Naked Men

Keith: Photos by Old Reliable 7

You've heard me talk about Keith in BEAR's review of OR's Hairy Men. Now we've got snaps of him decorating our letters' page.

Gray Grizzly: Photos by Brahma Studio 11

Here he is, boys. BEAR 8's coverman's partner in personal massage. Along with his story.

NOTE FROM A DOWNED BRO

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you for your note of July 5. Yes, I was able to receive my copy of BEAR. We have a pretty relaxed mail officer here as well as a pretty relaxed environment. So no trouble in getting the sample copy.

I found your magazine to be very exciting & most interesting. I obviously have a keen interest in hairy larger men as I am somewhat same in physical appearance.

Again, thank you very much for your concern & interest. Best wishes.

Andrew Komensky

PO Box 3100

Goodyear, AZ 85338

Glad you liked the magazine. I'm gonna put your name and address right here in the mag in hopes that some of your fellow appreciators might have a moment or two to drop you a line.

MY PAL IN PUERTO RICO WRITES AGAIN

Remember low life me? (Ed. note: I do.) Right now I'm sending money for a sample copy of BEAR Magazine. If I like it, I'll subscribe and send a filthy ad. OK?

If we ever meet someday, do me a favor. Don't take a bath so I can sniff you all over. And hey, how about sending me an audio tape where you humiliate me and spit on me and call me the low pig names I deserve?

I haven't had sex for 5 years now and I yearn to smell a guy's asshole. That's safe sex, isn't it? (Ed. note: It is.)

Well, take care and send me that BEAR Magazine with your hot, filthy autograph.

With my signature, I certify that I am 34 years old. Spit on me man!

RM

San Juan, P.R.

WANNA GET IN TOUCH WITH ONE OF THE GUYS?

Thanks so much for replying to my letter. I completely understand your inability to provide me with model's addresses. I am grateful for your reply as I have written about other models to other sources and never received an answer.

Please find enclosed a sealed envelope, pre-stamped, so that you may forward it to the model. I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope for his convenience in hopes that it will increase my chances of him answering my letter.

Once again, thanks for answering my initial response. It was unexpected and appreciated.

TT

San Diego, CA

There it is fellas. I dare say all the men appearing in BEAR welcome your correspondence. I can't guarantee their response to your notes but I will do my damndest to get your correspondence aimed in their direction. But please, make it easy on us. Same is true with correspondence to us. If your question is general, include a self-addressed stamped envelope. It saves us the two bits or so necessary to answer your question and also makes us feel guilty if we don't respond quickly.

DOWN UNDER GETS DOWN

A big hello from down here, in good ol' Sydney town. I've been hearing quite a lot about your magazine and finally got my sticky hands on a copy last night.

Richard (BEAR 7) was hot. It seems he was here in Sydney last year, staying with some friends of mine.

First of all, I would like to know whether you do international subscriptions and what the cost for the year, U.S. I'll get the cash converted. Would you prefer an international money order?

Also, if someone smart enough sent you a series of photos to be classed as "Aussie Bears," would you be interested in printing them in an issue forthcoming? As we have quite a few hot bears in Oz. A couple of guys have suggested a Bear and Cub Series which would also be a real hot pictorial.

Unfortunately bears in Sydney have to go through the rigours of having to go out and stalk the other bears as we have no contact system here.

I work in a gay steamhouse on Oxford Street, that's our gay mile. I can assure you out of the 250 guys we get a day, maybe 4 of them will be bears. The rest, well, they are those thin effeminate numbers that proliferate most gay communities. Shame about that.

Anyway I won't go and bore y'all but if I can have some response to the first two questions I'd really appreciate it.

John

Sydney, Australia

Richard from England does get around! British employers seem to be much more civilized when it comes to offering vacation time to their staff. He gets close to two months off a year and spends this time travelling.

International subscriptions are $48 for 6 issues (air); a Bear Buddy from outside of North America lays out $100 for 12 issues for BEAR to arrive Air (versus surface). We tend to favor US cash or Credit Cards (we take VISA and Mastercard) more than anything else for out of the country purchases. However we will accept drafts written on US banks in US currency. Don't send me your dollars and cents! Granted it's much prettier than our green backs, but our bank's processing charge is too high for this to be viable.

I'd love to have an Aussie Bear's spread in BEAR. Send the photos and releases on in.

BEAR ≠ DRUMMER

Thanks for existing! It is nice to know that other guys get off on men with beards and hairy chests. I am so tired of smooth 20 year olds. Give me a hirsute man over 35 any day.

The story of Justin in issue #7 has had me hot for weeks. I'd crash my plane to meet him-tell me where!

One suggestion for future issues. Please don't slip into being another Drummer. I like real men with fur all over, but please no ropes, masks, gags, etc. In Nolan's spread, the best picture was on page 26, where he is taking his shirt off over his head. Next time replace the pictures on pages 28 and 29 with pictures of him in flannel and work boots.

I also would like to praise you for your open communication with your readership, "A Few Words...". It's nice to know what's going through your head. Keep up the good work.

RD

You like my guys, huh? Nolan is a hot one. During the shoot we had a grand old time and started experimenting: wouldn't it be fun to try this? and what about that? Before you know it, we had the poor fella gagged, tied up and blindfolded. With a hard-on too! We'll gladly show off a guy in his leathers. And at times (and if it's his thing) we'll throw in a little kink. But mainly what you'll see in BEAR are good ol' boys just showing off their peckers, etc. Drummer's roots and perspective are quite different than ours. We're trying to present a range of man-to-man sexual expression based on All-American lust. In BEAR you're bound to see some things which might not sit right with you 100%.

Overall Comments on BEAR. I like the basic, honest, "down-to-earth" approach that you have. It's unique and very refreshing.

I also like the articles, such as those on wrestling and on the state of Gay men's porn, the news articles, the illustrations (more on those later), the ads, the pictures that go with the ads, in short, just about everything. Keep up the good work.

OK, now for some beefs: BEAR's identity. It seems to me that sometimes BEAR is torn between being a magazine for hairy men, and a Drummer with hair. I, for one, do not like Drummer. Oh sure, it does have that great artwork by Bill Ward. But, the "friction fiction" is far too extreme for my tastes.

Which brings me to my second point: BEAR's "Friction Fiction." Let's see, in the last 3 issues you published a story about a lion-tamer that beats the crap out of someone before fucking the shit out of them, then giving them a piss enema; a story about incest with one's father; and a story about a biker's orgy group involving more water sports. Maybe my tastes a bit "pedestrian", but I think I'd rather just nuzzle, lick and bite gently a fellow bear, than to beat the crap out of someone (or get the crap beat out of me), fuck my father (or vice-versa) and get pee'd in or on by a biker, regardless of how hunky they are.

I've always thought that if I wanted to read stories like that, I could always go get a Drummer. Can't we have some "friction fiction" without all the raunch and kink?

Illustrations. I like the illustrations, and especially like the cartoons by H.C. Tuttle. I was also happy to see that Bill Ward has graced your magazine with his artwork, too. I hope that the addition of Bill Ward is only meant to enhance BEAR, and not make it into a Drummer clone.

Well, I think that'll about do it for awhile. Take care. HW

Prospect Heights, IL

Well, this is the second letter that I'm printing in this issue related to BEAR and Drummer.

We do have some nasty fiction, huh? I never looked at just the sex acts depicted in the stories grouped together in one lump sentence like that before, but it certainly makes BEAR sound perverted. Mr HW, I do have raunchy leanings when it comes to a one-handed read. And Jay Schaffer and Furr are quite the nasty tale weavers. I try to put some basic fuck and suck items here too, but to tell you the truth, I don't get many quality contributions that don't venture somewhat into filth and mire. I'm open to publishing "hug stuff," but I can't bring myself to put in a hairy Harlequin romance. It's got to tickle my brain or my dick--preferably both--for me to consider it worth sharing with you guys.

And as for the hairy Drummer analogy, well I'm not even sure if BEAR is a mag for hairy men. Definitely hairy bodies and furry faces make up BEAR, as does a little bit of cowhide, a cigar or two, and other icons of male sexuality. But leather and S&M lifestyles just ain't what we're talking about. It's something different and if you like BEAR for the most part, than that's the something different we're trying to address.

CONTRIBUTORS THIS ISSUE

Steve Dambach is the longhair publisher of NEWSEX magazine. His writing has appeared in the gay press from Honcho to The Advocate and he is very happy to be contributing to BEAR. He can be reached at NEWSEX, 2215R Market Street, Box 505, San Francisco, CA 94114.

W.J. Singleton. Writer. Biker. One heck of a nice guy. Frisch is a good ol' ba'ar who draws like the dickens. Currently living in St. Paul, Minnesota, he plans on moving to San Francisco in 1990. His cartoons regularly appear in the Twin Cities Gaze and the B.A.R.

Tom Carr is the T.C. behind T.C.'s Smudge. His drawings have appeared in Outlaw Biker, Drummer, Inches, *T*R*A*S*H*, Uncut, Skins, Hombres, and who knows where else. He's a scooter tramp who just moved to a piece of land he and his old man bought in the Sierras.

Old Reliable shoots 'em as he sees 'em, and he tends to see hustlers, drifters and other male sorts passing through Los Angeles.

Ed Bishop is a writer, hacker, world traveller, and video professional living in New England. He's rumored to have one of the prettiest dicks east of the Mississippi.

HC Tuttle is a cartoonist living in Seattle, WA. Her drawings have appeared in local and national gay, lesbian, science fiction and general cartooning publications.

Congo Moore works in Operations and Marketing at BEAR. When I found out he had a degree in English, I put him to work writing too. Seen nude in BEAR 7.

Altomar Studio produces all male videos. They can be reached at 7985 Santa Monica Blvd. #109/255, W. Hollywood, CA 90046.

Duke Springfield ain't a bad photographer! He went on the road and came back with the fine shots of Denver men contained in this issue.

Furr has been a subscriber and contributor to BEAR almost since Day One. He writes nasty fiction, loves raunchy sex, and poses naked for cameras when he gets the chance (see BEAR 8). Recently caught going at it with this issue's coverman.

Bill Ward has been the featured cartoonist/illustrator in Drummer for years. He lives in England and I'm real proud to have him in BEAR.

Bill Bacon came to work at BEAR recently. He's helping with a lot of the editorial and promises to drop his drawers soon for the camera.

WE ADMIT TO A FUCK UP

Hi! Just writing to let you know I'm enjoying the current issue. I've got only one complaint: my ad on page 42 under the middle photo. All the people answering my ad think that it's me. Is there a way of letting readers know the photos on ads are after the ad? Thanks, and by all means I'm not upset! Keep up the great work!

HAIR!

Give me men with hair (lots of hair!), and I am one happy and horny cub. My biggest turn-on: big, horny, hairy leather bears who are into having their big, hungry tits licked, and sucked, and chomped on, and damped!

And I love to have Daddy Bears do the same to me!

WT

Denver, Colorado

For some reason I had been thinking of BEAR over the 4th, wondering if and when the next issue was due. Lo and behold, a brown envelope arrived in the mail today. I didn't at first recognize the return address, so I packed it with everything else and cycled (motor) around the city all morning. When I opened it, this plaid shirt hit me in the face - the man wearing the shirt could have to....

Dare I say, it's the best issue yet - though I miss the old format. It was easier to carry around, and even read at work ...and I work for the Postal service!

RE: ad for Bear T-Shirts. I've already got mine, but if Jim honestly needs help getting off the pot then I'll more than willingly oblige to alleviate any problems which might arise/ have arisen/ will arise.

Whatever - whenever.

The entire issue is great.
RE: paid ads. There's a company in Florida which advertises in The Advocate every so often for supposedly GREAT videos. Problem is they do a good job of making to the bank with your check. Videos...oh well. It's in the mail...We've been waiting a full year now for ours to arrive!

RE: Mercury Mail Order catalogue. Well worth the effort of sending for.

Last, but definitely not least. We've the same problem in Boston area as your letter writer from Buffalo (BEAR 8). Where are the bears, daddy bears, brown bears, polar bears, grizzlies, etc.??? They're rarely ever sighted. And when so, usually with a cub. They're not in the bars. Every so often on the commuter trains, and in the financial district. Do they hibernate otherwise?

GM

Boston, MA

I'm getting used to the new format. However I look at our pile of back issues and think, "Wouldn't it be nice to be hand-sized again." I like the old digest size and I think what I'm going to do is start publishing books that are that size—that at one time was my intention for BEAR. To make it small and thick. Anyone with a manuscript out there?

Too bad about your problem with the video company. Write in and tell me their name and I'll warn your fellow readers.

Do you mean to tell me there are no Boston bruins? Bars might not be the best place to find them; informal networking seems to work best. It seems to me there should be chapters of BEAR Buddies at the local level. I can't commit myself to anything right at the moment, but let me look into this.

It's good to know that I don't need to be chained, bound, gagged and whipped to be considered a real man. All I need is a man that smells (strong), tastes (salty), and casts a tall huge shadow.

PM

I couldn't have said it better.

BEAR #7 is so fucking hot I can't put it down! Your cover man Jay is one hot fucking stud! I can't get him off my mind. I would love to do everything he wants done in his letter and more! I want to rim his nice sweaty, smelly asshole, suck his big juicy cock, drink his wonderful piss, eat his sweet tasting cum, lick his sweaty armpits, let him fuck my nice tight asshole, let him piss all over me, shoot his big wad in my face, fist my asshole (never been fisted, want it real bad!), and much, much more.

I've jacked off so many times to his hot photos that I've lost count.

The picture on the back gets me the hottest! What is he shoving up his asshole? A dildo, finger, butt plug, or what? I would love to do it for him.

Anyway, I just want to tell you how much I love your magazine. It's the hottest! None of the others can compare. It's about time that a magazine of real men comes along.

Keep up the good work!

I can hardly wait to receive the next issue of your very hot magazine. These pages of #7 are getting worn out, as well as my big dick!

Well, I don't know about you, but I'm going to take another look at Bear #7, and shoot one big load!

JB
Salt Lake City, UT

Well aren't you a nasty little fucker! Your letter made my day. And seeing it published will probably make Jay's day too. Mr. Shaffer happens to be unloading a stainless steel ball from his asshole. He came to the shoot with it lodged in there. The back photo is actually a production still taken from Big, Bad Bears. I do agree that it's one of the more erotic—filthiest is a better word—photos appearing in the rag. And you can't even see a sex organ! Thank Jay and Chris from Brahma.

slowing thumbing through it I was so excited that I finally found a magazine that caters to my tastes! It was better than I expected.

And I loved some of the photo sessions. I hope you can get more big, hairy guys like Richard and Congo to pose for your magazine. The fiction was HOT, especially the description of the Daddy in "Family Man." Bear Meat and Bears In Heat are sure to get additional glances and readings from me.

I congratulate you on this magazine and support you in making it the best there is. A new subscriber and friend.

A SOUTHERN BEAR LOVER'S LAMENT

Finally I found a publication that showcases the kind of men worthy of drooling over. Was kind of disappointed to discover only three classifieds under Florida. As anyone who's visited south Florida knows, there's a short supply of big men and bears in the area.

After reading your expose on Alaska and Seattle, I'm tempted to move north. But if any bears decide to fly south for the winter (or spring, summer or fall!), I'll be waiting.

And thanks for giving this semi-hairy bear something to look forward to!

A FELLOW FACTSHEET 5 FREAK SENDS ME SNIPPETS

Saw your ad for your most welcome bimonthly in the mercurially blessed Mike Gunderloy's Factsheet 5 #30. Enclosed, in mini-zip-loc bag, is my "age statement"; a snip of my chest fur. What's that? I could be doing steroids, be underage, and still 'sprout' like that? Yeah, I guess so. Well, relax, I'll be one score plus twelve in just weeks. Wanna party? Enclosed, find five smackers (cash) for BEAR issue #7, the anticipation for which already has me at half-mast, and I've never even seen an issue, yet! But if Mike said it's a "winner," ya know that it's gotta be hot!

I haven't heard from you since you ordered your sample, but I hope you're enjoying BEAR as much as you anticipated.

My feelings for Factsheet Five parallel yours. Men. Here this. There is absolutely no better bathroom reading than FF(I know I shouldn't use these initials here 'cause you guys are going to think it means something else. But that's what Mr Gunderloy abbreviates his zine as.) It's a compilation of reviews of thousands of small magazines produced by all sorts of folks around the world. A true pleasure to poke through. Here's ordering info. For a first class sample send $2.75 to Factsheet Five, 6 Arizona Avenue, Rensselaer, NY 12114-4502. A six issue sub is $11.

I love hearing from you guys. Drop me a note when you've got a question, comment, gripe, observation, etc. Keep BEAR real! Mail to BEAR, 2215R Market #148, San Francisco, CA 94114.

GRUNTS FROM THE GRAY GRIZZLY

GRUNTS FROM THE GRAY GRIZZLY

He likes horses and Harleys, swimming and sunning, and theater .

He loves getting a clunker of a house and turning it into something special.

He likes growlin' and prowlin' as much as the next guy. But, when he finds something good, he sticks to it like honey.

He loves puns, likes to laugh. If he likes you, you feel it.

A natural man, with a laid-back attitude. He feels it's not necessary to push his macho. It speaks for itself. This bear feels leather is not a trapping; it's an extension of his personality. The smell, feel, look, heighten the experience. He loves leather but feels just at home in levis or a St. Laurent suit.

Versatility is his by-word. This bull-headed bear is just as comfortable in his Vette or on a Harley. Versatile, independent..

Currently, one of the many things he's doing is massage. Why massage? He's self-employed, his own boss, his time's his own and it allows him more time to devote to an autobiographical novel he's writing.

Gray Grizzly enjoys mail and will reply.

OLD RELIABLE PRESENTS

UNCUT No. 5

VT-80

Just as two cocks, like snowflakes, are never alike, there seems to be no rhyme or reason to who is and who is not circumcized. We're lucky to be able to present six new uncut models, each as unique (if not as pure, perhaps), as the proverbial snowflake. Leading the pack is Steve Sleane, an Indian-Cajun from Louisiana, with enough cock for two people at once (if they're lucky!). This 24 year old blond, rides horses (no puns, please!), and is adult enough to mention JFK as a hero, unlike the more familiar answers to that question: Charles Bronson, Clint Eastwood or Bruce Lee! Steve is in photosets 80-A, B, and C which features the foreskin more prominently. Ray Romero has barely enough skin to grab on to, but his tattooed hide shows evidence of a contemplative period in his life, and he admits to being a jack of all trades, master of none. He's Spanish-German, and admires Nixon, among others! Ray is in photoset 80-D, which is a little dark. Next on center-stage is Eddie Perez, a 22 year old Latino bombshell, and although only 5'3" and 120#, tough enough to out-wrestle guys much bigger. I wish Jose were still around to match with him! Eddie is in photosets 80-E, F, and G which features more foreskin. He is also in a WOW! of an audio, C-80-1, which will have you wiping cum off your brow, plus an explosive duo audio, C-80-2. Rick is 27 and 6'2" at 180#, but definitely a lover, not a fighter! He struts his fat cloaked cock in photosets 80-H and I. Thomas Pinkard is of Italian-Indian heritage, and an ex-jockey, but now at 29 he drives a truck, and at 5'4 1/2" and 131# has outgrown his jockey days. Tom is a hairy beast with a man-size uncut cock that gets a good airing in photosets 80-J and K. My personal favorite in this group is Rebel, a 29 year old ex-con from Florida, German-Irish, 6'1" and 190# pounds of prime stud. His appearance is perfect symmetry, his touch therapeutic, his manner an unforeseen delight! Rebel is too hot to touch, and you'll see it all in super pix, 80-L, M, and N with the cigar and foreskin. He also made a solo audio, C-80-3 which will transport you through that concrete jungle he knew so long and well, and he's definitely top, but you won't mind, just as his partner in cassette C-80-4, Rebel Duo, didn't mind being subjected to licking all that hair and foreskin, as a small enough pleasure to be rewarded with much more. ## TRUCK

Fiction By Ed Bishop

He got on the train at Embarcadero. I was headed over to the other side of the Bay to get together with some friends for the weekend. I was thinking about the fun we'd have camping when he caught my eye.

He was dressed in a blue business suit. He sat at the opposite end of the car, facing my way. I watched as he pulled a copy of Barron's from his briefcase. I took the chance to look him over.

He was about 6'4". He had thinning brown hair, cut short and a beautiful full beard with a few streaks of gray. His shoulders were broad, but his suit masked all the other details. As we passed through the Transbay Tunnel I noticed he was looking out the window. There's nothing to see, I thought. Maybe he's uneasy about being 125 feet below all that water. Suddenly I realized he was looking at my reflection in the window. Embarrassed that I was staring at him, I looked away.

As we came out of the tunnel I noticed that he had gone back to his reading. One more tunnel through the Guadalupe Ridge and we would be at my station. I was surprised to find that it was his too.

As the train pulled into the Orinda station, I watched as he folded his paper and moved to the door. I waited, then moved to the door at the other end of the car. He stepped out quickly and headed towards the escalator, never looking back. I kept my distance.

When I reached the lobby level, I could see him walking outside across a small pedestrian bridge to-

Trucker Truths

Travelog by W.J. SINGLETON

Sunrise. On Highway 395 a lone 18-wheeler on a northbound gamble rumbles up and over the Badlands Highway. Gold nugget sunlight ripples on the diesel's tall exhaust stacks. Oil smokes spirals up the summit. Ten tons plus payload lurches up a wishbone turn.

Suddenly, the full weight backslides. The trailer and rear wheels shimmy down the road's shoulder. Tires grapple for traction. Loose gravel cascades off a ravine.

Long hours, stress, body aches, no rest, and a piss-poor paycheck is what trucking is all about: real truckers. Not the self-made scoundrel of the American myth; the icon standing shoulder-to-shoulder with the swaggering cowboys and the filthy-talking outlaw biker.

Real truckers. The ones whose stalled trucks stop the morning commute. The ones that block both lanes turning corners. Real truckers. All part-time toil and full-time work.

A good tractor cost 100,000 dollars or more. With $2000 due each month and the cost of fuel, tires, tolls, lost time and the expenses of motels, taxes, and overhauls, a trucker is damn lucky to pocket 15 grand at year's end.

The truck descends the mountain, the mighty horn reverberating between canyon walls. Jack rabbits, frightened by the trumpeting, scamper across the sage. Again the horn blows, a long demanding bellow. Up in the cab the trucker flips an angry finger at the slow poke four-wheeler directly ahead. The steep grade quadruples the trucks momentum. Gravity versus Brakes.

The rushing truck rides the car's butt. The radiator becomes monolithic in the auto's rear view mirror. The trucker punches it. Full throttle, the boxcar's tonnage catapults in front of the subcompact. The car eats shockwave dust. Eighteen humongous tires gallop across the the divider, mud flaps sway, the cargo bed's creaking mixes with the motors moan. The truck descends unobstructed onto the plain. The northbound highway unwinds like black string tied to the white horizon.

Mid morning. Under silver air in a high desert township, the hot aluminum trailer shutters to a halt. Stateline and weigh station. Time for inspection. Dozens of trucks wait in lines, as disorderly and confused as the rules they're governed by. A tangle of licensing fees, fuel permits, axle taxes. Rules restricting their hours behind the wheel. The driver curses the ruckus.

The laws change from state to state. A truck may be legal on the federal interstate, say, at 60 feet and four tons, but as he moves onto a state highway, he may be fined as a tad too long and a bit too heavy. Cursing does no good.

The trucker jumps from the cab. Deregulation drove up the cost of shipping, gave the big-wig companies great profits, and left the little independent trucker with a shrunken paycheck. Too much competition and too few loads. Many had to scrounge around for cargo, or end up bobtailing (just a tractor), or deadheading (empty trailer) all the way home.

Standing in the shadow side of the cab, he jots down all the facts in his logbook. Between a rock and a hard place, in a no win situation, the trucker walks to the inspection station to wait, and wait, and....

As our trucker fights coins stolen by a soda machine, his partner creeps out of the sleeping-compartment sling behind the cab. Just a box with a bunk, not elaborate or fitted with a stereo, stove or refrigerator like some other truckers. They make due with extra blankets, an ice chest and the satisfaction of saving money by avoiding motels.

Too bad. The ice box is empty. Only warm water greets his hand. Not even warm beer to cut the taste of sleep from his mouth.

An hour later. Cargo inspected, weighed and refueled. Icebox restocked and tapes rewound. A freshened man settles in at the helm. He's comfortable. His seat is fitted with hose lines to the air brakes. Riding on an air cushion. No cracked bones when 100,000 pounds hit a pothole.

Fancier gadgets surround him. Enough levers, buttons, and dials to make the truck look like a pilot's simulator. There the speedometer, odometer, tachometer. A pyrometer to check the exhaust at manifold. An ap gauge monitors the air brakes. Displays for fluids and temperature, and displays of displays. Safety demands he double-check each one.

The on ramp is empty. Good rear view. With his push-button hand-levered gearshift and thirteen forward speeds, his eyes open telemetrically for traffic. He works that hand grip. Makes the transmission jitterbug through many gear combinations. His eyes dart up ahead--to the dials, to the traffic, to the mirror-view of the trailer stretching out behind.

North. To unload, relax, rejoice with all receipts signed. The road's bend releases them. The first driver yawns. The truck, unleashed on uneventful miles, passes an exit for a ghost town as a blur.

A malfunction is feared more than the wrath of god. Virtually oath bound, the trucker holds all responsibility for the safe delivery of his cargo. If a refrigerator box becomes too toasty, if a blowout causes delay--for any reason at all--a dissatisfied customer can reject the load.

He remembers a couple of years back; around midnight in the middle of some beautiful, isolated waters nowhere, the diesel shuddered and died. He nursed the rig's reefer trying to keep the meat cold. Got towed to Shasta with a can of Coke, cookies and a cracked crankshaft. $750 for the tow. $4500 for repairs. He remembers finally opening up the trailer, claiming ownership to 48,000 pounds of hot, stinking pork.

Late afternoon. The two truckers' bellies growl louder than an overheated engine. They pull into a truckstop tucked under the butt of the Sierra's. They stretch their legs in the functional day-and-night diner. Across the gravel lot, fuel pumps, water, air and pay toilet. More than a roadside rest area, less than Wyomings, Little America, or Sapp Brother's Village Oasis outside of Omaha. There's no on-duty mechanic, no stores, no motel, no showers, no saloons, no sluts in short skirts selling satisfaction. A gravel space to turn and park, a pee hole, and a hot meal. The heartburn's not too bad.

Full, smoking, and belching, one pays the tab, the other watches that suspicious character who's been lingering about the john a little too long. Must be a queer, but he looks like a trucker. Nowadays you can't be sure. They exit the diner.

Truckers sure know about the clean fingernail faggots, taking up stalls all day, playing footsies, tossing toilet paper love notes at any pair of boots along side. Most truckers ignore them. A lot want to kill them. And others figure a blowjob's a helluva lot better than one's own hand. Better than tossing dollars at a whore.

The loner watches them walk to their truck. They fire her up, pull out. The low sun splashes red across the windshield. The truck kicks up hot dust, blinding their rear view of the loner climbing into a flatbed's cab.

Night. The lonesome glow of a distant ranch is lost as they round the last bend. Ahead: Carson City. Bright streets illuminate thunderclouds' undersides. The air smells of water.

The truck coasts through an intersection. The interstate becomes the main drag, the outskirts greet them. A bad dog behind a fence snarls at the truck's loud shadow. It's too late to drop cargo. Too late to do anything. They cruise down the boulevard, pass the quick-stop markets, vacant lots, clapboard motels, a used car lot. The garish splash of casino neon pours through the windshield. He pulls over to rethink their options. The unorthodox hours of a trucker are always conflicting with the standard nine to five. When they pull into town they must get unloaded and reloaded ASAP. The second the truck stops--each moment at a standstill, each second not actually moving something--means flushing cash down the tube.

Curb side, behind the cab, he takes a piss. Frustration. He kneads his brow, the wind diverts his aim, sidewalk dirt clings to his wet cuffs. A saloon's neon sign darkens the circles under his eyes. Another no-win situation the trucker must endure.

Suddenly lightning. The unseen bad dog howls, and the trucker vaults into the cab before the thunder sounds. He's behind the wheel with nowhere to go, rain pounding on the roof, and his partner's fast asleep behind him. Too late to step out for a drink, and he's not going to wander around wet unknown streets all night. He clicks on the C.B. Maybe there he'll win.

10-7. He sprints from channel to channel faster than a teen seeking Wolfman's howl. Squelch. Citizen Band Channels 1 through 40...interstate news all the time...10-13... lightning and wind.... So he 10-41, 10-10 with his head kicked back.... Busy night... bad luck 10-33...a flash flood, a washed out bridge...10-20 somewhere a little west of here...10-41. Again...another 10-33. and wants to be 10-2 real bad...10-2...10-3...10-4. So now, with something to do, 18 wheels backtrack through the wet dark...10-62 this kind of luck.

Bull pines and manzanita corral the rest stop. On wet pavement, a score of trucks are parked in the order of their exhaustion, a helter-skelter parade of eighteen-wheeled boxes angled against a hill. Most are still and dark. Running lights grace the corners of a few. Shadow shapes move on the window of one.

He steps down, quietly closing the door. It'd be a bad time to wake his partner. Outside, the unshielded sounds of the freeway vibrate the trailers. He lights up. The asphalt black sky opens behind torn clouds. He smokes, takes a little stroll. Sure enough the flatbed is as described by the nasty man on the C.B. He meanders toward it. The man leaning out the flatbed's open window is the same suspicious character from the diner. No longer unsure, the trucker saunters up to the door and slips into the cab.

Late night. The trucker zips up and walks back to his own rig. He pats his pocket to make sure the bundle he scored from the flatbed driver is still there. He climbs over his sleeping partner. Together they snore until morning.

Sunrise. Easy unloading. Neither of them fingerprinting any of the cargo. This customer had a whole crew ready with pallet jacks and fork-trucks, so neither of them had to lift a finger. Not many chances to BS. El Grande. Only took fifteen minutes to land another load.

Morning. East.

Many different parts make a motor. Many different people make a living as truckers. Not all have beer guts and chew Skoll; not all are ignorant bean-pole rednecks named Clem and Shep. There are lots of women out there, lots of Blacks and queer truckers too. Just about every age, gender, and attitude is up in the cab, living on the road.

The love of the machine and the seduction of the road gives this multitude the freedom to awake in new places, the space for choices, and only themselves to praise or blame. They are the independent trucker. If you want to join them, find a school to teach you the ropes. I'll pump my arm when I see you pass, and don't be stingy with your horn. 10-4....

BOOK REVIEW

TRUCKER: True Revelations and Strange Happenings from 18 Wheeler. Volume 2.

This dandy little 185 page book is just the right size for one-handed reading. It contains 53 taken-from-life stories that are a page or two in length and illustrates all the sucking and fucking that happens along the road to truckers, hitch-hikers, railroaders and other travelers. The book also has 13 photos of some hot and hung men spread through-out.

The stories originally appeared in The 18 Wheeler Newsletter and its successor, T*R*A*S*H. J.D., who continues to release T*R*A*S*H, edited these tales.

This is one hot volume and it gives continuous hard-ons from beginning until your hand gives out from fatigue. A must-have for your library of the porcelain throne or as a travel companion in your pick-up, auto or tractor-trailer truck. And if TRUCKER does the trick for you, be sure to pick up Volume 1, 3 and the newly released 4. J. D. does get around.

TRUE CONFESSION

The Blond Trucker

BY HLB

I'd been in the park about an hour, and was about to give up, when a big Peterbilt tractor pulled in: the kind you usually see pulling a 40' trailer down the road. He parked about halfway down the lot, and I could see movement in the cab, but no one got out.

I headed the van that way to see what I could. I drove slowly past the high cab, and saw a blonde-bearded and mustached face returning my stare. I smiled, and parked about two spaces down from him.

I got a beer out of the cooler, opened the side-door, sat down, and waited. In a few seconds, a solidly built, six-foot-plus man was ambling toward me. His levis bulged and his shirt was open to the waist in spite of a cool breeze, allowing me a great view of his hairy, muscled chest. Truck driving boots completed the outfit. His smile told me he was enjoying my obvious appraisal.

I offered a beer, and suggested we sit inside to get out of the wind. He climbed in and sprawled on the seat beside me with his legs spread and his dick tightly outlined. I measured the length of his meat through his pants while one hand worked at the strained buttons. His cock sprang through the opening. It was uncut and its head dripped a pearl drop of pre-cum. I tasted the sweet saltiness and worked my tongue around in the tightness between his sliding foreskin and the head.

He arched his back and pulled his levis lower, freeing his low-hangers, and I hand-massaged the length of his cock while I sucked one, then the other in my mouth. I inhaled heavy sweat, piss, and cum smells, and I finally engulfed the length of his cock as he arched up to stuff my throat with his full share of hot meat. He reached down and pulled off his boots and pants while I settled in for a long, hard face-fuck.

He groaned and the speed of his fucking increased while he held my head in place. He moaned and shot. My tongue and throat was covered in thick, heavy aromas of his pubic mat. I milked the last drops of jism from his cock, but kept my mouth in place, reluctant to let go of his dick.

He said it had been great, but he had to piss like a racehorse. I nodded in agreement. He understood, and his cock shot again—this time with hot piss. He stood slowly with my mouth still attached to his balls. Some piss was running down his legs and some onto my own hard cock which I'd take care of later.

A couple of pulsing shots told me he was finished, so I tongue-cleaned his balls and thighs the best I could, with his well-used cock squeezing out a few last drops onto my head and body. I handed him one more beer for the road and he walked back to his truck, clothed only in heavy boots and a satisfied smile.

wards the parking lot. I wonder what he drives? Probably something expensive. I went outside and watched from the bridge as he walked across. Maybe that 450 SEC? Nope, he didn't stop for that. Maybe that CRX Si? Same thing, he just kept heading towards the far end of the parking lot. Then I spotted it, a big red cabover Peterbilt.

He walked right towards it. I watched as he unlocked the door and climbed in—business suit and all. The windows were tinted so I couldn't see what he was doing. I stood on the bridge and waited, pretending to be waiting for somebody.

Nothing happened. Minutes passed. Another trainload of people walked past towards the lot. A few more minutes passed. Then I heard the engine start, giving off a large puff of black smoke. I could barely see his shadowy figure behind the wheel through the windshield. I heard him put it in gear.

I decided it was time to jump into action. I ran across the bridge and turned to run down a small hill towards the street below. Pushing the bushes aside I jumped onto Camino Pablo Road. Above, I could see the plume of smoke over the bushes as the truck drove around the curving exit ramp.

Within moments the truck pulled out on the road heading my way.

Well, here goes nothing. I immediately stuck out my thumb. Sure enough, the truck drove past but stopped a few yards beyond me. I reached up and opened the passenger door not knowing what to expect. A deep voice from inside said, "Climb in."

I did. What I saw was not what I expected. Instead of the business man I had seen earlier, this was a real truck driver. He had changed his clothes. That explained what was going on in the truck while I watched and waited.

"Where ya' headed?" he asked.

"I'm going up to Briones Regional Park to go camping with some friends. They're coming down from Suisun City. One of them works up at Travis Air Force Base."

"Oh yeah? I'm headed just up the road from there. I can drop you off."

"That'd be great. I'm surprised you're headed that way. It isn't a direct route to anywhere."

"Well, it's a direct route to my ranch, and that's where I'm going."

"A ranch, huh?" This was getting more interesting by the moment.

"Yeah, it's really not much of a ranch, but it's a place to get away. I have a place in the city and come out here whenever I get the chance. You want to see it?"

"Sounds good to me. Let's go." I watched as he maneuvered the truck into traffic. I also took the time to look him over, although the engine cover blocked my view below the waist. His blue canvas shirt was unbuttoned to the waist, revealing a thick mat of brown hair.

"So what kind of loads do you pull with this rig?" I asked.

"I don't pull any."

"What?"

"I bought this rig for fun."

"You're kidding!"

"Nope, I sometimes commute to work with it. The mileage sucks, and the taxes are murder, but up here, I'm king of the road. I've got plenty of room, and even more in the back," gesturing towards the sleeper, "and the faggots really get off on it." Whoops! That put a different light on things. "I oughta' know," he continued. "I'm the biggest on this side of the bay."

My heart jumped. He smiled at me and winked. Then he stuck out his hand. "My name's Truck, what's yours?"

"Frank, Frank Howard."

"Pleased to meet you." I shook his hand. He tickled my palm with his middle finger and winked again.

"Truck your first name or last?"

"It's my nickname. My real name is Carol Harlington."

"You're right, Truck sounds better." By now we had turned right onto Bear Creek Road and begun the long climb along the Briones Reservoir.

Soon we turned right onto the entrance road to the park. Since it was off season, there was no one at the guard booth. Up ahead I could see Steve and Tom's pickup truck. I pointed it out to Truck and he pulled up along side.

"I'll be back in just a minute," I said, as I climbed down from the cab. At the edge of the woods, Steve was working with some of the camping gear.

"Well, it's about time you got here! What were you doing in that truck?"

"You'll never believe it. I don't have time to explain, but you guys go on without me. I'll be back later. If I'm not back tonight, I'll call and tell you what happened on Monday."

"Are you sure you're OK? Who are you with?"

"Don't worry, I'll tell you later. Gotta run." I turned and headed back to the truck. As I climbed back into the cab, I noticed that it was empty. I wondered what was going on. Just then I heard a loud groan from the sleeper. I pushed the curtain aside to see an incredible sight. There was Truck, resting against the side of the sleeper. His pants were pulled down to his ankles. His shirt was pulled open. His left hand was pulling at his right tit. His right hand was wrapped around his rock-hard cock, slowly stroking it.

"Is this what you're looking for?" he asked, giving me another wink. Damn, he sure didn't have to ask. I climbed into the sleeper and knelt at his feet. "It's all yours," he whispered.

I pushed his knees wider and took a closer look. He let go of his cock and it flopped against his furry stomach. I reached forward and wrapped my hand around it. It was cut, very fat, and it was a beauty. It was one of those rare ones that was covered with hair for half its length. It had a very broad, mushroom-like head. I gave it a squeeze and a large drop glistened from the crack. I wiped it off with my finger and tasted it.

"There's more where that came from," he grunted.

"I'll bet. Let's see what I can find," I said as I leaned down and gave the tip a quick lick. Then I opened my throat and dove to the base.

"Oh yeah baby, work that cock!" he moaned as I started pumping up and down its length with my lips and tongue. It was just the right length so I could keep up a fast rhythm without choking.

"Oh fuck, that feels good. You know just how I like it." I reached up and pulled on one of his tits, giving it a good twist. I reached down with my other hand and pushed against his crack with my middle finger. I gave the tit one hard twist to distract him and shoved my finger in as far as it would go.

"Shit! FUCK!" he yelled, "Oh man that feels good!" I never lost a beat with my mouth. I started driving my finger in and out of his tight ass while I slurped on his hairy cock. I kept up my pace and in no time he was brought to the edge.

"Oh man, here it comes!" he gasped. I kept up my pace. Suddenly the cock got as hard as granite as I could feel his hot come filling my mouth. I kept pumping.

"Damn, oh fuck...oh, Goddamn!" I started to slow down, pulling my finger from his ass and stroking his stomach as I sucked out the last of his load. Then I pulled my mouth off his spent cock. It was still half hard, the hair plastered to its sides. I watched it twitch against his stomach.

I looked up at him. I grabbed his jaw with one hand. He gave me a quizzical look. I moved my face directly above his looking deep into his eyes. I grabbed his nose with my other hand, pulling his mouth open. Slowly, I opened my mouth and let his cum drip down my tongue and into his mouth. I swished the rest around my mouth and spit it onto his extended tongue. His mouth was wide open but his eyes were smiling. I leaned down and pushed my tongue into his mouth, pushing his load down his throat. Then I pulled back a bit and gave him a long, slow kiss. His arms reached up to pull me against him. I wrapped my hands around his neck and did the same, his hot hairy chest heaving against mine.

"God, that was incredible!" he said as I pulled away. "Where'd you learn to do that?" he asked jokingly. "You're one hell of a sucker."

"Well, you're one hot trucker, Truck, even if you aren't for real," I replied.

"You know though, you were wrong, it's not the truck that drives them crazy, it's you. And I oughta know, I'm the biggest one on the other side of the Bay!"

"Well, if that's the case, we've got one hell of a weekend ahead of us at the ranch. Let's hit the road so I can return the favor in my own special way."

The Trucker and the Bikers

by Furr

I'd just gotten out of college and wanted to bum around the country for awhile before I settled down to work; my parents weren't pleased but as I'd been independent of them for some time now, there wasn't much they could do about it.

I set out hitchhiking along, getting most of my rides from truckers... and paying for them with blowjobs, or occasionally with the more open men, a fast hot fuck in a sleeper cab, or occasionally in the shadow of the truck. The one thing that did kind of bother me was that the sex usually meant the end of the ride, since even the truckers who were open when they were horny couldn't look me in the eye after I'd gotten them off... especially if they'd gotten ME off.

So, I was hanging out in the truckstop where my last ride had left me; if I bothered to pay attention, I could still taste his creamy, sweet load in the back of my throat. So I sat there, cruising the truckers, trying to find one attractive enough that I might actually enjoy going down on him for my ride.

I finally gave up and decided to try my luck near the entrance to the freeway. I was hardly out the door when I heard "Hey, need a ride?"

"Sure do. You headed east?"

"That I am. Haulin' all the way to DC, in fact."

"Perfect!" I said as I swung on up; DC was my first destination on the East Coast. If I got lucky and this trucker didn't want to dump me after a hundred miles or so, I might get all the way there in one long boost. I hadn't been able to see the guy, but since it was getting late, I realized I couldn't be "too" choosy.

Fortunately, Lady Luck smiled on me at that point. What filled my eyes at that point was the kind of trucker that most men dream of when they jerk off to hot trucker fantasies. Thick, neatly trimmed beard with a big overhanging moustache, and a bare chest carpeted thickly in curly fur. Worn boots and a pair of well-worn and slightly grimy 501's, which showed a nice big lump in his crotch. What filled my nose was the warm, sweet musk of a sweaty man; I could see the little jewel-drops of sweat in his beard and chest fur and the little rivulets down his side from his furry armpits.

"Hope you don't mind me sweatin' like this, but this ol' rig doesn't have a/c."

"Doesn't bother me a bit; anyone who gets freaked out over a little honest sweat seems kinda weird to me."

"Well, alright! What's yer name and how far are you goin'? I'm Jon."

"I'm Dave, and as a matter of fact, my target's DC; if you don't mind having me around that long, it would really help if I can ride all the way in with you."

"I've got no problem with that; in fact it would be nice to have some company on the drive. One of the reasons I pick up hitchhikers is to have someone to talk to." I noted the bit about "one reason" quickly. He continued "But, it looks to me like you might have some problems with the trip."

"What do you mean?"

He grinned. "That big fuckin' hardon you got in your pants the minute you saw me; somehow I doubt we'll get to DC without you wanting to play with me, and bro, that's just fine with me!"

His big hand slid across the seat to squeeze my leg, then travelled up my leg to rub my dick. "Damn, that's as big as it looks. Hope you weren't plannin' on porkin' my butt, cause I don't swing that way. But I do love fuckin' ass, and I don't mind suckin' you off after."

"Sounds like heaven to me. I love getting plowed in a sleeper by a hot trucker stud... the sex is one reason I'm travelling this way."

We looked at each other and smiled. "Shit, I've got to piss... the damn coffee at that truckstop has gone right through me."

"No need to stop; I can take care of that for you."

He gave me a half-knowing, half-surprised grin. "You do that?" By way of response I started popping the buttons of his fly open, and extracted his meat. Even soft, it was thick and long, with a heavy foreskin and the smell of fresh head cheese about it. I rested my head in his warm lap and placed just the head gently between my lips.

"Ohh fuck, you are serious... well, if that's your scene. Here it comes..."

I suspected this wasn't the first time he'd had someone drink his piss while he drove, since he kept up a strong and steady but reasonable flow; I was easily able to drink it all down without spilling any into his seat or onto his pants.

He finished, and I neatly tucked him back in his pants, and fastened enough of the buttons for him to be "decent" when he got out. "Thanks, buddy" he said with a grin. "I think we're gonna have one hell of a nice trip to DC!"

His prediction was 100% accurate; from the fuss I made over his sweaty bod, he clearly figured out that I was into raunch, and so the entire time I was with him, he never bathed; why should he, when he had my tongue available to clean him up instead? That cock I had seen soft turned into a nine-inch and thick assrammer when he got turned on...and the easiest way to turn him on and get him horny beyond words was to settle his sweaty asscrack onto my bearded face and give his puckerhole a long, wet and deep tongue lashing. When he could no longer stand it, he'd throw me onto my hands and knees, dive between my buns with his

North o' Weed, on I-5, there's an eatery called Porky Bobs - real sleazoid joint a helluva lot cheaper than Denny's. Just finished wolfin' down a burger an' a Coke, had to hit the head. Sho-ruff, that's this lil' tad pole trucker, actin' horny, right inside the john. Little dude, hawk-nosed, long hair, spy fella, brown beard, braided clean to his nuts.

Couldn't even do my business, da lil' shit had me pegged right off. Before my piss hit the porcelain he'd be leanin' too close danglin' a big stinky roofer.

Dude says, "Y'all wanna smoke."

I say, "Sure." Then we two be bouncing out to his ratty ol' Mack. Me stuffin' my half hard thang back in my fly. Hissell's already top side. Got his pants off lickity split, got me laying back in passenger seat. He straddlin' me. His ugly knobby Coke-can cock, spittin' ploppin', up and down my belly. Lil' shit fucked me dry. Freckled asshole sucked me right on up inside, cheeks squirmin' and bouncin', ridin' my pecker like I be Jesus own bronco. His hoover-butt vacuumed me right into his guts. Ya ever hear of cyclo-massage?

Man, we were cooin' an carrin' on damn near an hour, fuckin' steamed the steam on the glass. Ooh ooh weel! Shieeet when I blew my load, I knew my cum would pop his eyes out. And that asshole kep on squeezerin' and milkin' it til even the ol' mud up there felt too good.

And when he blew, so much jizz came jetting outta that dong I thought I was gonna drown. One squirt damn near put out my eye.

'Course I split real soon. But, an ya'll keep this to yerself, I had ta smear his jizz all into my chest hairs. Couldn't wash up. Kept as a kinda souvenir. Ya'll don't believe me? Here sniff...

tongue to open me up, then ram that tool home in one hard thrust. It did hurt the first couple of times, but considering that he was fucking me at least three times a day (right before each meal), I rapidly got used to the size of his dick and the energy of his attack. I also got an ass full of his hot trucker cum that tended to leak out and run down the back of my legs... but I rather enjoyed the sensation.

True to his word, after every fuck he'd ask if I needed to get off. If I did, he'd dive down my sweaty bod to my dick, and start rubbing it through his beard; it looked rather bristly, but it turned out to have an unearthly satiny plush feeling that drove me wild. He wasn't the greatest cocksucker in the world, but after a good long tease with that beautiful beard, all it took was the sensation of a wet mouth and tongue on my dickhead for me to pump his mouth full of my cream. He'd bring it up to my face in his mouth, and slowly pass it to me as we kissed, and I'd drink it down except for the very last gulp, which he would swallow himself.

At least that was the basic pattern, to which got added all sorts of little embellishments, what with me cleaning out under his foreskin with my tongue, and occasionally getting him to fuck my throat instead of my ass. His beautiful, well-muscled and well-furred body writhed at the touch of my tongue in his armpits, behind his ears, around his balls and in his ass. And of course, there was the fact that he never had to stop to pee, which improved the time he made and left us more time to fuck.

In a way, I was dreading getting to DC; I hadn't asked him about his background or what he'd be doing after he unloaded in DC. More likely than not, we'd have to part company there, and I didn't know if he'd want to stay in touch. I was enjoying myself -- and him -- too much to just let him drive into the sunset without at least trying to stay in some kind of contact.

I was planning on bringing up the subject of the end of our journey the next morning after he fucked me, since he was usually rather cuddly and playful at that point, and I figured would take the question best then. We'd had dinner -- and a fuck -- several hours before, but he decided that he was horny again and wanted to fuck yet again before we went to sleep. I needed to piss, so he wandered off to stretch his legs while I was busy in the can.

I had noticed a big batch of Harleys at the entrance end of the RA, but since most of the bikers -- even of the "outlaw" persuasion -- that I knew were cool people who simply wanted to be left alone to pursue their own lifestyle, I didn't think to warn him.

When I came out, I saw him surrounded by leather-clad bikers near one of the more elaborately tricked-out Harleys. I knew even before I hustled over what the problem was; I'd forgotten to tell my trucker that where a biker's ride is concerned, it's strictly "look but don't touch" without permission.

One thing I noted quickly was that there were no women with the bikers; if they were straight, that would be so rare as to be totally unheard of, so I was betting they were a gay club; when I got close enough to see their colors, I was sure of it. I slipped through the press of leather-clad bodies so I was standing behind Jon.

"What's the problem?"

The biggest biker of the lot looked me up and down a bit and said "Your buddy here was messin' with my ride. I don't LIKE that."

"Jon, what did you do?"

He looked rather frightened and defiant all at the same time. "All I did was have my hand on the seat for balance when I bent down to look at the engine."

"That's enough," I sighed. "If you're interested enough in bikes to be curious about the engine, how did you manage to avoid learning that you don't so much as touch someone else's ride without permission?"

"Huh? I've never seen big custom bikes like this before, and I wanted a better look. I didn't mean any harm!"

"Don't make no difference; you was messin' with my ride... but I'll tell ya what. Since you say you didn't know the rule, and your buddy here talks like a brother..."

"Read Rats MC, Los Angeles" (only an associate member, but HE didn't need to know that...)

"...we'll let you off easy." I noticed most of the club start to grin, and a number started rubbing their crotches; the dude who's bike Jon had touched (whose name patch bore the name "Poke") started to get a very obvious -- and very LARGE -- hardon down his greasy left pants leg.

"What does THAT mean?" Jon whispered to me.

"Given the indications, probably a good old-fashioned biker gang fuck." At that, Poke grinned at me and nodded. "These dudes look horny, not vicious."

"But I told you when we met! I don't get fucked, and this Poke dude looks like he's hung like an elephant -- he'd kill me!"

"Naw, I'll be careful, and I'll let all the other bros take their turns first to get ya opened up good." Poke stood there grinning and rubbing the still-lengthening shaft pushing down the leg of his 501's.

Jon looked at me with a certain amount of desperation in his eye, which was suddenly replaced with relief. I nodded at him to go on. "Shit... wait a minue. My buddy here, he LIKES gettin' fucked; I've been puttin' it to him three, four times a day. What say you take him instead?"

"Can't take a bro in exchange unless he agrees to it. You willing to take on this whole fuckin' club to save your pal's virgin butt?"

I looked around and thought for a moment. I was surrounded by some incredibly hot examples of sleazy bikerdom; to a man they were long haired and bearded, leathered and dirty. "Yeah, I'll take his place, and gladly. But I want him there with me, so he knows what he would have gotten."

"Agreed! Let's haul it back to the clubhouse."

Jon locked up the rig, and we mounted up behind two of the bikers. A surprisingly short time later, we pulled up in front of their clubhouse. A garage door was opened, and all the bikes roared inside; the door was shut.

With a blur of greasy hands, my shirt was ripped off, my pants shoved down around my ankles, and I was thrown over a partially disassembled bike in a brace, and lashed down.

"Two reasons for that bike; one, it's braced so the hard thumpin' you're gonna get don't knock it over, and two, we don't want ya gettin' any burns from a hot engine. Now, we got all kinds of good shit on hand; you want somethin' to fuck ya up durin' this?"

"No, man; just give me a full inhaler of amyl and I'll be fine."

"You got it dude, but if you change your mind, just ask... if your mouth ain't full!"

By this time, all the bikers had either doffed their greasy pants, or at least pulled their cocks and balls out the fly. As one of the younger bikers with a short-trimmed black beard moved in behind me, they put Jon on his back underneath me, so he'd have a perfect view of all the cocks that would be going up my ass.

I was surprised as all hell when instead of feeling a hard cock ramming up my ass (after all, Jon had bragged about putting it to me so often he didn't need lube any more), I felt a long, hot tongue snake up my hole, accompanied by the sensation of a bristly beard rubbing against my buns and the back of my balls. I was already hard just thinking about the prospects, but that started my cock dripping. I could see that the bikers had positioned Jon well; the drops of my precum were hitting him right on the chin.

So smoothly I hardly noticed it at first, the tongue was replaced by the young biker's cock; as he started thrusting, I let out a low moan of pleasure.

"Hey bro, how'd the fucker's butt taste?"

"REAL good; that trucker's got real sweet, tasty cum, and there's a hell of a lot of it in there!"

"There'll be even more when we're done!"

The fuckstrokes rapidly became fast and hard, and I felt the warmth as the biker's cum shot into my ass. Another cock replaced the first man's, picking up the fast, hard rhythm hardly missing a stroke. It didn't take me long to figure out I was getting "grudge fucked"; very little consideration for my comfort, if any; just being used as a convenient hole to get off in. The only reason I was taking it as well as I was was all the practice I'd had recently. Jon was right after all -- he would have wound up getting his butt ripped up by these guys.

My mouth wasn't idle for long; it soon acquired the jobs of cleaning out cheesy foreskins, rimming out dirty, sweaty assholes, sucking clean a long line of funky armpits, and grooming sweat-matted beards -- not to mention drinking bladderfuls of hot beer piss.

After about two-thirds of the bikers had plowed my butt, there was so much cum in my ass that when a biker finished his fuck, he'd come around front for me to clean off the cum that the pounding of his fucking had splattered all over his pubes and balls.

Finally, all the bikers except Poke had rammed me and hopped off. Poke stood in front of me, stroking that huge horsedick of his, slowly slipping the long foreskin back and forth over the head in an almost hypnotic rhythm.

"You're fuckin' well named, you know that, bro?"

"Yeah; you'd be surprised how good this dick is to me. Makes me lots of bread from bored chicks married to straight citizens with teeny weenies. The pay from the porno flicks isn't bad either."

"You should model for the gay skin rags; they'd go crazy over you."

"They did. The first layout's comin' out next month."

"I won't miss that!"

"Damn right, 'cause I'm gonna give you good reason to remember me right now. You got your inhaler?"

"Yah."

"Good, you're gonna need it!!!"

With that, he moved behind me. The preceding dialog may seem a little strange, but not if you'd seen Poke's cock. (Poke, by the way, is biker slang for cock, and anyone nicknamed that is usually horse hung.) It was good and long, about eleven inches worth. That alone was enough to make it exceptional, but then there was the thickness of the damn thing. A good two inches across at the head, it got THICKER the further down you went, until at the base the damn thing was about twice as wide as at the head. And, unlike a lot of huge dicks, it was iron-hard and standing up at about a 45 degree angle from his belly.

The head of his monster dick slid fairly easily into my butt, and he started a slow stroke that allowed me to take the whole thing in an unbelievably short time.

He leaned forward and whispered into my ear "You got it all, fucker... you ready?"

"Fuck, yes. Give it to me good, stud. Put on a show!"

With that, he started the same sort of fast, slamming fuck rhythm that the others had used; I felt like I was riding to heaven on a telephone pole. I could feel his foreskin slipping back and forth, back and forth over the head of his dick as he plowed hard and fast. Finally, he slammed into me as far as he would go, holding me impaled on his cock with his hands on my shoulders, and pumped me full of his steaming jizz. His head dropped back and he let out an animalistic howl, which coincided with me blasting out the biggest wad of my life all over Jon's face.

Poke collapsed onto my back, and total silence reigned while all of us recovered. After a long moment, Poke gently removed his softened, but still engorged cock from my ass.

"Get up here, fuckface!" he roared to Jon, whose beard was coated and soaked through with my cum. "Clean off this dick your buddy took so you wouldn't get yer pussy ass ripped up!"

While Jon eagerly lapped the cum off of Poke's cock and crotch, a couple of the others quickly untied me and carried me bodily over to a sofa, where they laid me down, and where I immediately dropped off into a dreamless sleep.

I awoke with a start in the sleeper cab of Jon's truck. "Bout time you woke up! Of course, with what you went through, I'm not surprised you slept so long."

"What happened after I fell asleep?"

Jon grinned sheepishly. "I finished cleanin' off that Poke dude's cock, then came all over his face when another guy started rimmin' me out. They brought me back to the truck, and I brought it to their clubhouse to pick you up. Oh yeah, they asked me to give you this."

Jon handed me a bulky manila envelope. Inside was a full set of member's patches to their club, along with a short note: "If you don't hold a grudge against us, we'd be proud to call a man with your balls Brother. Poke."

"Hot damn, they made me a member!"

"Yeah..." There was an uncomfortable pause. "Are you mad at me? I mean, those dudes were rough on you, and I'm the cause... I wouldn't blame you if you hated my guts."

I slipped out of the sleeper into the passenger seat. Jon had the piss-can in front of him and was pulling out his cock for a piss as he spoke. I dove down and took his cock in my mouth, and was rewarded with a mouthful of sweet clear piss.

"Guess you ain't pissed... or maybe you are!" he said with a grin.

"Shit no. Yeah, they were rough, but it was a hot turnon; I'm really into bikers. Besides, gettin' your ramrod up the ol' dirt road three and more times a day was the best training I could ever have gotten. In fact, I'm rather glad it happened."

"Then maybe you'd like to spend my two weeks layover here in DC with me?"

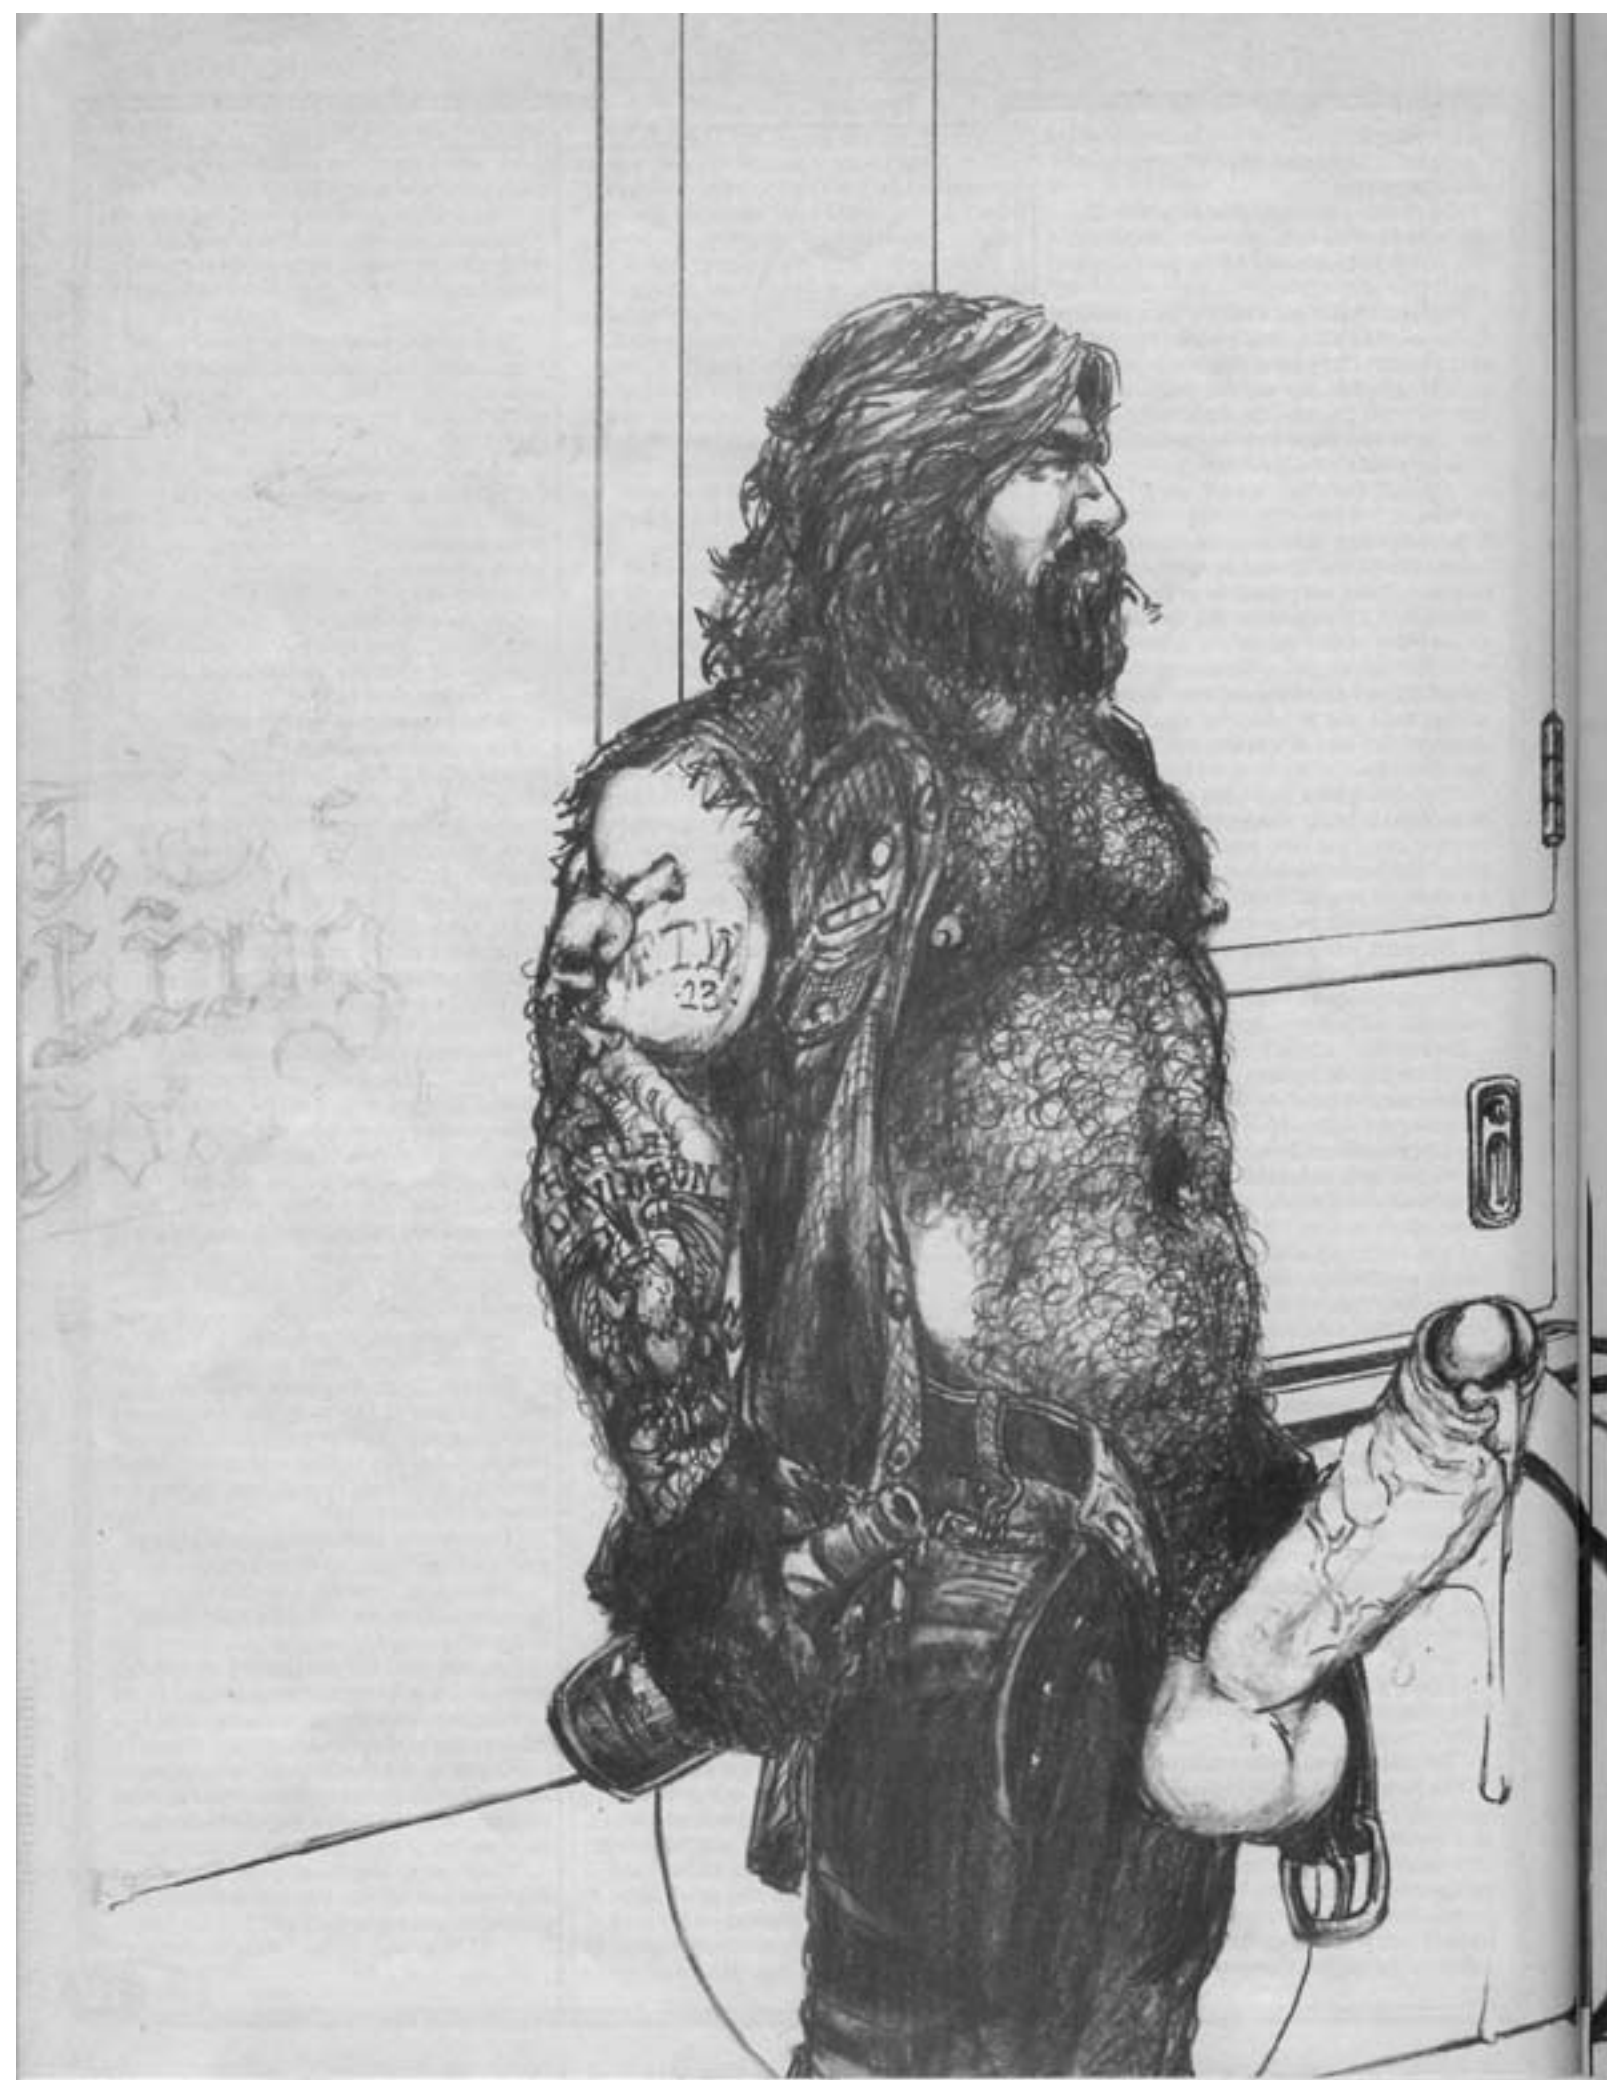

"Damn right I would! I can take two weeks out of my travelling for a hot fucker like you!"

"Oh, and did I tell you that my next route's gonna be up 'n down the east coast?"

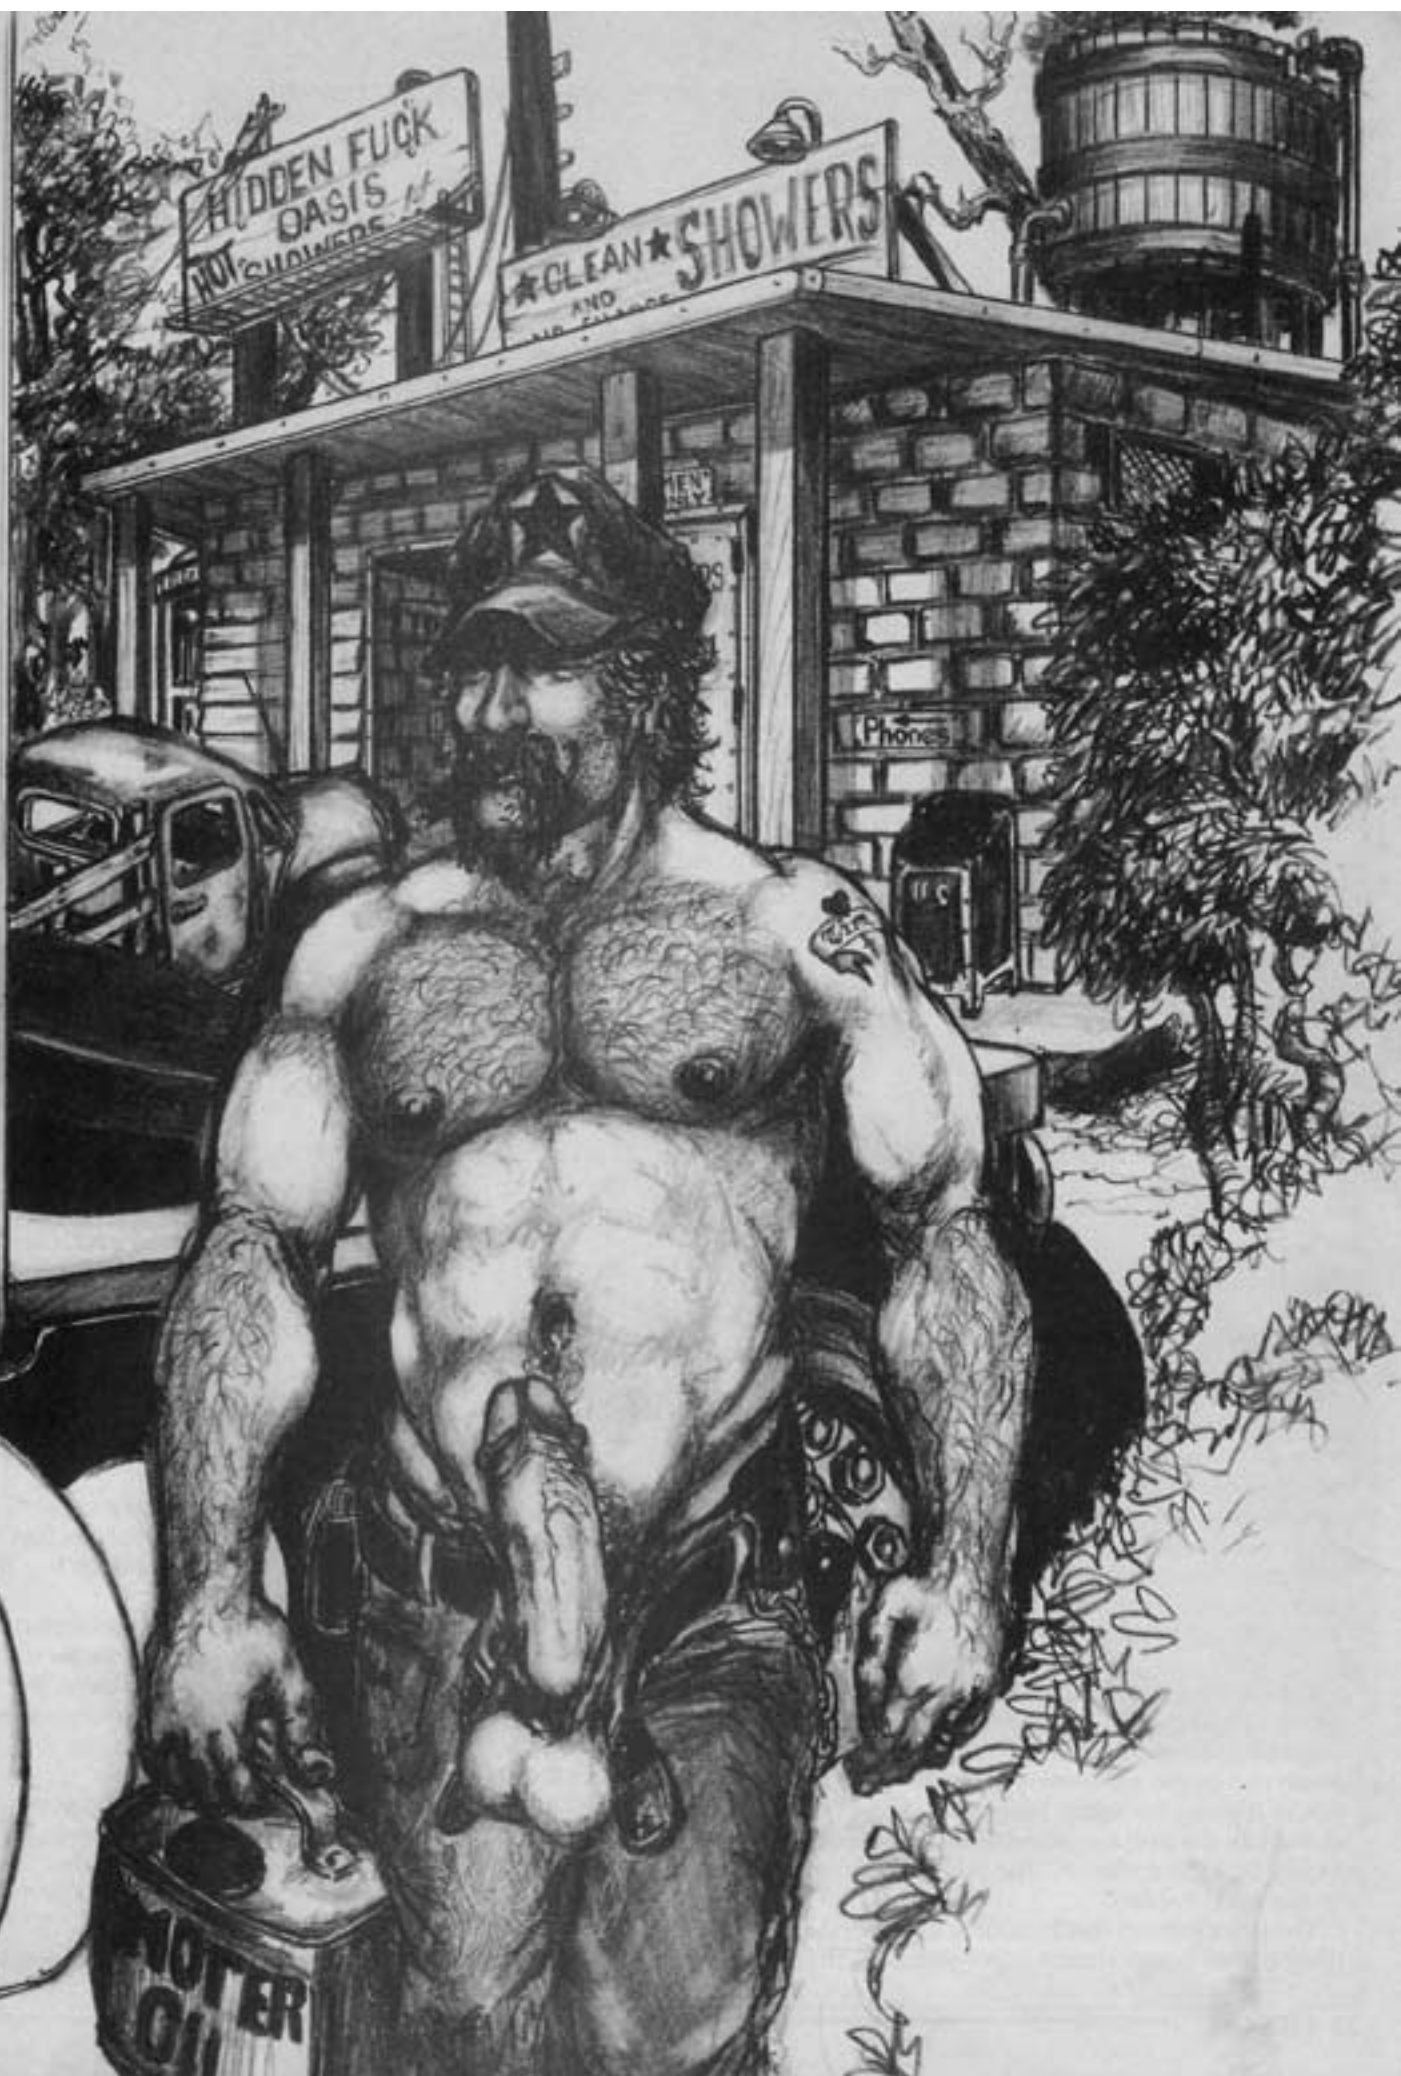

"No, you didn't... are you saying what I think you're saying?"

"Guess so. I'd like to have you with me 'long as I can... and maybe when you're done with your travelling, you'll come back every so often."

"Count on it, Jon, count on it. Say, why don't you pull off into that rest area and gimme something to suck on?"

POKIN' AROUND

We look at books, videos, movies and anything else that catches our eye.

Life Of The Alaskan Logger

Logger World
4206 Jackson Highway
Chehalis, WA 98532
(206) 262-3376
$24.95 including shipping, 60 minutes

The publishers of Logger World released this documentary in the spring of '89. Intending to show the true nature of the logger's life in Southeast Alaska, the film features a good number of bears. The narrator is a knock-out teddy in tin hardhat, leaning precariously on his chainsaw.

Unhappily, the editing leaves something to be desired and the logger-bears throughout the video have a distressing habit of wiping the sweat from their brow and informing the viewer how they found Jesus. Then too, the main thrust of the video is to show how the logger's life is aligned with wholesome family values. Visually though, it is appealing in its naive, bumbling, bear-y way. -AM

Scooter Trash

Wylde Hoarse Productions
Box 2626
New York, NY 10009
Available for rental in many adult video stores.

It's tits and ass, and biker dicks for one hour and 20 minutes and two dozen assorted sex acts in this Wylde Hoarse production. Unfortunately, the tits and ass belong to the feminine gender, but there is not a lot of direct pussy shots. There is an abundance of dick shots as the action goes from the opening hand-job/blow job, doggie-style fucking, to the good ol' missionary position-on-the-pool table dicking. All of the action takes place in a framework of four reminiscences conjured up by a group of bikers.

In the final two scenes the guys must be fucked out because two of the girls enjoy each other a la Lesbos. If you're looking for some biker-gang-bang fantasy material and can tolerate the occasional twat, etc., then this would be a good starter. The bikers are fairly well hung, hunky and bearded.

The principles in this fuck flick are Rhonda Jo Petty (they're into her in almost every scene), Ron Jeremy,

Buddy Hatton and Barbie Doll Caryln. Directed by Boz Crawford. Produced by No Putt No Butt Productions, 1986. Filmed on location in New Jersey and New York City. -BB

Gentle Warriors

by Geoff Mains
Knights Press
PO Box 454
Pond Ridge, New York 10576
$9.50

In Gentle Warriors Geoff Mains portrays the sexual magic occurring in the San Francisco gay male community in the 70's. The protagonist, a fellow named Gregg, has come to the City to settle down and get himself together after a Marine tour of duty in Vietnam.

Here he recognizes his sexual orientation and proceeds to immerse himself in everything the then-fledgling gay male community has to offer. We accompany him South of Market, and witness (and maybe remember) the scenes of that time. Fisting, bondage, water sports, multiple sex partners, street sex. And the places: the Hot House, the Catacombs, the Slot, the legendary Ambush.

Mains captures well the camaraderie of men during these times, sharing with us his deep-rooted friendships -- fuck buddies we care about -- as they celebrate their refuge from a hostile America with the thousands of other men living and lusting in San Francisco.

And he captures the desperation and anger of these same men later living with the reality of AIDS -- painfully so.

The plotline centers around a visit to the City by the President of the United States, in town for a NATO conference and a Christian gathering.

Gregg, who has by now been diagnosed, and several other PWAs -- gentle warriors, if you will -- have conspired to assassinate the President because of his Administration's reactionary attitudes and inaction towards the AIDS epidemic.

Several days prior to the anticipated visit, we discover that during the freewheeling 70's, the CIA engineered the AIDS virus and its dissemination throughout the gay male community.

Mains' Warriors provides the reader with a sense of the sexual exploration and excitement found only in San Francisco in the 70's and early 80's. And it does this well. The plot has the makings of a first-rate thriller.

But unfortunately, Mains didn't write a particularly good novel. He never fully develops his characters, and stereotypes abound. While, as mentioned above, the quality of the friendships are intact, his characters themselves don't become any more dimensional than the pages they're printed on.

The novel contains too many loose ends that scream to be tidied up. Far too often, I found myself asking, "Who is this person?", "Why did he do this?", and "What happened to him?" With a heavier red pen Gentle Warriors could have lived up to its promise. -RB

JOHN PERRY

We got a letter in the mail one day. "Hey! I'd like to bare it for BEAR."

This was a local fella, so I said, "Come on down and let me get a look at you." And look I did. "You're a beauty, John. I'd love to have you in the rag. Let's set up a shoot."

He drove over to the studio in this big ol' classic T-Bird, and Chris from Brahma did the photos.

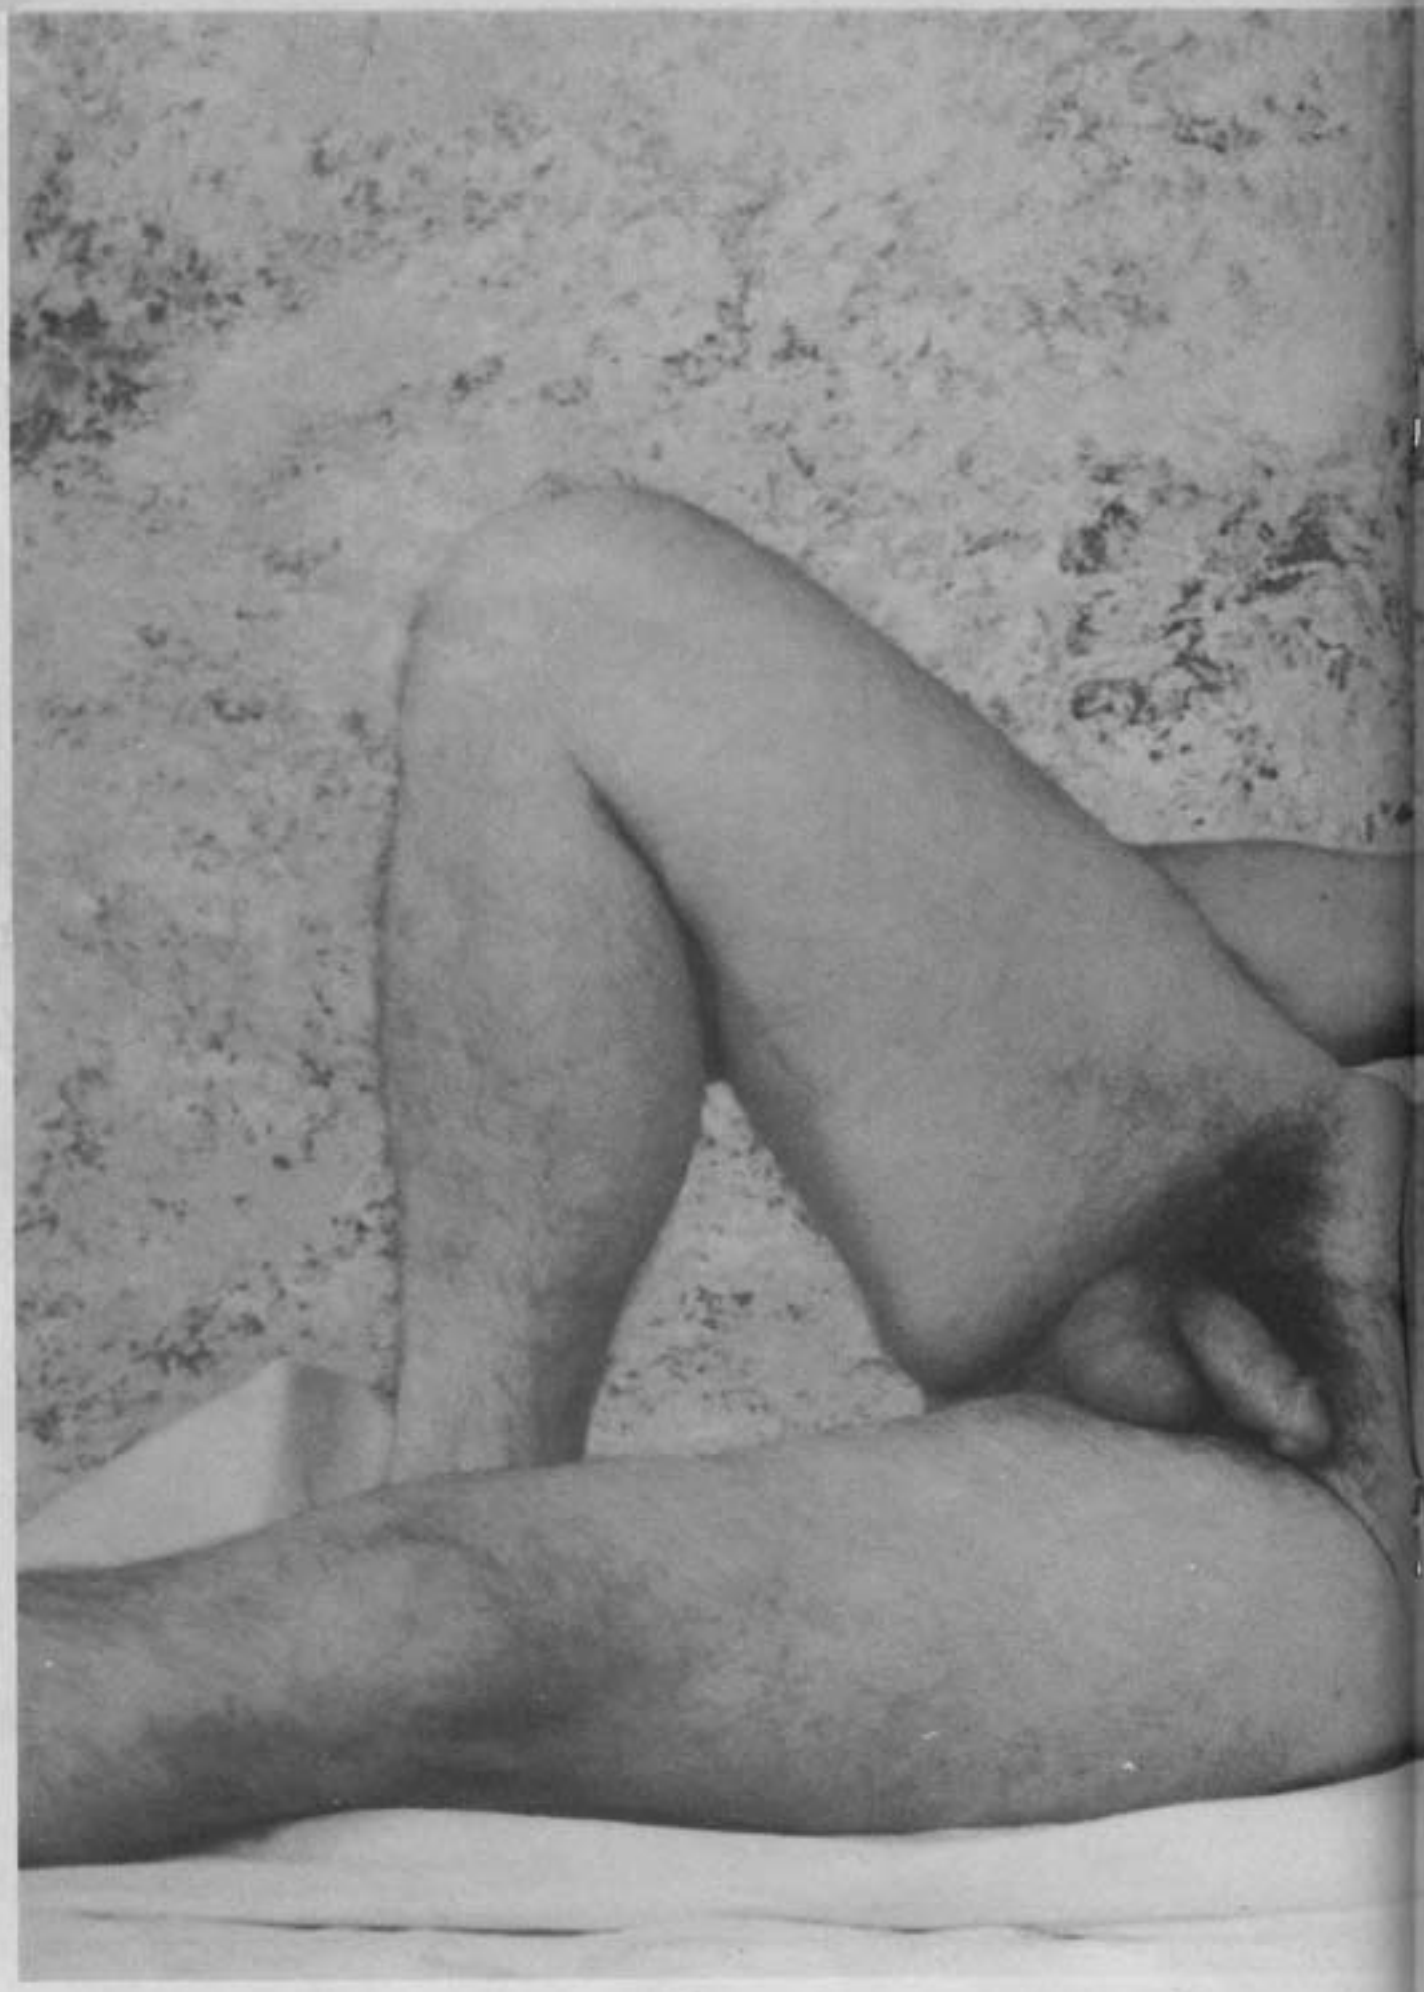

We got to know John pretty well that Saturday morning. He's a Texan, relatively new to San Francisco. He likes camping, white water rafting, eating good food and hot hairy men. He left a corporate environment to start his own handyman business... and is doing quite well at it too. Bay Area locals: you can reach him for work purposes at 664-0704.

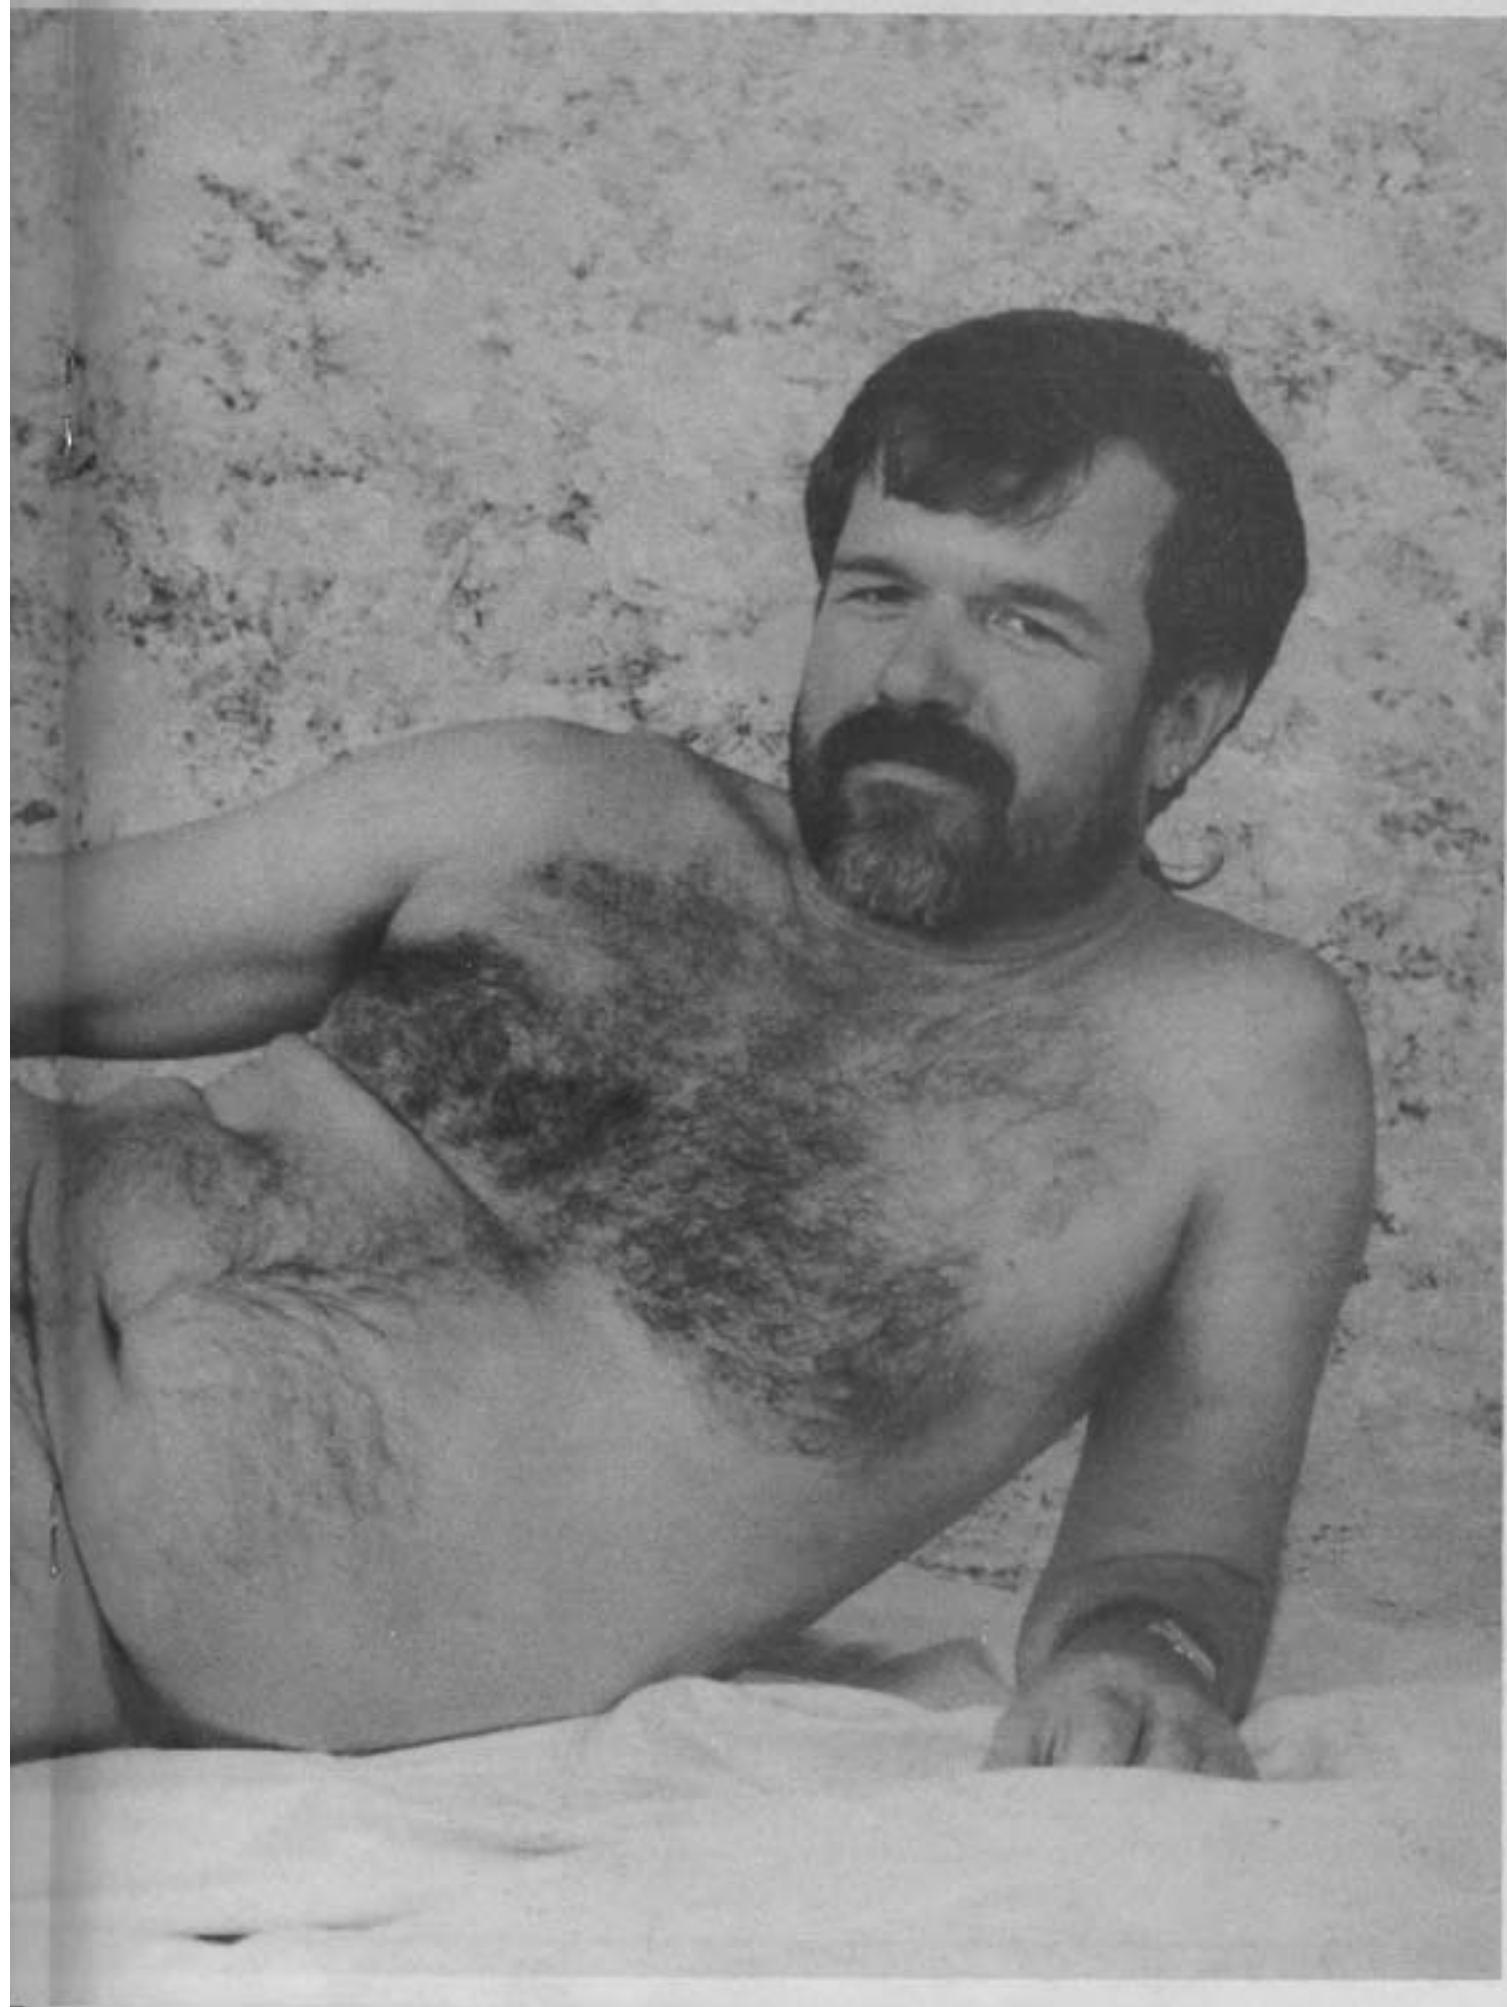

I hope you like looking at John as much as we enjoyed working with him.

VIEWING

H-D Puts Out Biker Vid

Most of you guys are aware of the whole media industry which has developed around Harley-Davidson's and their owners. H-D has put out a video tape entitled The Homecoming which commemorates their 1988 Milwaukee Ride for Muscular Dystrophy.

35,000 bikers participated in this run which crossed the US and Canada. If you'd like a copy of this tape (VHS) featuring the run and the Milwaukee party afterwards, send $20 to Harley-Davidson Inc., ATTN: Bill Davidson, PO Box 653, Milwaukee, WI 53201. All proceeds from the tape go to support the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

A Dick Mag

Fond of dick? On the right man, or in the right mood...why sure! How would you like a magazine—a glossy, color jobby at that—just filled with pictures of dick. Nothing else. No faces, no ads, no fiction, no writing whatsoever. Just different dicks.

I'd say such a publication lacks a certain feel for what most people—particularly man-loving men—would look for to entertain themselves. And I'd also say such a publication might lack a bit of creativity. I mean, cutting out pictures of dick and slapping the snaps down on an art board isn't too hard to do.

Bits, pieces, notes and anything else we might want to throw in...just for shits and giggles!

Look for RODS, the latest special from Mavety Media Group, publishers of Honcho, Mandate, Playguy, etc., etc. They figure this is what we want to look at. Just dick. Only dick.

I want you boys to sit back for a second and put yourself in someone else's shoes. OK? OK. You know diddley-squat about what turns on a man who's into other guys. OK? Maybe you're a woman. Or just maybe you are a woman and it's another woman who is working with you on this project. And your job is to produce something that's supposed to turn them on.

"Well," you think, "homos like pretty young men. And they like their cocks."

You get it? That's what's cooking at the New York office of MMG. Shee-it!

Available at a newsstand near you.

EATS

Teddy Grahams

Northwind from BC, Canada, sent us a package of cookies called Teddy Grahams. And wouldn't you know, these sons of bitches are shaped like little Teddy bears! Reminds me of Animal Crackers.

I had the cinnamon-flavored ones (they've got honey too) and wasn't impressed with the taste...but we ended up eating them all because they were hanging around and we here at BEAR have healthy appetites.

Nabisco makes them and I read somewhere that you might want to think twice about buying from them. Can't remember why.

Anyhow, they're probably available at your local Safeway.

Here's North himself, showing off a box of his crackers.

SALOON

DRINKIN' Seeya At The Lone Star

By the time you're reading this, the city of San Francisco will have issued a prime bear-hunting and liquor license to The Lone Star Saloon.

Rick Redewell gave his buddies a preview of his new bar, located at 1098 Howard Street at Seventh, on the 25th of June. The place is done right. It's airy and comfortable. There ain't a disco tape to be found on the premises. Just R'n'R with a little bit of country. As a service for bikers, he's installing a video camera/TV so they can check on their ride without leaving their bar stools. And of course you can pick up the latest copy of BEAR here.

Amble on in the next time you're in the neighborhood. Check it out. You might just find what you're looking for at The Lone Star. Their number: (415) 552-8121.

WRITING

Novice Novelists: Take Note

Ever thought about writing a book with a homo theme? Already got the Great Gay American novel stashed away on your hard disk drive? Listen up.

San Francisco's A Different Light Bookstore and Boston-based Alyson Publications is sponsoring a first novel competition called "By The Bay Area." The winner gets their book published and a $2500 advance on royalties. Plus they'll give the book a guaranteed $2500 promotions budget. This means more sales which of course means potentially more money in your pocket from royalties.

Rules and regulations accompany the contest. It's gotta be fiction; you can't have published a novel before; you must send it in between now and February 1, 1990; and either (1) the novel has to be set predominantly in the San Francisco Bay Area, or (2) you must be a resident of this area.

Interested? "By The Bay Area," A Different Light Bookstore, 489 Castro Street, San Francisco, CA 94114 is the address. Enclose an SASE and ask Richard to mail you the lowdown.

Feel free to send in any newsy items to us for inclusion in Shits & Giggles. BEAR, 2215R Market #148, SF, CA 94114.

Move Over Barbie

There's a fella in New York that collects dolls. Actually there's probably several fellas in New York that collect dolls, but this one I might want to meet.

He gave our contributor Steve Dambach the following 'roid to give to me. It's the Grizzly Adams doll! And who's that handsome partner of his that looks like George Payne in Centurians of Rome? Why, it's The Whip! I'm not shitting you. That's the doll's name. And it looks like he's got a sizeable mound tucked inside his skivvies. What'll they think of next?

READING II

Go West, Young Man

Chuck Woodbury likes the great outdoors. Roaming from campground to rest stop, enjoying the scenery, meeting fellow travellers, taking pictures, chewing the fat, and smelling clean air appeals to him.

He started writing about his road adventures and personal observations, then decided to put out a periodical sharing these experiences with others who might enjoy hearing about it.

Out West is the name of the journal and it makes for good reading. It's a piece of Americana that I think you'd enjoy. Issue #7 is a 40 page tabloid, similar in format to the National Enquirer, crammed full of the dreams and deeds of Chuck while on the road.

Six dollars ($8 in Canada; $10 elsewhere) gets you a 4 issue subscription. The address: Out West, PO Box 19894, Sacramento, CA 95819.

BROWSING

Paths Untrodden Makes Treading Available

We got a real, live, honest-to-god news release! I'm pleased as punch about it, so I'm going to tell you what it says.

There's a gay-owned and operated mail order book service out of New York called Paths Untrodden. And they carry literature "pertaining to male homosexuality and the gay liberation movement...in a subject classification that includes 46 areas." Sort of like the Baskin-Robbins of gay lit I guess.

Anyway, these guys have a 1989 catalog which includes hard to find, out of print, small press and imported books. The first part emphasizes the...ahem...erotic element, and the second part has the rest of their stock. There's a special tribute to activist Ed Murphy.

Send 'em three bucks for their 32 page tome. Their name again is Paths Untrodden. Address: PO Box 459, Village Station, New York, NY 10014-0459.

FASHION

Lifted From The Pages of BEAR

Mike stopped by the office and asked if it was OK to have a tee-shirt done from a page of BEAR. "Which page?" I asked, and he pointed out the "BEARS IN HEAT" page from BEAR 8, with the Bill Ward illustration.

Being respectful of artists' work and a little bit knowledgeable of copyright laws, I said told him that the drawing copyright was owned by the artist and the "BEARS IN HEAT" was a trademark of ours. However, if he was going to have just one done and was wasn't going to sell them, then go ahead.

A few days later he in with the shirt. Hot, huh? And wasn't Mike one of the most popular men at watering holes.

A black and white photograph of a man with a full beard and mustache, sitting on a large log in a wooded area. He is shirtless, showing a hairy chest and a well-defined midsection. He is wearing dark-colored shorts with a belt. He is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. The background is a dense forest with many thin tree trunks and some foliage. The lighting is natural, suggesting daylight. The overall tone is outdoorsy and rugged.

Denver CO

Text by Congo Moore
Photography by Duke Springfield

You'd expect a city by the great Rocky Mountains would be full of bears and cubs, and sure 'nuff, Denver has its share. Summer months find an influx of bear hunters from all over as well as bruins out of hibernation.

Some of the best places to spot real men are located on a strip of Broadway and a section of upper downtown. The one exception to this is Charlie's at 900 E. Colfax. This is a good ol' shit-kickin' country/western gay bar with some of the hottest cowboys around. Sundays have an extremely affordable brunch cooked on the premises with seating inside the spacious bar or on the patio, decked with growing flowers. The staff is always courteous and friendly, guys and gals mix socially and occasionally dance together, though more cowboys than cowgirls stomp the good sized dance floor overlooked by a rotating mirrored cowboy boot. Specials happen daily. Dollar pitcher nights and other events throughout the week make this a fun place to visit. The men are hot, and they are friendly.

A section of Broadway sort of reminds me of San Francisco's Castro district. Running from about Third down to Alameda (300 South) are at least four gay bars, several cafes-restaurants, card shops, and video theaters. The bars include: 22 N. Broadway, which has a dance floor and serves food; the Compound, 145 N. Broadway, with a dance floor in the next room; Mike's, 117 N. Broadway, a fun place with a back bar and plenty of bears; and Southtown Lumber Company, 255 S. Broadway. This is a longtime favorite with a nice patio and occasional barbecues. They even have movies one day a week.

The B-Way Bar and Grill is a pleasant cafe with outdoor seating in the French style where one can sit and watch the parade of men walking between bars or shopping. This is at 104 S. Broadway. Sadie's, 26 N. Broadway, is a delightful little cafe with an excellent lunch. Stop in and say hi to Richard, owner, cook, and cookie maker.

A number of gay men's theaters are in this stretch, including the Empress Theatre, featuring explicit men's movies, the After Dark Theatre, with Pete's Place After Dark next door, 111 S. Broadway. This place has video booths with some very interesting films and patrons.

Further uptown is a developing gay area which contains the oldest continuous gay bar in Denver, the Triangle Lounge, 2036 N. Broadway. This world famous bar is a favorite of the leather and bear community. The relatively new patio sports one of the loveliest live trees in downtown Denver, a thriving cottonwood which doesn't seem to mind an occasional watering from the tap after the Sunday beer busts. The "T" has been around 17 years and is probably still the hottest place in town. This bar kicks off the Fourth of July holiday with a beer bust for GFR, (Golden Fleece Run) held by the Rocky Mountaineers, a bike club, which is attended by hundreds of men from all over the world. The 3-4 day run is held high up in the Rockies and is quite an experience.

Other bars in the area include Dicks, 2101 Champa, a big place, actually 3 bars, one with a huge dance floor. This place caters to the cowboy, leather, and bear types, too. Further down 21st Street is the Club Tower, 2151 Lawrence, with a dance floor and patio, not necessarily known for bearish happenings or patrons, but adjacent to this complex is a refreshing health club-gym-sauna with some delightful equipment.

Of course there are numerous other bars and such in Denver. This is just a partial list which would most interest bearish types. When in Denver pick up a copy of Out Front, the biweekly rag with reports of current events and listings for all the places in town. It's distributed in all the bars as well as the Crypt, 2222 N. Broadway, a good place for accoutrement and men's magazines. BEAR Magazine can be picked up at Category Six Bookstore (1029 E. 11th Ave.) and D/S Leathers (824 21st St.), two fine Denver establishments.

Denver's a fun town, and the people are friendly and sociable. It's a nice place to visit, and for 30 years of my existence was a great place to live. Check it out and tell them Congo sent you.

Upper right: Sunday at the Triangle. Other shots from the Golden Fleece Run.

If the men featured on these two pages are the types that turn you on, then you might want to give Altomar Video a try. Lots of fetish material enter into their films as well as your standard pumping, grinding and squirting. Their latest movie is Skinner Jack's, a JO film. Max Montoya (opposite page) is featured with a Mohawk haircut in it.

Their preview tape is $25 plus $3 shipping. I've seen it and it's hot. 45 minutes and you get a $5 discount on your first purchase.

LUBE

A Bear-On-The-Street Survey

By Steve Dambach

The last thing you wanna hear when you've got your tool all covered and slicked up for a full session of ass-play is "whoa!" But before you stick that hot throbber into your buddy's furry hole, you might want to check if he's got a preference. Some guys don't like just any old lube.

In fact, as a result of a truly biased survey of bears in San Francisco during Gay Pride week, the truth came out that most hairy guys are fucking connoisseurs when it comes to what they'll let you slick up their butts with.

This whole survey thing started as a casual thought one afternoon shooting ideas around Bear's new office. One minute I'm talking about how I used to use shampoo as beat-off lube before I knew better and the next thing I know I'm fucking across town lining up bottles of lube on the counter at the Jaguar bookstore and trying them all like a lady picking out perfume, all in the name of research. I was also getting to meat, I mean meet some of the biggest and furriest mountain men in San Francisco. Raw red heads, biker studs, artists and renegades were all happy to contribute by answering my questions once they knew it was for Bear. Shit, they were just happy to talk about sex.

Anyway, the more hairy beef I checked in with the better the results, so I took to the street, the bars, the parks, and even this year's Gay and Lesbian film festival to find out what's the best thing to rub up and off with, which lasts longer, and why.

The first thing I learned was to break the questions into anal and manual sex, since a lot of guys beat off with something different than what they put on a rubber. The clear choices for fucking were ForPlay and PROBE, and the arguments went back and forth as to which was better. Ultimately it's a personal choice, but most of the guys were at least well informed by their own research. Those who like PROBE had tried ForPlay and the other way around.

The big difference noticed was PROBE lasts longer without soaking into the skin. One application and some water added every once in a while is enough for the longest fuck parties. PROBE incidentally has a grapefruit juice base. However, some guys find it too sticky. ForPlay, on the other hand, is cleaner and has nonoxynol-9, a mild detergent that kills the AIDS virus, but needs to be reapplied more often. Also, ForPlay's personal size bottle is a problem to open once you're in play. Mine clogged. Then again, they do have a large bottle with a pump. Perfect for bedside.

So the choice is clean and safer versus easy and eternal. Take your pick.

If these don't grab you by the balls, another choice is Astroglide. According to Buzz Bense in Condom Sense newspaper, Astroglide is very similar to PROBE but less stringy, and both are great if you are allergic to nonoxynol-9 (which may have been cleaning your sheets for years since it's in Oxydol). Astroglide, however, costs well more than twice the price of most lubes.

In the same article, Bense rates KY as clinical; spermicide gels as about as

WHAT THEY SAID

Anything that doesn't eat rubber. PROBE lasts long. ForPlay burned my skin off. I washed it right off and still got a chemical burn. T.C. of T.C.'s Smudge.

PROBE is good. Sometimes I like hot lube (menthol). It surprises some guys when it heats up. Congo Moore of BEAR Magazine.

Nothing, I don't have sex any more. Anonymous, Badlands.

ForPlay. You don't get those nasty strings all over the room. Anonymous.

Nothing but baby oil. I used to use Abolene but it won't go away until you get to a sink and scrub it off with soap and water. Video artist Michael Goodwin in reference to jack-off cream.

Corn Starch. Anonymous.

KY for fucking and Vaseline for everything else. Al Parker, porn star and producer.

It depends on how slippery you want your sex. PROBE is slippery and lasts. ForPlay is fine. I switch off. For my ass toys I use whatever I want. Jim, Castro Street.

I used to use Elbow Grease when it was grease. It sounded butch. I kept using it until I found out it was one of the ones you're not supposed to use with rubbers. I don't like ForPlay because it sounds so Seventies heterosexual, so I use PROBE. Paul, sex writer.

Mouth. Counterperson, a San Francisco sex toystore.

Tried most of them and they're all about the same, wet and cold. I prefer Hot Elbow Grease gel. It sounds like oil but it's not. It's got nonoxynol-9 too. Steve Dambach, publisher.

Honey. It's always been my favorite. I used to have a buddy with an ass I could open up and just watch it pour in. Then we'd fuck. Nothin' like it. Bob, BEAR reader, My Place bar.

much fun as "rubber cement"; puts my favorite Elbow Grease Gel (regular and mentholated hot) in the same ballpark as ForPlay, PrePare and PROBE; and introduces the not widely available new age-ish Aloe-9 gel, which is a water based gel with the best of everything. Aloe-9 has good-for-you aloe vera and noroxynol-9. Now if we could just get our hands on it. (Ed. note: it can often be found in health and vitamins stores.)

I encountered some ignorance about rubbers and their disappearing qualities along the way from some guys who haven't been out of the cave much lately. Most knew that oil-based grease products like Vaseline and Crisco disintegrate condoms. A word to the wise: check the ingredients label on your lube if you're using it in combination with rubbers. Anything with "petro-" as a prefix causes rubber rot.

Rubbers and lube are coming out of the closet (or bottom shelves) at drug stores these days. Here's some places to even get them through the mail. As listed, some of these rubbers come from Japan. No one I talked to had tried them but I guess they are as good as their cars. I'd rather buy American.

PERSONAL AD USERS

1. Replying to a COA Box Number. Write your letter, put it in an envelope and seal it. On this envelope, put the fella's box number IN PENCIL where you'd normally put a stamp. Put this letter along with $1 in a larger envelope and mail to us. That's COA, 2215R Market #148, SF, CA 94114. We always forward letters if you've done what's called for here. If you mess up—and particularly if (a) you don't put your note inside another envelope, and/or (b) you don't include a buck—we throw your handiwork away.

2. Constructing your ad. When you write out your ad, keep this in mind: talk a bit about yourself and be real clear about the type of folks you'd like to meet through your ad. As much as possible, avoid telling us who you don't want to meet. No more of this "no fats, no feds, no Lithuanians" shit. How would you feel if you were a Lithuanian and you ran across this? Do a little thinking. Be positive. And if you aren't, I'll edit the fuck out of the ad and turn you in to more of a Pollyanna than you'd care to be.

3. Using the phone. If you're calling someone, keep in mind (a) time zone differences—if you don't know them look in the front of the White Pages in a phone book, and (b) that the guy on the other end may not be able to or may not want to talk to you at the time of your call. One of the first things out of your mouth might be "Is this a good time to talk?" This seems like common sense to me, but I wouldn't be bringing it up if we hadn't run into this problem.

4. Abusing the phone. Speaking of phone numbers, I hate 'em in ads because there's been so much abuse of the phone. But there've been lots of romances, friendships and good times initiated through bear contacts by phone. Any more abuse that I hear of and they're gone for good, so please be considerate. And if YOU have a phone number in your ad and you change your number, get in touch with us immediately. Of course the same goes for addresses too.

5. Cost and duration. The number in parentheses after an ad? That's the issue number when the ad will be pulled unless you renew it. Personal ads are free if you're a BEAR BUDDY for the duration of your sub. Otherwise, they're $.25/word for a two issue run. Wanna change your ad? Send in $5. Wanna discontinue your ad? Write in and we'll pull it. Regardless of the duration though, if we pull your ad you will have to pay to reinsert a new ad.

6. Deadlines for classifieds. For issue #10 it's September 20.

7. COA Box Numbers. They're free to US subscribers. Let me tell you, the number of responses you receive will probably be less than those you would get if you used your own address.

8. Personals vs. commercial ads. The personals (and their rate) can only be used for personal ads. If you are selling a product, offering a service, informing others of a club, organization or what-have-you, whether for profit or not-for-profit, the ad is considered commercial. You know as well as I do what a personal ad is and isn't.

9. We reserve the right to edit personals. This right is exercised for editorial consistency and for clarity almost exclusively.

10. We reserve the right to refuse any ad for any reason whatsoever.

SWEDEN

Two bearded men in Sweden (43, 179 cms., 80 kgs.; and 40, 190 cms, 97 kgs.) want to get in contact with big, hairy men, 40 or older, any color, any nationality for friendship and pleasure. Write to M. Agren & A. Larsson, Larsbergsvagen 44, S-18138 Lidingo, SWEDEN. (12)

MASSAGE

A timberline terror at 6'2", 229 lbs., 27. Blond hair, blue-eyed, stubble-bearded, hairy man. Certified masseur's massage can range from sensually erotic to muscle-wrenching. It just depends on what you want. 24 hours. Mark. (415) 826-5452.

GRAY GRIZZLY. This mountain animal gives sensual pleasure to cubs or other grizzlies. Rugged, hairy, bearded, brawny and gives an erotic arousing massage. Tired of hibernating? Give this daddy a try. 24 hours. Andy. (415) 826-5452.

SUBSCRIBE TO IT!

Give yourself a treat boys. Subscribe to the sucker, save some money, and feel assured that you won't miss an issue.

A measly 26 bucks brings you six shots of BEAR. You want more? Join Bear Buddies for $69 and get 12 issues, a free 50-word personal ad, a 10% discount on all COA orders and who know what else.

Want a personal ad in BEAR? Two bits a word for two issues. As long as you don't mention the selling of drugs, personal whoring tendencies, dog dick sucking, or kids, we'll print it. Wanna show yourself off? Send in a clear snap with "Released to COA" on it. We'll send you a release form and probably run your picture for an issue or two.

Questions? Drop us a line or give us a call. Our phone number is (415) 552-1506 and we're here Monday thru Friday from 10a.m. to 6p.m.
