I feel his piles of shoulder muscles under my knees moving as he works his own dick.

So he's got my balls hot and my puckerhole quivering, and my dick so hard it hurts, and I'm waiting for him to pull my ass far enough off the sofa to ram his fat dick up inside me.

Ain't that what you'd expect, Fucker? You still listening? Don't shoot. There's more. You know what he does, Fucker?

He pulls me up, and pops my balls outta his mouth and grabs them and crushes them til I let out this long sorta shreik from my throat, and when I do, he slaps my face with the back of his other hand, and says, "Take it, dickhead!" And by now you'd think I'd be used to the feeling, but I'm not, and I'm caught off guard by the way the sting in my cheek seems to zap my dickhead and make me quiver all over.

He yanks my balls hard, down to my asscrack. A dark, dull ache of pain/pleasure creeps up inside my groin, and I feel my bunghole open and realize one of my balls has slipped up my asshoic. My heart pounds and I wonder why no fucker ever did this before, and then he thrusts my other bullball inside. He works my nuts back and forth inside my shitchute with his wide fingers. With his other hand, he wrestles my hands under me so I can't do anything. And I let him for some reason. And he punches my nuts up inside me, and I get crazy cause I don't know if the pain is making the pleasure or the pleasure is making the pain, and I'm squirming, trying to force my nuts even farther up inside me cause I never felt anything like this before. With his other hand, he twists and pinches my tits one after the other, and I know for sure that's pain. But I can't get enough of it because it makes my whole body buzz with sexpleasure, and I want him to work over every inch of my big hairy body and no fucker ever made me want to submit like this before.

He's got one more idea. He lifts me up higher so just my shoulders are on the sofa. He gets up on his feet. He aims his fat dick at my asshole and I know what he's gonna do, and I brace my body and relax my asshole. I feel the head of his dick rubbing my straining ballsack. He rams. And I feel the pleasure of his fat dick sliding back and forth crushing my nuts inside my wide open bunghole. Every time he thrusts I get a rush of pain/pleasure, and every time he relaxes, I quiver all over, desperate for the next assault of ecstasy. I feel his abs piled between my legs, rubbing my dick. He raises me up more so he can thrust deeper inside me, and he balances us together by holding onto my tits. Each time he thrusts, his stomach rubs the back of my dick and his tool jabs my balls.

I yowl from ecstasy or pain - don't know which - he stops thrusting and says, "Can't you take it, dickhead?"

And I moan, "Yes Sir, Ram my nuts, man. Tear my asshole. Yes SIR!"

And he pulls out again and raises my butt up and takes his hand from my tits and whacks my butt. I clench my asscheeks from surprise and that squeezes his fat poker and my balls inside me, and I groan.

He says, 'Want more, asshole?" And I hear myself tell him yes and he whacks first one side of my ass then the other till I'm stinging and hot and my balls churn against his fat dick inside my asshole, and my own dick feels ready to explode without either of us even touching it.

Old Rob raises me way up, so just the huge head of his dick is inside me, pulling back on my bruised sphincter. My balls convulse, trying to pull past his cudgel, but he won't let them out. And he lunges down and I feel the swollen base of his dick seethe in the rhythm of his heartbeat at my pulsing and bruised assring. The muscles at the base of his asscrack tighten, and I feel his hot juice slather my hot nuts inside me, and the excess goo squishes outta my hole. I'm so hot I can't hold back any more, and I feel my slimy manjuice work its way past his half-hard schlong and propel itself out of the slit of my dick without me or him even touching my meat. The white mucous lands in his beard, and he bends down and presses the kinky hair to my lips and I slurp my own joy juice from his face.

He eases himself down between my legs. His half-hard dick and my balls are still up my ass, and his weight presses my legs apart and my balls farther up inside my hole, and I don't care because I drift off into semi-consciousness.

And you know what happens, Fucker? The usual.

There's another fucking knock at the door. And, before I can stop him, Rob yanks his floppy dick outta me, and without pulling on his green shorts or anything, runs to the door. And I think, Jesus, I hope it ain't one of the usual UPS guys, and I start to get worked up over it 'cause I don't want no trouble.

And Rob comes back in the living room and says, "Hey Dave, meet my cousin, Frank." It's the jogger with the raging woody piled up the front of his stretchy white shorts.

Old Rob says, "I been trying to tell Frank you stand in the window cause you wanna fuck, but he wouldn't believe me."

And, Fucker, you know what I do?

I crawl over to him and start my tongue working the boner piled up under his lycra. I pull his tight shorts down around his knees and lick up under his sweaty balls and run my tongue out to the curved-up mushroom at the end of his delicate white-skinned dick, and I say between slurps, "You ever fuck a guy's ass with his balls shoved inside?" Cause I'm gonna have to have my balls rammed up my ass with big dicks a whole lot from now on.

And Frank says, "Whaddya mean, cocksucker?"

And Rob says "I'll teach you, Frankie, my man." And he starts taking pictures with my QuickCam of Frank learning how to pull my nuts around to my asshole, and getting ready to fuck me hard.

Bears (and I guess all gays to some degree) are gifted when it comes to shopping. But how and where do we get our incredible shopping know-how? Is it passed down from our parents or is it merely genetic, like our gift for emulating Martha Stuart? Or is it simply a matter of "practice makes perfect?" It could be both, but it's never a had idea to employ the experience of a few trained professionals when searching for the best money can buy. Consumer Reports is a monthly publication with a yearly "Best Buys" volume that belongs in the library of every smart shopper.

Every month CR publishes great tips on finding the best and worst of what ever it is you're looking for. So far, during 1998 there have been some valuable investigations into products I feel are not only appropriate to the bear community, but to any active shopper who want the bucks they blow to last. From the bathroom to the playroom, I've found a few things that might make every den it's best.

Let's start in the bathroom. A good shower can make your day. Consumer Reports' February 1998 issue reported that the model SM-62-P shower head from Teledyne Water Pik, is the best on the market. It's 16 inch flexible neck with nearly 360-degree bending ability makes getting even the hard to reach nooks and crannies clean easier than ever. A 5-year warranty makes this $40 head a great way to start any day.

POKIN AROUND

A look at items that happen across our paths.

WITH LEIF

If you're doing an all out remodeling of your bathroom, consider when replacing the most important fixture in the room, the toilet, the Gerber Ultra Flush. Rated a May 1998 Consumer Reports "Best Buy" with great flow and removal, the only high marks it didn't receive were for noise. So you have to flush it with the door shut... wouldn't you, anyway? Reasonably priced at $270, it's the best throne money can buy.

Now when it comes to cleaning house (for those of us who can't afford house keepers), there are two things every bear household needs: a reliable vacuum and an economical paper towel. Let's face it - fur flies. And if your grizzly (or the family dog) has a habit of shameless shedding, you need something with suction to keep your den delightfully tidy. Although most Hoover models are great for what you pay, overpriced Electrolux brand vacuums beat all others-brushes down-for performance and noise. If the playroom needs a good cleaning after a hard night's play, Sears Shop Vac 8040 is rated as an excellent performer.

If it wasn't a piss party you held, however, perhaps all you need are some paper towels. The best pick up for the buck, according to February 1998 Consumer Reports, is the Kleenex Viva. Of course you can shop around, but at an average of 1.6 cents per sheet, they absorb better that most higher priced bands and make it worth forking out a little more than for generic varieties.

So you've redone the bathroom and cleaned the house. What would be better, besides a good blow job, than to relax in a new recliner? At an average price of $350-$500, La-z-Boy leads the way with it's Grand Canyon and Cardinal models. Although the February 1998 Consumer Reports voted the Grand Canyon the most durable recliner, with a lifetime warranty on it's frame, they described it as too small for the big-boned amongst us. Although it doesn't carry the same warranty, the Cardinal has the room full-figured guys need. You can decide at a La-z-Boy- showroom near you.

There you have it. A few good buys and recommendations coming from the voice of the educated shopper, Consumer Reports, But don't just take their word, or mine, for what's best for you? Shop around, if not on foot, than on the web. All the products discussed here can be found on each company's web site by putting your search engine to work. You can also go right to the source without subscribing, although it would be nice to support their magazine, by logging on to www.consumerreports.com.

Voice mail bas number. To respond to a voice mail bas number, see details under "Voice Mail Explained." If the ad says "No voice mail," it's a good bet the fella wan't be checkin' his phase messages. Respond via written letter, or e-mail, it it's listed.

BEAR Box Number. To respond to an ad with a BEAR Box number, seal your letter in an envelope. On this envelope, put the fella's bex number in penal where the stamp normally goes. Send this with $1 in a larger envelope to us. Common Courtesy, Part II. Respond only to the ads looking for your type, and don't be pellin' the old form letter routine. If you don't fit the specifications listed in the ad, don't come bitchin' to us if you don't get a response.

Prisces. Not a great place to send money, or pictures of your heiry ass. By all means, correspond and make friends. But know the potential for trouble to you as well as the guy on the inside.

VOICE MAIL EXPLAINED

Our REAR voice meil system is designed to give you extess to new friends, true love, or just a good fack. It works. Record your own personal greeting, answer someone else's ad, or pick up your messages.

If you have an ad in EEAR: When dialing in for the first time, you must already have your pass code from us. We will mail you this code before the issue of EEAR in which your ad first appears hits the stands. Write us here at the shop if you don't receive your code for some reason.

To record an outgoing message to correspond to your ad in BEAR, or to collect your messages: Once at the voice mail main menu, immediately hit the "star" or """ key. The system will tell you that you are picking up your mail and ask you to enter your four-digit mailbax number. Don't let this confuse you. Nost of our mailbax numbers are five digits in length and, yeah, the recording's all backed up. Go ahead and check for your mail. The system will then give you four options. Choose option #3 to record as autgoing announcement to match your ad. This way, guys will be able to hear the voice that's attached to your hot ad. Messages will stay in the system for two weeks.

Remember, if you are advertising in BEAR, you automatically have a BEAR voice mail box. However, our 900 system allows you to set up additional bases if you went to. This can be done by choosing command #3 from the main menu, which is different from option #3 which appears at the message retrieval area.

Still have questions about BEAR voice mail? Call 1-800-234-3877 and ask to speak to our answer guy, Mike Eades (his extension is 123). He's usually here until 4:00pm, Pacific time.

To charge the call to your home phone, dial 1-900-HOT-BEAR

Cost for both lines is 5.198 a minute.

Credit card holders call 1-800-347-BEAR
